100 SEASONS OF BYU FOOTBALL. BYU football is turning 100 this fall as it plays its 100th season in 2024.

Leading up to and throughout this milestone season, BYU Athletics will be providing fans with a variety of opportunities to celebrate and reminisce over the rich history and tradition of Cougar football while cheering on the 2024 team in its second season as a member of the Big 12 Conference.

The 100 seasons of Cougar football have not occurred consecutively, as BYU, like many other universities, did not field teams during World War II. The Cougars played their first intercollegiate varsity football season in 1922 as a member of the Rocky Mountain Conference. After being one of seven institutions to form the Mountain States Athletic Conference (also known as the Skyline Conference) in 1938, BYU took a three-year hiatus from the gridiron five years later from 1943-1945 due to World War II.

Since returning to the field in 1946, BYU has fielded a football team each fall as members of the Mountain States Conference (through 1961), Western Athletic Conference (1962-1998), Mountain West Conference (1999-2010), FBS Independent (2011-2022) and Big 12 Conference (2023-present) to make the 2024 season the university's 100th football campaign.

The celebration of 100 seasons will start taking place in July leading up to the start of the team's fall camp practices and continue throughout the 2024 season, which opens on Aug. 31 against Southern Illinois in LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Fans can participate and follow the latest announcements, news and updates about the 100 seasons of BYU football by going to BYUCougars.com/100 and the BYUCougars app. In addition to all the latest information about the special festivities, fans can read articles that feature and revisit the incredible history created by BYU players and coaches over the decades.

KALANI SITAKE - HEAD COACH

YEARS AT BYU: 9th year at BYU (61-41) YEARS OVERALL: 9th year as head coach, 24 years in coaching Kalani Sitake (kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) enters his ninth season overseeing the BYU football program in 2024.

In his 24rd overall season as a coach, Sitake leads the program he once played for under legendary Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards. A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history and just the fourth since 1972, when Edwards took over the program. Sitake is the first former player under Edwards to be named head coach at BYU.

With a career record of 61-41, Sitake and his program moved from the ranks of FBS independents to join the Big 12 Conference in 2023 and look to take another step forward in 2024 in year two of the league.

During his tenure, Sitake has helped the Cougars achieve notable wins over Arkansas, Texas Tech, Baylor, Wisconsin, Michigan State, Mississippi State, Tennessee, USC, Utah, Arizona, Arizona State, Washington State and Boise State, among others. He has also championed BYU's Built4Life career development and NIL program. Built4Life is designed to support BYU student-athletes in developing critical life skills, facilitating professional development opportunities and connecting classroom learning directly to relevant employment opportunities.

During his coaching career, Sitake has helped his teams to 14 bowl games. Sitake has been on the winning side 11 times in bowl appearances, including a 4-2 mark as a head coach.

Named BYU's head coach on December 19, 2015, Sitake returned to his alma mater from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015 under head coach Gary Andersen. Sitake took the helm at BYU after 15 years in the college coaching profession, which included seven seasons serving as a defensive coordinator and four years as an assistant head coach.

Prior to Oregon State, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah under head coach Kyle Whittingham, also a former Cougar. Sitake started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012. While at Utah, Sitake coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014).

During his career, Sitake has helped mentor 33 NFL Draft picks, including 13 Cougars since taking over the program in 2016. Last year's draft saw left tackle Kingsley Suamataia selected by the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2023, three Cougars taken, including Blake Freeland (4th round), Jaren Hall (5th round) and Puka Nacua (5th round). Nacua earned All-Pro status while finishing as the Offensive Rookie of the Year runner-up after a record-breaking first season in the league. In 2022, running back Tyler Allgeier went to the Atlanta Falcons, where he set a Falcon's rushing record for a rookie with a 1,000-yard season. Allgeier followed the footsteps of other recent Cougar draft picks under Sitake, such as No. 2 overall pick Zach Wilson and offensive tackle Brady Christensen among five players drafted in the 2021, linebackers Sione Takitaki and Fred Warner in 2019 and 2018 and running back Jamaal Williams in 2017. Among their many accomplishments, Williams, BYU's all-time rushing leader, also rushed for more than 1,000 yards in 2022 while leading the NFL in rushing touchdowns, while Warner again earned All-Pro honors being widely regarded as one of the top linebackers in the NFL.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002 under Gary Crowton. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

He began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a twoyear mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards. A team captain as a senior, Sitake's last game as a player was also the last game coached by the legendary Edwards, who was a great mentor for Sitake.

Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake is the nation's first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. Sitake and his wife Timberly have four children.

He received the 2023 John L. Toner Award from the National Football Foundation, recognizing athletics directors who have demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the university's new athletic facilities.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe first came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He earned first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989.

After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91 and later accepted an offer from Hall of Fame coach Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in Zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in Athletic Administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children and 10 grandchildren.

BYU'S HISTORY

The establishment of the Brigham Young Academy in 1875 offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into nearly 600 acres and more than 300 buildings. From its inception, the goal of Brigham Young University has been to offer "a new kind of education" for Zion, one based on precepts "revealed by the Lord," as Maeser once remarked. Today, BYU provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The University is widely recognized for its deep commitments to inspired religious values and rigorous intellectual learning.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University — founded, supported, and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints — is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs, and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenge and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind.

AIMS OF A BYU EDUCATION

BYU seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and to serve others throughout their lives. These are the common aims of all education at BYU. Both those who teach in the classroom and those who direct activities outside the classroom are responsible for contributing to this complete educational vision. A BYU education should be:

- Spiritually Strengthening
- Intellectually Enlarging
- Character Building
- Leading to Lifelong Learning and Service

CHURCH EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM HONOR CODE

The Church Educational System (CES) is sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Church) and directed by the Church Board of Education/Boards of Trustees, with the mission to develop disciples of Jesus Christ who are leaders in their homes, the Church, and their communities.

The CES Honor Code helps to accomplish the CES mission to build disciples of Jesus Christ. As faculty, administration, staff, and students voluntarily commit to conduct their lives in accordance with the principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ, they strive to maintain the highest standards in their personal conduct regarding honor, integrity, morality, and consideration of others. By accepting appointment, continuing in employment, being admitted, or continuing enrollment, each member of the campus communities personally commits to observe the CES Honor Code approved by the Board of Trustees:

- Maintain an Ecclesiastical Endorsement, including striving to deepen faith and maintain gospel standards
- Be honest
- Live a chaste and virtuous life, including abstaining from sexual relations outside marriage between a man and a woman. Living a chaste and virtuous life also includes abstaining from same-sex romantic behavior.
- Abstain from alcoholic beverages, tobacco, tea, coffee, vaping, marijuana, and other substance abuse

MISSIONARY SERVICE

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities.

The missionary effort is based on the New Testament pattern of missionaries serving in pairs, teaching the gospel and baptizing believers in the name of Jesus Christ (see, for example, the work of Peter and John in the book of Acts).

More than 60 members of the current team has served a Latter-Day Saint mission. Members of the team have served in 30 different countries, speak as more than 15 languages and have served on six of the seven continents around the globe. BYU currently has several members of the team (previous signees or on roster) that are currently serving in the mission field.

More than 54,000 full-time missionaries are serving missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Most missionaries are young people under the age of 25, serving in 407 missions throughout the world.

Missionaries work with a companion of the same gender during their mission, with the exception of couples, who work with their spouse. Single men serve missions for two years and single women serve missions for 18 months.

Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent only to countries where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language.

Offensive lineman Connor Pay served in Washington D.C.

Prior to going to their assigned area, missionaries spend a short period of time at one of 22 missionary training centers throughout the world. There they learn how to teach the gospel in an orderly and clear way and, if necessary, they begin to learn the language of the people they will be teaching. The largest training center is in Provo, Utah, with additional centers in Brazil, Colombia, England, Ghana, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, and South Africa.

A typical missionary day begins by waking at 6:30 a.m. for personal study. The day is spent proselytizing by following up on appointments, visiting homes or meeting people in the street or other public places. Missionaries end their day by 10:30 p.m. Schedules are flexible depending on the culture of the country where missionaries are serving.

Missionary work is voluntary. Missionaries fund their own missions — except for their transportation to and from their field of labor — and are not paid for their services. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church total over 16 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. WELCOME TO THE CLUB!

