✓ RANKINGS

East Carolina (American) and BYU (Independent) are both unranked in the Associated Press and AFCA Coaches Poll heading into Friday's contest.

EAST CAROLINA

Feel free to call us East Carolina or ECU. However, we respectfully ask that the erroneous designation of Eastern Carolina or flawed abbreviations such as E-Carolina, East-Car, ECar, EC never be used.

THE GAME

After playing six of its first eight games inside Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, ECU will hit the road for its next two contests traveling to BYU (Oct. 28), followed by a bye week and then another Friday night game at Cincinnati (Nov. 11) ... The Pirates and Cougars are set to meet for just the third time with the series tied at one-all (each team winning on its own turf) - see page two for series information ... The Pirates head to Provo, Utah on a two-game winning streak, while the Cougars have dropped three in a row ... With its dominating 34-13 victory over UCF Saturday night, ECU secured a home winning record for the 2022 campaign with a 4-2 mark.

EAST CAROLINA RECORDS, STREAKS & TRENDS

- ▶ Has won seven of its last 10 AAC games (4 of 5/2021; 3 of 5/2022) ...
- ▶ Has allowed only 10 4th-quarter offensive TDs in the last 14 games dating back to '21 ...
- ▶ Has outscored its opponents 139-103 in the second half and in OT this year (+36 in points) ...
- ▶ Has forced at least one turnover in 25 of the last 28 games (and in 36 of the last 40) ...
- ▶ Snapped more offensive plays than their eight opponents (574-529/+45) ...

FAST FACTS

Record - 5-3 (.625); AAC Record/Standing - 3-2 (.600)/5th; Last 5 Games - 3-2; Last 10 Games - 6-4; Last 15 Games - 9-6; Streaks - East Carolina will play the 42nd game of the Mike Houston Era when the Pirates face off against BYU. ECU's contest against the Cougars will be the Pirates' 913th since the start of football in 1932 (459-442-11/.509).

SCHEMES

BYU utilizes a Pro Style and multiple offensive attack while employing a 4-3 defensive alignment. ECU will feature a pro-style look on offense and are a multiple unit on defense.

THE COACHES

MIKE HOUSTON (Mars Hill '94) is in his 12th year as a collegiate head coach with a 99-47 (.678) mark, while he is 19-22 (.463) during four seasons at East Carolina. When he officially became the Pirates' 22nd all-time head football coach on Dec. 4, 2018, Houston finished a three-year stint directing the James Madison program. Houston signed a contract extension with the Pirates securing his position through the 2026 season.

Houston guided the Dukes to a 37-6 mark, which included three NCAA FCS postseason appearances (2016 national champions, 2017 national runner-up, 2018 second round) and a pair of Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) titles. He was named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach-of-the-Year in 2016 after JMU turned in a 14-1 campaign.

The appointment to the top Dukes' football position followed brief head coaching assignments at Lenoir-Rhyne (2011-13) and The Citadel (2014-15). He led the Bears to a 29-8 ledger and a pair of NCAA Division II playoff showings before guiding the Bulldogs to a 14-11 record, a Southern Conference co-championship and a venture into the FCS playoffs in 2015.

Houston, a Franklin, N.C. native, began his collegiate coaching career as defensive coordinator at Brevard College in 2006 before serving in a similar capacity at L-R from 2007 to 2010.

KALANI SITAKE (BYU '00) is 52-33 (.612) in his seventh season heading the football program at BYU. His appointment to lead the Cougars, which was announced Dec. 19, 2015, also marks his first collegiate head coaching assignment. Prior to his move back to his alma mater, Sitake spent the 2015 campaign as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Oregon State and 10 previous seasons at Utah, where served as linebackers coach (2005-08), defensive coordinator linebackers coach (2009-12) before earning an assistant head coach title during his last three years with the Utes. He began his coaching career at Eastern Arizona as a defensive backs coach in 2001. Sitake had coached in 13 bowl games during his career and has been on the winning side in 10 of those 13 contests.

THE SERIES

Friday's matchup against the Cougars marks just the third game in the all-time series with each team holding serve at home ... The Cougars used running back Algernon Brown's fourth touchdown of the contest, a nine-yard run with 19 seconds remaining, to break a 38-38 tie and open the series with a win in Provo (2015) ... Two years later, Jake Verity matched a school single-game record by drilling four field goals and Gardner Minschew tossed a pair of second-half touchdown passes to lift ECU to a 33-17 non-conference triumph over BYU at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

| Date | Site | Result | Attendance |
|---------------|------------------|-----------|------------|
| Oct. 10, 2015 | Provo, Utah | BYU 45-38 | 60,186 |
| Oct. 21, 2017 | Greenville, N.C. | ECU 33-17 | 38,835 |

MIKE HOUSTON AGAINST THE COUGARS

Including Mike Houston's prior nine-year tenure as a head coach at Lenoir-Rhyne, The Citadel, James Madison (and East Carolina), Friday's game will mark his first meeting against BYU.

KALANI SITAKE AGAINST THE PIRATES

Friday will mark the second time that Sitake will square off against the Pirates following a 33-17 loss in Greenville during the 2017 campaign.

EAST CAROLINA AGAINST THE INDEPENDENTS

ECU has compiled an all-time record of 15-2 against FBS programs which currently compete as an independent ... The Pirates lone setbacks both came during the 2015 season against BYU and Connecticut ... In all, ECU has squared off against four of the seven current FBS independents: Army (8-0), BYU (1-1), Connecticut (5-1), Liberty (0-0), New Mexico State (0-0), Notre Dame (0-0) and UMass (1-0).

BYU AGAINST THE AMERICAN

BYU has posted a 22-6 (.786) all-time mark against current members of the American Athletic Conference ... The Cougars have squared off against Cincinnati (2-0), East Carolina (1-1), Houston (2-0), Memphis (0-1), Navy (1-1), SMU (3-0), South Florida (1-0), Temple (2-0), Tulane (2-1), Tulsa (7-1) and UCF (1-1) ... The Cougars' last meeting against a member of The American resulted in a 50-21 home victory against South Florida to open the 2022 campaign.

NON-SATURDAY MAYHEM

East Carolina is 21-29 in non-Saturday games since 2000 ... Oddly, the Pirates have fared better on the road (14-14; 7-15 at home) ... In terms of days (including bowls), ECU is 5-1 on Sundays, 1-1 on Mondays, 2-1 on Tuesdays, 0-3 on Wednesdays, 8-12 on Thursdays and 5-11 on Fridays ... Most recently, ECU is 10-14 when deviating from the normal Saturday routine since 2010 ... The Pirates' last Monday outing was a successful one as East Carolina downed Ohio 37-20 on Dec. 23, 2013 in the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Fla.

LOOKING FOR MORE LOOT

Heading into the BYU game, East Carolina is currently currently +6 on the season in take aways. The Pirates have forced nine fumbles, recovering five and picked off eight passes for 137 return yards ... In its last outing, ECU forced a season-high four turnovers (3 INTs, 1 fumble) and registering its fourth multi-turnover game of the season ... Despite its impressive 45-3 win, East Carolina's 16-game streak of forcing at least one turnover came to a halt against Temple on Nov. 6 (2021) ... The run, which began on Oct. 3, 2020 at Georgia State and produced 36 takeaways (22 interceptions, 14 fumble recoveries), was the program's longest since a 33-game streak (from 2007 to 2010) ... In all, ECU still has at least one takeaway in 25 of the last 28 (and 36 of 40) contests, as well as seven of eight games in 2022.

