STORYLINES

THE SERIES. BYU and Wyoming are meeting for the 80th time in a series that dates back to BYU's first year of football in 1922.

The Cougars have only played Utah and Utah State more than the Cowboys. BYU has a 46-30-3 overall record in the series, including a 17-17-2 mark in Laramie. The Cougars last trip to Wyoming was in 2009 when BYU won 52-0. The last game was in Provo in 2022, where BYU won 38-24 in Provo. Keanu Hill had 160 receiving yards and two touchdowns while Miles Davis ran for 131 yards.

FORMER CONFERENCE FOES. The two schools spent a lot of time in the same conference over the years. Both schools were members of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, Mountain States, Western Athletic and then the Mountain West before BYU became an independent in 2011.

WYOMING TIES ON STAFF. BYU special teams coordinator, defensive ends coach and former linebacker Kelly Poppinga is from Evanston, Wyoming. Poppinga was an all-state linebacker, basketball player and discus thrower in high school at Evanston, located about four hours from Laramie.

VS. THE MW. BYU is 14-9 vs. teams from the Mountain West under Kalani Sitake. The Cougars are 88-40 overall against the league, including their 12 seasons as members of the league. BYU won the MW outright title in 2001, 2006 and 2007, going undefeated in conference games each of those years.

WRAPPING UP THE NON-CONFERENCE. BYU is playing its third and final non-conference game of the 2024 season against Wyoming before heading into Big 12 play. Last year it their inaugural season, the Cougars went 3-0 in non-conference matchups, with wins against Sam Houston State, Southern Utah and Arkansas. BYU has a chance to go undefeated for the second straight year before heading into a daunting Big 12 slate.

YEAR TWO IN BIG 12. After its inaugural run in the Big 12 in 2023, BYU is anxious to take a step forward in year two as it continues to get used to life in a Power 4 Conference after more than a decade as an independent program. After a 2-7 finish in league play, it doesn't get any easier in 2024 as BYU gets the top five teams in the Big 12 Media Preseason Poll on the schedule, however it does include matchups with four of those at home. The Cougars play at No. 1 Utah and then host No. 2 Kansas State, No. 3 Oklahoma State, No. 4 Kansas and No. Arizona. Arizona State, Colorado and BYU are the only teams to play all of the top five teams from the Big 12's media poll.

REMEMBERING LAVELL EDWARDS

Legendary BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards passed away Dec. 29, 2016 at the age of 86 surrounded by his wife Patti and their family.

Edwards, a coaching icon in college football, led the Cougars for 29 seasons from 1972 to 2000. He amassed 257 victories, which ranks eighth in NCAA Division I history. In addition, Edwards led BYU to the 1984 National Championship and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004. Before Edwards, BYU had won just 173 games in over 49 seasons and had never been to a bowl game. Since Edwards, the Cougars have won 438 games and attended 40 bowl games.

Known for his stoic sideline demeanor and quick-witted humor, Edwards was once labeled by USA Today as a "national coaching treasure." Beloved not only in coaching circles and all of Cougar Nation, but especially by the many hundreds of players under his tutelage, including current head coach Kalani Sitake who was a fullback and team captain for the Cougars.

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

LaVell Edwards Stadium with its 62,073-seat capacity is home to BYU football. Originally Cougar Stadium, it was built in 1964 and seated 30,000. It was expanded in 1982 to seat 65,000 permanent seats before official capacity became 63,470 after various refurbishments. In 2024, new seating renovations and other upgrades changed capacity to 62,073. It was renamed LaVell Edwards Stadium in 2000 at Coach Edwards' final home game of his career.

THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is a worldwide faith of over 17 million members centered on the belief that everyone on earth is a son or daughter of a loving God and that His Son, Jesus Christ, saved the world from sin and death. Jesus Christ invites all of God’s children to come unto, follow, and become more like Him. The Church has over 30,000 congregations in more than 160 countries and territories.

