OF NOTE

- This will be the first football meeting between Georgia Southern and BYU.
- The Cougars will be the first team from the state of Utah that the Eagles have ever played.
- After hosting No. 21 Coastal Carolina on Nov. 6, the Eagles now welcome No. 14 BYU to Paulson Stadium. The Cougars become the highest ranked FBS team to come Statesboro, surpassing CCU from two weeks ago.
- BYU becomes the sixth different current FBS independent team the Eagles have played in their modern era. They are 5-1 against New Mexico State, 3-1 against Liberty, 1-0 against UConn, 2-2 against UMass and 0-1 against Army West Point.
- Twenty-three seniors will be honored before the game. This group has won 28 games and a pair of bowl games over the past three-plus seasons.

COUNTDOWN TO KICKOFF

- 10 Only 10 players have started all 10 games this season for Georgia Southern.
- 9 The Eagle defense tallied nine tackles for loss in the win last week at Texas State.
- 8 Georgia Southern has played eight previous game against ranked opponents as a member of the FBS, winning two of them (#25 App State in 2018, at #21 App State in 2019).
- 7 Seven players on Georgia Southern's roster have scored at least one non-offensive touchdown in college after Tyrell Davis returned a blocked punt for a score at Texas State.
- 6 Senior running back Logan Wright leads the Eagles with six rushing touchdowns. BYU's Tyler Allgeier is tied for the national lead with 17.
- 5 The Eagles have five players who have started at least 14 games in a row: offensive guard Aaron Dowdell (23), center Logan Langemeier (23), safety Anthony Wilson (21), defensive end Justin Ellis (14) and outside linebacker Benz Josue (14).
- 4 BYU will be the fourth team Georgia Southern has played this season that has been ranked at some point in 2021. Louisiana, Arkansas and Coastal Carolina have also been ranked this year.
- 3 Georgia Southern is looking to avoid its first three-game home losing streak since 2016.
- 2 This is the second straight year that BYU will play at a Sun Belt school. Last season, the Cougars and Coastal Carolina scheduled a game late in the season with the Chants winning in Conway, South Carolina.
- 1 After giving up 23 passing touchdowns in the first seven games of the season, the Eagle defense has given up just one passing touchdown over the past three games.

INTERIM COACH KEVIN WHITLEY

Former Georgia Southern All-American and professional player Kevin Whitley is in his third season as the cornerbacks coach after spending the previous decade as a highly successful high school coach in the Atlanta area. He was named the program's interim head coach on Sept. 26, 2021.

In 2020, Derrick Canteen tied for the FBS lead with six interceptions to earn Freshman All-America and first-team all-conference honors. In all, the cornerbacks combined for 122 tackles, eight interceptions and 20 pass break ups as the Eagles finished first in the country in total interceptions.

While new to the college coaching scene in 2019, Whitley brought a strong coaching resume to Statesboro as well as a familiarity to the Georgia Southern program. His senior-heavy group of Kindle Vildor, Monquavion Brinson and Jessie Liptrot combined for three interceptions and 22 pass break ups. Vildor was named a first-team all-conference selection and was taken in the fifth round of the NFL Draft while Brinson set a new conference record for career passes defended and a new school record for career pass break ups.

Most recently, Whitley compiled a 99-28 overall record with five region titles over 10 years at Stockbridge High School, four of which were in a row from 2014-2017. Stockbridge had never won a playoff game prior to his arrival.

In his final four seasons at SHS, he posted a combined 49-5 record (.907) with three regional titles and 18 all-state players. Stockbridge was 24-76 in the century's first decade but went 97-20 from 2010-2018. The improvement of 73 victories is by far the largest of any school in the state among schools that have fielded teams each year since 2000.

Prior to his decade at Stockbridge, Whitley coached at Creekside High for six seasons and led the Seminoles to three 10-win seasons. He posted an overall record of 52-16 with 10 all-state players, most notably Eric Berry, who was a two-time unanimous All-American at the University of Tennessee and was named to the NFL's Pro Bowl five times and first-team All-Pro three times.

Over 80 of his players continued on to play in college, including former GS and now Louisville safety Kenderick Duncan Jr. He also coached Ken Webster, a seventh-round pick of the New England Patriots in 2019, as well as future professional players Terrance Parks, Channing Crowder, Efre Hill, Joshua Holsey, Travis Harris, Sean Dillard and Rokevious Watkins.

He began his head coaching career at North Springs High, where he coached for two seasons. In 18 seasons as a high school head coach in Georgia, he compiled a record of 160-55 (.744), winning seven region championships. He coached five players named to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super 11, 39 players named all-state and he himself was named a region coach of the year eight times.

Whitley participated in the prestigious Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship in 2018 with the Seattle Seahawks. As part of the Walsh Fellowship, he was immersed with the Seahawks' coaching staff for two weeks during offseason training activities and mandatory minicamp.

A native of Decatur, Georgia, Whitley earned honorable mention All-America honors for GS in 1991 after posting 48 tackles, two interceptions and six pass break ups. Whitley was a four-year starter, helping lead the Eagles to two national championships.

He went on to play professionally for four years, signing a free agent contract in the NFL with the New England Patriots and later in the CFL for the Toronto Argonauts as a defensive back where he intercepted two passes in three seasons. He was named the Rookie of the Year for the Argonauts in 1993.

Whitley graduated from Georgia Southern in 1993 with a degree in business administration with an emphasis in marketing and his Master's in business education from West Georgia in 2000. He earned an educational specialist certification in leadership from Nova Southeastern in 2009.

Whitley and his wife, Star, have a daughter, Camryn, and a son, Avery.