ANALYZING THE 2022 OVERALL SCHEDULE

ECU's 2022 opponents tallied a combined 79-71 (.527) record in 2021 ... The Pirates' four non-conference foes were a collective 28-21 (.571), while the eight AAC teams posted a 51-50 (.505) mark ... Five programs had seven (7) or more wins - Cincinnati (13-1), Houston (12-2), BYU (10-3), UCF (9-4) and NC State (9-3).

WHO WENT BOWLING ... The Pirates' current slate features contests against seven teams who were invited to bowl games in 2021, including Cincinnati, who earned the AAC's first College Football Playoff berth ... NC State (San Diego County Credit Union Holiday), Old Dominion (Myrtle Beach), Memphis (Hawaii), UCF (Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla), BYU (Radiance Technologies Independence), Houston (TicketSmarter Birmingham) and Cincinnati (Goodyear Cotton) ... Five of the Pirates' seven home games are against 2021 bowl qualifiers.

IN THE FINAL POLLS ... Four of ECU's 2022 opponents finished the 2021 season in college football's two major polls (Associated Press and USA Today Amway Coaches) - league champion Cincinnati (4/4), Houston (17/17), NC State (20/19) and BYU (19/22).

OFFENSIVE TRIPLE THREAT (300-100-100)

For the second time this season and in consecutive games, ECU had a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game ... A closer look:

| Date | Opponent | Result | Passer | Rusher | Receiver |
|---------|----------|----------------|--------------|----------------|--------------------|
| Oct. 15 | Memphis | W, 47-45 (4OT) | Ahlers (304) | Mitchell (149) | Winstead (154) |
| Oct. 22 | UCF | W, 34-13 | Ahlers (311) | Mitchell (105) | C.J. Johnson (140) |

LAST MEETING

ECU 33, BYU 17

<Oct. 21, 2017 @Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, Greenville, N.C.>

Jake Verity matched a school single-game record by drilling four field goals and Gardner Minshew tossed a pair of second-half touchdown passes to lift ECU to a 33-17 non-conference triumph over BYU at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... The Pirates scored on their first four possessions after halftime to break open a 10-10 deadlock, while the ECU defense forced two punts, made a fourth down stop and picked off a pass to keep BYU out of the endzone until late in the fourth period ... The Cougars used a short field following a fumble recovery to open an early 7-0 lead, but ECU outscored BYU 33-3 on the strength of Verity's leg and Minshew's arm ... After Thomas Sirk's one-yard scoring plunge with 3:09 left in the opening stanza evened the contest, Verity connected on a pair of 42-yarders and added 32 and 33-yard three-pointers to give the Pirates a 19-10 cushion after three quarters ... Minshew, who replaced an injured Sirk with 3:05 remaining in the third period, capped a quick three-play drive with a 26-yard TD toss to Trevon Brown to open the fourth quarter ... ECU's defense followed with a fourth-down stop at the Pirate four-yard line on BYU's next possession before linebacker Cannon Gibbs' interception set up Minshew's second scoring pass - a nine-yard screen to Quay Johnson - and provide a comfortable 33-10 cushion with 6:25 remaining ... Davon Grayson turned in his third triple-digit outing of the year with 10 receptions for 164 yards to lead all receivers.

A SINGLE-GAME RECORD-BREAKER

With an attendance total of 51,711 against NC State on Sept. 3, ECU established a single-game home record - surpassing the 51,082 clip who watched the Pirates beat North Carolina on Sept. 20, 2014 ... In all, East Carolina has enjoyed sell out crowds for 13 contests since Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium was expanded in 2010:

During its 17-year membership in Conference USA (1997-2013), East Carolina tallied an overall 78-50 (.609) regular season league record - 35-29 (.547) on the road and 43-21 (.672) at home, which led to pair of conference championships in 2008 and 2009... The Pirates closed out their C-USA home slate by winning nine-straight, 21 of their last 23 and 29 of their last 35... During its last two years of membership (2012 & 2013), ECU turned in perfect league home records (4-0) on the way to a combined 18-8 mark (13-3 in conference play).

 Currently ECU ranks 53rd nationally and leads the Group of 5 in attendance per game

COMPARING 10-YEAR, EIGHT-GAME RESULTS

East Carolina's dominating 34-13 win over UCF gave the Pirates a .625 or better record for the third time in the last 10 years and a 5-3 ledger for the first time in Mike Houston's four-year tenure... A victory over BYU would push ECU to 6-3 or better for the first time since 2014, but a loss would be the second consecutive year the Pirates would sport a 5-4 record through nine contests... AGAINST NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

The Pirates have produced a 42-59 (.416) regular season non-league record, which includes a 2-1 clip in 2022 ... Last year the Pirates split their four non-conference games falling to Appalachian State and South Carolina to open the season before rallying back to post victories against Marshall and Charleston Southern ... During his first season as head coach at ECU in 2019, Mike Houston led the Pirates to a 3-1 record - the program's first winning non-conference ledger since 2014.

AT DOWDY-FICKLEN STADIUM

East Carolina's all-time record at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium is 200-113 (.640) ... The Pirates opened the facility on Sept. 21, 1963 with a 20-10 win over Wake Forest in front of 17,000 fans, celebrated the stadium's 50th anniversary in 2013 and recently hosted its 300th game vs. Tulane in 2020 ... Before a 4-2 clip in 2021, a 1-3 record two years ago and a collective 13-19 mark from 2015-2019, ECU was 5-1 in 2014, 2013 and 2012 (15-3) and won a combined 10 of 12 home matchups in 2009 (6-1) and 2008 (4-1) ... With its 34-13 win over UCF (Oct. 22, 2022), ECU has posted 41 winning campaigns at DFS since 1963.

THE PIRATE NATION - OVER 9 MILLION STRONG

East Carolina has usually been able to claim plenty of hometown support when playing at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium - establishing itself among conference attendance leaders on a near annual basis ... In all, a total of 9,368,955 fans have seen the Pirates in action since 1963, and since the completion of a 7,000-seat expansion project in 2010 (to push capacity to 50,000), the Pirates have drawn 3,097,666 fans.

2022 MISC... FROM THE TREASURE CHEST (PLAYERS/UCF)

QB Holton Ahlers completed 30 of 36 attempts for 311 yards with 1 TD and no INTs ... Thrown at least one TD pass in 39 of 50 career games with his 39-yard strike to C.J. Johnson (2Q) ... For his career, he has accounted for 109 TDs (87 passing, 22 rushing) ... Surpassed Shane Garden for the ECU career touchdown lead (87) ... Produced the 17th 300-yard passing game of his career (third in 2022) ... Turned in the third-highest single-game completion percentage of his career (83 percent) ... WR C.J. Johnson racked up a team-high 140 yards on a season-high 11 receptions and a touchdown ... Produced his sixth 100-yard effort of his career and second of the season ... Moved into fifth on the ECU career list in reception yards (2,490), sixth in receiving touchdowns (18) and eighth in receptions (148) ... RB Keaton Mitchell registered two rushing touchdowns, ending the game with a squad-best 105 yards on 16 rushes ... Posted his 10th career 100-yard effort and fourth of the season ... Now ranks ninth on the Pirate career chart in rushing yards (2,262) ... SAF Jireh Wilson registered his second interception of the season (1Q) and first fumble recovery of the campaign (2Q) ... SAF Julius Wood tallied his second forced fumble of the campaign and also paced the team with 10 tackles ... CB Malik Fleming notched his second INT of the season (2Q) and was credited with two pass breakups ... SAF Gerard Stringer booked his first interception of the campaign to seal the game in the fourth quarter.

