STORYLINES

THE SERIES. BYU and Baylor are meeting for the fifth time and first time as members of the same conference. The series is even at 2-2. The Cougars won the last game, a 2022 contest in Provo that went to double overtime before BYU came out on top 26-20 in a defensive battle. In the last game in Waco, Baylor won 38-24 in 2021. BYU's Gerry Bohanon was the quarterback of the Bears in 2021 and went 18 of 28 for 231 yards with one touchdown and one interception against the Cougars. Bohanon led the Bears to a Big 12 title and No. 5 final ranking in 2021 before transferring to USF and eventually to Provo.

COMPETING AS A RANKED TEAM. BYU entered the polls for the first time since 2022 on Sunday, coming in at No. 22 in both the AP Top 25 and AFCA Coaches Poll. BYU is 22-7 under head coach Kalani Sitake when playing as a ranked team. The appearance in the AP poll is the 280th overall by the Cougars in program history, which is tied for 35th among all teams. Overall, five Big 12 teams are currently ranked with Utah (No. 10 both polls), Iowa State (No. 18, AP; No. 19, AFCA) and Oklahoma State (No. 20, both polls) joining BYU and K-State among this week's top 25. UCF and Arizona are receiving votes in both polls while Colorado received votes in the Coaches poll. SMU, who BYU beat in week two, is currently receiving votes in the polls after a 66-42 win over TCU on Saturday.

CONFERENCE PLAY. BYU is off to a 1-0 start in the Big 12. Last year, BYU finished 2-7 in league play so the Cougars have an opportunity to match their win total in the conference with a win at Baylor. The Bears also finished at 2-7 in the Big 12 in 2023.

COMPLETE GAME. Against Kansas State, BYU scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams with a fumble return for a touchdown, a punt return for a touchdown and three offensive touchdowns. It was only the 7th time in school history for that to happen. The last time was Nov. 2, 1996 against the UTEP Miners when the Cougars had a pick-six, a kick return for a touchdown and four other offensive touchdowns.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK. Punt returner Parker Kingstons was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week for his 90-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second half of the Kansas State game. He is BYU's first Big 12 weekly award winner in 2024.

REMEMBERING LAVELL EDWARDS

Legendary BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards passed away Dec. 29, 2016 at the age of 86 surrounded by his wife Patti and their family.

Edwards, a coaching icon in college football, led the Cougars for 29 seasons from 1972 to 2000. He amassed 257 victories, which ranks eighth in NCAA Division I history. In addition, Edwards led BYU to the 1984 National Championship and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004. Before Edwards, BYU had won just 173 games in over 49 seasons and had never been to a bowl game. Since Edwards, the Cougars have won 438 games and attended 40 bowl games.

Known for his stoic sideline demeanor and quick-witted humor, Edwards was once labeled by USA Today as a "national coaching treasure." Beloved not only in coaching circles and all of Cougar Nation, but especially by the many hundreds of players under his tutelage, including current head coach Kalani Sitake who was a fullback and team captain for the Cougars.

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

LaVell Edwards Stadium with its 62,073-seat capacity is home to BYU football. Originally Cougar Stadium, it was built in 1964 and seated 30,000. It was expanded in 1982 to seat 65,000 permanent seats before official capacity became 63,470 after various refurbishments. In 2024, new seating renovations and other upgrades changed capacity to 62,073. It was renamed LaVell Edwards Stadium in 2000 at Coach Edwards' final home game of his career.

THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is a worldwide faith of over 17 million members centered on the belief that everyone on earth is a son or daughter of a loving God and that His Son, Jesus Christ, saved the world from sin and death. Jesus Christ invites all of God’s children to come unto, follow, and become more like Him. The Church has over 30,000 congregations in more than 160 countries and territories.

BYU'S HISTORY

The establishment of the Brigham Young Academy in 1875 offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into nearly 600 acres and more than 300 buildings. Today, BYU provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The University is widely recognized for its deep commitments to inspired religious values and rigorous intellectual learning.

MISSIONS

Missionary service has been a staple within the BYU football program since its inception. There are 56 current BYU football players have served full-time, voluntary missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Each year, it is close to half of the team. While those within the Church understand the details of what a mission entails, they can be foreign to those not of the faith.

The Church’s missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities. Missions last 18 months to two years. They are voluntary and self-funded. BYU student-athletes who chose to serve missions do so out of a love for Jesus Christ and a desire to serve others. Some BYU student-athletes elect to fulfill their missionary service after they graduate high school and defer their enrollment to BYU. Others take a break from studying and competing at BYU and perform their missionary service partway through their time as a student-athlete. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent to countries all throughout the world where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language. Due in part to the many international missionary service experiences among BYU students, more than 60 percent of the BYU student body speaks a second language.

- 56 players on the current roster served missions
- They served in 32 different countries
- They speak 14 different languages

We request that those referring to missions use terms such as “serving a mission,” “full-time mission,” “two-year mission,” “missionary service,” “Latter-day Saint mission,” and “a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.” We request that those referring to missions do not refer to missions as “mission trips,” “Mormon missions” or “LDS missions.” More information about using the full name of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Church’s style guide.

HONOR CODE

The Honor Code helps maintain this learning environment. Initiated by students in 1949, the Honor Code helps accomplish the mission to build disciples of Jesus Christ. As faculty, administration, staff, and students voluntarily commit to conduct their lives in accordance with the principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ, they strive to maintain the highest standards in their personal conduct regarding honor, integrity, morality, and consideration of others.

