INSIDE THE LIONS

• LMU opened the 2013-14 season playing nine of its first 10 games away from home, and they start WCC play in a similar fashion. After running their home winning streak to five games to start conference play, the Lions will conclude a stretch of four straight away from Gersten Pavilion, playing seven of nine on the road. LMU is 10-7 on the season and 2-3 in WCC play after falling at San Diego, 74-67, on Thursday. The 5-0 start at home equals the best start at Gersten Pavilion since winning the first five in 2006-07.

• Senior Anthony Ireland continues to pace the Lions in all areas of the floor, setting a career-high with 34 points against Santa Clara and then setting the LMU record for career starts with his 110th against San Diego on Jan. 9, just the fourth player to start more than 100 in his career. Against SCU he scored 27 points after halftime and finished 12-for-22 from the field, 10-for-12 from the free throw line while adding seven assists, three rebounds and a steal. He went for 18 against San Diego, hitting 6-for-10 from the field. He is 18-for-32 (56.2 percent) from the field in the last two games. It was his third career game with 30 or more points and his 38th 20-point game. With 324 points (which is ranked 14th nationally as of Jan. 5), 92 assists (13th nationally as of Jan. 5) and 28 steals in 2013-14, Ireland moved ahead of Jim Haderlein for seventh all-time in LMU history with 1,900 career points. He also moved to fourth with 476 career assists and tied with Bo Kimble for sixth with 175 career steals.

IRELAND CLIMBING UP:

Career Points:
6. 1922 Jeff Fryer (112 games) - 1986-90
7. 1900 Anthony Ireland (109g) - 2010-13
8. 1706 Jim Haderlein (76 games) - 1968-71

Career Assists:
3. 506 Jim Williamson - 1993-97
4. 476 Anthony Ireland - 2010-13

Career Steals:
6. 175 Bo Kimble - 1987-90
175 Anthony Ireland - 2010-13

• The Lions hit 84.6 percent from the free throw line (22-26) at San Francisco on Jan. 2, hitting better than 71 percent in a game 13 times season (going 11-for-15 against USD for 73.3 percent on Thursday). They are second behind Pacific in the WCC overall hitting 76.6 percent on the season, and as of Jan. 5 the Lions ranked 9th in the nation. Free throws played a key role in the last two games as the Lions shot below 78 percent for the first time in five games in the overtime setback to Santa Clara, going 13-for-19 (68.4 percent), while Santa Clara went 24-for-27 (88.9 percent), hitting 22 of 23 in the second half and overtime. San Diego hit 20 of 22 free throws in the second half to overcome a halftime deficit and finished 23-for-29 (79.3%) for the game.

• The Lions have had double-digit offensive rebounds in 14 of the 17 games on the season and lead the West Coast Conference with 13.4 per game. They went for 13 offensive boards in outrebounding Santa Clara 41-36 Saturday. The Lions had a season-high 20 offensive rebounds good for 23 second chance points in the win over UC Riverside. They equalled that total with 20 against La Sierra, going for a season-high 25 second chance points. Against Long Beach State the Lions had 19 offensive boards and held a 45-30 edge on the glass. They used five of their 19 offensive rebounds in the final minute to get the win at LBSU. Freshman Gabe Levin is third overall in rebounding at 8.0 rpg, and is fourth in the WCC with 2.9 offensive rebounds per game.

ing just 12.24 turnovers per game this season and rank second in the WCC in turnover margin at +1.62. The Lions have averaged under 13 turnovers a game just twice in program history. They averaged just 12.97 in 2009-10 and set the record in 1983-84 at 11.98 per game.

• Freshman Evan Payne led the Lions with 27 points against BYU in the first meeting, posting his second straight career-high (24 points against La Sierra). The point total is tied for the fourth best by a freshman in LMU History. It is also the most ever by an LMU freshman in his first WCC game and the third-most by an LMU player in his conference debut. He added a team-high 16 in the win over San Diego on Dec. 30 and then 17 on Thursday. Payne now has 250 points on the season and is ranked 15th all-time for freshman scoring in a season. He has scored in double figures in 10 straight games heading into the BYU game, two shy of the freshman record set by teammate Gabe Levin, who went 12 straight to start the season.