2022 MISC... FROM THE TREASURE CHEST (TEAM/UCF)

East Carolina improved to 11-10 all time against UCF, including a 7-5 in Greenville ... Won seven of its last 10 AAC games ... Have outscored their opponents 139-103 in the second half and overtime this season ... Snapped more offensive plays (573-529) than its foes in 2022 ... Scored first for the sixth time in eight games this season ... Forced a season-high four turnovers (multiple four times) ... Owns a +44 margin (573-529) in total plays this season, finishing tied with UCF in the contest (69-69) ... Thrown one touchdown pass and has tossed at least one in 54 of the last 63 games (118 of last 133).

SHUTOUT-FREE ... 307 AND COUNTING

East Carolina will enter the BYU game with an active streak of 307 games of not suffering a shutout - a school record (previous mark was 110 set from '71-'81) ... The last time the Pirates were blanked was on Oct. 4, 1997 (56-0 at Syracuse) ... ECU's 307-game run currently ranks among the Top 10 nationally (Florida is first with 429).

CHARTING THE PIRATES MONTH-BY-MONTH

In all, East Carolina is 3-3-0 in August, 133-124-1 in September, 168-167-4 in October, 145-133-5 in November, 9-10-0 in December and 1-4-0 in January ... Should the Pirates make a bowl, they will try to remain somewhat productive in December - a month in which ECU has split its last eight outings (wins vs. Boise State/'07, Tulsa/'08, Houston/'09 and Ohio/'13; losses to Maryland/'10, UL-Lafayette/'12, UCF/'14 and NC State/'18).

A STARTERS' LOG

QB Holton Ahlers (25 games) and CB Malik Fleming (18) own the program's longest starting streaks on offense and defense entering the BYU matchup ... Through eight games, nine players have registered their first career starts for the Pirates - LB Chance Bates, OL Isaiah Foote, OL Justin Redd, WR Jaylen Johnson, TE Ryan Jones, DL Shaundre Mims, CB Aapri Washington, WR Isaiah Winstead, SAF Julius Wood ... East Carolina used 21 different starters on defense in 2021 (17 on offense) in 2021.

GREENVILLE, N.C. – Following his first game as East Carolina’s football coach, a decisive loss at NC State on the last day of August in 2019, Mike Houston vowed to bring a vastly different team into battle the next time the teams met.

That day came on a steamy Saturday afternoon before a record crowd of 51,711 Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium to open the 2022 season. And Houston’s words proved prophetic down to the final seconds when Owen Daffer’s 41-yard field goal attempt sailed right, leaving the Pirates heartbroken and on the end of a 21-20 loss.

ECU, bolstered by two goal-line stands and an interception, clawed back from a 21-7 halftime deficit and had a chance to tie with 2:58 left, but Daffer hooked his extra-point kick. A chance at redemption came with nine seconds showing, but the miss ended an upset bid of the nation’s 13th-ranked team.

The Wolfpack, playing their first true road game season-opener since 2008 (at South Carolina), escaped with their third straight and just their second win in six trips to Greenville. N.C. State had won the previous two meetings by a combined 92-9 score, including Houston’s debut.

Saturday’s heart-wrenching finish hit hard for Houston, who is 0-4 in season-openers at ECU and has dropped five straight.

“The kids fought their tails off,” he said. “They inspire me with the way they play. I know nobody outside of Greenville gave us much of a chance, but those kids never doubted. We should have won the ballgame. We outplayed them. We dominated them physically in the second half. I’m just really hurt for those kids in that locker room right now

“They’ve brought this program from the depths back to where it was today.”

Senior quarterback Holton Ahlers and linebacker Myles Berry remember those days and take pride in resurrecting the program. Both served as game captains and soaked in the moment as they walked out before an electric crowd for the coin toss.

“We were both here in 2018 when Coach Mo (Scottie Montgomery) got fired, actually in this room before the State game, and then we went on to lose, I think it was 58 to 3 at State,” Ahlers said. “The program that it is now, it just makes me proud – I’m about to tear up even thinking about it. I looked at Myles when we were walking out there, and I was like, ‘Dude, we did it. We brought ECU football back.’ Whatever happens in game, look around, the energy’s back in Greenville and around this team.”

Berry and his defensive mates made a statement by ending the Wolfpack’s streak of 10 consecutive games with at least 27 points, including a second-half shutout. The Pirates limited quarterback Devin Leary to 211 yards passing, his lowest total since Oct. 17, 2020, when he suffered a season-ending injury against Duke.

“The standard that we play with has risen tremendously,” Berry said. “We knew it was going to be a big task, but a game is a game. We fear no one. It was just great to see, and I’m proud of the guys and how we competed today.”

Ahlers, on track to eclipse nearly every school record for a quarterback, became the American Athletic Conference leader in career completions (833) after connecting on 25 of 41 passes for 267 yards. He overcame an interception on the opening drive to toss a 39-yarder to former high school teammate C.J. Johnson for a 7-0 lead. The offense stalled against an aggressive Wolfpack defense the rest of the half, and State stormed back on a 12-yard pass from Leary to Thayer Thomas and a 24-yard run by Demi Sumo-Karngbaye sandwiched around a blocked punt that Sean Brown recovered for a touchdown.

That special-teams hiccup looked to be a backbreaker, but ECU found life in the second half.

A 13-play, 79-yard drive highlighted by a one-handed catch by at the 1 by Isaiah Winstead (10 catches, 58) yards and capped by Shane Calhoun’s 1-yard catch drew ECU within 21-14.

A quick answer by the Wolfpack vanished on a third-down play from the 2 when Jordan Houston’s fumble wound up in the hands of Gerard Stringer. Moments later, the ECU defense responded yet again, denying Sumo-Karngbaye on four tries from the one.

“That’s what we play for as a defense,” Berry said. “We play to get those stops. We play to get put in those bad situations and then winning those situations.”

Winning the game would have made those stands legendary, Houston said.

“If we hit that kick at the end, we’re sitting here saying those are historic plays in the history of the program,” he said. “Everybody in the stadium has to respect what those kids did down there. You don’t do that. You don’t do that to a 13th-ranked team, you don’t do that to one of the better teams in the ACC. Nobody does that to them. I think that says a lot about those kids, says a lot about the heart they’ve got, says a lot about the toughness they’ve got.”

The stalwart stands did set the stage for a dramatic finish. After Jireh Wilson picked off a Leary pass and returned it 34 yards, Rahjai Harris scored four plays later from the 3 to make it 21-20. Daffer’s attempt to tie hooked low and left.

ECU then forced a three-and-out and started one final drive from its 29 with 2:27 to play. A 37-yard catch and run by Keaton Mitchell got the Pirates in field-goal range at the 31. An Ahlers keeper to the 24 on third down set up the potential game-winner.

After an NC State timeout, Daffer pushed his kick right of the upright.

“He’s hurting worse than anybody right now,” Houston said. “We’ve got to support him, and he’s got to rebound from this.”

Ahlers, always under the microscope as a quarterback, offered his support.

“We’re going to need him to win a conference championship; we feel like we have a team to do that,” Ahlers said. “I believe in him. I’ve been through a lot here too. I’ve been through all sorts of scrutiny and all that too, so I told him I was there for him.”

GREENVILLE, N.C. – First came the rain. Then came the lightning and thunder. The electrifying show didn't materialize in the night sky above Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium on Saturday, however, but on the soggy turf below.

Sparked by Keaton Mitchell (lightning) and Rahjai Harris (thunder), East Carolina transformed a tight contest into a dominant 39-21 win over Old Dominion, rebounding from a season-opening heartbreaking loss to N.C. State and even its record at 1-1.