The Cougar Club is dedicated to the success of Coach Kalani Sitake and the BYU football team; donors receive Cougar Club status for any gift to BYU athletics. With the donations and support of thousands of members nationwide, the Cougar Club supports more than 600 BYU student-athletes who represent the university in 21 NCAA sports. Through its fundraising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is enhancing the future success of BYU Athletics.

BYU Athletics depends on loyal Cougar Club members for funding critical to the athletic department's success. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of Cougar Club Members becomes an important key to the future achievements of BYU Athletics.

"BYU's donors and fans make all the difference, and we can't do it without your help!" says Cougar Club Director Greg Vehar. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital athletic priorities, including:

- Funding athletic scholarships
- Building and maintaining state-of-the-art facilities
- Supporting the Student Athlete Life and Learning Center
- Sponsoring outreach to the elementary schools and the community by BYU Student Athletes
- Paying recruiting expenses to help BYU coaches attract talented athletes from across the country and around the world
- Funding the Nutrition Center and the Student Athlete Fuel Card

CONTRIBUTION LEVELS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Annual Members make Cougar Club contributions of between $60 and $3,000 each year, based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. Legacy Members make an initial contribution of $10,000 or more and continue their involvement with sustaining annual gifts of $2,000 or more. To acknowledge the generosity of Club members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Cougar Club members, including priority seating, parking passes, and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU Athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs and making a difference in the lives of more than 600 BYU student-athletes.

"You guys will agree that [Lavell Edwards] stadium is one of the prettiest settings of college football. This stadium is just unbelievable."

- KIRK HERBSTREIT,

ESPN College Football Analyst

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

CAPACITY: 63,470

CONSTRUCTED: 1964 (COUGAR STADIUM)

EXPANDED: 1982 RENAMED: 2000 PLAYING SURFACE: NATURAL GRASS

ELEVATION: 4,338

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 63,470-seat capacity, video walls and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

RENAMING

The stadium's name was changed from Cougar Stadium to LaVell Edwards Stadium, in honor of legendary Hall of Fame head coach LaVell Edwards, in a pregame ceremony on November 18, 2000, conducted by President Gordon B. Hinckley, president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Edwards had previously announced he would retire following the 2000 season after 29 years at the helm.

HISTORY/EXPANSION/SEATING CAPACITY

Cougar Stadium was originally built in 1964 with a seating capacity of 45,000, including the temporary bleachers in the end zone. As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000.

The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003, BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045. In 2010 and 2011 BYU created additional wheelchair access inside the stadium, which reduced the capacity by 575 seats to 63,470.

2024 UPDATES

For the 2024 season, BYU installed new natural grass for the playing surface and replaced the field turf in the team bench areas and surrounding sidelines. New LED lighting and light fixtures were installed. Suites also received remodels and numerous seating areas were updated with new seats and club level areas to enhance the LaVell Edwards Stadium experience. A new addition to the post-game media area as also completed for the fall of 2024.

NEW VIDEO BOARDS, LED RIBBONS AND SOUND SYSTEM

In 2021, new video boards, LED ribbon boards and a new sound system were installed. The project was funded completely by Nu Skin, a longtime partner and corporate sponsor of BYU Athletics. Both video boards at the north and south ends of the stadium were replaced. The old dimensions were 34 by 50 feet, the new dimensions of the south board will be 48 by 131 feet and the north board is 36 by 72 feet. New LED ribbon boards were also be installed on the north and south ends of the stadium to match the current ribbon board on the east side of the stadium. The north and south ribbon boards are now eight-foot ribbon boards. A new single point sound system replaced the old sound system in the north end zone, which significantly enhanced the audio experience for those in attendance.

2019 UPGRADES & IMPROVEMENTS

Structural sections at the four corners of the stadium were added for the 2019 season that connect the existing four independent stadium stands at the mezzanine level. The upgrades improve accessibility, safety and the overall patron experience at BYU football games, allowing fans to walk between stands without having to return to ground level and increasing the number of services and restrooms in the stadium with women's, men's and family-friendly facilities being added on the north and south mezzanine levels. In 2022, BYU added more corporate sponsorship areas and Club 22, a hosting area inside the stadium.

WI-FI AND DAS

In 2018, BYU became the first college football program in the country to implement a full-stadium, high-density Wi-Fi offload solution used in many NFL stadiums. BYU partnered with Verizon Wireless and Extreme Networks to install new state-of-the-art Wi-Fi and distributed antenna system (DAS) in Edwards Stadium. The cutting-edge system provides BYU fans and vendors the ultimate large-venue mobile connectivity experience.

*Due to Covid-19 pandemic, spectators were only allowed to attend four home games which each had varying capacity limits. Many programs across the country did not allow any spectators or had limited access.

FOOTBALL FACILITIES

EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

Unveiled in the spring of 2021, the newly renovated football locker room offers the football team and staff convenient access to the program's equipment room, athletic training facilities, strength and conditioning center, practice fields and meeting rooms.

Each locker offers a creative, personalized design while providing spacious storage compartments intended for football-specific equipment, pads and gear. A built-in ventilation system takes odor and moisture from each locker compartment and removes it from the locker room. The many amenities also include locking compartments, comfortable soft seats and built-in power and charging ports. The entire facility, including showers and bathrooms, were redone along with the addition of a new team haircutting area.

Other features of the renovations include a Nike gear display, BYU football history uniform displays, new shuffle board tables and televisions, and equipment pick-up lockers. The football staff locker and alumni locker areas within the facility were also renovated.

TRAINING FACILITIES

BYU's training facilities include a newly renovated hydro therapy room with the one of the largest, state-of-the-art aquatic therapy treadmill in the west, along with two large hot and cold whirlpool therapy pools. BYU's HydroWorx 2000 series underwater treadmill allows up to four people at once with adjustable floor range up to 6 feet, resistance jets speeds up to 10 mph and running speeds up to 8.5 mph. BYU athletes can do full sprinting, unload their body weight for faster recoveries, and watch their body mechanics on monitors thanks to multiple underwater cameras from both front and lateral views. Doctor's offices are on site in the training facilities where bikes, treadmills and the latest equipment are also utilized as trainers and doctors assist and treat BYU athletes.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER

The football team's Strength and Conditioning Center is conveniently located with easy access from the football locker room in the Student Athlete Building and to the team's practice fields. Most of the equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. With a new 2,500 square foot addition completed for the 2017 season, the facility features 20 full power racks with platforms as well as reverse hypers, Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, Nordic Track incline trainers, Verscaclimbers, Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. For 2023, a second-floor overlook adds more equipment and space to the center.

BUILT FOR LIFE STUDENT-ATHLETE CENTER

The Built For Life Student-Athlete Center, undergoing a remodel for the 2023-24 season, is a comprehensive support area for student-athletes. Services include academic advisors, learning specialists, tutors, mentors, a financial aid counselor, a student wellness and career advisor, multicultural counselor, a sport performance psychologist, and a mental health psychologist. The purpose of the center is to provide comprehensive support for overall wellbeing of each student-athlete with the purpose of helping them achieve their academic, athletic and career goals. The center also acts as a liaison with Campus Housing and BYU Admission Services regarding housing and initial BYU application questions.

LEGENDS GRILLE

Fans, coaches and athletes can view TV screens, a ticker tape with world wide sports scores or view specialty events on a projection screen while catching a bite to eat.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

The IPF is 106,000 square feet with retractable goalposts, a sideline staging facility for offensive linemen and serves as a practice facility for football in all forms of weather. The indoor surface is field turf and the building features four video platforms located 40 feet above the playing surface. The IPF also serves as an indoor practice area for soccer, golf, baseball and softball teams and a variety of other sports programs, including extramurals and intramurals.

BYU FOOTBALL: 2023 SEASON REVIEW

BYU completed its inaugural season as a member of the Big 12 Conference in 2023. The campaign consisted of memorable moments against high-caliber opponents and fans while setting the program on a course for improvement in a new era of Cougar football.

Season one of life in the Big 12 proved to be a challenging task, facing teams that were bigger, stronger, faster and more experienced week to week than in previous schedules. The Cougars expected all of this in 2023 and bolstered the roster with more than 20 transfers with collegiate experience that proved to be valuable additions in a grueling first year. Head coach Kalani Sitake also revamped his defensive coaching staff in 2023, bringing in new associate head coach and defensive coordinator Jay Hill to lead a more aggressive defense to combat the high-powered Big 12 offenses.