• Freshman Gabe Levin went for his fourth double-double in his young career with 14 points and 14 rebounds at Pittsburgh and is one of just five freshman to have multiple double-doubles in their debut season, and his four so far this season is now tied for the most in program history (Kevin Young - 4 - '08-09; Orlando Johnson - 3 - '07-08; Andy Osborn - 3 - '01-02; Luther Philyaw - 2 - '72-73). He has grabbed 14 rebounds in a single game three times already this season. Heading into game two with BYU, Levin has 120 rebounds and is ranked ninth all-time for a freshman.

• Three Lions average double figures, led by senior Anthony Ireland at 19.1 ppg, ranking second in the WCC as of Jan. 10. The next two in double figures are freshman. Evan Payne is 11th in the WCC and second on the team with 14.7 ppg. Fellow freshman Gabe Levin is third on the team and 28th in the WCC at 11.4 ppg. Through 17 games, the Lions are averaging 77.6 points per game (5th in the WCC). The last time the Lions averaged over 75 points a game in a season was in 2009-10 at 75.8 ppg. They averaged 75.9 in 1998-99, 79.0 in 1993-94, and 91.1 in 1991-92. The all-time record is 122.4 ppg in that 1989-90 Elite Eight season.

• Heading into the trip to Provo, Utah, Head Coach Max Good announced that freshman guard Nino Jackson, who has been out since suffering a severe ankle sprain before the game against UC Riverside on Dec. 2, has informed the coaching staff that he will be taking an indefinite leave of absence to tend to personal matters in Oklahoma. "Nino is tending to some personal matters back in Oklahoma and we are here to help him any way we can."

LOS ANGELES - Dec. 28, 2013 - West Coast Conference play opened the 2013-14 campaign with two of the more explosive offenses going toe-to-toe in the WCC Game of the Week. It was the Lions' defense that helped the Lions post an 87-76 win over BYU n Saturday afternoon at Gersten Pavilion. The Lions got a game-high 27 points from freshman Evan Payne and held the top scorer in the WCC to half his average. Payne hit a career-best five three-pointers to post the fourth best scoring performance by a freshman in LMU history. He was joined by senior Anthony Ireland with 14 points, nine assists and five rebounds. Freshman Gabe Levin added 12 points and seven rebounds while sophomore C.J. Blackwell had 11. The Lions held Tyler Haws, who entered averaging 23.2 per game to lead the WCC, to just 11 points on 4-for-15 shooting. The Cougars were led by Kyle Collinsworth with 18. LMU held BYU to 13 points below their league leading average of 89.2 as a team. The Lions posted a 17-2 run over four minutes to go up 14, 21-7 with 13:05 to play. LMU would never trail by less than 10 the rest of the way. BYU finished hitting 44.4 percent from the field compared to 42 percent for the Lions. However, LMU's defense held BYU to 3-for-10 from the three-point line, while the Lions went 8-for-17.

THE MATCH-UP

The Lions will complete the regular season series with BYU just three weeks into the young conference campaign, finishing a four-game road swing on Saturday. The Lions fell to San Diego 74-67 on Thursday, with Anthony Ireland leading the Lions with 18 points on 6-for-10 shooting. Ireland fouled out for just the third time in his career and USD hit 20-of-22 free throws in the second half to erase an halftime deficit. Tyler Haws' season-high 35 points led BYU to an 84-72 victory over Pepperdine on Thursday. Kyle Collinsworth nearly had a triple-double with 15 points, 10 rebounds and nine assists. This will be the 6th meeting for LMU against BYU under Head Coach Coach Max Hoop, who is 2-3 against the Cougars.

NOTES THROUGHOUT THE SEASON:

- Senior Alex Osborne has been a force on the glass of late, including a career-game against La Sierra, becoming the first Lion since Dec. 28, 2009 to have a game with at least 15 points and 15 rebounds. He had 20 points and 17 rebounds, grabbing eight offensive rebounds in going 8-for-10 from the field. He added two assists, two steals and a block. His eight offensive rebounds is the most since Kevin Young had eight in going for 16 points and 19 rebounds against New Mexico State in the last 15-15 game. Osborne led the Lions with 10 rebounds against Santa Clara and in the last six games he is averaging 8.0 rebounds per contest.
- The Lions traveled 15,843 miles in their first 10 games this season, playing just one home game on Nov. 17 against Northern Arizona. They are coming off a six-game road swing that took them more than 15,500 miles before returning home to play Cal Poly. It started with a 7,543-mile swing to the Virgin Islands and continued with the shortest leg of the road trip, a 144-mile round trip to UC Riverside. The trip to Pittsburgh took the team 4,298 miles before heading out for the 3,564-mile road trip to face Valparaiso on Dec. 14.

