FRESNO STATE NOTES

EARLY SEASON TESTS

With a 57-47 record in the nonconference since joining the Mountain West, Fresno State will play seven of its 11 nonconference games away from home in 2021.

- The Bulldogs will play at least one Power 5 opponent (Cal), with the possibility of a second (Nebraska) along with four West Coast Conference opponents (BYU, San Diego, Saint Mary's, Portland).
- The four WCC teams were picked 1-3-5-7 in their preseason poll.

LOOKING BACK

Fresno State enters 2021 coming off an appearance in the 32-field WNIT. All eight 'Dogs who contributed to the team's 78-75 win over Missouri return this season.

- The Tigers were the highest RPI team in the field.
- It was Jaime White's first win over a SEC opponent.
- Fresno State will be looking to make its sixth postseason appearance under Jaime White (no postseason tournaments in 2020).

CREAM OF THE CROP

On Oct. 13, reigning Mountain West Player of the Year Haley Cavinder was tabbed as the preseason favorite to repeat at MW Player of the Year. Last season, the point guard became the first sophomore to win the MW's top honor since 2004, joining Kim Smith (Utah) and Linda Frolich (UNLV) as the only sophomores to accomplish the feat.

- Cavinder became the first player in league history to win Player of the Year the year after being named Freshman of the Year.
- Last season, Haley claimed three of Fresno State claimed a league-high five Player of the Week honors.

MID-MAJOR WATCH LIST

On Oct. 20, Haley Cavinder was selected as one of 25 players to the preseason watch list for the 2022 Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year Award. First awarded in 2020, this year's preseason watch list includes representatives from 22 schools and 13 conferences.

- Cavinder is the second Bulldog to earn a spot on the list in the past two seasons.

TWIN TERRORS RETURN

A problem in Year 1 for opponents, the Cavinder twins followed that up by going 1-3 in the Mountain West in scoring, averaging a combined 36.8 points per game in Year 2.

- Haley Cavinder and Hanna Cavinder are two of eight returning All-Mountain West players from a season ago.

ALMOST 1,000-POINT SISTERS

With 21 more points, Hanna Cavinder will join sister Haley in Fresno State's 1,000-point club.

- Haley was the 27th Bulldog to join the illustrious club, doing so against New Mexico March 9, 2021.

DOUBLE DOUBLES

With 10 career double-doubles, Haley Cavinder is tied for first in the category among active players in the Mountain West. She is joined by San Diego State's Mallory Adams. The two are four ahead of SDSU's Sophia Ramos and six up on UNLV's Desi-Rae Young.

NEW FACES

Fresno State welcomed six new faces to the program during the offseason, bring in transfers Amiee Book and Imani Lacy, along with freshmen Sydney Dethman, Jessica Peterson, Tamia Stricklin and Angela Whitfield.

Jaime White enters her eighth season as the head coach of the Fresno State women's basketball program. In her seven seasons with the Bulldogs, White has guided the 'Dogs to three 20-win seasons, five postseason appearances and four appearances in the Mountain West tournament championship game. White holds the fourth-highest win percentage in conference games in Mountain West history (.629, 86-40), a mark that leads all active coaches. Her overall .629 win percentage at Fresno State (141-83) ranks sixth all-best in conference history.

In a season that was shortened by nearly a month, and saw cancellations, postponements and program shutdowns across the country due to Covid-19, the 'Dogs successfully played 28 of its 30 scheduled games and avoided any program shutdowns during the pandemic while finishing with a 17-11 record (12-6 MW). Under unprecedented conditions, White guided the Bulldogs back to the postseason as one of 32 teams selected to the WNIT. The 'Dogs also returned to the MW Championship game, following an upset of top-seeded New Mexico in the semifinals. Fresno State's offensive production increased to 77.8 per game which ranked 13th in the nation, second-highest in program history. The Bulldogs' efficiency also moved up to 45.2 percent, 26th nationally, and fourth-best at all-time at Fresno State.

For the second consecutive year, Haley and Hanna Cavinder were named to the All-MW Team. Haley was tabbed as the conference's Player of the Year. It was the first time league history that a player had won the award a year after being selected Freshman of the Year.

White's sixth season in Fresno was a banner year as she guided the Bulldogs to a 25-7 record on the program's first MW regular season championship with a 16-2 record, and only third outright regular season conference title. The 'Dogs also reached their third MW championship game in five seasons. White's team won its first 15 games of league play, the second-longest win streak to open a season for Fresno State. The Bulldogs also won 14 consecutive games from Dec. 28-Feb. 15, a streak that is also second in the program's history. The wins added up as Fresno State averaged its highest scoring average (76.1 ppg) in more than 30 years and posted its second-best free-throw percentage (76.2%) behind only last season's school record. Limiting turnovers was key to the team's offense, breaking program records for assist-to-turnover ratio (1.30) and turnovers per game (12.1).

The Bulldogs racked up their most postseason honors in a season (9) as White was named Coach of the Year, Maddi Utti was selected Player of the Year and Haley Cavinder was tabbed Freshman of the Year. It was just the second time in conference history that a team claimed all three awards in the same season.

