

Comprehensive Healthcare Services at City Medical Centre: Your Trusted Cork Medical Centre on Patrick Street

When it comes to prioritising your health and wellbeing, having a reliable, professional, and accessible medical facility is essential. Located in the heart of the city, City Medical Centre stands as a beacon of comprehensive care for individuals and families across Cork. As a leading Cork medical centre on Patrick Street, we offer a broad range of healthcare services designed to meet the diverse needs of our patients.

City Medical Centre is more than just a general practice — it is a community-driven clinic that caters to every stage of life. Whether you're seeking regular check-ups, specialised consultations, or urgent care, our team of experienced GPs and healthcare professionals are here to ensure you receive the attention and treatment you need with compassion and expertise.

A Trusted Sexual Health Clinic in Cork

One of the core pillars of our service is providing confidential and supportive sexual health services. As a fully-equipped Sexual Health Clinic in Cork, we offer testing, treatment, and counselling for a wide range of sexually transmitted infections (STIs), alongside advice on contraception and safe sexual practices. Our clinic understands the importance of privacy and discretion, and we strive to create a non-judgemental environment where every patient feels safe and respected.

Sexual health is a crucial aspect of overall wellbeing, and at City Medical Centre, we encourage both men and women to take proactive steps in managing their sexual health. With quick appointments and a friendly team, we aim to reduce the stigma often associated with visiting a sexual health clinic and make essential care easily accessible to everyone in Cork.

Comprehensive Women's Health Services

City Medical Centre is also recognised as a leading Women's Health Clinic in Cork, offering specialised services tailored to women's unique healthcare needs. From routine screenings such as smear tests and breast exams to fertility consultations, menopause support, and pregnancy-related care, our clinic provides a full spectrum of women's health services under one roof.

We understand the sensitive nature of many women's health issues and are committed to providing a supportive and caring environment. Our female practitioners are available for those who prefer to discuss their concerns with a woman doctor, ensuring comfort and confidence during appointments.

Accessible, Convenient, and Patient-Focused

What sets City Medical Centre apart is our convenient central location on Patrick Street, making it easier than ever for patients across Cork to access high-quality medical services. As a top-rated Cork Medical Centre on Patrick Street, we offer flexible appointment options including walk-ins, same-day appointments, and telehealth services for added convenience.

Our patient-first approach is rooted in clear communication, timely care, and ongoing support. We believe in building long-term relationships with our patients, guiding them through every step of their healthcare journey with empathy and professionalism.

Visit City Medical Centre Today

If you're searching for a Cork medical centre on Patrick Street that prioritises excellence in patient care, look no further than City Medical Centre. Whether you're in need of a trusted sexual health clinic in Cork or a dedicated women's health clinic in Cork, our team is here to provide the care you deserve.

Book your appointment today and experience comprehensive, compassionate healthcare at City Medical Centre — Cork's trusted name in medical care.