BYU'S HISTORY

The establishment of the Brigham Young Academy in 1875 offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into nearly 600 acres and more than 300 buildings. Today, BYU provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The University is widely recognized for its deep commitments to inspired religious values and rigorous intellectual learning.

MISSIONS

Missionary service has been a staple within the BYU football program since its inception. There are 56 current BYU football players have served full-time, voluntary missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Each year, it is close to half of the team. While those within the Church understand the details of what a mission entails, they can be foreign to those not of the faith.

The Church’s missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities. Missions last 18 months to two years. They are voluntary and self-funded. BYU student-athletes who chose to serve missions do so out of a love for Jesus Christ and a desire to serve others. Some BYU student-athletes elect to fulfill their missionary service after they graduate high school and defer their enrollment to BYU. Others take a break from studying and competing at BYU and perform their missionary service partway through their time as a student-athlete. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent to countries all throughout the world where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language. Due in part to the many international missionary service experiences among BYU students, more than 60 percent of the BYU student body speaks a second language.

- 56 players on the current roster served missions
- They served in 32 different countries
- They speak 14 different languages

We request that those referring to missions use terms such as “serving a mission,” “full-time mission,” “two-year mission,” “missionary service,” “Latter-day Saint mission,” and “a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.” We request that those referring to missions do not refer to missions as “mission trips,” “Mormon missions” or “LDS missions.” More information about using the full name of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Church’s style guide.

HONOR CODE

The Honor Code helps maintain this learning environment. Initiated by students in 1949, the Honor Code helps accomplish the mission to build disciples of Jesus Christ. As faculty, administration, staff, and students voluntarily commit to conduct their lives in accordance with the principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ, they strive to maintain the highest standards in their personal conduct regarding honor, integrity, morality, and consideration of others.

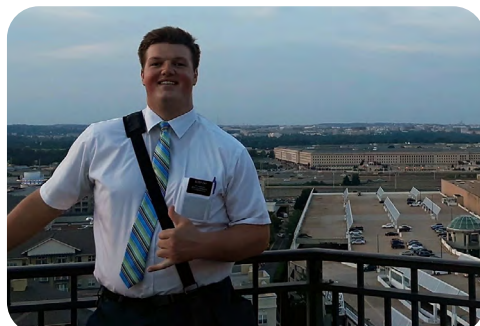

Wide receiver Koa Eldredge served in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, but served in a Hmong community learning the language and culture.

Linebacker Ace Kaufusi served in San Jose, California, speaking English.

Running back Enoch Nawahine spent his service in Zambia (Africa) and learned to speak Chichewa.

Offensive lineman Connor Pay went to the Washington, D.C. south mission.

YEAR TWO IN THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

BYU looks to take a step forward in year two in the Big 12 Conference. Year one was a learning experience with a 2-7 league record for the Cougars after finishing the Independence Era with a record of 99-56. The 99 wins tied for No. 18 in college football over those 11 seasons. After joining the conference last year along with Cincinnati, Houston and UCF, now the Big 12 grows in 2024 with Arizona, Arizona State, Utah and Colorado following the departure of Texas and Oklahoma.

Did You Know?

Other than Utah and Utah State, BYU has played more games against Wyoming than any other program. The two schools first met in 1922, BYU's inaugural season. They played in the inaugural Western Athletic Conference championship game in 1996, where the Cougars edged the Cowboys 28-25 in overtime in Las Vegas. The win sent BYU to the Cotton Bowl where they defeated Kansas State en route to a then NCAA-record 14th victory.

BYU SPECIAL TEAMS BY THE NUMBERS

2 Placekicker Will Ferrin made two field goals going 2-for-3 in the season opener vs. Southern Illinois. He made multiple field goals in four games in 2023. He was 2 for 2 against Oklahoma State, including a 42 and 48-yarder. Ferrin was 2 for 2 against Texas, Texas Tech and Kansas this year. He was 11 of 14 overall

50 Placekicker Will Ferrin connected on a career-long 50 yards field goal just before the half in BYU's season opener vs. Southern Illinois. His successful attempt could have been good from 60 yards. His 50-yard field goal is BYU's first make from 50 yards since Jake Oldroyd hit a 50-yarder versus San Diego State in 2020.