By the end of the season, the Sagarin ratings had BYU's 2023 schedule ranked as the No. 11 toughest in the country. That ranking tied for the toughest schedule in 25 years, matching the 2004 season.

Cougar fans showed up in full force at home and away to support BYU football as always. BYU was No. 3 in the Big 12 in home attendance, behind departing members Texas (101,625) and Oklahoma (83,742) with an average attendance of 61,944. That number ranked No. 26 overall and No. 3 in the west, just behind Washington (68,814) and USC (66,071).

Tough Schedule

Heading into the 2023 season, BYU had never played more than seven Power 5 teams in a single year, and never faced more than four consecutively in any season. BYU played 10 Power 5 opponents in 2023, including 10 in a row for the first time in history.

The Cougars faced four teams that finished in the Associated Press Top 25 (No. 3 Texas, No. 15 Oklahoma, No. 16 Oklahoma State, No. 23 Kansas)—the second-most in school history and the most since 1991's five AP Top 25 teams.

In Big 12 play, BYU faced seven teams that made a bowl game, including Texas, who made the College Football Playoff ranked No. 3. The Cougars also played each of the top-5 league finishers, including the top 3 all on the road (Texas, Oklahoma State, West Virginia).

Among the other newcomers to the Big 12 (UCF, Houston, Cincinnati), only the Knights made a bowl game in their first year with six wins, and all finished with a sub-.500 record. BYU was the only team of the new additions to play both highly ranked Oklahoma and Texas in 2023, and faced just one of the other newcomers in Cincinnati. The other three all had games against two of the newcomers and played only one of Texas and Oklahoma. The schedules of the other new teams ranked 37 (Houston), 39 (UCF) and 51 (Cincinnati) according to Sagarin ratings.

Revamped Defense

The Big 12 featured some of the most high-powered offenses in the country and BYU matched up against the seven teams ranked in the top 40 in total offense, including No. 3 Oklahoma, No. 9 Texas, No. 11 TCU, No. 21 Kansas, No. 27 West Virginia, No. 30 Oklahoma State and No. 33 Cincinnati.

To prepare for the new challenge on defense, BYU's new defensive coordinator and former Weber State head coach Jay Hill brought along new staff members Kelly Poppinga (defensive ends), Sione Po'uha (defensive tackles), Justin Ena (linebackers) while keeping cornerbacks Jernaro Gilford from the previous staff.

Learning a new scheme in 2023 had its bumps and bruises when at times BYU struggled to get stops, but it often made up for it with takeaways, finishing the year ranked No. 20 in interceptions with 14 and tied for No. 40 in total turnovers gained with 20 on the year.

The Cougars had two players ranked in the top 20 in interceptions, with defensive back Eddie Heckard leading the team with 5, good for No. 6 nationally while his teammate in the secondary Jakob Robinson had four of his own. Each one had a pick-six. Heckard added another defensive score with a fumble recovery for a touchdown. Five more players had at least one interception for the Cougars.

BYU also had several other play makers on defense showcase their talent throughout the year, along with unexpected contributors stepping up into bigger roles perhaps earlier than expected.

The safety position was hit hard by injuries, with both expected starters in Micah Harper and Talan Alfrey knocked out before the season began. Harper was lost for the year while Alfrey returned for the last three games.

In their place, Ethan Slade emerged as one of the most reliable defenders, finishing third on the team with 60 tackles after starting 11 games before missing the final game of the year with an injury. Converted wideout Tanner Wall also stepped up early, playing in the first five games with three starts, making 22 stops before he was lost to injuries as well. Utah State transfer Crew Wakley made good on his opportunity, appearing in all 12 games, making seven starts and finished fifth on the team with 59 tackles while adding six pass breakups to lead the safeties room. Malik Moore, Preston Rex and freshman Raider Damuni all saw time at the safety position during the year.

Among the most consistent performers was defensive lineman Tyler Batty, who had a banner year in a new-look defense from his position on the end. Batty led the Cougars for the third year in sacks, picking up 5.5 with nine total tackles for loss. Batty finished with 57 total tackles to lead the defensive line and had eight quarterback hurries as the most effective pass-rusher on the squad. Batty also forced two fumbles and recovered another.

Off the field, Batty's accolades continued. He earned a spot on the prestigious AFCA Allstate Good Works Team, awarded to players that not only excel on the field, but are exemplary in their service to the community. He was recognized at halftime of the CFP Playoff at the Sugar Bowl. (Read more).

The Cougars also had some of the most experienced linebackers in the country with veterans Max Tooley, Ben Bywater and Utah State transfer AJ Vongphachanh. Tooley and Vongphachanh finished 1 and 2 in tackles, with 92 and 85, respectively. The two backers concluded their collegiate careers with over 300 tackles apiece (Tooley 311, Vongphachanh 308). Bywater was on pace to join them with 32 over the first four games but suffered a season-ending injury at Kansas.

No other team in the country had two linebackers with more than 300 career tackles.

BYU Offense

Big 12 defenses also brought new challenges to the Cougars all year as BYU found itself in a tough spot to move the football in several games, especially on the ground. Despite starting the year near the bottom of the rankings in rushing offense, the Cougars ran the football much more effectively in the back half of the year. In the first six games, BYU averaged just 2.4 yards per carry but nearly doubled that number to 4.5 yards per carry over the final six games, including a season-high 217 yards against Oklahoma.

BYU also got creative on offense during the year, opening up the playbook with five different players throwing passes, including two quarterbacks, one wide receiver, one running back and even the punter. Wideout Parker Kingston, a former high school quarterback, threw two passes, both going for touchdowns.

New transfer quarterback Kedon Slovis started the year off strong with seven total touchdowns in the first two games, including his first two career rushing touchdowns in the season opener and then a five-touchdown performance against Southern Utah when he threw for 348 yards and four touchdowns while running for one more. Slovis was also key in BYU's comeback win at Arkansas, throwing two touchdown passes in the second half and running eight yards for a third-down conversion to keep the game-winning drive alive in the fourth quarter before slinging the game-winner to Chase Roberts.

The Cougar career for Slovis was cut short after the Texas game after an injury sidelined him for the remainder of the year. The veteran quarterback concluded his collegiate career with 11,689 passing yards and 80 touchdowns through the air during his time at BYU, Pittsburgh and USC. Ty Detmer is the only BYU quarterback to throw for more yards as a college quarterback than what Slovis accomplished in his five-year career.

Junior college transfer Jake Retzlaff got his opportunity in the final four games, bringing a dual-threat dynamic to the offense to help spark the run game's improvement in the back half of the year. The junior threw for 648 yards and ran for 116 across the final four games, adding six total touchdowns.

BYU's ground game featured transfer running back Aidan Robbins and true freshman LJ Martin. Robbins, expected to be the lead back was slowed by injuries early in the season but Martin was able to make a big impact early with a 91-yard, two-touchdown performance in his debut against Sam Houston. Martin finished the year with 109 carries, 518 yards and four rushing touchdowns. Robbins missed four games in the middle of the season, but finished strong to total 101 carries, 485 yards and one touchdown. He ran 22 times for a career-high 182 yards against Oklahoma.

Other offensive highlights included 19 different players catching a pass, with eight different receivers grabbing touchdowns. Chase Roberts led the receivers room with 42 receptions, 573 yards and five touchdowns, followed by transfer newcomer Darius Lassiter making several highlight reel catches en route to 29 total receptions, 365 yards and four touchdowns. Both Roberts and Lassiter earned spots on the Sports Center Top 10 plays with their one-handed catches. Roberts had what proved to be the game-winning touchdown at Arkansas laying out for a one-handed grab in the back corner of the end zone while Lassiter had a diving one-handed snag in BYU's home win over Texas Tech to earn a spot on the list.

Even though the offensive production was not up to the usual Cougar standards, records still fell in 2023 when tight end Isaac Rex became the program's career leader for touchdown catches by a tight end. Rex tied College Football Hall of Famer Gordon Hudson with 22 career touchdowns with his first score of the year against Southern Utah. He had to wait a little bit longer than expected before his next one but secured the record for himself in November with his next touchdown against lowa State. He added one more against Oklahoma for 24 total in his career, more than any other tight end at BYU, a school with 15 All-America citations from the tight ends. Rex finished his Cougar career playing in 52 games with 112 receptions, 1,385 yards and 24 touchdowns. His 24 receiving touchdowns also ranks fifth among all players at BYU.

