NO. 6 BYU VS. NO. 14 TEXAS

No. 6 BYU (8-1-1, 1-0-1 Big 12) women's soccer heads to Austin, Texas to face No. 14 Texas on Monday evening.

THE COUGARS. BYU last played at Baylor Thursday evening, besting the Bears 4-0. This was the Cougars second shutout of the season and first official Big 12 victory. Senior midfielder Brecken Mozingo scored a brace courtesy of a successful penalty kick in the first half and a second-half rocket from outside the 18-yard box. In her first start of the season, senior Rachel McCarthy tallied another goal for the Cougars, while Allie Fryer rounded out the scoring for BYU. BYU tallied its season-high shots with 29, also adding nine corner kicks to the stat sheet. Freshman transfer goalkeeper Lynette Hernaez recorded her first career start and win for the Cougars.

THE LONGHORNS. No. 14 Texas (7-2-1) last hosted No. 25 Texas Tech for a Thursday evening matchup. Texas suffered a last second heartbreak as Texas Tech got a header goal off a free kick as the clock hit zero, beating the Longhorns 2-1 on their home turf. Despite the loss, the Longhorn offense has proven to be one of the most efficient scoring powerhouses in the country, with forward Lexi Missimo leading the conference with 12 goals, 15 assists and 71 shots.

COUGARS VS. LONGHORNS. The Cougars and Longhorns have met five times previously, with Texas leading the series 3-2. The last time the teams faced off was in 2012 when the Cougars defeated the Longhorns 5-0 on South Field. Former Coug Michele Murphy led the team in that game with two goals, an assist and three shots.

HEAD COACH JENNIFER ROCKWOOD

JENNIFER
ROCKWOOD
HEAD COACH
29TH YEAR AT BYU
Career Record: 443-127-55
BYU '89

As the only BYU women's soccer head coach in program history, Jennifer Rockwood has established herself as one of the premier coaches in Division I soccer today. With an overall career record of 442-126-55 in her 29 years at the helm of the program, Rockwood has accomplished great things and coached remarkable players.

Before transitioning to a Division I program, Rockwood led the BYU women's soccer club team for seven years, amassing an overall record of 128-25-9. In the final two years as a club team, Rockwood took her teams to the Western National Collegiate Club Soccer Association title and placed second in the NCCSA National Championships.

As a player, Rockwood spent one year at Rick's College on a basketball scholarship before transferring to BYU where she became a four-year starter at center midfield on the Cougars' club soccer team. Rockwood has also coached youth club programs, high school teams and the Utah Olympic Development Program.

During her tenure at BYU, Rockwood has accomplished several major feats. She has taken the Cougars to 23 NCAA tournament appearances, including seven third rounds ("Sweet Sixteens"), three quarterfinals ("Elite Eights"), and one finals appearance. Her 2021 team made it to the National Championship game for the first and only time in program history, falling to Florida State in penalty kicks.

The Lake Oswego, Oregon native is 12th in the NCAA Division I soccer for most all-time wins, and eighth in active career winning percentage (.754). She is the third coach to start an NCAA Division I program and win 300 games there. Rockwood is also the sixth NCAA coach to win 300 games at one school.

As head coach at BYU, Rockwood has led her team to seven Mountain West Conference Tournament

Championships, six MWC regular-season titles and nine West Coast Conference championships.

Rockwood has been recognized by three conferences for her prestige as a collegiate coach, earning WAC Coach of the Year in 1996, MWC Coach of the Year in 2000 and 2008, and earning the WCC recognition for Coach of the Year four times during her tenure (2012, 2014, 2018, 2019).

Rockwood has also earned the title of West Region Coach of the Year in both 1996 and 2012. Her staff was recognized in 2019 for their incredible achievements, earning the honor of United Soccer Coaches Regional Staff of the Year.

The Governor's State of Sports Awards also named Rockwood the 2016 Women's Coach of the Year after an 18-3-1 final season record.

After taking her team to BYU's first-ever NCAA College Cup finals, Rockwood and staff were named the 2021 NCAA DI Women's Staff of the Year by the United Soccer Coaches.

Rockwood has coached 26 winning seasons at BYU, and has ended the season ranked in the top 25 16 times, with five top-10 rankings and three top-five rankings. She has coached 20 All-Americans, two of which are on the current roster (Brecken Mozingo and Jamie Shepherd).

Seven MAC Hermann Trophy candidates, four MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalists and two finalists have played for Coach Rockwood at BYU. She has seen fourteen former players go professional, and nine players who have played U-20 or higher on the United States Women's National Team.

Currently, there are four former Cougs playing professional soccer. Ashley Hatch, Mikayla Cluff, Cameron Tucker and Michele Vasconcelos are all playing in the NWSL. Hatch has also played with the USWNT for several tournaments dating back to 2016, including the 2022 CONCACAF tournament. She is the first former Coug to earn the NWSL Golden Boot award, receiving recognition in 2021 after finishing her regular season with 10 goals.