Ireland has not missed a game in his three-year career, playing in all 117 of the games LMU has played the last three-plus years, tied for second all-time and two shy of Terrell Lowery's all-time record of 119. He earned his 110th start at San Diego on Thursday, the most all-time in LMU history. He has done this while losing a tooth during a game, not missing a second in the process against Alaska-Anchorage; playing the season needing knee surgery as a junior; needing stitches in his lower lip during a game as a sophomore. He is at it again in 2013-14. As of Jan. 10, Ireland is second in the West Coast Conference in scoring (19.1 ppg), third in assists (5.4 apg), 12th in free throw percentage (82.8%), second in steals (1.6 spg), and fourth in minutes played (34.2 mpg). As the Lions' lone scoring threat in 2012-13, he was the target of opposing defenses who played aggressive against him, sending him to the line 203 times, ranked 12th all-time in LMU history. Entering the game against San Diego, Ireland ranks fifth with 430 free throws made, passing Hank Gathers with 10 against Santa Clara. Brandon Worthy (2002-07) is fourth with 437. Mike Yoest (1984-88) is the all-time leader with 561 made free throws. Ireland was named LMU's first NABC All-District selection as a sophomore and was a Lou Henson Preseason All-American and honorable mention Jesuit All-American in 2011-12. He was named preseason All-American again this preseason. Entering Jan. 4, Ireland has played 3,097 of a possible 3,440 minutes (90.2 percent) since his sophomore season. He led the Lions in scoring in 30 of 34 games last season and has done it in 12 of the 17 games this season, including the last three games.

• The Lions needed all 11 of their scholarship players in uniform against South Dakota State as they were called for 37 fouls, equalling the program record set on Feb. 9, 2001 against Nevada. South Dakota State finished 37-for-50 (74.0 percent) from the free throw line. The 37 made free throws equals an opponent's record against the Lions as Santa Clara hit 37 on Feb. 24, 2011. No Lion actually fouled out of the game as six Lions had four fouls. Against Northern Iowa, the Lions were called for 28 fouls, resulting in a 28-for-39 outing (71.8 percent) from the line for the Panthers.

• The Lions had three 20-point scorers in the win over South Dakota St., the first time that has happened since the record-setting LMU-USIU game on Jan. 5, 1991. They did it again against La Sierra. Against SDSU, Ben Dickinson had 22 points while Anthony Ireland and Gabe Levin had 20 points each. Against the Golden Eagles to end non-conference, Evan Payne had 24, Ireland had 21 and Osborne 20. Prior to this season, the last time it happened, the Lions set the NCAA record for points in a 186-140 win. Five Lions went for more than 20 points (Terrell Lowery - 34, Richard Petruska - 28, Chris Knight - 27, Rahim Harris - 24, Ross Richardson - 24). Against Northern Arizona, the Lions had a pair of players with double-doubles. Anthony Ireland had 18 points and 10 assists for his sixth career double-double while freshman Gabe Levin had his first with 15 points and 10 rebounds.

• Max Good, who is in his sixth season in 2013-14, enters the season fifth all-time in program history in wins (74 - as of 1/6/14), sixth in conference wins (23) and second in WCC tournament wins (6). Good led the Lions to a 21-13 mark and its second postseason appearance in three years in 2011-12, LMU's Centennial year. That season set standards going back to the Lions' Elite Eight team of 1989-90, including its first 20-win season, the most conference wins (11), most home wins (12), and the best road record (9-4), defeating a pair of ranked teams away from home (UCLA, Saint Mary's). The 21 wins was the fourth most in school history and the 11 WCC wins is tied with the 1967-68 team for the third most. The Lions won a pair of games in the postseason, the first postseason wins since that Elite Eight team. Good was named WCC Coach of the Year following the Lions' success that season.