Special Teams

On special teams, punter Ryan Rehkow got the most work in a single-season he had in his Cougar career and made the most of it, finishing No. 2 nationally in punting average at 48.37 yards per kick. The Ray Guy watch-list honoree booted the ball 68 times for 3,289 yards, dropped 25 inside the 20 and had 31 go for more than 50 yards. He was named the Ray Guy Ray's 8 Player of the Week three times in 2023 and National Ray Guy Punter of the Week and Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week once apiece.

BYU also quietly found its next kicker in Will Ferrin, a Boise State transfer that did everything asked of him and impressed with consistency throughout the year. Ferrin made 32 of 33 PATs, including making his final 30 in a row to finish out the year. Ferrin made 11 of 14 field goals, getting better as the season went on, connecting on a season-long of 49 yards vs. Oklahoma and posted another 48 yarder in the season finale the next week in the rain at Oklahoma State.

Long snapper Austin Riggs finished his Cougar career playing in all 12 games in 2023, highlighted by a fumble recovery on punt coverage against Cincinnati to set up a BYU touchdown.

BYU's return game featured Hobbs Nyberg and Parker Kingston splitting time, while Keelan Marion was the featured kick returner during the season. Marion finished No. 51 nationally, with 20.68 yards per return.

Big 12 Honorees

The Big 12 Conference announced 10 BYU players received recognition in their inaugural year in the league following the 2023 regular season.

Batty, Rehkow and sophomore left tackle Kingsley Suamataia each earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors, while Kamden Garrett, Heckard, Lassiter, offensive lineman Paul Maile, Rex, Robinson and linebacker Max Tooley received honorable mention recognition.

BYU OPENS BIG 12 ERA WITH SHUTOUT VICTORY OVER SAM HOUSTON

PROVO, Utah — BYU football notched its first shutout victory since 2014, defeating Sam Houston 14-0 in its inaugural game as a Big 12 Conference member.

BYU's opening drive gave the Cougars a 7-0 lead, one it maintained for the majority of the contest before an early fourth-quarter touchdown made it 14-0. Both the Cougars (1-0, 0-0 Big 12) and Bearkats (1-0, 0-0 CUSA) struggled to establish momentum on the offensive side of the ball with 19 combined punts.

Quarterback Kedon Slovis went 20-33 for 145 yards and two rushing touchdowns, while finding eight different receivers. His first 6-yard score was a career-first rushing touchdown for the seasoned Pitt transfer. Slovis also surpassed 10,000 career passing yards Saturday, moving up to 10,118 yards for the third-leading passer in yardage among all active FBS quarterbacks entering this weekend.

The BYU defense tallied three interceptions. Two were snatched by junior cornerback Jakob Robinson, including a crucial high-point, end-zone grab in the third quarter with Sam Houston threatening to score. Robinson's two takeaways marked the first time since 2021 (Georgia Southern) that a BYU defender recorded two interceptions in a single game — the last time it happened was by Robinson himself.

Punter Ryan Rehkow totaled career-high nine punts for 479 yards, including four landing inside the 20-yard line, seven over 50 yards and a long of 65.

Freshman running back LJ Martin's 91 yards on the ground were the most from a BYU true freshman since Jamaal Williams' 104 yards versus Idaho in 2012. Darius Lassiter and Chase Roberts led the receivers with 43 and 42 yards, respectively.

Junior linebacker Ben Bywater and senior linebacker Max Tooley led the defense with nine tackles apiece. Defensive back Ethan Slade led the team in tackles-for-loss with 1.5.

COUGARS MOVE TO 2-0 WITH 41-16 WIN OVER SOUTHERN UTAH

PROVO, Utah — Kedon Slovis connected with four different receivers on four touchdown passes as BYU football moved to 2-0 with a 41-16 win over Southern Utah on Saturday afternoon at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Slovis connected on 22-of-32 pass attempts, totaling 348 yards through the air and helping BYU to 394 yards of total offense.

Eight different BYU players recorded a reception, four of which posted three or more. Chase Roberts led all BYU pass catchers with six receptions for 84 yards and a touchdown. Tight end Isaac Rex led BYU in receiving yards with 112 on four receptions and a touchdown. Keanu Hill recorded his first touchdown grab of the season, while Darius Lassiter snagged the first of his Cougar career.

LJ Martin led BYU in rushing for the second time in as many games with 27 yards on six carries.

After a sluggish start and 6-3 lead in the first quarter, the Cougar offense roared to life, scoring 27 unanswered points to close the half. Slovis went 10-of-14 for 161 yards and threw two touchdowns in the second quarter alone.

BYU special teams helped spark the Cougars in both halves with a blocked punt and recovery following a Southern Utah muff. Return man and receiver Parker Kingston amassed 105 all-purpose yards.

Ben Bywater led the BYU defense with seven tackles (two solo), half a tackle-for-loss and a quarterback hurry. Ethan Slade also contributed seven tackles with four solo stops. BYU recorded seven quarterback hurries for the second straight week. AJ Vongphachanh led the Cougars in pressuring the quarterback with two on the day.

COUGARS WIN A WILD, BACK-AND-FORTH GAME AT ARKANSAS, 38-31

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — A go-ahead touchdown strike from Kedon Slovis to Chase Roberts along with a staunch defensive effort helped BYU beat Arkansas 38-31 in a back-and-forth contest at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium on Saturday night.

The Razorbacks scored the first 14 points of the game, then the Cougars scored the next 21, followed by 17 back for the Razorbacks and then the final 17 points of the game went to the Cougars.

BYU is now 4-3 all-time in games on the road against the Southeastern Conference.

The BYU defense combined to force four sacks, six tackles-for-loss and allow just 2-of-13 on 3rd down. The Cougar pass rush also contributed to 14 Arkansas penalties for 125 yards.

Jakob Robinson and AJ Vongphachanh co-led BYU with 10 tackles (four solo) a-piece. Tyler Batty added nine tackles and one-and-a-half sacks along with a forced fumble and fumble recovery. Eddie Heckard came up big at corner, adding five tackles, two for loss, and another forced fumble. Max Tooley pitched in a game-changing interception.

While out gained 424 yards to 281 yards, the BYU offense made the most of its opportunities, as it scored four touchdowns on each of its four red zone trips.

Kedon Slovis conducted the Cougar attack and went 13-of-25 for 167 yards and two touch-downs. Isaac Rex led BYU with four receptions for 57 yards while Parker Kingston posted three for 46 and a touchdown. Kingston also threw a 37-yard touchdown pass, connecting with Deion Smith.

True freshman LJ Martin led BYU on the ground with 77 yards and two touchdowns on 23 carries.

LAWRENCE, Kan. — BYU football suffered its first loss of the season, falling to Kansas 38-27 at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium in its first face-off with a Big 12 opponent as a member of the conference on Saturday.

With BYU (3-1, 0-1 Big 12) up 17-14 at the half, Kansas (4-0, 1-0 Big 12) outscored the Cougars 21-3 to start the second half, beginning with a pick-six returned 30 yards during the third quarter's first set of downs. Despite 357 yards through the air, the Cougar offense struggled to find footing in the rushing attack, totaling just nine yards on 22 attempts.

The contest marked BYU's fifth time playing in a first conference matchup in its history.

Momentum-swinging turnovers at the beginning of both halves stung the Cougars, as a forced fumble on BYU's first possession was also returned for a Jayhawk touchdown.

Kedon Slovis went 30-of-51 for 357 yards and two touchdowns paired with two interceptions. The receiving trio of Chase Roberts (89 yards, five catches) Darius Lassiter (84 yards, careerhigh eight catches) and Isaac Rex (76 yards, career-high seven catches) breathed life into the offense. Lassiter and running back LJ Martin both recorded touchdown receptions.

Linebacker Ben Bywater led the defense with 10 tackles for a season high, including nine solo stops and one sack. AJ Vongphachanh added seven tackles (five solo) while Tanner Wall added six.

COUGARS DOWNED 35-6 TO NO. 7 TEXAS

AUSTIN, Texas — Three turnovers and a drought of positive plays hampered BYU all day as it fell 35-6 to No. 7 Texas on Saturday afternoon at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

The Longhorns out gained BYU 354 to 292 yards, including 184-95 on the ground and 208-122 through the air. Third downs kept BYU at bay from start to finish, with the Cougars converting two of 13 for the game.

