CARDIAC COOGS

Houston is no stranger to five-setters, playing in eight of them in 2022 and 35 since Rehr was named head coach in 2019.

The Cougars went 7-1 in matches that went the distance last season, including back-to-back wins in five sets in the NCAA Tournament. The team's only 3-2 loss was on the road against No. 23 UCF in the final match of the regular season.

Overall, Houston has a 22-13 record in five setters in the David Rehr-a (post 2019).

FALL CLEANING

While five-setters don't phase the Cougars, the team also thrives in three set matches as well. The team posted 15 sweeps in 2022, including a streak of eight in a row.

Since Rehr arrived in 2019, the Cougars have gone 38-6 in three-set matches, including a 13-0 mark in 2021 and a 6-0 mark in the abridged 2020 season. Houston is 2-1 in three-setters this season.

BE A GOLDFISH

Ted Lasso advised his team to "be a goldfish", who he said were the happiest animals because they only have a 10-second memory.

The Cougars have applied that mindset to their play over the last couple seasons. Over the last three years, Houston has posted a 10-1 record in matches immediately following a loss in the same season, keeping losing streaks to a minimum. Rehr's squad not only bounces back, but does so decisively, posting a 31-9 set record in those matches.

BACK TO BACK 20s

Houston enters the 2023 season on the heels of a pair of very successful seasons. The Cougars posted back-to-back 25-win seasons for the first time since 1979-80, prior to the addition of women's volleyball as an NCAA sport. Similarly, Houston also has posted back-to-back 20 win seasons for the first time under head coach David Rehr and for the first time since 1999-2000.

RIDING A HOT STREAK

In the summer of 2019, Houston's Athletic Department completed multiple facilities upgrades that gave the Cougars a complete face lift and some of the best facilities in the nation.

With a seating capacity of 7,035, Houston calls the $60 million Fertitta Center home. Featuring a premium club and a courtside club, the floor-level seating opposite of the team benches for Houston students brings volleyball fans even closer to the action.

TERAFLEX ADD The new Taraflex flooring that sits on top of the basketball court transforms the arena into a volleyball-centric environment, giving fans the opportunity to watch Houston Volleyball in a way they never have before.

LOCKER ROOM Houston also moved its team area into the Fertitta Center, inside a 4,500 square foot space just up the tunnel from the court. This designated team area now houses the Cougars' locker room, player's lounge, nutrition center and satellite training room.

That summer also saw the Cougars complete the installation of their new training courts. Housed inside the Athletics/Alumni Center, the three-court layout covers nearly 18,000-square-feet, and rivals the nation's elite programs.
