WCC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

PROVO, Utah – The West Coast Conference today announced sophomore McKenna Bull as its Pitcher of the Week for her role in BYU's four wins last weekend at the Wilson/DeMarini Desert Classic.

Bull went 4-0 with a 2.14 ERA and 20 strikeouts to lead the Cougars (6-4) to a 4-1 record last weekend in Las Vegas. The sophomore gave up 18 hits through 19.2 innings with only six earned runs. She held batters to a lowly .188 average while upping her record to 6-1 on the season.

She began the week allowing three hits while striking out seven in 3.1 innings of relief, picking up the win in the 5-4 BYU walk-off victory over Hawaii Thursday evening.

On Friday she returned to the circle where she faced Northwestern, the team that ended the 2014 season for the Cougars in the NCAA tournament regional.

Wildcat pitcher Kirsten Wood was throwing a no-hitter through five innings, until BYU cashed in five runs off six hits in the bottom of the sixth for a 5-1 win Friday. Bull shut down Northwestern's effort, limiting the opposition to only two hits and one run in seven innings. In game two Friday, Bull turned around and tossed 5.1 innings against UNLV as the Cougars defeated the Rebels 6-5.

Picking up her sixth win on the season, she allowed just one hit and recorded three strikeouts in four innings of BYU's 9-0 victory over UTEP Saturday. The Pitcher of the Week honor is her third career weekly award.

PRESEASON POLL

SAN BRUNO, Calif. - Brigham Young University has been tabbed by the league coaches to win the West Coast Conference Softball Championship this spring, it was announced by the league office Wednesday.

BYU earned top billing collecting five of the six first-place votes and totaled 25 points in the poll. The defending WCC Champion is coming off a 39-23, 12-2 WCC record, after capturing its 10th consecutive postseason bid that ended at the NCAA Regional Semifinal. Thirteen-year head coach Gordon Eakin returns 12 players from that squad, including All-American outfielder Gordy Bravo, All-Conference first team selection Tori Almond, and All-Conference second team honoree Ashlee Robinson. Four sophomores are also returning to the Cougars that include catcher/outfielder Sydney Broderick, infielder Lauren Bell, outfielder/second baseman McKenzie St. Clair, and pitcher McKenna Bull all of which were named to this year's preseason All-Conference team.

The University of Pacific tallied 19 points to garner the second spot in the survey. The Tigers ended the 2014 campaign 20-28, 8-7 season and are looking to return to the postseason for the first time since 2011. Pacific places juniors Sara Anderson and Nicole Zapotoczny on the preseason All-WCC team.

Just two points separated third place, with Saint Mary's College (23-27, 8-7) earning the advantage over Loyola Marymount University (20-27, 1-13). Saint Mary's totaled 17 points and one first place vote, while LMU acquired 15 points from the ballot. After a five-year absence from NCAA postseason play, the Gaels will look to juniors Andrea Hazel and Lujane Mussadi. Last year, the Lions finished the season 20-27, 1-13 and three upperclassman featuring junior shortstop Stephanie Maciel, senior second baseman Sterling Shuster and junior pitcher Sydney Gouveia.

San Diego (26-21, 10-5) garnered nine points and Santa Clara (10-34, 5-10) acquired five points round out the six-team field. For the Toreros, senior third baseman Chloe Kaneko and sophomore outfielder Olivia Sandusky, along with Broncos senior catcher Breezy Bernard were named to the All-WCC preseason list.

Eakin is entering his 13th season as the Cougars' head coach and his 16th season at BYU overall.

Eakin was named head coach in July 2002 after working as an assistant coach since the softball program's inception in 2000. Since that time he has led the Cougars to five Mountain West Conference championships, one Western Athletic Conference tournament championship, one West Coast Conference championship and 10 NCAA tournament appearances.

The 2014 WCC Coach of the Year has coached 12 All-Americans, eight conference players of the year, four conference freshmen of the year and two MWC Pitchers of the Year during his tenure.

In 2010, Eakin guided the Cougars to 46 wins, the most in school history, as BYU advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals for the first time ever with wins over East Carolina and host Texas before ending its season at national runner-up Arizona. The Cougars finished second in the country in batting average, seventh in scoring and ninth in slugging percentage as a team.

Known as one of the best hitting coaches in the country, Eakin has helped BYU finish in the top-ten nationally six times in slugging percentage, six times in home runs per game, four times in batting average and four times in scoring.

In addition to his duties at BYU, Eakin was also an assistant coach and hitting coach for the USA National Team in 2009. In the summer of 2010, Eakin helped guide the National Team to a 17-2 record as USA won the World Championship in Venezuela, the World Cup in Oklahoma and the Japan Cup championship in Sendai, Japan.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Eakin was a successful baseball and softball player. After playing collegiate baseball at the University of Utah, Eakin signed with the Oakland Athletics organization where he played for three years.

Eakin went on to join the United States All-Star team, playing in three U.S. Olympic sports festivals in 1986, 1993 and 1994, winning bronze, silver and gold, respectively. While on the team, Eakin was honored on the ISC All-World First Team and was an ASA All-American. He would later go on to play shortstop on the internationally ranked Larry H. Miller Toyota Fast Pitch team, eventually earning induction into the Utah Fast Pitch Hall of Fame in 1998.

Eakin is a native of Holladay, Utah, and graduated from Granite High. He currently resides in Sandy, Utah, and is married to Barbi. They are the parents of three children (Alicia, Ryan & Parker) and have five grandsons.