2 BYU has played two punters this year. Pittsburgh transfer Sam Vander Haar is averaging 41.0 yards per kick on four punts, with a long of 46 yards. Landon Rehkow, brother of last year's starter Ryan Rehkow, now starting for the Bengals in the NFL, also has four punts, averaging 41.8, with a long of 49 yards.

5 For the fifth time in his career, placekicker Will Ferrin equaled his career high of 5 made PATs vs. SIU. He also attempted a career-most 3 field goals on that day, making two to tie his career high for makes in a game (also something he has done five times since coming to BYU in 2023 from Boise State)

KALANI SITAKE - HEAD COACH

YEARS AT BYU: 9th year at BYU (61-41) YEARS OVERALL: 9th year as head coach, 24 years in coaching

kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay

Kalani Sitake (kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) enters his ninth season overseeing the BYU football program in 2024.

In his 24rd overall season as a coach, Sitake leads the program he once played for under legendary Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards. A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history and just the fourth since 1972, when Edwards took over the program. Sitake is the first former player under Edwards to be named head coach at BYU.

With a career record of 63-41, Sitake and his program moved from the ranks of FBS independents to join the Big 12 Conference in 2023 and look to take another step forward in 2024 in year two of the league.

During his tenure, Sitake has helped the Cougars achieve notable wins over Arkansas, Texas Tech, Baylor, Wisconsin, Michigan State, Mississippi State, Tennessee, USC, Utah, Arizona, Arizona State, Washington State and Boise State, among others. He has also championed BYU's Built4Life career development and NIL program. Built4Life is designed to support BYU student-athletes in developing critical life skills, facilitating professional development opportunities and connecting classroom learning directly to relevant employment opportunities.

During his coaching career, Sitake has helped his teams to 14 bowl games. Sitake has been on the winning side 11 times in bowl appearances, including a 4-2 mark as a head coach.

Named BYU's head coach on December 19, 2015, Sitake returned to his alma mater from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015 under head coach Gary Andersen. Sitake took the helm at BYU after 15 years in the college coaching profession, which included seven seasons serving as a defensive coordinator and four years as an assistant head coach.

Prior to Oregon State, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah under head coach Kyle Whittingham, also a former Cougar. Sitake started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012. While at Utah, Sitake coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014).

During his career, Sitake has helped mentor 33 NFL Draft picks, including 13 Cougars since taking over the program in 2016. Last year's draft saw left tackle Kingsley Suamataia selected by the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2023, three Cougars taken, including Blake Freeland (4th round), Jaren Hall (5th round) and Puka Nacua (5th round). Nacua earned All-Pro status while finishing as the Offensive Rookie of the Year runner-up after a record-breaking first season in the league. In 2022, running back Tyler Allgeier went to the Atlanta Falcons, where he set a Falcon's rushing record for a rookie with a 1,000-yard season. Allgeier followed the footsteps of other recent Cougar draft picks under Sitake, such as No. 2 overall pick Zach Wilson and offensive tackle Brady Christensen among five players drafted in the 2021, linebackers Sione Takitaki and Fred Warner in 2019 and 2018 and running back Jamaal Williams in 2017. Among their many accomplishments, Williams, BYU's all-time rushing leader, also rushed for more than 1,000 yards in 2022 while leading the NFL in rushing touchdowns, while Warner again earned All-Pro honors being widely regarded as one of the top linebackers in the NFL.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002 under Gary Crowton. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

He began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards. A team captain as a senior, Sitake's last game as a player was also the last game coached by the legendary Edwards, who was a great mentor for Sitake.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake is the nation's first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. Sitake and his wife Timberly have four children.