Kedon Slovis completed 24-of-39 passes for 197 yards with two interceptions. Aidan Robbins led BYU on the ground with 17 carries for 56 yards, while Darius Lassiter posted a team-high five receptions for 75 yards.

Despite the offensive struggles, BYU's defense showed fight, posting seven tackles-for-loss, forcing two turnovers of its own, two fourth-down stops while stuffing the Longhorns on two trips inside the 10 yard-line.

Safety Crew Wakley led BYU with nine tackles, including 1.5 tackles-for-loss, a pass breakup and an interception. True freshman Siale Esera notched a career-high eight tackles, including one for loss. AJ Vongphachanh and Blake Mangelson were next on the team with seven tackles a-piece.

BYU FALLS AT WEST VIRGINIA, 37-7

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. — Inability to stop the run on defense and struggles to sustain drives on offense stymied BYU in a 37-7 loss to West Virginia on Saturday night at Milan Puskar Stadium.

"We lost the game in all three phases," BYU head coach Kalani Sitake said. "It's time to regroup, time to get back, get home and play this next game. But it's going to be tough film to watch. We have to watch it and learn from it and do it with a positive attitude. There's still a lot to play for. We have to go find a way to get that bowl-eligible win so we can take advantage of the extra game and spend more time together, extend the season and extend our opportunity to develop our guys still."

The Mountaineers out gained the Cougars 567-277, including 336-67 on the ground. West Virginia gained 30 first downs while possessing the ball for over 35 minutes. BYU picked up 20 first downs while possessing the ball for 24 minutes. Penalties hampered both teams throughout the game with BYU penalized 10 times for 98 yards and West Virginia 10 times for 71.

Quarterback Jake Retzlaff completed 24-of-42 passes for 210 yards in his first career start at BYU. Aidan Robbins rushed 10 times for 37 yards and a touchdown, while wideouts Parker Kingston (56), Keelan Marion (53) and Chase Roberts (53) each posted 50 or more receiving yards.

Linebacker Max Tooley led the Cougars in tackles with 12, nine of which were solo stops. Cornerback Eddie Heckard added 10 stops, while safeties Ethan Slade and Crew Wakley had eight apiece.

STILLWATER, Okla. — BYU football fell 40-34 in double overtime to No. 21 Oklahoma State in its concluding regular-season game of the 2023 campaign.

Jumping out to a 24-6 advantage at halftime, the Cougars struggled to maintain momentum in the second half, allowing 21 unanswered points before a game-tying field goal as the regulation clock expired.

After scoring a touchdown first in the opening overtime period, Oklahoma State countered to force a second extra period. The Cowboys found their way to the end zone before the game ended on a BYU turnover.

Aidan Robbins led the Cougars on the ground, totaling 74 yards on 16 rushes. Jake Retzlaff orchestrated the BYU offense with a 14-of-30 performance for 161 yards and two touchdown keepers. The signal-caller distributed the ball to seven receivers, led by Keanu Hill's season-high 69 yards, including a 50-yard reception. Kody Epps hauled in five catches for 53 yards, followed by defensive end Tyler Batty's 36-yards receiving on a fake punt from Ryan Rehkow.

Kicker Will Ferrin went 2-for-2, including his game-tying 48-yard boot at the end of regulation.

AJ Vongphachanh led the Cougar defense with a season-high 15 tackles (six solo), followed by Max Tooley's 11 (six solo). Crew Wakley also added nine tackles while Ace Kaufusi totaled five solo tackles. In all, 19 Cougars registered at least one tackle.

1984 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

After finishing the 1984 season with a perfect 13-0 record, the Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America. BYU head coach LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

The perfect season featured several game-saving plays as the Cougars moved their way up the rankings. Quarterback Robbie Bosco connected with wide receiver Adam Haysbert for a 50-yard touchdown pass with 1:37 left to play to take the lead in the season-opening win at No. 3 ranked Pittsburgh.

Safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center to stop a quarterback sneak short of the goal line gave BYU the momentum they needed to foil Hawai'i's upset attempt. Tight end David Mills was poked in the eye, but came through with a leaping grab in the end zone to help BYU overcome Wyoming 41-38 in the homecoming game.

The Cougars ascended to the No. 1 spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then No. 2 South Carolina. The Cougars maintained their No. 1 ranking heading into the bowl game defeating Utah State 38-13 in the final contest of the regular season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the first quarter with an ankle injury, but returned late in the second taped up and played in the shotgun to finish the game. BYU trailed 17-10 after Michigan hit a field goal to begin the fourth quarter. The Cougars then took over the game, Bosco completed seven pass attempts to five different receivers and hit wide receiver Glen Kozlowski between two Michigan defenders for the game-tying touchdown.

Michigan threatened to score again, but linebacker Kurt Gouveia sacked the Wolverine quarterback for a 16-yard loss to force a punt. BYU moved the ball 70 yards to the Michigan 13-yard line when Bosco scrambled up the middle, keeping his eyes down field, and found running back Kelly Smith for the game-winning touchdown.

LAVELLE DVARDS

257 CAREER VICTORIES • 19 CONFERENCE TITLES • 1 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Legendary BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards passed away Dec. 29, 2016 at the age of 86 surrounded by his wife Patti and their family.

Edwards, a coaching icon in college football, led the Cougars for 29 seasons from 1972 to 2000. He amassed 257 victories, which ranks seventh in NCAA Division I history. In addition, Edwards led BYU to the 1984 National Championship and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

"I love LaVell Edwards," said BYU director of athletics Tom Holmoe. "He was a great coach, a wonderful person, a disciple of Christ, a loyal family man and a true friend. LaVell had a pure heart. His example will forever be with me and I will strive to live a life of love as he always did."

Known for his stoic sideline demeanor and quick-witted humor, Edwards was once labeled by USA Today as a "national coaching treasure." Beloved not only in coaching circles and all of Cougar Nation, but especially by the many hundreds of players under his tutelage, including current head coach Kalani Sitake who was a fullback and team captain for the Cougars.

In 1972, Edwards assumed command of a BYU program that had won just 173 games over 49 seasons, including just 14 winning seasons. The Cougars had never been to a bowl game and had just one conference championship prior to Edwards' promotion to head coach.

Undaunted by the formidable rebuilding task that lay ahead, Edwards transformed BYU into a national power, pioneering an aggressive and innovative passing attack that led BYU to conference titles in 19 of 29 seasons and an overall record of 257-101-3.

In his first season as the head coach, he led the Cougars to a 7-4 overall record, including a 16-7 win over in-state rival Utah. Just two seasons later, Edwards had the team rolling. The Cougars won the WAC Championship after a 48-20 victory over the Utes and accepted an invitation to the Fiesta Bowl—the team's first-ever bowl appearance, starting a run of 22 bowls in 29 years. The 1974 season turned out to be the first of 27 straight non-losing seasons.

After recording an 11-1 record in 1979, a 12-1 record in 1980 another 11-win season in 1981, eight more wins in 1982, and 11 additional wins in 1983, Edwards led BYU to a perfect 13-0 season in 1984. Following a 24-17 win over Michigan in the Holiday Bowl, the Cougars were crowned national champions. Not surprisingly, Edwards was named the National Coach of the Year for the second time in his career.

Under his direction, BYU recorded 10 straight conference titles from 1976 through 1985 and played in 17 consecutive bowl games from 1978 until 1994.

"In the South there's Bear Bryant, Daryl Royal and Frank Broyles, in the East there's Joe Paterno, in the Midwest there's Bo Schembechler, Woody Hayes and Tom Osborne and in the West there's John McKay and LaVell Edwards. He's a legend. And as good a football coach as he was, he's a better man and he did it the right way. He's known throughout the country as a legend."

- LEE CORSO, ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY ANALYST

Edwards announced his retirement prior to the 2000 season. BYU would honor him by renaming Cougar Stadium, LaVell Edwards Stadium prior to the final home game of the year on Nov. 18. A banner bearing the new name was unveiled in a pregame ceremony conducted by President Gordon B. Hinckley, president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

A week later BYU gave Edwards one more magic moment. Trailing Utah 27-26 in Salt Lake City with 23 seconds left, quarterback Brandon Doman scored a 7-yard touchdown run to send Edwards out a winner in his final game.

Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien awardees, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy Winners, 31 All-Americans and six College Football Hall of Famers. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984.

Following his coaching career, Edwards served a full-time LDS mission with his wife Patti to New York City from 2002-03. He also served on several committees and boards for various college football awards and governing bodies following his retirement.

The eighth of 14 children, Edwards graduated from Lincoln High School in Orem. He attended Utah State University, where he was an all-conference lineman before serving a two-year commitment in the Army. He and Patti were married for more than 65 years. The Edwards have three children, Ann [Cannon], John and Jim.

THE QUARTERBACK FACTORY

Beginning with Virgil Carter in the 1960s and Gary Sheide in the early 1970s, BYU has produced an assembly line of outstanding quarterbacks in Provo that have earned unprecedented success in college and professional football. Twelve BYU quarterbacks have earned at least an honorable mention All-America citation or Academic All-America honors.

The BYU quarterback factory has owned the NCAA record books and have won the Sammy Baugh trophy seven times and the Davey O'Brien four times. BYU has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Ty Detmer have all been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top-15 career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that would change the future of college football.

In a time when throwing the football was a mere change of pace to running the ball, BYU began leading the nation in offensive statistics year after year with its revolutionary passing attack.

In 46 seasons prior to Edwards, BYU had won a total of 171 games with just 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU is No. 8 in total wins with 438. The Cougars have won 23 conference titles, played in 38 bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

Since 1976, 14 different Cougar quarterbacks have thrown for 3,000 yards. BYU has passed for at least 3,000 yards in 33 of the past 41 seasons, including 14 seasons with at least 4,000 yards and one season in 1990 with over 5,000 yards.

1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

TY DETMER

Via satellite hookup with national television, Detmer and the BYU faithful patiently waited and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced the winner of the 1990 Heisman Trophy as, "Ty Detmer, Ty

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered poolside at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel iust hours prior to kickoff with the Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was dunked in the pool.

University of Hawai'i.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rocky Mountain region to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted trophy has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-foot, 175-pound, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. The trophy is on display in the lobby of Legacy Hall, located in the Student Athlete Building.

TOP 10 FINISHERS

BYU has had a player finish in the top 10 of the Heisman voting in 13 different seasons, including most recently Zach Wilson, the 2020 Co-Polynesian College Player of the Year, who finished No. 8 in the voting.

The Sammy Baugh Trophy has been awarded annually to the nation's top passer by the Touchdown Club of Columbus since 1959. The award is named after College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Samuel "Slingin Sammy" Baugh who was a two-time All-American at TCU and went on to play with the Washington Redskins from 1937-1952. He was a six-time All-Pro selection and NFL Player of the Year in 1947 and 1948. Baugh is credited for making the forward pass an integral part of offensive play in the NFL.

BYU has produced a record seven Sammy Baugh winners including Gary Sheide, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young, Robbie Bosco, Ty Detmer and Steve Sarkisian. No other school has more than four winners, trailing BYU's seven awards.

THE OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy has been awarded annually by the Football Writers Association of America since 1946 to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. It is named after the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Pennsylvania in the late 1800s.

The Outland Trophy is the third oldest player award in major-college football behind the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award. In 1988, Jim Ridlon was commissioned to design and sculpt the Outland Trophy. A member of the National College Football Awards Association, the award has become one of college football's most prestigious.

JASON BUCK - 1986

Jason Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound defensive lineman from St. Anthony, Idaho, started out as a quarterback and linebacker at Ricks College before coming to BYU in 1985 as a lineman.

Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks. Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

He was selected in the first round of the 1987 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. He played seven seasons in the NFL with Cincinnati and Washington where he won a Super Bowl Championship at the end of the 1992 season.

MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI - 1989

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290-pound, offensive lineman from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school at Snow Junior College.

"Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record in 1989 and a berth in the Holiday Bowl. As a senior he graded out four times with perfect pass protection while protecting future Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer.

He was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. He played four seasons in the NFL with Washington, where he won a Super Bowl in 1992 and also Philadelphia. Elewonibi later played 10 years in the CFL with Winnipeg and British Columbia.

THE MAXWELL AWARD

TY DETMER 1990

BYU quarterback Ty Detmer took home the Maxwell Award as college football's best player in 1990. Detmer won the Heisman and Davey O'Brien the same year. The Maxwell Award voting—by college coaches, the media and members of the Maxwell Football Club—had the same order of finish as the Heisman. Detmer had 1,993 points; followed by Raghib "Rocket" Ismail of Notre Dame with 1,385; Eric Bieniemy of Colorado with 747 and Shawn Moore of Virginia with 431.

Each year the Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award for the College Player of the Year. Dating back to 1937, this award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. Voters for the Maxwell College Awards are NCAA Head College Football Coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club & sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country.

Founded in 1951 by the National Football Foundation, the College Football Hall of Fame immortalizes the greatest of the amateur gridiron. 5.1 million people have coached or played the game and less than 1,300 are inductees in the Hall. This makes the College Football Hall of Fame an extremely selective group of individuals. In other words, about two ten-thousandths of one percent (.0002) of the individuals who have played the game have been deemed worthy of this distinction.

BYU has produced seven Hall of Fame members, including six players and head coach LaVell Edwards.

Founded in 1947, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame inducted its first class of inductees in 1951. The first class featured 32 players and 19 coaches, including Illinois' Red Grange, Notre Dame's Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg and Carlisle's Jim Thorpe.

More than 300 schools are represented with at least one former athletes in the College Football Hall of Fame. The new College Football Hall of Fame, which opened on Aug. 23, 2014, is a 94,256-square-foot attraction located in the heart of Atlanta's sports, entertainment and tourism district.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

QUARTERBACK: 1975-77 INDUCTED: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon Rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win over New Mexico by completing 10 of 12 passes. As a junior in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-America. The next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked. "It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game. Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last guarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

MARC WILSON

QUARTERBACK: 1976-79 INDUCTED: 1996

One of the most celebrated guarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set 15 NCAA records. The 6-5, 204-pound guarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its post-graduate scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots. He and his wife, Colleen have four children.

JIM MCMAHON

QUARTERBACK: 1978-81 INDUCTED: 1998

McMahon set 75 NCAA records at BYU. was named a 1981 first team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, FWAA and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned first-team All-America from the FWAA, McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C.). He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first-team all-league. He broke 23 BYU records, was MVP of two Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes at BYU. McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1986 Super Bowl Champs, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota

LAVELL EDWARDS

HEAD COACH: 1972-2000 INDUCTED: 2004

A coaching icon whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU—a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17-straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him seventh in NCAA Division I-A history.

At the helm, Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans — not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality," said former BYU quarterback Steve Young. "In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

STEVE YOUNG

QUARTERBACK: 1975-77 INDUCTED: 2001

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time. Young set 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player of the Year honors. In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306 of 429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second-straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. He completed 592 of 907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and had 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games. A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to win the Super Bowl in 1995, earning MVP honors.

GORDON HUDSON

TIGHT END: 1980-83 INDUCTED: 2009

Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall. A consensus All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4) in a career, most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

TY DETMER

QUARTERBACK: 1988-91 INDUCTED: 2012

Heisman Trophy Winner, Detmer is BYU's seventh inductee into the Hall of Fame. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award, two Davey O'Brien Awards and set 63 NCAA records in his tenure. Twice named a consensus All-American. Detmer won national player of the year awards from organizations such as UPI, CBS, Scripps Howard and the U.S. Sports Academy. His 15,031 career passing yards and 121 touchdowns were NCAA bests at the time, and the gunslinger still holds three records. A threetime first team All-WAC performer, Detmer led College Football Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards' teams to three conference titles, four bowl games, three AP Top-25 finishes and a 28-21 win over top-ranked and defending national champion Miami on Sept. 8, 1990. The NCAA Today's Top VI Award recipient was a ninth round selection of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and played 14 seasons in the NFL. A 2000 inductee of the BYU Athletics Hall of Fame, Detmer returned to BYU as the offensive coordinator and guarterbacks coach in 2016-2017.

