Phrasal Verbs Made Easy PDF Capsule 11 – Make

Kevin: This happens every time!

Roger: What happened?

Kevin: Christie and I fought again.

Roger: Ha ha, that's not something new! What happened this time?

Kevin: Leave it. We will make up for it, as usual.

Make up for

Meaning: Compensate for something lost, missed, or deficient.

Roger: Great! Provide something good and forget the negativity.

Kevin: What?! Why are you suddenly so philosophical?

Roger: You just said you would make up for...

Kevin: So?

Roger: When you make up for it, you mean you compensate for it, right?

Kevin: No, I will apologize and we will be friends again. You know, an apology is the cheapest thing to save the most expensive gift called relationships!

Roger: Then, you must say 'make up', not make up for.

Make Up

Meaning: Be reconciled after a quarrel.

Kevin: Yes, we will make up for the fight. Right?

Roger: No, make up means to reconcile, make up after a fight. Make up for means to compensate, make up for the loss.

Kevin: Oh, then we will make it up soon :) A 'for' is a big thing, indeed!

Roger: Yes. You know what does 'make for' mean?

Make for

Meaning: Move or head towards

Kevin: Make for means to go directly toward someone or something. Like, he made for the Principal to complain against her.

Roger: Yes! One can remember this meaning using 'make way for Noddy' cartoon and its title song. Make way for: directly, without any hindrance, okay?

Kevin: Ha! Cool! So, how can one remember the meaning of 'make out' and 'make off'?

Make Out

Meaning: Deal with a situation, usually in a successful way.

Make Off

Meaning: Leave hurriedly, especially in order to avoid duty or punishment.

Roger: Make off means to leave quickly, usually in order to escape. And, make out means to deal with a situation, usually in a successful way. Let me think... Hmm... Make... Off... Make means create, off means distance. So, make off means to create a distance, to run away, to escape?

Kevin: See, with that tip, make out seems to means to leave quickly. Make... Out... Escape...

Roger: Okay, when life throws lemons at you make lemonade out of those lemons - that is, deal with life productively, okay?

Kevin: That's good.

Roger: Now, make off. Make off rhymes with ran off - to leave quickly. And, it's easy to remember: make off, ran off!

Kevin: That definitely works. Thank you, Roger.

Roger: You're welcome :)
