The Last Dance

The 2023 season is BYU's 11th and final in the WCC, with a move to the Big 12 upcoming in July. The team has six top-three finishes and 31 All-Conference honors in the WCC era.

Strength of Schedule

Eight opponents are currently ranked in the ITA Collegiate Tennis Rankings (Boise State, Utah, Texas Tech, Oregon, Gonzaga, Stanford, San Diego, Pepperdine).

Double Trouble

BYU became the first school to have three different duos named WCC Doubles Team of the Week after Brigham Andrus and Redd Owen earned the award on March 21.

Touring the Conferences

The Stanford match is the conclusion of the nonconference schedule, which featured opponents from seven different conferences (Big 12, Big Sky, Big West, Mountain West, Pac-12, Southland, WAC).

Relying on Depth

BYU has used seven different singles and eight different doubles lineups this season.

Leading the Way

Mateo Vereau, the team's lone senior, is one doubles match away from 100 career appearances in both singles and doubles. Seven others at BYU have achieved the feat in the last 10 years.