NOTABLE STREAKS AND TRENDS ENTERING THE GAME

- The Eagles have a +39 turnover margin over the past 54 games, taking the ball away 90 times against just 51 turnovers.
- Georgia Southern has had a 100-yard rusher in 33 of its past 52 games.
- Since the start of the 2018 season, Georgia Southern has had 33 100-yard rushing performances, coming from nine different players. The nine different 100-yard rushers is the most in the conference during that span.
- GS has outrushed its opponent in 71 of the past 98 games dating back to the start of the 2014 season.
- Georgia Southern has forced at least one turnover in 40 of its past 52 games.
- Dating back to 2017, the Eagles have won 18 of their past 23 games when not committing a turnover.
- Dating back to 2014, the Eagles have won 32 of their past 45 games when winning the turnover battle.
- GS has won 28 of the past 35 games when winning the rushing battle.
- Dating back to Furman in 2013, Georgia Southern has lost its last 28 games when being outrushed. The last time the Eagles won a game while being outrushed was against The Citadel (14-12) in 2011.
- The Eagles have won 44 of the past 46 games when they've rushed for 300 yards or more.
- Georgia Southern has won 23 of its past 28 games when having a 100-yard rusher.
- The Eagles have won 63 consecutive games when rushing for at least 400 yards.
- In the modern era, GS is 242-18 when scoring 30 or more points, 105-142-1 when scoring less than 30 points. As a member of the FBS (since 2014), the Eagles are 36-4 when scoring 30 or more points, 17-39 when scoring less than 30 points.
- GS is 216-1 all-time when having a lead of 18 or more points at any point in the game. That lone loss came in 2005 when the Eagles led at Texas State 35-16 in the third quarter and lost 50-35.
- The Eagles are 210-33 in the modern era (since 1984) when winning the turnover battle in a game, 66-97-1 when losing it, and 70-29 when the margin is tied.
- Since 1984, Georgia Southern is 192-16 when allowing 17 points or less. The last time the Eagles lost a game when allowing less than 18 points was in 2013, a 16-14 loss to Furman at home. The current streak of victories when allowing 17 or less points is at 28.
- Georgia Southern has had five 500-yard rushing performances since joining the FBS in 2014. The rest of the league has combined for three 500-yard rushing games during that span.

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

- Fourteen Eagles are playing this season as college graduates.
- They are, in alphabetical order: Tre Allen, Darrell Baker Jr., Robb Bozeman, Todd Bradley-Glenn, D.J. Butler, Dexter Carter Jr., Aaron Dowdell, Lawrence Edwards, Benz Josue, Caleb Kelly, Brian Miller, Liam Ryan (NCU), Randy Wade Jr. and Logan Wright.
- Anthony Beck II, Justin Ellis, J.D. King, Logan Langemeier and Dillon Springer are on track to graduate in December and Derrick Canteen, Parker Devine, Jon Ferguson, Gabriel Howard, Will Lovett Jr. and NaJee Thompson are scheduled to graduate in May or summer of 2022.

SUPER SENIORS

- Eight Eagles took advantage of the NCAA's COVID-19 eligibility waiver and returned for an extra year of action: Darrell Baker Jr., Robb Bozeman, Todd Bradley-Glenn, Dexter Carter Jr., Aaron Dowdell, Lawrence Edwards, J.D. King and Randy Wade Jr.
- While Wade Jr. is the oldest player on the team (born April 20, 1997), Bradley-Glenn (born June 11, 1997) is the only one of the eight who played as a true freshman in 2016. He played in four games before hurting his knee in warmups prior to the game at Arkansas State.
- This year's freshman class was in the eighth grade when Bradley-Glenn took his first snaps as an Eagle in 2016.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN ALUMS ON STAFF

FAMILY TIES

- Receiver Dexter Carter Jr. is the son of Dexter Sr., who was a Florida State standout and San Francisco 49ers and New York Jets running back who won a Super Bowl with the 49ers.
- Sophomore tight end Beau Johnson's father, Charles, was a two-time All-Star catcher and World Series champion with the Florida Marlins and his brother, Brandon played wide receiver at Tennessee.
- Sophomore Verneal Henshaw Jr.'s sister Jasmine played basketball at Eastern Kentucky and his sister Tamara played basketball at South Florida.

THE KING IS BACK

- J.D. King transferred to Georgia Southern from Oklahoma State in January of 2019 and went through spring practice anticipating he'd have to sit out due to the NCAA transfer rule. His appeal was approved in time for the 2019 season, allowing him to play for the Eagles.
- After a slow start due to still learning the offense, King finished 2019 as the Eagles' second-leading rusher with 804 yards rushing and eight touchdowns. In 2020, he rushed for 625 yards and five touchdowns, including a career-high 196 yards at ULM on Oct. 3.
- Last season, he played in and started seven games before going down in the second quarter against Troy on Nov. 7 with a torn ACL in his left knee. He was second on the team in rushing despite missing the final six games, rushing for 625 yards and five touchdowns.
- An honorable mention All-Sun Belt Conference selection by the league and Pro Football Focus, the fifth year senior used the option to return in 2021 based on the NCAA COVID-19 eligibility ruling. He was brought back slowly after having some swelling in the repaired knee this preseason and returned to the field against Louisiana.
- He ran for 85 yards and a touchdown against Arkansas State.

