- 17. The logical and meaningful passage is "There were allegations that both Sarveswara Rao and Soma owned some benami quarries at Godda in Hukumpeta Mandal and at Araku and there were a lot of issues with the Girijans, who were demanding the closure of the mines as they were contaminating water sources. The Girijans had been in the agitation mode for the past three months and the Maoists had openly warned the duo."
- 18. The logical and meaningful passage is "Unfortunate nations have heard such rhetoric before, from regimes which present a minority as the foe within, which must be eliminated. Politically, The challenge is to neutralise the most powerful taboo, against the taking of human life, by constructing the minority as less than human. Conveniently, vermin do not have human rights. A consensus for their elimination can be developed with an easy conscience."
- 19. The logical and meaningful passage is "Aruna had come to live with her on her own volition on August 13, the petitioner said. The petitioner also pointed out that Aruna's father had then lodged a complaint with the police alleging that his daughter was missing. She was later produced before the Neyyattinaka Judicial First Class Magistrate who set her at liberty. However, while Aruna was coming out of the court, her father and his associates had forcibly taken her away."
- 20. The logical and meaningful passage is "There was a time when the voices

- of both Pakistan and India mattered on the world stage. Pakistan was a key member of the Western alliance system in Asia. Islamabad rightly saw itself as a pragmatic Islamic nation capable of exercising influence in the Middle East and acting as a bridge between America and China, which did not have diplomatic relations with each other."
