LIONS AT THE WCC TOURNAMENT

• The Lions advanced to the quarterfinals for the fifth straight year with a 67-64 win over Portland on Thursday in the opening round. The Lions have defeated the Pilots in three of the last four meetings to open the tournament. They improved to 6-2 against the Pilots in the tournament. In 2012-13, LMU men's basketball earned three straight wins at the WCC Championships to advance to the semifinals for the second time in four years. And with the win Thursday, only LMU, Gonzaga and Saint Mary's have gone to the quarterfinals and beyond in each of the last five WCC tournaments (BYU & Pacific excluded).

• More freshman marks for Evan Payne. Teammate and senior Anthony Ireland set the freshman record for points in the tournament with 24 against Santa Clara on Mar. 5, 2011. Ashley Hamilton had 23 on March 5, 2010 and Kevin Young had 20 on Mar. 6, 2009. Payne's 19 is tied for fourth on that list.

• Sophomore Nick Stover, who hit a lay-up with 30 seconds to play to break a 62-62 tie, finished with 14 points on Thursday, one off his career-high. He is beginning to call Las Vegas home. In five games in Vegas, he is averaging 8.6 ppg, 4.2 rpg while shooting 43.8 percent from the field and 78.6 percent from the charity stripe. In the 56 games away from Vegas, he averages 3.7 ppg, 1.4 rpg, and shoots 37 percent from the field and 69.7 percent from FT line.

• Senior Anthony Ireland had 14 points, eight rebounds and three steals on Thursday, giving him 133 points in his career in Las Vegas. It is ranked third all-time for points in the tournament. Bo Kimble is second with 145 and Hank Gathers the leader at 186. His 26 assists is second, two behind Corey Gaines, while his 20 steals is the all-time record.

• The Lions seven turnovers on Thursday was the lowest for the Lions in tournament history. They also forced Portland into 19 turnovers for a +12 turnover margin, second best for the Lions in the tournament. They used that to overcome a 12-point first half deficit and a 13-point second half deficit, outscoring Portland 28-3 in points off turnovers. The Lions reduced their turnover per game average to just 12, the second lowest in school history.

• LMU improved to 7-5 under Head Coach Max Good at the WCC tournament, the second most wins at the conference tournament.

INSIDE THE LIONS

• The final stretch of the record-setting four-year career of Anthony Ireland continues to put him in rare company within the history of LMU men's basketball. He continues to add to his legacy as one of the program's all-time best players, joining Hank Gathers and Forrest McKenzie as the only Lions to earn first-team All-Conference honors by the West Coast Conference three times. Ireland was selected first-team All-WCC for the third straight year, as announced with the release of the WCC postseason honors on Monday. While Ireland continues to add to his career numbers, LMU's season was also about the beginning of the careers of freshmen Gabe Levin and Evan Payne. The two newcomers were named to the five-team WCC All-Freshman team, adding postseason honors to their record-setting freshman seasons.

• Senior Anthony Ireland continues to cement himself even more in the LMU record books, not missing a game and not one day of practice in his three-year career. LMU has played 5,300 minutes since Ireland joined the program. He has played in 4,614 of them, making him the only Lion in LMU history with at least 2,000 career points, 500 career rebounds, 500 career assists and 150 career steals. He is the only active player in the NCAA to have hit those milestones. As of Mar. 2 he is second in the league at 18.5 ppg (61st nationally), second in assists at 5.45 (37th nationally) and second in steals at 1.68. As of Mar. 6, here is where he ranks all-time in LMU history:

- Total Points: 3rd (2,150)
- Field Goals Made: 5th (731)
- 3PT FGs Made: 4th (193)
- 3PT FG PCT: 21st (.345)

- Steals: 2nd (199)
- Games Played: 1st (131)
- Minutes: 1st (4,614)

• Freshman Evan Payne had 19 points against Portland, his freshman-record 25th double-digit scoring game of the season. He continues to add to his all-time freshman scoring record with 482 points. He has six 20-point games, equalling a record shared by three players. The 27 points he scored against SCU and in the first meeting against BYU is tied for the fourth best by a freshman in LMU History and his 25 is tied for ninth. The BYU game was the first of conference, making the point total the most ever by an LMU freshman in his first WCC game and the third-most by an LMU player in his conference debut. He is just the second freshman in LMU history to go over 400 and his 15.5 ppg is ranked eighth in the WCC and is on pace to set the LMU freshman record for ppg in a season. He is also ranked 8th in the WCC in free throw percentage (85.0%) and 9th in steals (1.35 spg), grabbing eight last week, getting four against both Santa Clara and San Francisco. His 42 steals are ranked fourth for a freshman at LMU.