Mitchell's 81-yard dash early in the fourth quarter delivered a staggering blow to the Monarchs (1-1), who were coming off an upset of Virginia Tech, then Harris landed the knockout just 24 seconds later. ECU outscored ODU 23-7 after clinging to a 16-14 lead in the third period.

"I loved the way we played in the second half tonight," fourth-year head coach Mike Houston said. "That's what we want to be. That performance in the fourth quarter, that's what it's supposed to look like. The good football teams, that's what they look like."

"I'm kind of ticked off that the score was as close as it was. That was a pretty dominant performance by our kids."

A glance at the stats reflects that dominance. ECU had a decided advantage in total plays (86-43), first downs (30-12), total yards (531-290), rushing yards (261-15) and time of possession (40:52-19:08). The Pirates also played a turnover-free game while forcing a pair of second-half turnovers.

The running game, limited to 49 yards in the first half, found its footing in the second half as the ODU defense began to wear down. Mitchell, the Pirates' speedster, finished with 160 yards on 18 carries, eclipsing 100 yards for the seventh time in his career, and scored a pair of touchdowns.

Harris, more of a bruiser, finished with 61 yards on 16 carries and added four catches for 14 yards.

"That's a huge thing for us, getting Keaton and Rahjai and those guys rolling," said quarterback Holton Ahlers, who threw for 270 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Houston knows the importance of having the complementary backs both producing.

"I'm happy for both of them, having that success there in the second half," he said.

"And we all know that success comes from our offensive line wearing down Old Dominion in the second half."

Mitchell's run provided the catalyst and followed the pattern of many of his game-breaking runs – he now has 15 plays of 20-plus yards and six of 50 or more in the last two years. With the Pirates leading 22-14 and starting a drive at the 19, Mitchell darted through a hole on the left side and left the ODU secondary in his tracks.

"I told the line to keep going, keep doing what y'all got to do, and they kept chopping," Mitchell said.

Houston said he sensed a big play from Mitchell coming soon.

"No joke, 30 seconds before he popped, I'm sitting here thinking, 'One of these has got to pop at some point because you felt like you were close,'" Houston said. "Once he got in the secondary you knew what was going to happen. It was a great job by him of being patient all night and not getting frustrated."

Harris cashed in a fumble recovery by J.D. Lampley moments later with a 15-yard run for a 36-14 lead.

ODU simply didn't have enough firepower to keep up. The Monarchs' rushing game didn't hit positive yardage until midway the fourth quarter and wound up with just 15 yards on 14 attempts. West Virginia transfer Ali Jennings provided the lone ODU threat, hauling in eight Hayden Wolff passes for 200 yards, including touchdown grabs of 16, 18 and 35 yards.

ECU countered with a couple of big-play transfers that came up clutch in first-half scoring drives. Georgia transfer Jaylen Johnson finished with nine catches for 93 yards, and Toledo transfer Isaiah Winstead added five catches for 89 yards.

"They made some crucial catches for us. It's cool to see them do as well as they did, but we've got a lot more playmakers that we can disperse the ball to," Ahlers said.

Johnson established himself early with three receptions for 27 yards on an opening 17-play drive that ended with an Owen Daffer field goal. An 11-yard catch on fourth-and-6 moved the Pirates to the 19, but they stalled at the 5.

Daffer, who missed an extra point and field goal in last week's 21-20 loss, received a rousing ovation from the crowd of 36,853 and then knocked through a 22-yarder for a 3-0 lead. Daffer also hit a 32-yarder to cap the Pirates' scoring. He had a pair of PAT attempts blocked, but Houston pinpointed a protection breakdown as the culprit.

"I thought it was pretty special when Owen took the field," Houston said. "He's had a tough week. He takes a lot of pride in what he does. But for our fan base to cheer him, give him an ovation when he took the field tonight, that was pretty special."

Winstead helped key the second scoring drive with a pair of catches, including a 19-yarder to convert a third-and-5. He and Johnson each had a pair of receptions as the Pirates stretched their lead to 16-7 in the second quarter. Winstead picked up a first down with an 18-yard catch on third-and-10 from the ECU 10, and Johnson converted a fourth-and-8 with a 12-yard catch. His 27-yard catch and run on a crossing pattern set up Mitchell's 1-yard run.

"When you get those touches from the jump, it just boosts your confidence and gets you going," Johnson said. "It helps you want to get involved every play."

Ahlers, already the American Athletic Conference career leader in total plays and completions, added to his list of accolades with another solid night. His 39 pass attempts give him 1,468 for his career and move him into first ahead of Temple's Phillip Walker. He also moved up to second in AAC career passing yards with 10,756, trailing only Tulsa's Dane Evans (10,782).

GREENVILLE, N.C. - East Carolina senior quarterback Holton Ahlers knows many tense moments lie ahead this season, especially with American Athletic Conference play beginning next week. So, he savored the opportunity Saturday evening to spend the bulk of the final quarter of a 49-10 win over visitor Campbell watching from the sidelines of Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

Before turning over the reins to backup Mason Garcia and a host of other reserves, Ahlers turned in a sensational performance that included three passing touchdowns, one rushing score and a few more records to his collection, including most total yards in school history and passing yards in the AAC.

"Heck yeah it was," Ahlers said of taking the rest of the night off after Rahjai Harris scored on a 1-yard run with 11:11 to go, the fourth consecutive scoring drive of the half and sixth in a row overall as ECU erased an early 10-7 deficit. "I think my body will appreciate it a little bit tomorrow, too.

"It was cool to see (Mason) go out there. He's been great. Obviously, a lot of us see him as the future of the program. He's a super-talented kid. He just needs experience." Experience is what Ahlers brings now and what has been the centerpiece of elevating Houston's program. The fourth-year coach remembers meeting Ahlers at his introductory press conference and maintained his confidence in the Greenville product through highs and lows.

"He's one of the first kids I met; he was sitting on the first row when I was introduced to the team," Houston said. "He's been the steady constant since I've been here. He's a great leader in the locker room, he's a phenomenal role model in the community; he's a role model to my two sons. He's a pleasure to be around every single day. You couldn't ask for someone to be more than what he's been."

With at least nine more games to play, Ahlers already owns a bevy of school and AAC milestones, which he increased on a pleasant Saturday night before a home crowd of 43,036. Ahlers picked apart the Camels by completing 17 of 20 passes for 263 yards as the Pirates (2-1) piled more than 500 total yards for the second-straight week, finishing with 572.

His 12,332 total yards vaults him past Shane Carden for first in school history, and he needs just 86 yards to supplant Cincinnati's Desmond Ridder (12,418) at the top of the AAC list. Ahlers also took over first in AAC career passing yards with (11,019), passing Tulsa's Dane Evans (10,782). He already holds AAC marks for passing attempts (1,934) and completions (879).

The three touchdowns against Campbell give the left-hander 22 for his career, just one behind Carden on the school's list.

Ahlers said the records are gratifying, especially since they contribute to helping rebuild the program.

"It means a lot," he said. "Being from Greenville, growing up here and obviously playing quarterback here has been a dream come true for me. The team that we've got this year is going to be really special. There's going to be a couple of records broken and stuff like that, but I'm just going to focus on the main thing, and that's going to keep winning every single game and going 1-0 each week. As these records come, it will be pretty cool to look back on. But I'm just super blessed to be in the situation I'm in. It says my name on it, but there's a million people that put in a lot of hard work for my name to go there."

Houston said Ahlers deserves the recognition, not only for his performance on the field but for his leadership.