Led by Candice White in 2018-19, the senior paced the MW in scoring for the second season in a row with 18.4 points per game, the Bulldogs earned their third trip to the WNIT under White. The 'Dogs finished the year with a 19-13 record after placing fourth in the MW while reaching the semifinals of the conference tournament for the sixth time in their seven seasons in the league. Fresno State averaged 69.7 points per game, the highest during White's tenure. The Bulldogs' scoring was aided by the team shooting a program-record 78.4 percent from the free-throw line.

While Candice White earned her second All-MW selection in her final season, Maddi Utti garnered a honorable mention nod. The sophomore was also selected to the MW All-Defensive Team after being the only player in the league to rank in the top 10 in rebounds, blocks and steals.

With her youngest roster to date, White navigated the 2017-18 season by starting three true freshmen in 24 games, the most of any Division I team during a year in which they finished 17-15. Fresno State finished fourth in the league (11-7) to earn a first-round bye in the tournament for the fifth time in its six years in the conference. The 'Dogs returned to the postseason with a bid to the Women's Basketball Invitational where they captured the program's first postseason win in a true road game at CSU Bakersfield, 77-66.

Junior Candice White led the young group of Bulldogs as she garnered All-MW honors after leading the team in points, rebounds, assists and steals while being one of the most well-rounded players in the conference. She became just the second Fresno State player to score more than 600 points in season (605). Joining the junior with postseason accolades were freshmen Aly Gamez and Maddi Utti who were both named to the MW All-Freshman Team after being instant impact players for the Bulldogs as each ranked second or third on the team in points, rebounds, assists and steals.

Through an up-and-down 2016-17 season in which the 'Dogs finished 18-15, White's team came together late in the season to propel it to a run of three wins in three days at the MW Tournament to reach its second-straight championship game. Along the way, the Bulldogs became the first No. 7 seed to defeat a No. 2 seed, and the lowest seed to reach the championship game in tournament history.

The Bulldogs were led by two-time MW Defensive Player of the Year, Bego Faz Davalos, and a breakout season from sophomore guard Candice White who earned All-MW honorable mention honors. Faz Davalos ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in seven stat categories while breaking multiple season and career records at Fresno State and in the Mountain West. White ranked 15th in the NCAA in free-throw percentage and 37th in 3-point percentage. The sophomore's 87.7 percent from the free-throw line set the Fresno State single-season record while also moving into the top 10 in points in a season, 3's made in a season and career 3-point percentage.

White's 2016 squad went 22-12 overall and reached the second round of the WNIT with a 59-53 win over Santa Clara. It was the second consecutive season with a postseason victory for the Bulldogs, a first in the program's history.

A year after turning Fresno State into one of the top defensive teams in the Mountain West, White's defensive brand of basketball set a program low for opponent field-goal percentage (.371) and allowed 59.4 points per game, the team's lowest since 2006 and the third lowest in program history. A big piece to that was the shot blocking of Bego Faz Davalos who was named MW Defensive Player of the Year after leading the NCAA with 136 blocked shots.

Faz Davalos also garnered postseason All-MW honors along with Toni Smith who earned honorable mention accolades and Breanne Knishka who was selected to the MW All-Freshmen Team.

In her first season, White guided the 'Dogs to their seventh consecutive season of 20 or more wins (23) and to the postseason for the eighth consecutive year, reaching the second round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament. The team's 79-73 win over San Francisco at the Save Mart Center in the first round of the WNIT was the program's first postseason win since 2006. During the middle of the season, White's group recorded the second-longest win streak in Fresno State's history at 13 games, an unbeaten stretch that lasted nearly two months. The final win of that streak gave the 'Dogs a 17-3 record to open the season, a mark that ranks as the best 20-game start in school history.

It took White little time to put her stamp on the Bulldogs' defense as her squad was the only team in the conference to finish in the top two in the Mountain West in scoring defense, field goal percentage defense, 3-point percentage defense, blocks and steals during the conference season. The 'Dogs led the MW in scoring defense (55.8 ppg), 3-point defense (.259), block shots (5.7 bpg) and steals (12.3 spg).

Under White's tutelage, a trio of Bulldogs garnered a total of five postseason conference honors, with Alex Sheedy highlighting the group after being named Co-Player of the Year. Sheedy was subsequently also selected to the All-MW team. Fellow senior Raven Fox earned Sixth Player of the Year and was named to the All-Defensive Team. After breaking three conference records for blocked shots, Bego Faz Davalos earned a spot on the All-Freshman Team.

White was hired on April 16, 2014 to be the 10th head coach in the history of the Fresno State women's basketball program, coming to the central valley after eight seasons as the head coach at Northern Colorado, where in her time in Greeley she built the Bears from the ground up into a team that made postseason play in three out of the last four years. She was the 2010-11 Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year and is the winningest head coach in Northern Colorado history. After helping NC transition from Division II to Division I, White led Northern Colorado to a 72-54 record in her last four seasons and tallied 117 wins overall.