SEASON-ENDING INJURIES

- The Georgia Southern defense has already lost four starters to injury, leaving coordinator Scot Sloan to plug and play with the next man up.
- Super senior Todd-Bradley Glenn (inside linebacker) suffered a torn biceps in the first preseason scrimmage and fellow inside linebacker Marques Watson-Trent tore his ACL in the opener against Gardner-Webb.
- Redshirt sophomore cornerback Derrick Canteen went down early in the FAU game and an MRI revealed a torn pectoral muscle that required surgery.
- Canteen finished 2020 with six interceptions, tying the school record and finishing tied for the national lead. He was named a Freshman All-American by both The Athletic and the FWAA, as well as a first-team All-Sun Belt corner by most outlets.
- According to Pro Football Focus, Canteen had the third-highest coverage grade among Group of 5 cornerbacks who played 50 percent of defensive snaps last season at an 80.8 and gave up just 32 receptions on 69 targets (46.4 percent, fourth best among G5 cornerbacks) with just two penalties.
- Starting cornerback NaJee Thompson suffered a severe ankle sprain against Coastal Carolina on Nov. 6 and had surgery that will keep him out the rest of the season.

B-MILLER

- Heading into the 2019 season, offensive lineman Brian Miller had earned preseason all-conference accolades from several magazines and was expected to be the anchor at right tackle for the Eagles.
- That all changed on Aug. 18 in the preseason when he suffered a dislocated right hip in a freak, non-contact injury at practice. He had surgery soon after to repair the hip and began a long road to recovery. There was doubt he would ever play again. But after a rigorous rehabilitation, which included work on a zero-gravity treadmill, Miller returned in 2020 and started six games for the Eagles.

- He was a nominee for the 2020 Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year, an award won by his teammate Drew Wilson in 2019.
- Last year, he played in 12 games, seeing action on 456 offensive snaps. He earned second-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors from Pro Football Focus and was named the Georgia Southern Comeback Athlete of the Year.
- The Savannah native came to Georgia Southern as a defensive lineman, but moved to the offensive side of the ball his redshirt season.
- In 2018, he started all 13 games in his first year on the line at right tackles and was on the field for 732 total plays (659 offensive, 73 special teams). He moved over to left tackle last season.
- Miller and his wife, Michelle, were married in 2019.

BECK BOMBS BECOMING THE NORM

- A 2021 Ray Guy Award candidate, junior punter Anthony Beck II averaged 42.51 yards on his 68 punts in 2019, a mark that ranks third in school history.
- He set a new career high in average at against Liberty in the Cure Bowl at 48.8 – a game that featured four punts that traveled 50 yards or more and four punts downed inside the 20-yard line.
- Beck II had a 74-yard punt in the 2019 opener at LSU and set a school record the most punts downed inside the 20-yard line with 24 last season.
- The Augusta Sports Council and the Ray Guy Award named him as the Ray Guy Award Punter of the Week for Week 9 games following his effort against Georgia State. He punted four times during that game for a total of 197 yards. His gross and net average was 49.25 due to him having no punts returned. Three of his punts ended up inside Georgia State’s 20-yard line and he had a long punt of 63 yards.
- While he still has two years to go, his performance so far has set his career average at No. 1 in school history.

THE WRIGHT STUFF

- Running back Logan Wright’s return to the field has been nothing short of remarkable after suffering a broken neck in 2019 against South Alabama. The redshirt senior from Jacksonville, Florida, started the first five games of 2019 before going down with a cervical fracture C2 on Oct. 3 in Mobile, Alabama.
- His final season totals were 52 carries for 294 yards and two touchdowns. He tallied 114 yards rushing on 15 carries against Maine to highlight his year. After an arduous rehab program, Wright returned to the field in 2020, but was fourth on the depth chart for the opener.
- Injuries and suspensions, combined with his strong play, vaulted him to the top of the depth chart and he made the most of his opportunity. He played in all 13 games, starting eight and was a second-team All-Sun Belt Conference selection by Pro Football Focus. Wright finished the season with 99 carries for 602 yards and four touchdowns and also caught eight passes for 121 yards and a score.
- Wright, a redshirt senior from Jacksonville who could return for a sixth year due to the COVID-19 eligibility ruling, is one of 15 Georgia Southern players on the roster who have graduated.
- He opened his 2021 season in grand fashion, rushing for a career-high 177 yards and a touchdown in the win over Gardner-Webb. He topped that against Arkansas State, rushing for 214 yards and two scores to earn Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Week. The rushing grade of 89.6 by PFF College was the highest in the FBS in Week 5 and his 91.8 overall offensive grade was the second-highest in the country by a running back.

JOSUE TRYING TO MAKE HIS FAMILY PROUD

- Outside linebacker Benz Josue didn’t take a normal route to playing college football. Born in Port au Prince, Haiti, his family moved to America when he was just a year old. He gravitated to the football field at an early age, but his parents had to work hard to provide for their children. Football was a way to get a college education for Josue.
- The youngest of five siblings, Josue credits his parents for instilling the work ethic to drive him to be successful on the field and in life.
- The redshirt senior (who could come back for a sixth year due to the COVID-19 ruling) from Lawrenceville graduated in May of 2021 with a degree in multimedia film and production and has also helped provide content

- Two other players on the squad were also born internationally: Darrell Baker Jr. - Panama and Jeremy Smith - Germany.

ALL OVER THE LINE

- Redshirt senior offensive lineman Caleb Kelly has been “Mr. Versatile” for the Eagles to the point where he could make history. It is believed based on available records that Kelly is the first player in Georgia Southern history to start at all five positions on the offensive line after he started the opening game at right tackle.
- He made the move to right tackle in the spring and is listed as the No. 1 right tackle for the Eagles.