• Freshman Gabe Levin went for his freshman record fifth double-double against Pacific on Jan. 23 with 12 points and 10 rebounds. He is one of just five freshmen to have multiple double-doubles in their debut season at LMU. He has grabbed 14 rebounds in a single game three times this season. With nine rebounds Thursday, Levin has 198 rebounds and is ranked second all-time for a freshman. In addition, he has 31 blocks on the year, ranking 13th in LMU history for blocks in a season by any player, and his 1.1 bpg is ranked 6th within the WCC this season. His rebound average of 7.1 is ranked ninth in the WCC and would also rank second for rebounds per game in a season for a freshman at LMU.

• The Lions shot 19-for-24 from the line Thursday and entered the week second behind Pacific in the WCC and 9th in the NCAA (as of Mar. 2) hitting 76.0 percent on the season from the free throw line. The all-time program record is 77.7 percent sent in the 2001-02 season.

• The Lions have had more turnovers than their opponents just seven times in 31 games this season, giving it away just seven times to open WCC play against the Cougars and then a season-low six in the win over Pacific on Jan. 23 (the fewest since five against Portland Jan. 12, 2013). They matched the season low with six against Pepperdine on Feb. 20. They had just seven against San Francisco to end the regular season and just seven more on Thursday. The Lions are averaging just 12.00 turnovers per game this season while leading the league in steals at 7.26 per game. LMU ranks second in the WCC in turnover margin at +1.97. The Lions have averaged under 13 turnovers a game just twice in program history. They averaged just 12.97 in 2009-10 and set the record in 1983-84 at 11.98 per game.

• LMU has stayed aggressive despite the depleted roster, heading into the week the Lions are one of the best in the WCC in getting And-1 opportunities. They are ranked second with 49 and-1 chances, second only to Saint Mary's 51 (basket and made free throw). Freshman Evan Payne leads the WCC in completing 16 And-1 chances. Anthony Ireland is fourth on that list with 12.

- While Ireland has been a mainstay in the Lions' line-up the last four seasons, playing short-handed is nothing new for the Lions in the six seasons under Head Coach Max Good. The Lions played just the second game in LMU history with just six players after Gabe Levin missed the game with a concussion. Junior Chase Flint, who had played in 42 games as a Lion with 24 starts, suffered a broken elbow against Portland on Jan. 16 and is out the rest of the season. He is the third former starter to be lost for the season in 2013-14 due to injury. Levin is expected to be back in the line-up for the WCC tournament. However, combined with freshman Patson Siame's year of residency, the Lions will play this weekend with just seven scholarship players. It has shown up the last four games for the Lions as Anthony Ireland had played 137 straight minutes before coming out due to foul trouble against USF. In addition, the Lions' opponents have held a 119-18 edge in points off the bench the last four contests of the regular season.
- Entering the WCC tournament, key players have missed 70 games this season due to injury, including Flint's 13 games, Godwin Okonji (leg suffered in car accident prior to practice on Oct. 20, see LMULions.com for more) for the entire season (31 games) and senior Ayodeji Egbeyemi (hip) the last 23 games. The two seniors will look to apply for a medical redshirt and the end of the season. Levin also missed two games with a shoulder injury at the end of non-conference. The Lions have had 10 starting line-ups this year, second only to Good's first season in 2008-09 for fewest line-ups. A year ago the Lions had 10 different starting line-ups as key players missed 30 games. In 2011-12 when they won 21 games, the Lions featured 11 starting line-ups but had key players miss just 25 games, the fewest in Good's tenure. In 2010-11 they had 15 line-ups with players missing 63 games. In 2009-10 in which the Lions had 18 wins, they had 10 line-ups with the second fewest missed games, 26. And in his first season, the Lions were down to six scholarship players at one point and key players missed 68 games. Other impacts on the roster