"I'm very, very proud of him," Houston said. "He had a phenomenal night tonight. "I've coached a lot of guys over the years, and he's one of the more enjoyable players I've ever had," Houston added. "I just respect him so much for the way he plays. He's a tough freaking kid. He's a great player, and he's just a phenomenal human being. I'm blessed that God has allowed me to have a few years with him, and I'm going to enjoy every day I've got with him until he's done."

Houston also is enjoying having speedster Keaton Mitchell among his offensive weapons. The sophomore from McDonough, Ga., torched the Camels for 185 yards on 13 carries, collecting his eighth career 100-yard game. Mitchell scored on an 18-yard sprint after Campbell grabbed an early 3-0 lead then gained 70 yards on five carries, including a 42-yard dash, to set up a 1-yard pass from Ahlers to Ryan Jones for a 14-10 lead.

The Pirates reeled off 42 consecutive points after the Camels scored on their first two possessions. Campbell, led by elusive quarterback Hajj-Malik Williams, piled up 403 yards but failed to score on their last nine possessions. Chance Bates ended one threat with an interception. Another threat ended with a missed field goal.

Williams completed 23 of 38 passes for 300 yards, including a 61-yarder to Jalen Kelsey on a short hitch route.

"I wish we hadn't missed that tackle on the hitch route that gave them the long touchdown, but I thought we responded and played well in the second half," Houston said. "That was good to see."

ECU's offense also responded by scoring on its final two possessions of the first half and first four of the second. Two of those scores came on fade patterns to the right front corner of the end zone, a 23-yarder to C.J. Johnson and a 28-yarder to Jalen Johnson on a fourth-down play.

"I thought Jalen had a great matchup, and Holton knew right where he was," Houston said. "It was really good to see us win those one-on-one matchups down the field because we're going to have to throughout the year this year."

That includes next week in the fourth-straight home game and AAC opener against Navy.

"We've got a good Navy ballclub coming in here next week," Houston said. "They've had two weeks to get ready for us. We're going to have to play our best ball of the year to have a shot."

GREENVILLE, N.C. – For the second time in the first month of the season, East Carolina will have to find a way to recover from a heart-wrenching, last-second loss. The latest gut punch came at the hands of one of its biggest nemesis in Navy.

When Owen Daffer’s 37-yard field goal attempt hooked left of the upright, the Midshipmen celebrated a 23-20 double-overtime victory on a Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium turf where they have never lost in five trips. The loss on a comfortable Saturday evening denied the Pirates (2-2, 0-1 AAC) a third straight win to close out a four-game homestand and puts them at 0-1 in the American Athletic Conference heading into a pair of road games.

ECU lost its opener to NC State 21-20 when Daffer missed both an extra point and a field goal in the fourth quarter. Quarterback Holton Ahlers said fingers should not be pointing at Daffer for this loss considering the mistakes and missed opportunities.

“If you want to put that game on anyone, put it on Holton Ahlers, don’t put it on Owen Daffer,” Ahlers said. “It’s a full game. It came down to one kick because we missed a bunch of plays. It should have come down to a kick at the end of regulation. He should have had a chance to win it instead of trying to tie it in double overtime.”

The Pirates seemed poised to repeat last year’s thrilling victory at Navy when Daffer nailed a career-long 54-yarder as time expired, taking possession at their 14 with 3:17 to play in a frantic fourth period featuring four touchdowns.

Three completions by Ahlers moved ECU to the Navy 46, but Tyler Fletcher snuffed out the threat with an interception with 25 seconds showing. Ahlers said he should have tucked the ball and run as he scrambled out of the pocket on second-and-1 instead of throwing into coverage downfield.

“I should have just run and took as many yards as I could and got out of bounds,” Ahlers said. “That’s 100 percent on me. If I put us in field goal range there, it gives us a chance to win it, so I take full responsibility of that whole entire game honestly.”

The Pirates’ other turnover also proved costly, a fourth-quarter fumble at their 25 that Navy cashed in for a brief 17-10 lead. Six penalties – twice their season average – also proved costly for the Pirates. Navy (1-2, 1-1 AAC) had just one penalty for five yards.

“One down deep in our territory was big,” head coach Mike Houston said of the turnovers. “... The one at the end of regulation was big because we had a chance to win it at the end of regulation.”

“Like I said before the game, turnovers and penalties were going to be paramount in this ballgame because I did very much feel like this game was going to come down exactly the way it did. It’s just what you expect when you play that bunch.”

A grind-it-out game where possessions are limited are also a near guarantee. Navy owned the time of possession, keeping the ball 37:02 of regulation. The Midshipmen put together three 11-play drives and a 13-play drive in their first six possession but managed only three points.

ECU stuffed Navy’s first drive at the 1, the third time the Pirates have stopped a team inside the 3-yard-line this season. Another drive also ended on downs, and a fumble ended yet another drive.

But ECU couldn’t muster much on offense, struggling to find a rhythm against Navy’s blitzing defense and missing its big-play threat with Keaton Mitchell sidelined with an injury (he had 5 yards and five carries). The Pirates settled for a 19-yard Daffer field goal after a 96-yard drive to the 2 in the first quarter but didn’t strike again until the fourth quarter.

After two straight games with more than 500-plus total yards, ECU managed just 370 against Navy. Ahlers, who eclipsed Cincinnati’s Desmond Ridder’s as the AAC’s all-time total yards leader, threw for 267 yards and a pair of touchdowns, completing 22 of 34 passes. Isaiah Winstead finished with 11 receptions for 143 yards, including a dazzling 67-yard catch and run to tie the score at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

Rahjai Harris led the rushing attack with 78 yards on 15 carries, highlighted by a 41-yard run in the first period.

“They had two weeks to prepare for us,” Ahlers said of Navy’s defense. “They called a great defensive game and kept us on our toes, really the whole game. They did a couple of new blitzes that we hadn’t seen with coverage behind it that we hadn’t seen. Hats off to them, but it comes down to us, and we’ve just got to execute better.”

Houston said the Pirates missed the big play potential of Mitchell, who has 17 career plays of at least 20 yards, including five this season.

“It’s not serious, but obviously it hurts you,” Houston said. “We’re fortunate to have Rahjai, but obviously you want a fresher 1-2 punch right there. I thought Rahjai did a lot of good things.”

Harris did cough up a fumble that set up Navy’s go-ahead touchdown in a fourth-quarter shootout. The teams entered the final period locked in a 3-3 tie before reeling off 28 points. Ahlers hit Ryan Jones with a 14-yard pass for a 10-3 lead, but Navy quickly answered with a rare pass as Tai Lavatai teamed up with Vincent Terrell Jr. on a 65-yard strike.

Anton Hall scored five plays after the Harris fumble for a 17-10 lead, but ECU had its own quick reply with Ahlers throwing a 67-yarder to Winstead.

Daffer gave ECU a 20-17 lead in the first overtime, and Davies answered with a 43-yarder. Navy again turned to Davies on its second possession and took a 23-20 lead when his 29-yarder slipped just inside the upright. Daffer’s attempt to force a third overtime missed.

Now ECU must regroup.

“It’s not just the missed kick; it’s a lot more than that,” defensive lineman Jeremy Lewis said. “You’ve just got to keep going, keep grinding. We’re going to come back tomorrow, practice and get better and keep stacking days. It’s all about the next play, next game, next day.”

Houston said the loss does not change the Pirates’ goals

“In 2012, we lost our first conference game of the season in a hard-fought battle, and we won the conference championship,” said Houston of his previous stop at Lenoir-Rhyne. “It’s not like you’re out of it. They’re going to be in a bunch of ballgames like this. Week in, week out, this is what the league’s going to be like. You’re going to be in a bunch of situations where it’s going to come down to the very end of the ballgame, it’s going to come down to the last drive.”