• The 2012-13 season saw men's basketball claim the most WCC All-Academic Selections (Ashley Hamilton, Ayodeji Egbeyemi, Taylor Walker) in program history. During Coach Good's tenure, the Lions have graduated all 17 seniors who have completed their eligibility. Fifth-year senior Alex Osborne is the fourth Lion during Good's tenure to be working on his master's degree while still playing (Hamilton, Teel, Diederichs). He graduated with his Bachelor's in Economics in May of 2013 and is currently in the Master's of Education Studies program.

INTERNATIONAL CONNECTION

The Lions' roster in 2013-14 will have a strong international flavor that includes Nigeria natives Godwin Okonji and Ayodeji Egbeyemi, Marin Mornar from Croatia and newcomer Patson Siame, who is from Luanshya, Zambia. A big reason behind the Lions' international push has been Associate Head Coach Myke Scholl. Scholl, who holds a law degree from Maryland, has worked with basketball programs in the U.S. Virgin Islands, at the junior college level in northern California, with the South Africa National and Under-20 teams, the Senegal Men's National Team, with a professional team in South Africa and as a scout for the Detroit Pistons. Eight years prior to LMU, Scholl was the Director of Sports and International Programs for Miles and Associates International in Johannesburg, South Africa. He managed the creation and implementation of the largest HIV and AIDS prevention campaigns in the world called "Love Life," funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and the Kaiser Foundation. He was also active in the NBA's Basketball Without Borders program, and he established the first national high school basketball league in South Africa with 1,800 boys and 1,800 girls teams that included more than 42,000 participants. He also supervised the construction and development of 500 basketball courts throughout Africa, developed a high school basketball league and motivational program in South Africa, Zambia, Uganda and Kenya.

NEWEST LIONS

LMU men's basketball signed three high school standouts during the early signing period in November, receiving signed National Letters of Intent from Devin Wyatt, a 6-7 forward of De Soto High School in De Soto, Tex., Compton point guard Kyrion Cartwright and Westchester guard Elijah Stewart. All will join LMU in the fall of 2014. Wyatt helped anchor a power-house program in De Soto High School, helping the team all the way to the Class 5A Region quarterfinals. He was named first-team All-District as a junior. Cartwright, a 5-11 point guard, led Compton to a 20-11 record overall and a 9-3 mark in league play as a junior. He averaged 12 points and seven assists last year, earning First-Team All-Moore League honors and Daily Breeze All-Area honors. Stewart, a 6-5 combo guard/forward, helped the Comets go 29-7 record on the season and a 65-57 win over El Camino Real in the city championship. In the title game, he hit a pair of three-pointers and had 10 points. In the quarterfinals, he led the very balanced Comets with 16 points in the 74-41 win over Taft. The Comets advanced to the Open Division Regional Semifinals and Stewart went on to earn second-team All-Western League.

LIONS IN OT

LMU is 37-46 in overtime games after falling to Santa Clara in the first overtime game of 2013-14. The Lions went 2-1 in 2012-13, getting the second win in the second round win over USF. They went 4-0 in overtime in 2011-12, the first time in program history the Lions won four overtime games in a single season. The Lions are 9-4 in overtime games under Head Coach Max Good, defeating Idaho State twice, San Francisco and Weber State in 2011-12. The first overtime game in LMU history came in the 1926-27 season against California Christian College, a 16-14 win for the Lions. The longest game in LMU history was a five-overtime affair against Fresno State in 1957. The Lions lost 92-90.

AGAINST THE RANKED

For the first time since 1989, the Lions faced the nation's top-ranked team when they faced Gonzaga in the WCC semifinals. Fittingly, the last time the Lions had to face a No. 1 was actually in Las Vegas. In the historic 1989-90 season, LMU would open with preseason No. 1 UNLV on Nov. 15, 1989, falling 102-91. LMU has played a No. 1 (AP only) six times, five of them coming against conference foe San Francisco.

The Lions are 4-7 in their last 10 games against ranked opponents, falling to ranked Gonzaga three times in 2012-13. The Lions went 3-2 in 2011-12 against ranked opponents, earning a win at #16 Saint Mary's on Feb. 15. The five ranked opponents was the most since the 2008-09 season when they played five.