TRUE FRESHMAN SEEING P.T. AT QB

- Cam Ransom is getting experience as a true freshman quarterback for the Eagles this fall after taking an unusual path to Statesboro.
- Ransom enrolled at Georgia Southern in the summer and has only been on campus since June. His first time seeing the Statesboro campus was when he reported to school as COVID-19 kept him from visiting Georgia Southern during the recruiting process.
- The Lakeland, Florida, native was rated as the No. 46 dual threat quarterback in the country by 247Sports Composite Rankings after throwing for 5,033 yards and 59 touchdowns in his high school career. The 6-3, 215-pounder also ran for 1,226 yards and 18 touchdowns.
- Ransom got the start at FAU in the second game of the season, becoming the first lefty quarterback to start for the Eagles since Kenny Robinson, who started 36 games over a four-year career from 1994-97. Ken Burnette is the only other lefty starter in program history, getting the nod in four games in 1987.

• Prior to the FAU start, the last true freshman to start a game at quarterback for the Eagles was Seth Shuman against Louisiana in 2016. He is now a pitcher in the Washington Nationals' minor league system.

• Ransom opened his collegiate career by completing the first seven passes, including a 19-yard touchdown on his first official play. He finished the game with 90 yards on 8-of-13 passing with a touchdown.

EAGLES DON'T BEAT EAGLES

• Over the past three seasons, Georgia Southern has been one of the least penalized teams in program history. In 2020, the Eagles set school records for fewest accepted penalties against (53) and penalty yards against (440).

• In the three previous full seasons, Georgia Southern has been penalized a combined 180 times (4.62 ppg) for 1,527 yards (39.2 ypg), the lowest three-season totals in program history.

• Three of the four lowest numbers in terms of penalties per game and penalty yards per game have come in the past three seasons.

RUSHING INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

• When Logan Wright (214 yards) and Jalen White (157 yards) ran wild against Arkansas State on Oct. 2, it marked a little bit of history. It marked just the eighth time in program history the Eagles had a 200-yard rusher and a 150-yard rusher in the same game.

- 2021: Arkansas State (Wright [214], White [157])
- 2015: Texas State (Breida [205], Fields [158])
- 2007: Coastal Carolina (Foster [253], Lewis [206])
- 2007: West Georgia (Foster [231], Lewis [150])
- 1999: Furman (Hill [219], Peterson [197])
- 1998: UMass (Hill [228], Peterson [161])
- 1998: Furman (Hill [219], Peterson [183])
- 1998: App State (Peterson [210], Hill [150])

• Logan Wright became just the sixth FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards or more in a game on 10 carries or less, joining some elite company:

- Ty Johnson (Maryland): 2016 vs. Purdue; 7-204
- Charles Sims (Houston): 2011 @ Tulane; 10-207
- Rashaad Penny (San Diego St.): 2016 @ Nevada; 10-208
- Logan Wright (GS): 2021 vs. Arkansas State; 10-214
- Travis Etienne (Clemson): 2019 vs. Wofford; 9-212
- Melvin Gordon (Wisconsin): 2012 vs. Nebraska; 9-216

THE FREAKS COME OUT AT NIGHT

• Since the early 2000s, Bruce Feldman of The Athletic spotlighted the biggest Freaks in college football around this time of year. The premise: Showcase guys who generate buzz inside their programs by displaying the rare physical abilities that wow even those who observe gifted athletes every day. Several Eagles were mentioned in this year's article.

• 36. Darrell Baker Jr., Georgia Southern, cornerback

He won the 2016 Georgia high school long jump state title, and his hops have only gotten more impressive. Baker, who was third-team All-Sun Belt in 2020, has vertical jumped 43 inches and done 10-11 in the broad jump. He's also clocked 4.41 in the 40 and timed a 4.18 in the shuttle. NFL scouts must be intrigued by that kind of athleticism in a 6-1, 199-pound frame with a 6-5 wingspan. You could make a strong case for two other Eagles on this team, running back J.D. King, who power cleans 415 pounds, broad jumps 10-10, verticals 38 inches and also has been known to walk around the football complex on his hands, or outside linebacker Randy Wade, a 6-1, 278-pound special teams demon with a 6-9 wingspan who has run a 4.74 40 and broad jumped 10 feet. Feldman later tweeted: "Baker is a stud. Can see why he's so intriguing. Ga. Southern, pound-for-pound so to speak, probably has as many freak athletes as anyone in FBS. Had 4 legit guys I could've included in this year's Top 100 with JD King and Randy Wade being the other two."

• 62. C.J. Wright, Georgia Southern, nose tackle

This is the kind of guy we made this list for almost 20 years ago. How many nose tackles can do standing backflips? This dude can. Wright, a second-team All-Sun Belt pick in 2020, played both ways in his first two seasons, including playing running back against Clemson in 2018, when he averaged 5 yards a carry against the Tigers. At 5-11, he's 278 pounds but has a 6-5 wingspan. He was a high school running back and won state titles in Georgia in both the shot put and the discus. He benches 475 pounds and squats 665. The strength staff won't allow him to go heavier. He power cleans 385. "He legitimately does freaky things on a daily basis," says Georgia Southern strength coach Matt Greenhalgh. "He's the twitchiest athlete I have been around in any weight room." Greenhalgh, who worked at South Carolina when the Gamecocks had Jadeveon Clowney, has good perspective on Wright's Freak credentials. "I would absolutely put him in the classification of having the ability to do the things that Clowney would do," Greenhalgh said. "Where I see him separate is his ability to move extremely heavy weight fast. The bar has more pop on it than anyone I have seen."