BOCA RATON, Fla. – After a week of distractions, disruptions and adversity, East Carolina considered a quick start essential in its first road test of the year.

The “Conley Connection” made sure it happened. Senior quarterback Holton Ahlers and junior wide receiver C.J. Johnson, high school teammates at Greenville’s D.H. Conley, teamed up for four touchdowns – three in a decisive first half – as the Pirates seized control early on an overcast Saturday afternoon and held on for a 48-28 American Athletic Conference win over South Florida.

The Pirates (3-2, 1-1 AAC) unleashed a dominant first-half performance, building a 41-7 lead, on the heels of a double-overtime loss to Navy that ended a season-opening, four-game homestand and a week of uncertainty surrounding Hurricane Ian. The powerful storm forced a South Florida team already wobbled by a rash of injuries and a 1-3 start to shift its practices to Fort Lauderdale and prompted the game to be moved from a 7 p.m. start in Tampa to a 2:30 kickoff at FAU Stadium in Boca Raton, where a Covid-like crowd of about 300 gathered.

None of that seemed to faze ECU. “It’s great to get the win with the challenges this week,” fourth-year head coach Mike Houston said. “Some of our players had some personal challenges this week. Just the way that they’ve handled everything, some of the unknowns, some of the changes in schedules, the flight (Friday), just really pleased with the way we played to get the win.”

Especially in the first half, when the Pirates piled up 397 total yards and scored on six of their eight possessions. Ahlers tossed five first-half touchdown passes on the way to equaling the six he compiled against SMU in 2019, raising his career total to 84. He completed 31-of-41 passes overall for a season-high 465 yards, the sixth time he has eclipsed 400 in his career, and the first time since that same 2019 game against SMU.

Johnson hauled in four of those -- covering 9, 14, 60 and 74 yards -- to tie the single-game school and American Athletic Conference record, giving him 17 career touchdowns and 130 total receptions. Ahlers, who needs just 141 yards to unseat Shane Carden as the school’s all-time leader in passing yards, also threw scoring passes of 21 yards to Ryan Jones and 22 yards to Isaiah Winstead.

Jones finished with six catches for 84 yards and now has multiple catches in 13 straight games. Winstead had six receptions for 73 yards. Johnson had team highs of seven catches for 197 yards, and now trails Tyler Snead by 121 yards for fifth place in school history.

“The offensive line gave us a lot of time,” Ahlers said. “We’ve always felt like we had really good matchups at receiver, and they just went out there and performed really well. I’m just super proud of the guys.”

The Pirates finished with a season-high 575 total yards, eclipsing 500 yards for the third time this season. They leaned heavily on the air attack with leading rusher Keaton Mitchell sidelined with a hip pointer and Rahjai Harris being limited to 40 yards on 11 carries before leaving late in the fourth quarter with a knee injury.

Freshman Marlon Gunn Jr., used in a couple of late-game mop-up duties, provided some punch with 61 yards on 15 carries, including a 34-yarder.

“We felt very comfortable with him going into the ballgame,” Houston said. “I knew he was ready to play, I could just tell. He’s going to be special, and it was great to see him get some significant carries today.”

But the Ahlers-Johnson combo set the tone as ECU looked laser focused from the outset and delivered an early knockout punch.

Ahlers and Johnson teamed up twice on the opening drive, both converting third downs, as ECU grabbed an early 7-0 lead. The touchdown came on a 60-yarder as Johnson got behind defensive back Jaelen Stokes and hauled in a perfect toss from Ahlers.

The Pirates boosted the lead to 14-0 on their third possession, converting two third downs and a fourth down before Ahlers hit Winstead, a Toledo transfer, with a 22-yard scoring strike.

The Bulls, limited to two yards in their first two possessions, threatened to cut their deficit in half late in the first quarter, but Julius Wood stripped the ball from quarterback Gerry Bohanon at the ECU 2, where Xavier Smith recovered. The Pirates needed just three plays to cash in the turnover, with Ahlers and Johnson teaming up for their second touchdown - this time covering 74 yards.

South Florida countered in just two plays and 47 seconds, scoring on a 91-yard catch and run by Jimmy Horn Jr. that gave Bohanon his first touchdown pass of the season and first of three on the day.

The Pirates controlled the remainder of the half, scoring three more times in the final seven minutes for a 41-7 halftime lead. A 21-yard touchdown catch by Jones capped a seven-play, 71-yard drive, then Harris bulled in from five yards on the first play following a 60-yard punt return by Malik Fleming.

Johnson registered his third touchdown just 18 seconds before the half on a 14-yard toss from Ahlers.

Bohanon and the Bulls, who lost their fourth-straight AAC opener, showed some life in the second half by scoring on their first two possessions to draw within 41-21. Bohanon and Horn (8 catches 180 yards) hooked up for the second time on a 21-yard pass, then Sean Atkins caught a four-yard pass.

Johnson’s nine-yard touchdown catch with 3:40 left in the third quarter briefly stopped the momentum. Bohanon, who completed 18 of 28 passes for 253 yards and rushed for another 74 yards, scored on a one-yard run on the first play of the fourth quarter.

The Bulls, who finished with 455 total yards, threatened to get within two touchdowns after Jayden Curry recovered a Jones fumble at the ECU 35. Clemson transfer Michel Dukes apparently scored as he dove for the pylon, but a review placed the ball inside the one.

ECU then stuffed three-straight plays – their fourth goal-line stand this season. The Pirates stopped N.C. State inside the 2 twice in a 21-20 loss in the opener and stopped Navy at the one on the opening possession last week.

After rebuffing the Bulls, the Pirates were able to run out the clock. “Thank goodness we finally had a goal-line stand and won the ballgame,” Houston said. “I thought that was the ballgame right there - the goal-line stand and then the drive by the offense.”

NEW ORLEANS, La. - Too many critical mistakes against a quality team playing on its home turf added up a momentum-draining loss for East Carolina on Saturday afternoon.

The Pirates committed two crucial first-half penalties, threw a pair of second-half interceptions and continued to struggle on special teams with a couple of missed kicks in a 24-9 setback to Tulane on a warm and windy afternoon at Yulman Stadium.

The Green Wave pitched a shutout the final 42:08 in remaining unbeaten in American Athletic Conference play at 2-0 and improving to 5-1 overall. The Pirates, looking to build on last week's 48-28 rout of South Florida, drop to 3-3 overall and 1-2 in the AAC with consecutive home games against Memphis and UCF coming up.

"They made the plays and we didn't," fourth-year ECU head coach Mike Houston said. "That's the disappointing thing. We had our opportunities all day. It's frustrating. I thought we played hard, but we just made some mistakes that you just can't make in a tight ballgame."

For nearly every error the Pirates made, Tulane made them pay.

The first came on ECU's second drive and wiped a touchdown off the board. Quarterback Holton Ahlers zipped a nine-yard pass to Ryan Jones, who came into the game with touchdown catches in four consecutive games, but a penalty for an ineligible man downfield wiped it out.

ECU instead settled for a 27-yard Owen Daffer field goal and a 3-0 lead.

Another penalty on the ensuing possession handed the Green Wave the lead. After Jha'Quan Johnson's 46-yard reception set Tulane up at the 10, the Pirates stymied three plays to apparently force a field goal, but an unsportsmanlike conduct flag on Xavier Smith provided new life.

Two plays later, quarterback Michael Pratt rolled right and flipped a two-yard pass to Tyrick James for a 7-3 lead.

ECU's ongoing kicking woes the surfaced again. A 24-yard pass from Ahlers to C.J. Johnson capped a five-play drive that propelled the Pirates back in front 9-7, but Daffer missed the PAT.