GAME 1 - LOS ANGELES - West Coast Conference play opened the 2013-14 campaign with two of the more explosive offenses going toe-to-toe in the WCC Game of the Week. It was the Lions' defense that helped the Lions post an 87-76 win over BYU on Saturday afternoon at Gersten Pavilion. The Lions got a game-high 27 points from freshman Evan Payne and held the top scorer in the WCC to half his average. Payne hit a career-best five three-pointers to post the fourth best scoring performance by a freshman in LMU history. He was joined by senior Anthony Ireland with 14 points, nine assists and five rebounds. Freshman Gabe Levin added 12 points and seven rebounds while sophomore C.J. Blackwell had 11. The Lions (9-4, 1-0) held Tyler Haws, who entered averaging 23.2 per game to lead the WCC, to just 11 points on 4-for-15 shooting. The Cougars (8-6, 0-1) were led by Kyle Collinsworth with 18. LMU held BYU to 10 points below their league leading average of 89.2 as a team. The Lions posted a 17-2 run over the next four minutes to go up 14, 21-7 with 13:05 to play. LMU would never trail by less than 10 the rest of the way. They would lead 48-33 at the break, and with the lead sitting at 12, 54-42, the Lions hit three straight three-pointers, two by Payne, to push the lead to 21, helping them improve to 4-0 at home this season.

GAME 2 - PROVO - A pair of second half runs, early second half foul trouble and a late scoring drought spoiled LMU's opportunity to steal one in Provo, as BYU pulled away late for a 91-68 victory at the Marriott Center on Saturday night. Anthony Ireland had 17 points while C.J. Blackwell added a season-high 15 for the Lions (10-8, 2-4), who shot 53 percent in the first half to take a lead as large as 10. However, the Cougars (11-7, 3-2) used a big second half push with 54 points to pull away thanks to 31 points by Tyler Haws. It was his second straight 30-point game. Kyle Collinsworth added 20 points, with Matt Carlino scoring 18 and Josh Sharp with 10. BYU held the Lions to 42.3 shooting in the second half, including just three field goals in the final 12 minutes. BYU, however, shot 63 percent in the second half, hitting 50.9 percent for the game. They also capitalized on a +22 edge from the charity stripe, hitting 30-for-38 (78.9 percent). The Lions finished 48.2 percent from the field and hit 8-for-14 from the free throw line. The Lions took a 10-point lead with 9:06 to play in the first half and led 38-37 at the break. Ireland's jumper just 45 seconds into the second half gave LMU a 42-37 lead. However, the Cougars went on a 10-0 run capped by a Nate Austin lay-in to take a 47-42 lead. That would set-up the Cougars final run. The Lions would get just three more field goals the rest of the way.

this season have included freshman Nino Jackson, who has been out after a severe ankle sprain prior to the game against UC Riverside on Dec. 2, withdrawing from the University and is no longer with the program due to personal reasons. Sophomore transfer Ben Dickinson missed the game on Jan. 18 against Gonzaga and also remains out indefinitely for personal reasons.

- Alex Osborne wraps up a blue-collar type career. He played in his 124th game against Portland in the WCC tournament, good for second all-time behind teammate Anthony Ireland. And as his career wraps-up, Osborne went for 21 rebounds in the final two regular season games of his career. In addition, he scored 20 points with 17 rebounds, eight of which were offensive, in the win over La Sierra. It was the first 15-15 game by a Lion since Dec. 28, 2009. He went 8-for-10 from the field, had two assists, two steals and a block in the win. Osborne has 116 career steals and is 17th all-time in LMU history. His 484 career rebounds in 29th all-time.

JFK to LAX	2,472
LMU to UC Riverside.....	144
LMU to Pittsburgh.....	4,298
LMU to Valparaiso	3,564
Grand Total.....	15,843

- The Lions traveled 15,843 miles in their first 10 games this season, playing just one home game on Nov. 17 against Northern Arizona. They are coming off a six-game road swing that took them more than 15,500 miles before returning home to play Cal Poly. It started with a 7,543-mile swing to the Virgin Islands and continued with the shortest leg of the road trip, a 144-mile round trip to UC Riverside. The trip to Pittsburgh took the team 4,298 miles before heading out for the 3,564-mile road trip to face Valparaiso on Dec. 14.

- The Lions needed all 11 of their scholarship players in uniform against South Dakota State as they were called for 37 fouls, equalling the program record set on Feb. 9, 2001 against Nevada. South Dakota State finished 37-for-50 (74.0 percent) from the free throw line. The 37 made free throws equals an opponent's record against the Lions as Santa Clara hit 37 on Feb. 24, 2011. No Lion actually fouled out of the game as six Lions had four fouls.

