MEET PREVIEW

PROVO, Utah – Returning home for the second home meet of the year, the BYU women's gymnastics team hosts Boise State on Saturday, Jan. 26 at 7 p.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse.

Last week BYU finished second with a 193.450 at the Texas Woman's Quad Meet but suffered a difficult blow to the team when freshman Madeline Nilsson suffered an ACL injury. Nilsson has a promising gymnastics future and is one of best vaulters on the team.

"Well its tough to lose her," head coach Brad Cattermole said. "It makes us have to scramble to put together a lineup but we have girls ready to come in and go."

With an injury early in the season the Cougars will need to look at the depth on the team to establish the best lineups going forward. BYU's strong freshman class will look to step up even more as the season goes on and the veterans will need to continue to lead by example.

The Cougars welcome the Broncos of Boise State who just came off a 194.875-191.250 victory over Utah State in their season opener.

Meanwhile, BYU can rely on its early experience with three meets under its belt to help them as the team prepares for another tough meet at home.

Opponent's Last Meet

BOISE, Idaho -- Boise State's gymnastics team began its 2013 season on a high note earning the school's best season opening score in a win over Utah State Friday (Jan. 18) night at Taco Bell Arena. The Broncos earned a team total of 194.875, topping the Aggies who scored 191.250. Boise State was led by seniors Brittany Potvin-Green, who won three titles, and Erin Wippermann, who earned her first career win.

Potvin-Green led the Broncos with wins on vault, floor exercise and the all-around, while Wippermann won a title on the uneven bars. The Broncos outscored the Aggies as a team on all three of the four events, tallying scores of 48.825 on vault, 48.725 on bars, 48.525 on beam and 48.80 on floor.

Potvin-Green captured her sixth career all-around title, moving her to a tie for seventh in all-time Bronco all-around titles. The senior earned a 38.875, best five other all-around competitors.

Leading a top-four sweep on vault, Potvin-Green earned a 9.825 score for her seventh career title on the event. With the win she moves to a tie for ninth in total vault wins at Boise State. Ciera Perkins finished close behind in second (9.80), while Kelsey Black placed third (9.775) and Amanda Otuafi came in fourth (9.750). Kelsey Morris notched a 9.675 placing sixth and Caitlin Mann earned a 9.425 to place 11th.

Wippermann recorded her first career win as a Bronco after improving her career-best score by nearly a full point. Wippermann won the uneven bars with a 9.825, followed by Black and Mann who tied for second with scores of 9.80 each. Morris tied for sixth (9.70), Potvin-Green placed eighth (9.60) and Perkins was ninth (9.025) to round out the Broncos' bars line-up.

Alessandra Cinfio led the Broncos on beam, tying for a second-place finish and a score of 9.80. Otuafi placed fifth, tying her career-best of 9.725, while Molly McFarland and Kelsey Morris tied for sixth (9.70). Potvin-Green (9.60) and Mann (9.525) rounded out the lineup, placing ninth and 10th, respectively.

In the final rotation the Broncos swept the top four spots again, led by Potvin-Green's 9.850 winning score. The win was her fourth career title in the event. Black scored a 9.80 to place second and Mann a 9.775 for third, followed by Perkins' 9.750 for fourth. Otuafi tied for sixth (9.625) and Morris placed 10th (9.425) in the final event of the night.

Utah State earned scores of 48.025 on vault, 47.10 on bars, 48.550 on beam and 47.575 on floor as a team. The Aggies earned a team victory, as well as their only individual title of the night on balance beam. JoAnna Cuba earned a 9.825, topping her nearest opponent by .025 for the win.

BYU's Last Meet

DENTON, Tex. (Jan. 19, 2013) – Newcomers and veterans came together to overcome some adversity and give the BYU women's gymnastics team a second-place finish with a 193.450 at the Texas Woman's Quad Meet on Saturday night from the Kitty Magee Arena in Denton, Tex.

Arizona won the meet with a 195.800 and had the top individual scorer in three out of four rotations. Texas Woman's came in third with a score of 191.475 and Wisconsin-Whitewater rounded out the scores with a 185.900

"We kind of fumbled the opening kickoff you could say but the team came back well from it," head coach Brad Cattermole said. "You have to mentally readjust and I thought we did a good job with that. I was happy with our bounce back tonight."

BYU started slow on the balance beam with some tough falls but sophomore Megan Bain stepped up with a 9.800 to lead the Cougars.

The team gained ground on the floor, with BYU's five scorers notching a 9.675 or better. Bain led the way again with a 9.800 and veteran senior Sarah Yandow Wensel scored a 9.775 to keep pace. Freshman Eliane Kulczyk scored 9.725 and junior Raquel Willman was right in the mix with a 9.700.

Kulczyk led the way on the vault with a 9.875. Fellow newcomer Makenzie Johnson scored a 9.800 and Wensel and senior Haylee Rollins both picked up 9.750 scores. Willman rounded out the Cougars' top five with a 9.700. The team took a tough blow when freshman Madeline Nilsson suffered a knee injury in the event.

"It's hard but you have to get used to it," Cattermole said. "People get hurt and you've got to be able to deal with it and keep going. It was kind of on a fluke thing but you've got to move on."

Willman and Rollins landed the team's top marks on the bars, scoring a 9.825 each, good for the top marks of any gymnast at the meet. Wensel and Bain also helped out with a 9.750 and 9.725, respectively. Willman finished third in the all-around competition with a 38.925.

"It was a good meet in terms of several outstanding performances despite Madeline getting hurt," Cattermole said. "We are hanging in there."