The sophomore kicker, who has now failed on five PAT kicks and a pair of game-deciding field goals, also misfired on a 46-yard attempt to end the half.

Tulane took the lead for a good with a time-consuming, 16-play drive that ended with a five-yard Pratt scamper for a 14-9 lead.

The Green Wave cashed in two Ahlers interceptions into 10 second-half points. ECU's final eight possessions after the second-quarter score resulted in three punts, two turnovers, a missed field goal, turning the ball over on downs, then ending the game at the Tulane 22.

"Tulane's a good football team," Houston said. "They did a great job of executing. I thought Pratt made the big plays down the field in the passing game. I thought their defense did a good job of bend but don't break. They played to keep everything underneath them, so hats off to them. They won the ballgame."

Pratt, despite being sacked five times in the second half, took the upper hand in the battle of veteran quarterbacks. The junior from Boca Raton, Fla., who sat out an overtime win over Houston with an injury, completed 27 of 34 passes for 326 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Six of his completions gained at least 20 yards, including consecutive throws of 33 and 44 yards to Duece Watts to put the Green Wave in the end zone following Larry Brooks' first interception of the year.

Ahlers, pressured often but never sacked, connected on 32 of 51 passes for 288 yards. He now has 12,039 career passing yards to move past Shane Carden as the school's all-time leader. He also now stands first in pass attempts with 1,614.

"I think he did some good things, and I think he made some mistakes," Houston said of his fifth-year senior quarterback. "I don't think it's his best game in his career, and I don't think it's his worst. I would say his day's probably a lot like our team's. You've got to play cleaner, can't make some of those mistakes and have to execute better if we want to win these big ballgames."

ECU's offense lacked some of its firepower with running back Rahjai Harris and receiver Jalen Johnson out with injuries. Running back Keaton Mitchell returned after missing one-plus games with a hip pointer, but never ripped off one of his signature plays.

Mitchell alternated possessions with freshman Marlon Gunn Jr. until Gunn suffered a minor injury. Mitchell finished with 47 yards rushing on 10 carries and caught eight passes for 57 yards while Gunn gained a team and career-high 67 yards on seven carries. He added three catches for 25 yards.

Tulane's physical secondary blanketed ECU's receivers and allowed only two completions more than 20 yards.

"They were showing us drastically different looks every single snap," Houston said. "They were taking away anything down the field for the most part and forcing the ball underneath and to the sidelines. It had to be a game where you had to have some patience and had to execute at a high level, and we didn't do a good enough job."

The Pirates get a chance to change that next Saturday when Memphis comes to town for a 7:30 p.m. kickoff in Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. The Tigers let a 26-7 lead slip away and fell 33-32 to Houston on Friday.

"We have to grow from this, we have to learn from this," Houston said. "It's frustrating because some mistakes you see repeated, you just can't repeat them."

GREENVILLE, N.C. - East Carolina already experienced a couple of crushing last-second losses on its home field this season. A wild four-overtime victory over Memphis on Saturday night gave the Pirates a chance to celebrate.

After digging out of an early 17-point hole and then letting the lead slip away in the final minute, the Pirates endured an overtime shootout to send a Homecoming crowd home happy with a 47-45 victory. C.J. Johnson's catch of a Holton Ahlers pass put ECU up for good, then an overthrow by Memphis quarterback Seth Henigan sealed it.

"Throughout a season you usually lose one you shouldn't, win one you shouldn't, and then the rest of them kind of balance out," fourth-year ECU Head Coach Mike Houston said. "We've lost a couple I didn't think we should have. You won tonight against a very good Memphis squad, and you won it in dramatic fashion, so obviously this is an incredible just moral boost to our kids but also a confidence boost."

The Pirates dropped their opener 21-20 to NC State and fell to Navy 23-20 in two overtimes the last time they were in Dowdy-Ficklen. Junior defensive lineman Jeremy Lewis certainly did not want to repeat those feelings.

"Losing in overtime, that was a heartbreaker," Lewis said. "You don't ever want to feel that again."

The Pirates avoided that on the strength of momentum-swinging interceptions by Malik Fleming and Julius Wood, a solid performance by senior quarterback Holton Ahlers and the return to form by running back Keaton Mitchell.

Ahlers completed 26 of 34 passes for 304 yards, tied Shane Carden for career touchdown passes at 86 and teamed up with C.J. Johnson on what proved to be the winning points. Mitchell, working his way back from a hip pointer, rushed for 149 yards - 132 of which came after halftime - and scored a career-high three touchdowns. He also had a two-point reception in overtime.

Mitchell now has nine career 100-yard games, including three this season. "Everybody loves his break-away speed and all that, but the thing I loved about tonight is we talked about dominating the point of contact no matter what position we played this week," Houston said. "I thought he did a great job of running behind his pads; he did a great job of running between the tackles tonight. He made some great moves in the open field, but he also had a lot of plays where he had contact after two or three yards, but he would surge forward for five or six."

Mitchell's 24-yard run in overtime last year proved the difference in a 30-29 win at Memphis. The Tigers (4-3, 2-2 AAC) failed on a two-point gamble to drop that game. Saturday's loss came on the heels of blowing a 22-point lead and falling 33-32 to Houston.

"As long as we win, I don't care," Ahlers said of another OT battle with Memphis. "We won both of them. I told the media after last week's loss we would figure out what type of team we have in that locker room. I already knew what type of team we had, but we showed it there tonight."

Ahlers referenced a 24-9 setback at Tulane last week in which the offense sputtered, and the Pirates appeared to still be slogging along as Memphis shot out to a 17-0 lead. But momentum drastically shifted in the final two minutes of the half.

ECU (4-3, 2-2 AAC), which came up empty on fourth down from the 3 and failed on a fake punt on its previous two possessions, pieced together a 75-yard drive to get on the board, then scored one play after Malik Fleming's interception and return to the Memphis 16.

Ahlers scored the first touchdown on a 3-yard run then zipped a pass to Isaiah Winstead to tie Carden's milestone.

"What a second quarter, I mean holy cow," Houston said. "The drive by the offense, the interception by Malik Fleming, a great defensive call finally getting some pressure on Henigan. Then the return to set us up, and then the strike from Holton to Isaiah Winstead. All the momentum completely swung back going into the half, which I thought was huge."

Wood made sure the surge didn't stop in the second half. After Chris Howard booted the second of his three field goals for a 20-13 lead - he is now 14 of 14 on the year - Wood corralled a tipped pass and weaved his way through arm tackles 47 yards for the tying score. Henigan entered Saturday's game with just one interception this season but threw two against the Pirates.

"We got some pressure on Henigan, and he airmailed the dig route a little bit, and Julius was right there to make the play," Houston said. "We work interception return drill each week, and I thought our kids did a great job of setting up kind of a wall on the sideline and Julius did a great job of getting in the end zone."

Wood, a 6-2 safety in his second year after transferring from Blinn Community College, said he was in the right spot for his second career interception.

"He tipped it, and I just had to go get it out of the air," Wood said. "Once I saw green grass, I knew it was time to go to the house. There were people trying to tackle me while I was on the way there, and they didn't do a good job."

Andrew Conrad, a freshman from Kernersville replacing kicker Owen Daffer, gave ECU its first lead at 23-20 with a 22-yard field goal, but Howard answered with a 46-yard boot.

The Pirates drove for a potential game-winning touchdown with Mitchell slipping in from the 1 for a 30-23 lead with 1:45 go. Henigan, who threw for 407 yards and a pair of touchdowns, didn't flinch and led Memphis 75 yards in eight plays and just 1:26, hitting Joe Scates with a 13-yard scoring pass.