THE POWER OF PAULSON

• Georgia Southern holds one of the best home-field advantages in the FBS, posting a 205-45 record at Allen E. Paulson Stadium. That winning percentage is the third-best out of all currently used FBS stadiums, trailing only Alabama and Boise State.

• The Eagles are 28-8 all-time at Paulson Stadium when playing in front of 20,000 or more fans.

THE BIG GUY WEARING #0

• Senior nose tackle C.J. Wright was told he earned the #0 jersey early in the Gardner-Webb game week after a standout preseason. He becomes the second player in program history to wear the number as defensive end Raymond Johnson III wore it last year. Johnson III is now a rookie for the New York Giants.

• Thanks to a new NCAA rule allowing the number to be used, Georgia Southern has used the number to honor a senior defensive lineman who has become a leader for the Eagles and is doing things the right way on the field and in the classroom.

• Wright, who was a state champion in shot put and discus in high school, was signed as a nose tackle, but the Sylvania native has proven to be quite versatile on in his career. Wright, who's listed at 6-0, 285, has seen action on offense, defense and special teams in his career.

• He has tallied 18.5 tackles for loss in his career and has even carried the ball seven times for 10 yards with a long of 10 yards at Troy in 2019. He had a career-high 10 tackles at Army West Point in 2020.

THE SWISS AMARE KNIFE

• While listed as a receiver, Jones has seen action at running back, can line up as a punt returner and kick returner and could even be used at quarterback to get the ball in his hands. He got the start at quarterback in the opener and has seen action all over the field already.

rushing yards per game during his varsity career and was all over the field at Tulane. As a freshman in 2018, playing in now Georgia Southern offensive coordinator Doug Ruse's offense, he ranked second among all freshmen in The American Athletic Conference with 939 all-purpose yards. As a sophomore, he finished the year with 1,611 all-purpose yards, which ranks seventh in Tulane history all-time, fifth that season in the AAC and 22nd nationally.

• In the opener, he ran for 98 yards and threw for 45 yards in the win over Gardner-Webb. He had 90 yards receiving on just four catches at South Alabama.

100-YARD RUSHERS

• Since the start of the 2018 season, Georgia Southern has had 33 100-yard rushing performances, coming from nine different players. The nine different 100-yard rushers is the most in the conference during that span. Jalen White became the ninth player to hit the century mark when he ran for 157 yards against Arkansas State.

• Georgia Southern, App State and Army were the only FBS teams with five different players posting 100-yard rushing games last year: Gerald Green, J.D. King and Shai Werts, and Logan Wright and Wesley Kennedy III.

• In 2019, the Eagles led the FBS with six different 100-yard rushers.

MAKING THE MOST OF AN OPPORTUNITY

• Britton Williams made the most of his opportunity when incumbent kicker Alex Raynor was inactive for the season opener against Gardner-Webb. Williams, a true freshman from nearby Richmond Hill, made all three of his field goals, all three PATs, had two touchbacks on seven kickoffs and even added a tackle on kickoff coverage for good measure.

• Williams' first field goal was a 49-yarder, the longest first made field goal for a kicker in program history. For his efforts, he was voted Sun Belt Conference Special Teams Player of the Week.

• Williams was a preferred walk-on for the Eagles who committed in December of 2020. He was one of two true freshman walk-ons to earn starting nods for their team's season opener, joining Bowling Green's Cade Zimmerly, who started at center for the Falcons against Tennessee.

• With Raynor back, Williams has settled into the role of kickoff specialist for the Eagles, playing in every game thus far.

TRUE FROSH MANNING THE MIDDLE

• Eldrick Robinson II and Michael Edwards III are making history as the first pair of true freshmen to ever start at linebacker for Georgia Southern. The two were inserted into the starting line-up for the Louisiana game and haven't looked back.

• Robinson II, from Pensacola, Florida, recorded 248 tackles in three seasons of high school ball and signed with the Eagles in February. On the season, he has 61 tackles, including 5.5 for loss and 0.5 sacks, along with two interceptions and two pass breakups. He had 12 tackles and an interception at Texas State to earn Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week honors.

• Edwards III, from Trussville, Alabama, was ranked the No. 107 outside linebacker in the country by 247Sports Composite Rankings and signed with the Eagles in December of 2020. Edwards III has 44 tackles, including 5.5 for loss.

• Neither of the players enrolled at Georgia Southern until the summer and have moved into the starting lineup in just a few months.

ANOTHER STALLION IN THE STABLE

• Georgia Southern knew it was loaded at running back coming into the season as five guys were listed on the depth chart expected to see action. Logan Wright, J.D. King, Amare Jones and Gerald Green were all proven commodities at the college level, but another star may have been born in Jalen White.

- Patiently waiting his turn, White finally broke loose against Arkansas State, rushing 13 times for a career-high 167 yards and two scores.

- White, from Daleville, Alabama, was a first-team All-USA selection by USA Today after leading the nation in rushing yards as a senior. In just 11 games, he posted 3,517 rushing yards, which also set an Alabama state record and he also set a state single-game scoring record with eight touchdowns (all in the first half) against Barbour County. White was named to the state's Super-All State team, which compiles the top 12 football players from the state regardless of classification. As a senior, he carried the ball 217 times for a 16.2-yard average and 48 touchdowns and 14 2-point conversions.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN FOOTBALL TRADITIONS

- Georgia Southern has a rich tradition in the college football world, winning six Division I-AA national titles, but also has traditions that make the program unique.