- The Lions had three 20-point scorers in the win over South Dakota St., the first time that has happened since the record-setting LMU-USIU game on Jan. 5, 1991. They did it again against La Sierra. Against SDSU, Ben Dickinson had 22 points while Anthony Ireland and Gabe Levin had 20 points each. Against the Golden Eagles to end non-conference, Evan Payne had 24, Ireland had 21 and Osborne 20. Prior to this season, the last time it happened, the Lions set the NCAA record for points in a 186-140 win. Five Lions went for more than 20 points (Terrell Lowery - 34, Richard Petruska - 28, Chris Knight - 27, Rahim Harris - 24, Ross Richardson - 24). Against Northern Arizona, the Lions had a pair of players with double-doubles. Anthony Ireland had 18 points and 10 assists for his sixth career double-double while freshman Gabe Levin had his first with 15 points and 10 rebounds.

- Max Good, who is in his sixth season in 2013-14, enters the season fifth all-time in program history in wins (76 - as of 3/1/14), sixth in conference wins (27) and second in WCC tournament wins (6). Good led the Lions to a 21-13 mark and its second postseason appearance in three years in 2011-12, LMU's Centennial year. That season set standards going back to the Lions' Elite Eight team of 1989-90, including its first 20-win season, the most conference wins (11), most home wins (12), and the best road record (9-4), defeating a pair of ranked teams away from home (UCLA, Saint Mary's). The 21 wins was the fourth most in school history and the 11 WCC wins is tied with the 1967-68 team for the third most. The Lions won a pair of games in the postseason, the first postseason wins since that Elite Eight team. Good was named WCC Coach of the Year following the Lions' success that season.

- In 2012-13, LMU men's basketball earned three straight wins at the WCC Championships to advance to the semifinals for the second time in four years. BYU excluded, only LMU, Gonzaga and Saint Mary's have gone to the quarterfinals and beyond in each of the last four WCC tournaments.

INTERNATIONAL CONNECTION

The Lions' roster in 2013-14 will have a strong international flavor that includes Nigeria natives Godwin Okonji and Ayodeji Egbeyemi, Marin Mornar from Croatia and newcomer Patson Siame, who is from Luanshya, Zambia. A big reason behind the Lions' international push has been Associate Head Coach Myke Scholl. Scholl, who holds a law degree from Maryland, has worked with basketball programs in the U.S. Virgin Islands, at the junior college level in northern California, with the South Africa National and Under-20 teams, the Senegal Men's National Team, with a professional team in South Africa and as a scout for the Detroit Pistons. Eight years prior to LMU, Scholl was the Director of Sports and International Programs for Miles and Associates International in Johannesburg, South Africa. He managed the creation and implementation of

NEWEST LIONS

LMU men's basketball signed three high school standouts during the early signing period in November, receiving signed National Letters of Intent from Devin Wyatt, a 6-7 forward of De Soto High School in De Soto, Tex., Compton point guard Kyron Cartwright and Westchester guard Elijah Stewart. All will join LMU in the fall of 2014. Wyatt helped anchor a power-house program in De Soto High School, helping the team all the way to the Class 5A Region quarterfinals. He was named first-team All-District as a junior. Cartwright, a 5-11 point guard, led Compton to a 20-11 record overall and a 9-3 mark in league play as a junior. He averaged 12 points and seven assists last year, earning First-Team All-Moore League honors and Daily Breeze All-Area honors. Stewart, a 6-5 combo guard/forward, helped the Comets go 29-7 record on the season and a 65-57 win over El Camino Real in the city championship. In the title game, he hit a pair of three-pointers and had 10 points. In the quarterfinals, he led the very balanced Comets with 16 points in the 74-41 win over Taft. The Comets advanced to the Open Division Regional Semifinals and Stewart went on to earn second-team All-Western League.

LIONS IN OT

LMU is 37-46 in overtime games after falling to Santa Clara in the first overtime game of 2013-14. The Lions went 2-1 in 2012-13, getting the second win in the second round win over USF. They went 4-0 in overtime in 2011-12, the first time in program history the Lions won four overtime games in a single season. The Lions are 9-4 in overtime games under Head Coach Max Good, defeating Idaho State twice, San Francisco and Weber State in 2011-12. The first overtime game in LMU history came in the 1926-27 season against California Christian College, a 16-14 win for the Lions. The longest game in LMU history was a five-overtime affair against Fresno State in 1957. The Lions lost 92-90.

AGAINST THE RANKED

For the first time since 1989, the Lions faced the nation's top-ranked team when they faced Gonzaga in the WCC semifinals. Fittingly, the last time the Lions had to face a No. 1 was actually in Las Vegas. In the historic 1989-90 season, LMU would open with preseason No. 1 UNLV on Nov. 15, 1989, falling 102-91. LMU has played a No. 1 (AP only) six times, five of them coming against conference foe San Francisco.

