News & Notes

MAKING HISTORY

The Lady Bisons went 10-0 at home last season to make Lipscomb history. The squad was the first to ever accomplish an undefeated home season of any sport in school history. Lipscomb's 10 wins at home last season is an impressive jump from the 2019-2020 season in which the squad won just three home games and seven overall.

IMPACT FRESHMAN

Bella Vinson is a true freshman from Tennessee that will make an immediate impact this season. She is a multi-dimensional player that can shoot, drive and play the post. She will be in the starting lineup in the post to start the season.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

Lipscomb was picked to finish fourth in the Preseason ASUN Coaches Poll. Last season, the Bisons advanced to the ASUN semifinal for the first time since 2018, losing to eventual champion FGCU. Last year, the Lady Bisons posted its best record since the 2017-18 season.

TRANSFER ADDITION

Maddie Cook came to Lipscomb after playing two seasons at Belmont. She adds athleticism and maturity to the squad after being part of two OVC Tournament Championship teams and a team that advanced to the second round of the 2021 NCAA Tournament after defeating Gonzaga.

COMEBACK KID

Senior Sydney Shelton continues to defy the odds this season. For the second time in her career, she suffered what looked to be like a career-ending injury last season. She has refused to give up her dream of playing and has battled back for the second time. She will be ready to play later this season for her final in the Purple and Gold.

Lauren Sumski

Sumski joined the Lipscomb Bisons in the spring of 2019 as the first-ever female to lead the program in the Division I era.

In her first season at the helm of the program, Sumski improved the Bisons record by three wins, doubled their ASUN win total, and led Jalyn Holcomb to earning the program's first-ever ASUN Freshman of the Year award. Last season, Sumski led the Bisons to a 10-0 home record and an ASUN Semifinal berth.

Sumski came to Lipscomb after serving as head coach for the Rhodes College women's basketball team where she compiled a 35-21 overall record in her first head coaching tenure.

At the age of 27 when she was hired she became one of the youngest head coaches in the country across all Divisions.

In her first season at the helm Sumski led the Lynx to an 18-9 overall record, which was a 13-game turnaround from the previous season's 5-21 mark. It was the third largest improvement among all Division III teams in 2016-17.

In her second season she led Rhodes to 17-12 record and a Southern Athletic Association Tournament Championship. The Lynx knocked off the SAA regular season champion Millsaps in the semifinals and then took down the defending tournament champion Oglethorpe in the title game to earn Rhodes its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2015.

Sumski graduated from Rhodes in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in biology with a concentration in pre-medicine, before earning her master's degree in education with a sports administration emphasis in 2016.

Rated the 28th-best high school prospect in the nation by ESPNU Hoopsgurlz 100, Sumski committed to the University of Tennessee and played one season under the legendary Pat Summitt in 2010-11.

She played in 19 games for the SEC champions and was named to the All-SEC Academic team.

After dealing with injuries as a freshman in Knoxville, Sumski transferred back home and played her final three seasons with Rhodes where she rewrote the record books. In her final two years with the Lynx she helped lead the team to a combined 50-8 record, setting the school's record with 25 wins in each season.

Her teams won the SAA regular season and tournament titles in both seasons and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each where they picked up two first-round wins.

During her career, Sumski was a two-time WBCA All-American, a National Player of the year finalist, a SAA Player of the Year, a two-time SAA Tournament MVP, and an academic honor roll member.

Sumski led the nation in points per minute and finished second in the nation in scoring after averaging 25.6 points and 7.3 rebounds per game as a senior, where she led the Lynx to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and their first-ever DIII national ranking. In her junior campaign, she averaged 20.2 points and 8.6 rebounds.

She finished her career with 1,373 points and set the school record for points in a season (692), free throws made (180) and single season per game average.

Passing on numerous professional basketball playing opportunities, Sumski decided to pursue a career in coaching. After graduating from Rhodes, Sumski was awarded her first coaching opportunity as an assistant coach on Mark Campbell's staff at Union University in August of 2014.

Sumski was also a highly-decorated high school player at Lausanne Collegiate School in Memphis. She was named a national high school All-American, earned two state titles and was a two-time Tennessee Miss Basketball. She averaged 15.7 points, 8.6 rebounds, 6.6 assists and 5.8 steals per game for her career and posted 90 double-doubles, seven triple-doubles and one quadruple-double.

Sumski is married to her husband Chris, who served as an assistant coach on her staff at Rhodes and here at Lipscomb.