BEAUTIFUL EAGLE CREEK

- When Georgia Southern resurrected the football program in 1981, traditions and spirit needed resurrection as well. So legendary head football coach Erk Russell created his own. Inspired by the gnat-infested drainage ditch that cut across the field between what was then the team's locker room and practice fields, Russell convinced his players that its stagnant water was actually "Beautiful Eagle Creek," a source of "magical" waters.

FREEDOM'S FLIGHT

- In what has become one of the most popular traditions at GS, "Freedom," a male American Bald Eagle, takes flight before each home football game. Freedom is a Southern Bald Eagle that was found knocked out of the nest in Maitland, Florida. Only weeks old and appearing like a "brown ball of fuzz," it was discovered that the young eagle had an injury to its beak and suffered from an infection. Rushed to the Florida Audubon Center for Birds of Prey, Freedom made a complete recovery from the infection but the injury to the beak was permanent, preventing his release into the wild.

- With the permission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, GS acquired Freedom in 2004. Through the Georgia Southern University Center for Wildlife Education and Lamar Q. Ball Jr. Raptor Center, thousands of visitors young and old are embraced by the Power of Freedom.

- Under the supervision of Steve Hein, Director of the Center for Wildlife Education, Freedom is on the sidelines of all GS home games, and select road games.

- Georgia Southern's athletics teams have adopted several names throughout history, but claimed "Eagles" by a campus vote in 1959.

YELLOW SCHOOL BUSES

- When the football program was resurrected in 1981, the team needed a way to travel to practices and games. Operating on a shoestring budget didn't allow for transportation back then, let alone any luxurious travel.

- The Bulloch County Board of Education stepped in with a deal the University couldn't refuse: GS would only pay $1 each for two yellow school buses. The football team still uses buses to this day, taking a lap around campus on game days.

ONE UNIVERSITY. THREE CAMPUSES.

- Georgia Southern has grown to three distinct campuses, serving the needs of one dynamic institution.
- The Statesboro Campus is 900 acres of Georgian-style, red-brick historic buildings and modern contemporary buildings set amid pines and oaks and home to around 20,000 students; the Armstrong Campus in Savannah (45 minutes to the east of Statesboro) is a 268-acre arboretum campus just minutes away from historic downtown Savannah and home to some 6,500 students; and a modern, state-of-the-art facility in Hinesville is geared for local and military-affiliated students.

RETIRED NUMBERS

- GS has retired two numbers in its football history, No. 3 for Adrian Peterson and No. 8 for Tracy Ham. Both are College Football Hall of Famers and both went to the same high school: Santa Fe in Alachua, Florida.

- Peterson, a 2017 CFB Hall of Fame Inductee, is the NCAA Division I all-time leading rusher with 6,559 yards in regular-season contests and was a four-time All-American. He led the Eagles to two national titles.

- Ham, a 2007 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee was also inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 2010. A first-team All-American in 1986, he led the Eagles to back-to-back I-AA National Championships.

- Both still work in the Georgia Southern Athletics Department: Ham as a Senior Associate AD for Administration and Peterson as the Director of Player Development for the football team.

SBC FOOTBALL 365

SBC Football 365 — the Sun Belt's around-the-clock source for all things football — will promote the conference's 10 football programs year-round through video and written content. The SBC Football 365 page on SunBeltSports.org includes a 24/7 video player, alongside stadium tours, condensed games, and game day central resources, such as game notes and where to watch links.

HELTON TABBED AS NEW COACH OF THE EAGLES

- Clay Helton, who led USC to a Rose Bowl title following the 2016 season and won a Pac-12 championship in 2017, was named the 11th full-time head coach in the Georgia Southern modern football era on Nov. 2 by Director of Athletics Jared Benko.

- The 49-year-old Helton went 46-24 (.657) as the head coach of the USC Trojans while leading them to three conference championship games and 12 victories over AP Top 25 teams, including three in the Top 5 and four in the Top 10. He went 5-1 in a pandemic-shortened 2020 season and was 8-5 in 2019 with wins over No. 23 Stanford and No. 10 Utah.

- Helton went 11-3 in 2017 with wins over No. 14 Stanford twice (including in the Pac-12 Championship Game) and No. 23 Arizona, and went 10-3 in 2016 with wins over No. 4 Washington, No. 5 Penn State in a legendary Rose Bowl thriller and No. 21 Colorado.

- His 2016 team won a heart-stopping Rose Bowl over Penn State and his Trojans won the Pac-12 championship in 2017.

- Helton and his wife, Angela, have three children: sons Reid and Turner and daughter Aubrey. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami, and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins), and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, was the quarterbacks coach and pass game coordinator at USC (2016-17) until becoming Tennessee's offensive coordinator in 2018 and is now the head coach at Western Kentucky.

- Helton will work in Statesboro to build his staff and begin recruiting, but will not begin on-field coaching duties until the season ends. Interim head coach Kevin Whitley will continue to coach the Eagles.

STATESBORO - Logan Wright ran 26 times for a career-high 177 yards and a touchdown, and Khadry Jackson sealed the win with a sack as Georgia Southern dug out a 30-25 football victory over Gardner-Webb at Paulson Stadium in the season opener for both teams.

Trailing by five points, Gardner-Webb got the ball at its own 30-yard line with 2:36 to play. Bailey Fisher, who finished the game with 315 passing yards and three touchdowns, completed two passes to help move the Bulldogs down to the Georgia Southern 29-yard line. The Eagle defense brought the pressure from there as Kierron Smith got to Fisher, and AJ Watkins broke up his pass attempt on first down. Watkins broke free for a 7-yard sack to set up 3rd and 17. Dillon Springer met Fisher for no gain as the quarterback tried to step up in the pocket, and Jackson got home for another sack on fourth down to give the ball back to the Eagles.