The Lions are 4-7 in their last 10 games against ranked opponents, falling to ranked Gonzaga three times in 2012-13. The Lions went 3-2 in 2011-12 against ranked opponents, earning a win at #16 Saint Mary's on Feb. 15. The five ranked opponents was the most since the 2008-09 season when they played five.

HEAD COACH MAX GOOD

Inside info:

- Sixth Season at LMU
- 77-116 at LMU
- 22nd Season overall
- 319-339 overall

LMU Head Coach Max Good, who officially took over the program as the 25th coach in school history on Jan. 12, 2009, continues to put the Lions in new levels of success.

In Good's fifth season, the Lions advanced to the semifinals of the WCC Championships thanks to three straight wins in three days. The Lions join Saint Mary's and Gonzaga as the only program to advance to the quarterfinals and beyond in each of the last four seasons.

The run in the 2013 WCC Championships was at the heels of Good's fourth season where LMU finished the 2011-12 season at 21-13 overall and 11-5 (4th) in the WCC. Many of the Lions' marks in LMU's Centennial Season go back to the 1989-90 Elite Team, including its first 20-win season, the most conference wins, first postseason win, first team to earn consecutive postseason wins, most home wins (12), and best road record (9-4).

In addition, the Lions have found success in the big games under Head Coach Good. The Lions are 4-5 against ranked opponents the last three seasons under Good, including a 3-2 mark in 2011-12. The three wins in one season against ranked opponents is second only to the 1989-90 team in program history. Good has led the Lions to a pair of wins (#9 Gonzaga, #23 Saint Louis) over ranked teams at home, the first coach to do so since Coach Donovan in 1961.

The success in the 2011-12 season earned Good the WCC Coach of the Year, the Lions first since 1995-96. After the 31 games of 2013-14, Good is 77-116 and has a career head coaching record of 319-339.

Good is no stranger to running a program. The 2013-14 season will be Good's 22nd as a head coach at the NCAA level, coaching eight seasons at Bryant College (2001-08) prior to joining LMU. He also coached at UNLV for one season (2000-01) and eight seasons at Eastern Kentucky University (1981-89). In addition, his impact hasn't been just at the college level as he was the head coach at the New England prep school Maine Central Institute in Pittsfield, Maine, for 10 seasons (1990-00). At MCI he compiled an impressive 275-30 (.902) record that included five New England Prep School Athletic Conference Championships.

Good coached 28 of the Lions' 31 games in the 2008-09 season, filling in for former Head Coach Bill Bayno, who served a leave of absence before resigning due to health issues. In Good's second season the team posted its second best turn-around in school history with 15 more wins than the year prior (which was also the second-best turn-around in the nation in 2009-10), defeated their first ranked opponent (#9 Gonzaga) since 1990, posted the program's first ranked-win at Gersten Pavilion, defeated a top-10 team for the second time in school history (the last being in 1960), and had three players earn postseason All-WCC honors, just the 10th time since 1956 three or more Lions have claimed WCC honors.

Prior to joining the Lions as an assistant, Good led Bryant University (Smithfield, RI) to new levels of success, posting a record of 132-86 in eight seasons. Good was named head coach in 2001 and inherited a program that had four straight losing seasons. The 2003-04 season saw Good lead the Bulldogs to a new level. They set a school-record with 23 wins, earning the school's first NCAA tournament berth in 24 years. They not only qualified, but advanced to the Sweet Sixteen. After a tough loss in the regional finals in just his third season, year four may go down as one of the best in Bryant's history, leading them to a 25-9 overall record and a trip to the NCAA Division II Championship, falling to Virginia Union in the title game, 63-58.

His extensive coaching background includes five seasons as the assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond (1976-81). He then was named the head coach and spent eight seasons at Eastern Kentucky from 1981-89. He compiled an overall record of 96-129 (.427) at EKU. He enjoyed his best season in 1986-87 with a 19-11 record as he was named the Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year. The next season his squad was 18-11.

Before arriving at Eastern Kentucky, he spent six seasons at Richmond Madison High School in Richmond, Ky. He served three seasons (1970-73) as the JV head coach and three seasons (1973-76) as the head coach.

Good graduated from EKU in 1969 and received a master's degree from his alma mater in 1970. He was introduced into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in Kingston, RI, for his time as coach at MCI in 2004 and was named the 2005 Words Unlimited Coach of the Year and Rhode Island Basketball Media Coach of the Year in 2008.