THE ROCKWOOD LEGACY

Jen is such a successful coach because she influences each of her players both on the field and off the field. She knows how to bring the best out of people and help them reach their full potential. I personally wouldn't be who I am today if it weren't for Jen and everything she taught me as a soccer player, but even more importantly, as a person. The success that the BYU soccer program has had is a direct reflection of who Jen is!
 - Mikayla Colohan (BYU soccer alum; NWSL Orlando Pride)

"I really enjoyed my time playing for Jen at BYU. Jen has the ability to bring the best out of players and I am forever grateful for the opportunity I had to play for her. Throughout my career at BYU Jen helped me develop an attacking mindset that has helped me develop into the player I am today."
 - Ashley Hatch (BYU soccer alum; USWNT; NWSL Washington Spirit)

Jen is an amazing coach who helped me become a better soccer player. More importantly, however, Jen is a trusted friend and mentor who has helped me become a better person. I will forever be grateful for Jen's ongoing influence in my life.
 - Cameron Tucker (BYU soccer alum; NWSL Houston Dash)

ASSOC. HEAD COACH BRENT ANDERSON

ANDERSON
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
7TH YEAR AT BYU
Utah State '97

Brent Anderson first joined the BYU women's soccer coaching staff in 2017 as an assistant coach. In the summer of 2023, he was promoted to associate head coach.

Along with Rockwood, Anderson has coached the Cougars to four NCAA tournament appearances, including their first-ever NCAA National Championship appearance in 2021. The Cougars have earned five top-25 finishes since Anderson joined the program.

Since joining Rockwood's staff in 2017, Anderson has coached six All-Americans and three Academic All-Americans. He has also coached four MAC Hermann Trophy candidates, two semifinalists and one finalist.

Anderson was at BYU when the women's soccer staff earned the honors of 2019 United Soccer Coaches Regional Staff of the Year and 2021 NCAA DI United Soccer Coaches Women's Staff of the Year.

Before joining Rockwood's staff, Anderson was the longest tenured head coach for the UVU women's soccer team. In his 11 seasons with the Wolverines, Anderson compiled an impressive 110-100-14 record.

Anderson led his team at UVU to the program's first NCAA tournament appearance in 2015. He guided the Wolverines to a then-record 13 wins in 2014. Anderson is the one-and-only recipient of the Great West Conference Coach of the Year award, garnering the honor in each of the four years that the league existed.

Prior to his coaching career, Anderson played club soccer at Utah State for four years. He was a four-year starter and team captain in 1996 and 1997 as a goalkeeper. Anderson was named First-Team All-Region National College Soccer Association (NCSA) in 1997. In the NCSA, he played against teams such as Arizona, Michigan, Tennessee and Kansas State. As team captain, he led the Utah State club team to the NCSA Final Four in 1997.

After finishing his playing career, Anderson started the Cadence Soccer Shop in Cache Valley. He ran clinics and held leagues with the business from 1996 to 2000. In 1998, Anderson opened Ultimate Sports, an Indoor Soccer Facility located in Hyde Park, Utah. He worked as the director of operations, the director of player development and the head coach of several club teams while running the business. The facility also included other recreational activities including a rock-climbing wall.

Anderson currently owns and operates Bullnose Products, which carries specialty fishing items, with his wife, Kathy

Anderson is a native of Logan, Utah. He graduated from Mountain Crest High School in 1989. He played soccer all four years. In his senior year he was named to the All-Region team. When Anderson is not coaching soccer he enjoys spending time with his family, snowboarding, skateboarding and playing indoor soccer with his family and friends. Anderson also collects OG and reissued skateboards from the 80's.

Anderson and his wife Kathy have four kids: Tennessee, Easton, Kaiya, and Ever.

MISSIONARY TRADITION

GO FORTH TO SERVE

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities.

The missionary effort is based on the New Testament pattern of missionaries serving in pairs, teaching the gospel and baptizing believers in the name of Jesus Christ (see, for example, the work of Peter and John in the book of Acts).

More than 54,000 full-time missionaries are serving missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Most missionaries are young people under the age of 25, serving in 407 missions throughout the world. Single men serve missions for two years and single women serve missions for 18 months.

Missionary work is voluntary. Missionaries fund their own missions — except for their transportation to and from their field of labor — and are not paid for their services. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church total over 16 million members, and it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.ChurchofJesusChrist.org.

The BYU women's soccer team is unique in that it currently has 10 players on the team who have served full-time missions, with two others currently serving. The women's soccer team has the most active and returned missionaries among all the women's athletic programs at BYU.

CONFERENCE SUCCESS

BYU women's soccer has a history of remarkable conference success, dating back to 1996 when it won its first conference title in the Western Athletic Conference. Since joining the Mountain West Conference in 1999, BYU has earned 15 regular-season championship trophies, including nine in the West Coast Conference. The longest regular-season conference championship title streak for BYU is five years in a row, running from 2012-2016. While the WCC does not have a conference tournament, BYU earned the title of conference tournament champion seven times in the MWC and once in the WAC. The Cougars will now prepare to enter their first season in a new conference, beginning Big 12 competition in September.

SOUTH FIELD

Considered one of the toughest places for opponents to play in collegiate soccer, South Field was the top home venue in college women's soccer in terms of attendance per game in 2019 (2,945), 2021 (2,513) and 2022 (3,186). BYU broke program records for single game attendance in 2017 when it hosted No. 1 UCLA (5,735). Since 1995, the Cougars have gone 237-29-13 on South Field.

Located just south of the Smith Fieldhouse, South Field boasts one of the best-maintained grass playing surfaces in the NCAA. In fact, the U.S. Men's National Soccer Team chose South Field as its practice field in preparation for the 2005 World Cup qualifier against Costa Rica. South Field is also equipped with state-of-the-art field lights, making night games a favorite among fans. In addition, the Wasatch Mountains serve as a scenic backdrop for the dedicated fans.

This popular facility underwent renovations in March 2008 and Spring 2017. The South Field now features a permanent grandstand of 20 rows that accommodates 4,200 spectators in chair and bench-back seating. The grandstand is 26 feet high, 216 feet across and 65 feet deep. In 2017, the field was replaced and a concrete pad was installed under the press tent.