Amare Jones got the start at quarterback, ran 19 times for 98 yards and completed four passes for 45 yards. Gerald Green posted 72 yards and a touchdown on 11 carries, and Cam Ransom completed 8 of 13 passes for 90 yards and a score in his collegiate debut. Britton Williams made three field goals - including a 49-yard field goal on his first collegiate field goal attempt - and three extra points in his collegiate debut.

BOCA RATON, Fla. - N'Kosi Perry threw for 332 yards and four touchdowns, and FAU scored 38 unanswered points on its way to a 38-6 football win over Georgia Southern in non-conference action at FAU Stadium.

GS opened in fine fashion with a 95-yard touchdown drive capped by a 22-yard scoring run by Logan Wright. A missed PAT kept it at 6-0 as the Eagles drove deep again on their second drive. Sam Kenerson came in at quarterback in relief of the injured Cam Ransom and tried to follow his back through a hole and had the ball punched out, where the Owls' Jordan Helm recovered it at the 11.

FAU went on to score 38 straight points to take control of the contest. The dagger came on the Owls' first possession of the second half when Perry hit Ja'Quan Burton with a 50-yard touchdown pass and a 17-6 FAU lead.

Justin Birdsong finished with 10 tackles (eight solo) and a pass breakup to lead the Eagle defense, and Tyler Bride recorded six tackles, including three for loss, and two pass breakups.

FAU outgained Georgia Southern 528-254, and the Owls were 10 of 15 on third down. It was the ninth straight home win for the Owls.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - K.J. Jefferson completed 13 passes for 366 yards and three touchdowns, and Treyton Burks caught three balls for 127 yards and a score to lead No. 20 Arkansas to a 45-10 football win over Georgia Southern in D.W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Justin Tomlin, in his first action of the year, rushed for 65 yards and a touchdown and threw for 65 yards. Alex Raynor made his first field goal of the season. Randy Wade Jr. led the Eagles with seven tackles and made four solo stops.

With Georgia Southern trailing 21-0 midway through the second quarter, Tomlin avoided pressure on a blitz up the middle, eluded a tackle and bolted 76 yards for a touchdown, cutting the margin to 21-7. It was the longest play of the season for the Eagles, and prior to it, the Eagles had rushed for a total of four yards in the game. Alex Raynor's 32-yard field goal as the gun sounded made it 24-10 at halftime.

The Razorbacks outscored the Eagles 24-0 in the second half, hitting big scoring plays of 60 and 91 yards to pull away.

The Eagles fell to 1-14 all-time against SEC opponents. It was the first meeting on the gridiron between Arkansas and Georgia Southern.

STATESBORO - Levi Lewis threw for 249 yards and three touchdowns, and the Louisiana defense stopped Georgia Southern on fourth down with under a minute to play as the Ragin' Cajuns topped the Eagles 28-20 in both teams' Sun Belt Conference opener in Paulson Stadium.

Gerald Green rushed for 186 yards and three touchdowns, and Logan Wright caught four passes for 86 yards. Eldrick Robinson II tallied nine tackles, and Benz Josue finished with six tackles and a tackle for loss.

The Eagles trailed 28-13 in the fourth quarter when Green bounced out to the left, made a couple of tacklers miss by the sideline and took off for a 76-yard touchdown run. Trailing 28-20, Georgia Southern got the ball back on its own 27-yard line with 4:40 left in the contest after a big third-down stop by the defense. J.D. King picked up two yards on 4th-and-1 for the Eagles, and Justin Tomlin found Wright for a 26-yard pass that moved the ball to the Ragin' Cajun 33-yard line with just over a minute to go. After a Green 3-yard run on first down, Tomlin was sacked for an 8-yard loss on second down. With 15 yards to go for a first down, the redshirt junior was pressured on each of his next two pass attempts, which wound up incomplete, giving the ball back to Louisiana.

STATESBORO - Logan Wright ran 10 times for 214 yards and two touchdowns, and Georgia Southern rushed for 503 yards and seven touchdowns as the Eagles downed Arkansas State 59-33 for their first Sun Belt football win of the season in Paulson Stadium.

Jalen White had 13 carries for 157 yards and two touchdowns, and J.D. King ran 11 times for 85 yards and a touchdown. Justin Tomlin and Gerald Green both ran for touchdowns. The Georgia Southern defense intercepted four passes and recorded six sacks. Quin Williams, Tyrell Davis, Eldrick Robinson II and Najee Thompson had interceptions, and Williams returned his 22 yards for a touchdown.

Trailing 19-17 late in the first half, the Eagles scored 14 points in 1:32 of game time. Wright rushed for a 41-yard touchdown, and then Robinson II picked off a James Blackman pass and returned it 31 yards to the Red Wolves' 32-yard line. Three plays later, King ran for a 12-yard score, and Georgia Southern led 31-19 at halftime.

The Eagles recorded their first four takeaways of the season and scored 13 points off of the miscues, including a pick-6. It was the most points Georgia Southern has scored since a 69-31 win at Georgia State in 2014.

TROY, Ala. - A stout defensive effort by the Troy Trojans paced a 27-24 victory over Georgia Southern in Sun Belt action Saturday evening at Veterans Memorial Stadium.

Troy scored the first 10 points before the Eagles got on the board in the second quarter thanks to a short field goal from Alex Raynor. After the Eagles went 3-and-out to start the second half, Troy went right down the field and scored on a 26-yard pass from Gunnar Watson to Reggie Todd to make it 24-3. The Eagles came right back with their best drive of the game, scoring on a 1-yard run from Logan Wright halfway through the third quarter.

