Hybrid Sublicense ⁷	$500 + License Fee

¹Per certification; no discount for combining Commercial and Home certifications.

²New Home certification can be added at time of Commercial recertification (+$1,500). No discount, but timing advantage.

³Pro-rated to Annual License Fee date.

⁴No fee, but each sublicensed certificate counts toward the sublicensee company's total number of certificates held and can trigger an additional licensing fee(s).

⁵Annual fee per sublicense. Either the licensee or non-licensee may pay the fee. The fee is pro-rated based on the licensee's Annual License Fee date.

⁶Licensees paying for more than five sublicenses pay a discounted annual rate of $250, rather than $500, per sublicense for the sixth and above sublicenses. This discounted rate may not be paid by the non-licensee. The fee is pro-rated based on the licensee's Annual License Fee date.

⁷A hybrid sublicense allows a sublicensee to add printing ink to their licensee's certified formulation to print either a time/date stamp or the BPI Certification Mark on a sublicensed product. It can also be used to assemble a certified item at the sublicensee's facility from components sourced from the licensee, as specified in Section 12.A.C. of the BPI Certification Scheme. Either the licensee or sublicensee may pay this fee. The sublicensee must hold a BPI License to execute a hybrid sublicense.
