Head Coach Rex Walters

Kansas '93

6th Season at USF (2008-Present)

Career Record..... 119-122 (8th season)
Overall Record at USF ..... 88-89 (6th season)
WCC Games..... 39-42 (6th season)

Now in his sixth season as head coach at the University of San Francisco, Rex Walters (Kansas '93) continues to put his mark on one of college basketball's most storied programs.

The former Kansas standout has guided the Dons to a 88-89 overall record, including a 20-14 mark in 2011-12, which was the program's first 20-win season since 1981-82. Included among his win total are three wins over perennial conference power Gonzaga. USF has also played in the postseason two of the last three seasons, reaching the quarterfinals of the Collegelnsider.com tournament in 2010-11 and earning a spot in the College Basketball Invitational in 2011-12.

A total of 12 USF players have earned West Coast Conference honors over the last five seasons, including six first-team selections.

Walters' "Let it Rip" brand of basketball has resulted in two of the top single-season scoring marks in school history, including an outburst of 2,536 points in 2011-12, a total that ranks third all-time. The Dons have also set single-season school records for three-pointers made each of the last three seasons under his guidance.

Prior to taking over the coaching duties at USF, Walters served as the head coach at Florida Atlantic for two seasons, guiding the Owls to a 31-33 overall record and a 18-18 mark in the Sun Belt Conference. Walters' first collegiate coaching position was as an assistant coach on Homer Drew's staff at Valparaiso (2003-05), where he helped the Hornets reach the NCAA Tournament in 2003-04.

A former standout player under Roy Williams at Kansas, Walters led the Jayhawks in scoring as a junior and senior as KU won back-to-back Big Eight titles, capped off by a trip to the 1993 Final Four. He was twice named to the All-Big Eight team and was named the Big Eight's Male Athlete of the Year as a senior in 1993.

He began his collegiate career at Northwestern, leading the Wildcats in scoring as a sophomore.

A first round selection by the New Jersey Nets in the 1993 NBA Draft, Walters played seven seasons in the NBA, including stints in New Jersey, Philadelphia and Miami. He also played professionally for two seasons with the Kansas City Knights.

A Bay Area native, Walters attended Piedmont Hills and Independence High Schools in San Jose, Calif.