After a fumble recovery by Quin Williams, Khaleb Hood took the pitch from Tomlin down the right sideline 23 yards for a touchdown with just under 7 minutes left in the third quarter. The Eagle defense continued to play well and the offense started popping some big plays to chip away at the lead. Just two minutes into the fourth quarter, Alex Raynor drilled a 42-yard field goal to bring the Eagles to within three points at 24-21. After another stop from the defense, the Eagles drove down and tied it up on a 37-yard field goal from Raynor with 6:08 left.

The Eagles scored 21 straight points to tie up the game, but Troy picked off a Tomlin pass and converted it into a short field goal to take the lead back with 1:46 left to lock in the win.

MOBILE, Ala. - Jake Bentley threw for 389 yards and three touchdowns and ran for two scores to lead South Alabama to a 41-14 Sun Belt Conference football win over Georgia Southern in Thursday night action at Hancock Whitney Stadium.

Amare Jones caught four balls for 90 yards, and Logan Wright rushed 14 times for 60 yards. Alex Raynor kicked two field goals, and Justin Birdsong led the Eagle defense with seven tackles.

With the Jags leading 17-0, CJ Rias intercepted a Justin Tomlin pass at the GS 40-yard line. On the next play, Bentley found Jalen Tolbert, who finished with 11 receptions for 174 yards, for a 40-yard touchdown pass. The Eagles were held without a first down until midway through the second quarter, had five total yards on their first five drives and gave up 31 first-half points, the most they have allowed in a Sun Belt contest.

J.D. King got the Eagles on the board in the second quarter with a 2-yard touchdown run and Justin Tomlin's pass to Amare Jones gave the Eagles two more points. Raynor added two second-half field goals, from 44 yards and 34 yards, to account for the scoring.

It was South Alabama's first win against Georgia Southern as the Eagles fell to 7-1 all-time against the Jags.

STATESBORO - Jamyest Williams scored the game-winning touchdown on a 23-yard run with 26 seconds remaining to lift Georgia State to a 21-14 Sun Belt Conference football win over Georgia Southern in Paulson Stadium. After Georgia Southern tied the game 14-14 with 1:39 to play on a Logan Wright 9-yard run, Georgia State came right back with a 73-yard drive to retake the lead. Quarterback Darren Grainger ran four times for 33 yards before Williams, who finished with 97 yards, broke free up the middle for the game-winning score.

Justin Tomlin connected with Khaleb Hood for a 27-yard gain and then found Derwin Burgess Jr. over the middle for a 27-yard pickup down to the Panther 21-yard line, where Georgia Southern called timeout with two seconds to go. The Panthers brought on all-out blitz on the game's final play, and Jhi'Shawn Taylor got home to sack Tomlin and preserve the win.

Wright finished with 20 carries for 113 yards and a touchdown, and Tomlin threw for a career-high 279 yards and a score to go along with 32 rushing yards. Hood caught six balls for 107 yards. The Eagle defense forced a punt on the Panthers' first five possessions of the game and tallied seven tackles for loss and two sacks. The Eagle's other touchdown came on a 17-yard pass to Beau Johnson with 5:23 left in the first half.

STATESBORO - Sherhari Jones ran for 96 yards and a touchdown and No. 21 Coastal Carolina took advantage of four Georgia Southern turnovers and a blocked punt to notch a 28-8 Sun Belt Conference win over the Eagles in a relentless driving rainstorm in Allen E. Paulson Stadium.

After a scoreless first quarter, Coastal Carolina took advantage of two Eagle fumbles in Georgia Southern territory in the second frame to build a 14-0 lead. The backbreaker came when the Chanticleers blocked an Eagle punt and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown as the horn to end the first half sounded. With the clock running down, Alex Spillum broke free to block the punt, and Mason Shelton scooped it up at the 33-yard line and went the distance untouched as Coastal Carolina took a 21-0 lead into halftime.

Coastal Carolina delivered the knockout blow with a methodical 12-play, 92-yard scoring drive that erased 6:49 off the clock on its first possession of the third quarter. The Chants converted three third downs, and Jones capped it with a 7-yard touchdown run that extended the margin to 28-0.

Khaleb Hood caught five passes for 66 yards for Georgia Southern while Cam Ransom completed five passes for 63 yards and a touchdown.

SAN MARCOS, Texas - The Georgia Southern football team held off a pesky Texas State squad for a 38-30 Sun Belt win Saturday afternoon at Bobcat Stadium to snap a four-game losing streak.

The Eagles got on the board when their drive stalled in the red zone as Alex Raynor punched a 24-yard field goal through. Georgia Southern had a chance for more points early in the second quarter, but Raynor pushed a 48-yard field goal wide left. In the second quarter, Cam Ransom hit Derwin Burgess Jr. in stride for a 48-yard touchdown pass to give the Eagles a 17-7 lead. For Burgess Jr., it was his first career touchdown catch and it was the first touchdown catch not by an Eagle tight end this season.

In the third quarter, Burgess Jr. blocked a Texas State punt and it was returned 20 yards for a touchdown by Tyrell Davis to give the Eagles the lead back. Jalen White found paydirt for the second time, this time from 5-yards out with 5:30 left to give the Eagles an 11-point lead. The 'Cats drove down and took the field goal with 1:10 left to make it an eight-point game, but Khaleb Hood recovered the onside kick and the Eagles ran out the clock.

Burgess Jr. caught five passes for a career-high 134 yards and a score and also blocked a punt. Eldrick Robinson II led the defense with 12 tackles and an interception.