TIGHT END TRADITION

BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in the offense for decades. In 2023, BYU returns Isaac Rex, a former freshman All-American that grabbed 12 touchdowns in 2020 and has 21 total in his career. Rex comes after the successful career of Matt Bushman who joined former BYU consensus All-Americans Gordon Hudson and Dennis Pitta as the only Cougar tight ends with three consecutive seasons with more than 500 receiving yards. In 2019 he had 47 receptions for 688 yards. He started his BYU career by leading all freshman tight ends in college football in 2017 with 49 receptions, 520 yards and three touchdowns to earn Freshman All-America status.

Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, nine BYU tight ends have earned All-America recognition. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 20 first-team All-Conference citations.

Hudson, a two-time consensus All-American, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Five former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with the Seattle Seahawks in 2006, Gabriel Reid with the Chicago Bears in 2007 and Pitta with the Baltimore Ravens in 2013.

Two former BYU Cougars, Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis, have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers as tight ends. A BYU tight end was named first-team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007, 2008 and 2009) in five-straight years. In 2009, BYU became the first team in MWC history to sweep the tight end honors as Andrew George earned All-MWC Second Team accolades while Pitta was a consensus All-American.

POLYNESIAN TRADITION

The Polynesian Islands have become a hotbed for college football recruiting in recent years, but BYU has been one of the pioneers in bringing players from Tonga, Samoa, the Hawaiian Islands and all of Polynesia to the forefront of college football since the early 1950s.

Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawai'i, transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars in 1951, becoming the first Polynesian to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963), John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965).

Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders and players who have gone on to compete in the NFL. BYU's former and current football staff also boast a Polynesian tradition.

Kalani Sitake was named BYU's 14th head coach on Dec. 19, 2015, becoming the first Tongan head football coach in NCAA history. Sitake was raised in Laie, Hawaii, and later moved to the mainland. His staff includes Polynesians Fesi Sitake, Sione Po'uha, Justin Ena, Harvey Unga, Vince Feula, Al Pupunu and Jack Damuni.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU and dozens have gone on to successful careers in the NFL. Polynesian players have come from all over the Pacific including Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's No. 2 career rusher, Harvey Unga.

Of the hundreds of Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian. Two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards are also Polynesian. Since 1982, 11 of BYU's season rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

ZACH KAPONO WILSON2020 POLYNESIAN COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

BYU quarterback Zach Kapono Wilson, of Hawaiian ancestry, and University of Southern California safety Talanoa Hufanga, of Tongan ancestry, were named co-recipients of the 2020 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award. The award is presented annually to the most outstanding Polynesian college football player that epitomizes great ability and integrity.

Wilson led BYU to a 11-1 record in 2020 while earning All-America honors and finishing No. 8 in the Heisman Trophy voting. The All-Independent First Team honoree threw for 3,692 yards, 33 touchdowns and only three interceptions on the season. He broke a BYU record, previously held by Steve Young, for completion percentage, completing 73.5 percent of his passes in 2020. He also rushed for 255 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Wilson posted 11 different top-10 rankings in 2020. He was ranked No. 2 nationally in points responsible for (264), passing efficiency (196.4) and completion percentage (73.5); No. 3 in passing yards (3,692), passing touchdowns (33), yards per pass attempt (10.99) and points responsible for per game (22.0); No. 4 in rushing touchdowns by a quarterback; No. 5 in passing yards per completion (14.95); No. 8 in total offense (328.8); and No. 10 in passing yards per game (307.7)

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) recognizes All-America teams selected by the AP, AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News, and the WCFF to determine consensus All-Americans. If more than half of the organizations select a player to their first team, he receives the "consensus" honor. Depending upon the distribution of first team honors at any given position, it is possible to be consensus with fewer than three first-team selections. If no player qualifies under that criterion, a player named to two first teams can be chosen. If a player is named an All-American by all five organizations, he receives "unanimous All-American" recognition.

FIRST-TEAM ALL CONFERENCE

Over its nearly 100 year football history, BYU has been a member of four different conferences before becoming an NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision independent prior to the 2011 season. Since 1928, 358 Cougars have been named first-team all-conference or to a national all-independence team. Sanky Dixon—who would go on to coach LaVell Edwards at Lincoln High School in Orem, Utah—was BYU's first all-conference performer in 1928, while 12 Cougars received the honor in 2020. A record 13 Cougars were named to the 1979 All-WAC First Team from a squad that went 11-1 and was ranked as high as No. XX nationally.

CONFERENCE HISTORY

Big 12 Conference (2023-present)

- The Big 12 Conference announced September 10, 2021, the addition of Brigham Young University along with Central Florida, Cincinnati and Houston to its existing member institutions, starting in the 2023-24 athletic season.
- BYU finished its first season in 2023 as a member of the Big 12 Conference, going 5-7 overall with a 2-7 mark in league play
- BYU played 47 games previously against members of the Big 12 before becoming a member, including the new members with a record of 24-23. The Cougars have played TCU (5-6) and Kansas State (4-4) the most.
- Since the university instituted a football program in 1922, BYU had been a member of four different conferences, including the Rocky Mountain (1922-37), Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61), Western Athletic (1962-98) and Mountain West (1999-2010) before going independent for the 2011 season.
- The Cougars claimed their first conference championship in program history in 1965, going 4-2 in the WAC under head coach Tom Hudspeth. BYU won its next title, the first of 19 under legendary coach LaVell Edwards, in 1974 and have captured a total of 23 conference championships through the years.

Independent (2011-2022)

- On September 1, 2010, BYU announced its football program would compete in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision as an independent beginning with the 2011 season.
- BYU played 155 games over 12 seasons as an independent, with a record of 99-56 (.639)
- BYU faced more than 75 different teams from 37 different states, representing every FBS conference as well as Notre Dame and other independent programs. BYU played 55 games against Power 5 conference opponents in that span.
- The Cougars have 25 wins over Power 5 opponents, including at least one against every Power 5 conference.
- BYU had 118 games televised on the ESPN family of networks during independence and 95 on a major national TV network (ABC, FOX, CBS, NBC, ESPN or ESPN2)

Mountain West (1999-10)

- For the third time in program history, BYU chartered the creation of a new conference, this time joined by New Mexico, Utah, Air Force, Colorado St., San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming. TCU joined in 2005.
- BYU football posted a 64-26 (.711) conference record in its 12 years in the conference.

- While in the WAC, the Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing 13-0.
- BYU won a total of 19 titles in the WAC, including its first-ever football championship in 1965 and 10-straight from 1976-85.
- BYU's 19 WAC titles, 187 conference wins and 199 All-WAC First Team selections are all still the most by far of any WAC team.

Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference, leaving with Colorado, Colorado State, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Wyoming when the RMFAC was deemed too large.
 Montana and New Mexico joined in 1951.
- After Colorado left in 1947, the conference became popularly known as the Skyline Conference.
- Football posted a 41-75-12 (.367) conference record in its 24 years in the conference.

- BYU football posted a 46-52-4 (.471) conference record in its 16 years in the conference.

BYU IN THE NFL

As of July 2024, BYU has 22 players on NFL rosters. In addition, former Cougar offensive lineman Andy Reid led the Kansas City Chiefs to a second-consecutive Super Bowl title and third in five years. BYU had its third consecutive offensive tackle in Kingsley Suamataia drafted in the 2024 NFL Draft, taken by Reid's Kansas City team. In 2023, three players drafted, including offensive tackle Blake Freeland (4th round, Colts), quarterback Jaren Hall (5th round, Vikings) and wide receiver Puka Nacua (5th round, Rams). Nacua broke the rookie records for receptions and receiving yards last season, becoming a Pro Bowl selection and fan favorite. Running backs Tyler Allgeier and Jamaal Williams also ran for 1,000 yards each in 2022. In 2021, Zach Wilson became the highest drafted Cougar ever when the New York Jets made him the No. 2 overall pick. BYU's NFL players currently in the league have earned more than $300 million in their careers, with Cougar players expected to earn more than $70 million in 2024.