HEAD COACH MAX GOOD

Inside info:

- Sixth Season at LMU
- 74-105 at LMU
- 22nd Season overall
- 316-328 overall

LMU Head Coach Max Good, who officially took over the program as the 25th coach in school history on Jan. 12, 2009, continues to put the Lions in new levels of success.

In Good's fifth season, the Lions advanced to the semifinals of the WCC Championships thanks to three straight wins in three days. The Lions join Saint Mary's and Gonzaga as the only program to advance to the quarterfinals and beyond in each of the last four seasons.

The run in the 2013 WCC Championships was at the heels of Good's fourth season where LMU finished the 2011-12 season at 21-13 overall and 11-5 (4th) in the WCC. Many of the Lions' marks in LMU's Centennial Season go back to the 1989-90 Elite Team, including its first 20-win season, the most conference wins, first postseason win, first team to earn consecutive postseason wins, most home wins (12), and best road record (9-4).

In addition, the Lions have found success in the big games under Head Coach Good. The Lions are 4-5 against ranked opponents the last three seasons under Good, including a 3-2 mark in 2011-12. The three wins in one season against ranked opponents is second only to the 1989-90 team in program history. Good has led the Lions to a pair of wins (#9 Gonzaga, #23 Saint Louis) over ranked teams at home, the first coach to do so since Coach Donovan in 1961.

The success in the 2011-12 season earned Good the WCC Coach of the Year, the Lions first since 1995-96. After the 17 games of 2013-14, Good is 74-105 and has a career head coaching record of 316-328.

Good is no stranger to running a program. The 2013-14 season will be Good's 22nd as a head coach at the NCAA level, coaching eight seasons at Bryant College (2001-08) prior to joining LMU. He also coached at UNLV for one season (2000-01) and eight seasons at Eastern Kentucky University (1981-89). In addition, his impact hasn't been just at the college level as he was the head coach at the New England prep school Maine Central Institute in Pittsfield, Maine, for 10 seasons (1990-00). At MCI he compiled an impressive 275-30 (.902) record that included five New England Prep School Athletic Conference Championships.

Good coached 28 of the Lions' 31 games in the 2008-09 season, filling in for former Head Coach Bill Bayno, who served a leave of absence before resigning due to health issues. In Good's second season the team posted its second best turn-around in school history with 15 more wins than the year prior (which was also the second-best turn-around in the nation in 2009-10), defeated their first ranked opponent (#9 Gonzaga) since 1990, posted the program's first ranked-win at Gersten Pavilion, defeated a top-10 team for the second time in school history (the last being in 1960), and had three players earn postseason All-WCC honors, just the 10th time since 1956 three or more Lions have claimed WCC honors.

Prior to joining the Lions as an assistant, Good led Bryant University (Smithfield, RI) to new levels of success, posting a record of 132-86 in eight seasons. Good was named head coach in 2001 and inherited a program that had four straight losing seasons. The 2003-04 season saw Good lead the Bulldogs to a new level. They set a school-record with 23 wins, earning the school's first NCAA tournament berth in 24 years. They not only qualified, but advanced to the Sweet Sixteen. After a tough loss in the regional finals in just his third season, year four may go down as one of the best in Bryant's history, leading them to a 25-9 overall record and a trip to the NCAA Division II Championship, falling to Virginia Union in the title game, 63-58.

His extensive coaching background includes five seasons as the assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond (1976-81). He then was named the head coach and spent eight seasons at Eastern Kentucky from 1981-89. He compiled an overall record of 96-129 (.427) at EKU. He enjoyed his best season in 1986-87 with a 19-11 record as he was named the Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year. The next season his squad was 18-11.

Before arriving at Eastern Kentucky, he spent six seasons at Richmond Madison High School in Richmond, Ky. He served three seasons (1970-73) as the JV head coach and three seasons (1973-76) as the head coach.

Good graduated from EKU in 1969 and received a master's degree from his alma mater in 1970. He was introduced into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in Kingston, RI, for his time as coach at MCI in 2004 and was named the 2005 Words Unlimited Coach of the Year and Rhode Island Basketball Media Coach of the Year in 2008.
