#2. How to Revise

Now that you know which topics carry more weightage, make it a point to excel all those topics before moving on to others.

1. Error Spotting & Fill in the Blanks

There will be 10 questions from each of these topics in the MTS exam, therefore you can expect questions worth 20 marks from both the topics. While fill in the blanks are both grammar and vocabulary based, Error Spotting usually tests your grammar. Here are the tips to tackle both these topics smartly:

2. Spellings and Synonyms & Antonyms

3 | P a g e

SSC CGL 2017

You can expect 12 questions from both these topics and 6 questions from each. This means these two topics will account for total 12 marks. From now onwards, you have to read everything more carefully, learn tricks to remember difficult words and practice questions on 'Spellings'. At the same time, you can enhance your knowledge of synonyms (same meaning) and antonyms (opposite meaning) words. Here are some tips and practice exercises for both:

- Spellings: Basic Quiz, Moderate Quiz

- Synonyms & Antonyms: Tips, Commonly asked Synonyms/Antonyms, Basic Quiz

General tips: Get in the habit of noting down any new word that you come across and finding its meaning, synonyms and antonyms.

3. One Word Substitution, Phrase Replacement/ Sentence Correction, Reading Comprehension

You can expect 5 Questions, of 15 marks from each of these topics. While RC can appear on any topic, the questions will be fact based in the passage's context. The RC can also contain vocabulary questions on commonly used words. So there is no avoiding learning new words! Basic, Moderate and Advanced Quiz for RC.

In Phrase Replacement questions, you will get a statement, a part of which will be underlined. You will need to pick the correct option to replace the underlined part. The error in the underlined part can be grammatical or vocabulary related. Here are a few quizzes that reflect the kind of questions you will get in the exam: Basic Quiz and Advanced Quiz for Phrase Replacement.

One word substitution means replacing a sentence with the correct word, which describes the sentence. E.g. One who does not believe in god is _____. Ans: Athiest. If you improve your vocabulary a little, you will be easily able to answer these questions.