- BYU has had 12 different players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft and one taken in the first round of the USFL Draft (Steve Young).
- BYU's last three starting left tackles have been drafted. Most recently Kingsley Suamataia (2024, 2nd round), Blake Freeland (2023, 4th round) and Brady Christensen (2021, 3rd round).
- With three players drafted in 2023, BYU has now had 15 drafts with three or more players selected.
- Overall, BYU has had 36 drafts with multiple selections, including 27 drafts with multiple picks in the first seven rounds.
- All-American quarterback Zach Wilson was selected as the second pick of the 2021 draft by the New York Jets, becoming the highest NFL Draft pick out of BYU in the regular NFL Draft.
- Previously that honor belonged to Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah who was taken 5th overall by the Detroit Lions in 2013 NFL Draft, tying Jim McMahon who was the 5th pick of the 1982 Draft. Ansah, who went on to lead all NFL rookies in sacks in 2013, is the highest defensive pick for the Cougars.
- Five BYU players were selected in the 2021 NFL Draft—the most since 2002. In addition to Wilson, Brady Christensen was selected in the third round to the Carolina Panthers, while defensive lineman Khyiris Tonga (Chicago Bears), cornerback Chris Wilcox (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and wide receiver Dax Milne (Washington) each had their name called in the seventh round.
- The highest all-time pick is Steve Young, who was picked No. 1 overall in the special 1984 NFL Supplemental Draft of USFL and CFL players.
- Fred Warner was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft. The linebacker went on to start every game his rookie season, posting a team-leading 124 total tackles. The 2021 All-Pro signed a five-year, $95 million contract extension in July 2021 making him one of the highest paid inside linebackers in the NFL.

Quarterback Steve Young caught the game-winning touchdown from running back Eddie Stinnett with under a minute to play vs. Missouri to win the 1983 Holiday Bowl 21-17.

Robbie Bosco led BYU to a 24-17 over Michigan to secure BYU's 1984 National Championship in the Holiday Bowl.

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy essentially took over for BYU in the 2012 Poinsettia Bowl, where he forced and recovered a fumble for the go-ahead touchdown and minutes later returned an interception for his second-defensive score of the 4th quarter en route to a 23-6 victory over SDSU at Qualcomm Stadium.

LaVell Edwards celebrates BYU's 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State in 1997. It has been the Cougars' only New Year's Day bowl game.

In one of the greatest bowls games in NCAA history, BYU overcame a 45-25 deficit with 4:07 left in the game to win 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl over SMU, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl." With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown.

The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder right before the quarter ended. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter with a touchdown run giving the Cowboys a 7-6 halftime advantage. A field goal from 32 yards out put OSU in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored a touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-224. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. After a back and forth third quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to give the Hoosiers the lead 38-37 midway through the fourth. With 2:06 remaining in the game, BYU moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Brent Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games -- a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

Jim McMahon connected with Clay Brown on a 41-yard TD pass with three seconds left on the clock to complete one of the greatest comebacks in NCAA bowl history as BYU defeated SMU 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl.

With 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. McMahon was 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson collected seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards. The Cougars turned the ball over three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ten different Cougars caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

OSU - Spangler 47-yard field goal

BYU - Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)

OSU - Kolic 14 pass interception (Spangelr kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeves went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first guarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a fiveyard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the 1984 national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

LaVell Edwards addresses the media following the Cougars 24-17 victory over Michigan in the 1984 Holiday Bowl. The win clinched BYU's first-ever perfect season at 13-0 and extended its consecutive-game winning streak to 24-straight. A few weeks later BYU would be crowned national champions and Edwards named national coach of the year.

GAME SUMMARY

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

COL – Blottiaux 19-yard field goal

BYU - Chaffetz 31-yard field goal

BYU - Chaffetz 35-yard field goal

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 17 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars' 10th-consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short. Chitty, who set a season best for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia then went on a 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. BYU answered with a one-yard TD pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining, but that was as close as the Cougars would get.

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. BYU trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining and scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The two-point conversion try to tie the game was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, Penn State safety Gary Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the score. BYU finished the season ranked 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second-largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by pilling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

Quarterback Matt Rodgers led 7th ranked lowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling when Detmer found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for a touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. lowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the lowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli took the opening kickoff 94 yards for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four-straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14 and 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second guarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth guarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into 10th-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-vard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton, Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters outnumbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard "Hail Mary" pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32 yards to James Dye and 28 yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan intercepted a Wildcat slant pass at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second guarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-vard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blindside corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. To cap off his MVP performance, Chapman scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped the potential interception.

Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone two more times. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28 of 46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best – and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record – 181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first guarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

A Cal score followed by a Fahu Tahi three-yard TD run tied the game at 14, but the Golden Bears struck again before the half, going 58 yards in 27 seconds to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room. In the fourth, Beck engineered a 74-yard drive that ended with a Jonny Harline score and then a 96-yard drive that ended with Todd Watkins catching a nine-yard touchdown pass. GAME SUMMARY:

No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. True freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna got a piece of UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired in one of the more memorable bowl finishes in BYU football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins—one of just two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. BYU, who finished the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns, while Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. GAME SUMMARY:

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — The BYU defense made the plays it needed to all night and sealed the Cougars' 24-23 win with a game-saving stop on a 2-point try from SMU from Jakob Robinson in the New Mexico Bowl at University Stadium on Saturday night.

While BYU scored two unanswered touchdowns to go up 24-10 in the third quarter, SMU came galloping back in the fourth with two touchdowns of its own. The second SMU score came as quarterback Tanner Mordecai found receiver Jordan Kerley for a 12-yard scoring strike with eight seconds to play.

Despite the Mustang comeback, the Cougar defense was faced with one more chance to stop SMU as Mustang head coach Rhett Lashlee elected to keep his offense on the field for a 2-point conversion attempt. After a duel of timeouts, SMU sent Mordecai on a quarterback keeper and right into the expectant clutches of Robinson.

The BYU defensive back's game-sealing stop helped the Cougars clinch an 8-5 record and finish the 2022 season on a four-game winning streak.

BYU's defense set the tone, holding the normally prolific SMU attack to 389 total yards with 171 on the ground and 218 through the air. Ben Bywater led the way for the Cougar defense with 11 tackles (four solo) and an interception returned for a touchdown, a 75-yard pick-six that flipped the game in BYU's favor to give them a third-quarter lead.

Pepe Tanuvasa pitched-in 10 tackles, Robinson a career-high nine and Kaleb Hayes eight. BYU also forced two sacks with one from John Nelson and one from Alden Tofa.

With quarterback Jaren Hall injured, third-year freshman Sol-Jay Maiava-Peters made his first-career collegiate start with at quarterback for the Cougars. BYU Football Programming on BYUtv BYU is the only school in the country with nationally televised live 60-minute pregame and 30-60-minute postgame shows before and after every game—home or away. With the pregame and postgame shows, BYUtv brings Cougar fans a live perspective on the game that they can't get anywhere else.

BYU Broadcasting also produces daily and weekly BYU-centric sports shows, including BYU Sports Nation, After Further Review,

BYU Football with Kalani Sitake and Coordinators' Corner as well as additional BYU football specials throughout the year to highlight events such as National Letter of Intent Day, BYU spring football, BYU's Alumni Game, BYU Pro Day and several other specialty broadcasts which also includes live programming on ESPN3.

BYUtv and BYU Radio/Sirius XM 143 simulcast a daily news show—BYU Sports Nation—that airs live each weekday from noon-1 p.m. ET/10-11 a.m. MT from Studio B at the BYU Broadcasting Building in Provo. The latest news and information about BYU sports are discussed each day by hosts Jarom Jordan and Spencer Linton. During the football season BYUtv also features a weekly one-hour show—After Further Review—where host Dave McCann and a panel of experts provide in-depth analysis of the tactics, plays, and touchdowns of every BYU football game.

BYUtv, available in 54 million North American homes, is on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 800 cable systems. The network has its own state-of-the-art production building on BYU's campus and a top-of-the-line HD truck that allow BYUtv to televise every game in HD.

RADIO

BYU football games are heard exclusively on the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network. Broadcasts are produced by BYU Radio, which carries the games via satellite radio (SiriusXM 143), BYU Radio app and BYUradio. org. Games are also broadcast on over-the-air flagship KSL Newsradio (102.7 FM/1160 AM) and network affiliates in the Intermountain West.

The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his 24th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU graduate, Wrubell is in his 33rd season on the football radio broadcast crew, having served as sideline reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU and NFL lineman Hans Olsen, who is entering his second season as game analyst. Former Cougar receiver Mitchell Juergens is back for his seventh season as sideline reporter, while Jason Shepherd returns as studio host.

BYU football broadcast archives are available on the BYU Radio app, at BYUradio.org and on the BYU Football podcast from BYU Radio. You can also listen to live BYU football broadcasts on your Alexa smart speakers by asking for "BYU Radio."