Asa Martin's 9-yard run and Mitchell's 1-yard plunge forced a second overtime. Mitchell put the Pirates on top 43-37 in the second overtime with a 12-yard run, but the required two-point conversion pass failed.

The Tigers needed five plays to answer with Henigan sneaking in from the 1. Martin's run for two never had a chance.

A shootout with one play from the 3-yard line ensued. Memphis scored on a pass from Henigan to Skates for a 45-43. Ahlers, after surveying the field, finally found Mitchell along the right sideline, and he sidestepped a diving attempt by Sylvontan Oliver and tied it.

Ahlers said he was running out of options before finding Mitchell.

"Once you get to that last read, it's either him or you've got to run it or something," he said. "I'm glad he caught the ball and made a play there and got us in the end zone."

In the fourth OT period, Ahlers teamed up with Johnson, who made a spectacular grab with Joshua Hastings draped over his back. "We hadn't run that play all year," Ahlers said of the winning play. "We hadn't practiced it all year. He runs that route really good, just a slot fade. I told him on the sideline I thought we could have it all game and they waited for the right time to call and obviously he made a great catch."

GREENVILLE, N.C. – If East Carolina never lines up against UCF again, Saturday's thorough 34-13 dismantling serves as an emphatic parting shot.

On a "blackout" night in Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, the Pirates bruised and eventually buried the explosive Knights with their most complete performance in coach Mike Houston's four-year tenure. The Pirates operated with precision and efficiency on offense, forced four turnovers while playing suffocating defense and dealt a severe blow to the Knights' hopes of a title in their final year in the American Athletic Conference.

UCF heads to the Big 12 next year along with Cincinnati and Houston. "This is one of the conference games I wanted to win the most," said safety Jireh Wilson, who came up with one interception and recovered a fumble. "Since I've been here, they have beat us four-straight times, they put up 50 a couple of times. This is one of the games I really wanted a lot."

Quarterback Holton Ahlers, who became the school's all-time leader in touchdown passes with 87, shares those sentiments. UCF, playing its first game outside of Florida this season, came in with six consecutive wins in the series and had won in its last four visits to Greenville.

ECU now holds an 11-10 edge in the series. "We're a senior-led football team," Ahlers said. "We've got a lot of fifth years here and we've been through a lot of stuff. We've been through a lot of losses versus them too. We hadn't beaten them and we took that kind of personal, especially with them going to the Big 12 next year. We wanted to send them off the right way."

The Knights (5-2, 2-1 AAC) may want to erase this one from their memories. UCF, coming off a 70-13 rout of Temple, strutted in as the league leader in both offense and defense, averaging 41.3 points and allowing just 14.3. The 13 points scored represented a season-low, and ECU became the only team to rack up more than 20 points against the Knights (they surrendered 20 in a loss to Louisville).

A vaunted rushing attack that averaged 261.2 yards per game managed just 130 on 32 carries. Quarterback John Rhys Plumlee threw for 296 yards but was picked off three times – matching the number he had in the previous six games.

An aggressive ECU defense harassed Plumlee the entire evening, keeping him on the run and coming up with four sacks.

On the flip side, ECU frustrated and wore down the UCF defense, piling up 35:11 in time of possession and scoring on six of seven drives after a missed field goal to open the game.

Ahlers, foiling a constant blitz, completed 30 of 36 passes for 311 yards – his 17th career 300-yard-plus performance and the third this season. Running back Keaton Mitchell rushed for 105 yards on 16 carries, reaching the century mark for the fourth time this year and joining four other Pirates with at least 10 career 100-yard games.

He punctuated his night with a 37-yard scoring dash with 3:21 to go that delivered the final blow to the Knights.

Receiver C.J. Johnson prevailed in one-on-one battles throughout the night and finished with 11 catches (one shy of matching a career high) for 140 yards, including a 39-yard touchdown for a 17-0 lead in the first half. Isaiah Winstead continued his stellar play with seven catches for 89 yards and now has at least five catches in every game this season.

"I thought all three phases, our coaches had tremendous game plans," Houston said. "They all worked together, how we wanted to play this game. We wanted to control the ball on offense, we wanted to be aggressive and drive and score. ... We knew we had to try to limit the explosive plays defensively."

The Pirates could not have scripted the first half any better – minus the final 41 seconds – forcing turnovers on UCF's first three possessions and turning all three into points for a 17-0 lead.

ECU missed a chance to take the lead on its first possession when Andrew Conrad's 25-yard field goal bounced off the left upright.

The first turnover came one play after Plumlee overthrew a wide-open Jaylon Griffin for a sure touchdown. As Plumlee tried to hit Kobe Hudson on a slant, Wilson stepped in to give ECU at least one forced turnover in 25 of the last 28 games and suddenly shift the momentum.

"If they score right there to go up seven to nothing or three to nothing, or whatever it really puts them in control momentum-wise, but Jireh was able to get that interception right there was obviously a big start to the ballgame," Houston said.

Wilson now has two picks this season and three for his career. "We knew they like to run the glance route, but it's not really a staple in their offense like it is for a lot of other teams," he said. "As I came over, I read the quarterback, and he threw it right to me and I had to make a play."

A methodical 16-play drive followed and reached the 11 before stalling, and Conrad came on to boot a 28-yard field goal.

Julius Wood and Wilson combined to stop the Knights' next drive. On second-and-11, Plumlee broke free on a keeper and had picked up a first down, but Wood, who returned an interception for a score in last week's four-overtime win over Memphis, raked the ball out of the quarterback's right hand, and Wilson scooped it up.

The Pirates needed 10 plays and 5:21 to march 80 yards for a 10-0 lead with Ahlers bowling in from the 3 on a third-down run. A 12-yard toss to Johnson on third down and a 24-yard pass to Tyler Savage set the Pirates up at the 10.

Ahlers gained 9 yards on 1st down then scored two plays later.

Malik Fleming's interception of Plumlee on a fourth-and-5 play from the ECU 37 kept the momentum rolling. Ahlers dumped off a quick pass to Winstead against an all-out blitz for a 19-yard gain on third-and-12 then hooked up with Johnson, his former high school teammate, for 39 yards and a 17-0 lead.

The touchdown pass marked 87 for Ahlers, moving him past Shane Carden as ECU's leader.

"Obviously, he's an all-time great here, so I'm just blessed to be in that category," Ahlers said. "But I've just got to keep working. My goal is to win these games. I'll look at the records when it's all said and done."

UCF avoided a shutout in the first half for the first time since Halloween of 2015 against Cincinnati by quickly driving for a Colton Boomer 26-yard field goal as time expired.

The Knights then showed some life coming out of halftime, scoring on a 3-yard run by Isaiah Bowser to get within 17-10, but they could never get the stop they needed. ECU responded with a nine-play, 75-yard drive with Mitchell scooting in from the 6, boosting the lead to 24-10 and eclipsing the most points UCF had given up all year. Conrad's 26-yard field goal after a UCF punt made it 27-10.

After a UCF field goal, ECU recovered an onside kick, and Mitchell scored two plays later on a 37-yard dash.

Gerard Springer's interception at the 1 polished off the win.

"We talked this morning and we said there were two things we wanted to see: we wanted to see the hands team have to take the field in the fourth quarter, and we wanted the last snap of the game to be the victory offense," Houston said. "... I think that makes it ECU 11, UCF 10, so the next time we see them it will be in our favor before the game. It breaks a little bit of a streak they had going with us. I think getting the win at home in Dowdy-Ficklen, that's pretty special too."