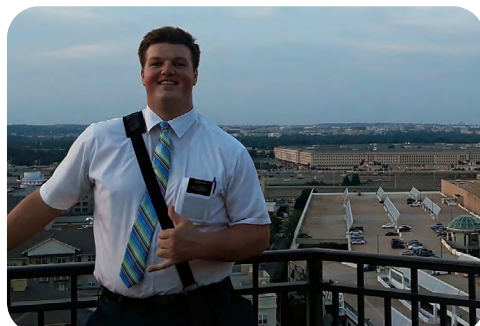

Wide receiver Koa Eldredge served in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, but served in a Hmong community learning the language and culture.

Linebacker Ace Kaufusi served in San Jose, California, speaking English.

Running back Enoch Nawahine spent his service in Zambia (Africa) and learned to speak Chichewa.

Offensive lineman Connor Pay went to the Washington, D.C. south mission.

YEAR TWO IN THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

BYU looks to take a step forward in year two in the Big 12 Conference. Year one was a learning experience with a 2-7 league record for the Cougars after finishing the Independence Era with a record of 99-56. The 99 wins tied for No. 18 in college football over those 11 seasons. After joining the conference last year along with Cincinnati, Houston and UCF, now the Big 12 grows in 2024 with Arizona, Arizona State, Utah and Colorado following the departure of Texas and Oklahoma.

BYU SPECIAL TEAMS BY THE NUMBERS

100 Returner Keelan Marion became the first Cougar since Adam Hine' (99 yards) in 2014 to return a kickoff for a TD by racing 100 yards in BYU's 34-14 win at Wyoming (unofficially 103 yards). It was BYU's first 100-yard return since James Dye in 1996 & the first kickoff return for a TD in a road game since Mike Rigell in 1998.

50 Kicker Will Ferrin made a career-long 50 yards field goal just before the half in BYU's season opener vs. Southern Illinois. His 50-yard field goal is BYU's first make from 50 yards since Lou Groza finalist Jake Oldroyd hit a 50-yarder versus San Diego State in 2020.

2 BYU has played two punters this year. Pittsburgh transfer Sam Vander Haar (11 punts) & Landon Rehkow (5 punts), brother of 2023 All-American Ryan Rehkow, now starting for the Bengals. Vander Haar kicked all 4 punts last game vs. K-State, placing 3 inside the 20 to give him 5 of 11 punts downed inside the 20.

90+ Punt returner Parker Kingston returned K-State's only punt last week for a 90-yard TD, BYU's first punt return TD since JD Falslev's 71-yd score vs. Middle Tennessee in 2013. Kingston covered some 137 yards, retreating after a mishandled catch, going from one sideline to the other, before racing for the score.

PARKER KINGSTON HONORED

BIG 12 SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

BYU punt returner Parker Kingston is this week's Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week after his ESPN SportsCenter Top-10 Plays performance on Saturday in BYU's win over No. 13 Kansas State. He returned K-State's only punt for a 90-yard TD, covered a calculated 137 yards on the run, retreating nearly to the goal line after a mishandled catch before making his way to the opposite sideline where he raced nearly the length of the field down the BYU sideline for the TD.

KALANI SITAKE - HEAD COACH

YEARS AT BYU: 9th year at BYU (61-41) YEARS OVERALL: 9th year as head coach, 24 years in coaching

kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay

Kalani Sitake (kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) enters his ninth season overseeing the BYU football program in 2024.

In his 24rd overall season as a coach, Sitake leads the program he once played for under legendary Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards. A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history and just the fourth since 1972, when Edwards took over the program. Sitake is the first former player under Edwards to be named head coach at BYU.

With a career record of 65-41, Sitake and his program moved from the ranks of FBS independents to join the Big 12 Conference in 2023 and look to take another step forward in 2024 in year two of the league.

During his tenure, Sitake has helped the Cougars achieve notable wins over Arkansas, Texas Tech, Baylor, Wisconsin, Michigan State, Mississippi State, Tennessee, USC, Utah, Arizona, Arizona State, Washington State and Boise State, among others. He has also championed BYU's Built4Life career development and NIL program. Built4Life is designed to support BYU student-athletes in developing critical life skills, facilitating professional development opportunities and connecting classroom learning directly to relevant employment opportunities.

During his coaching career, Sitake has helped his teams to 14 bowl games. Sitake has been on the winning side 11 times in bowl appearances, including a 4-2 mark as a head coach.

Named BYU's head coach on December 19, 2015, Sitake returned to his alma mater from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015 under head coach Gary Andersen. Sitake took the helm at BYU after 15 years in the college coaching profession, which included seven seasons serving as a defensive coordinator and four years as an assistant head coach.

Prior to Oregon State, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah under head coach Kyle Whittingham, also a former Cougar. Sitake started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012. While at Utah, Sitake coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014).

During his career, Sitake has helped mentor 33 NFL Draft picks, including 13 Cougars since taking over the program in 2016. Last year's draft saw left tackle Kingsley Suamataia selected by the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2023, three Cougars taken, including Blake Freeland (4th round), Jaren Hall (5th round) and Puka Nacua (5th round). Nacua earned All-Pro status while finishing as the Offensive Rookie of the Year runner-up after a record-breaking first season in the league. In 2022, running back Tyler Allgeier went to the Atlanta Falcons, where he set a Falcon's rushing record for a rookie with a 1,000-yard season. Allgeier followed the footsteps of other recent Cougar draft picks under Sitake, such as No. 2 overall pick Zach Wilson and offensive tackle Brady Christensen among five players drafted in the 2021, linebackers Sione Takitaki and Fred Warner in 2019 and 2018 and running back Jamaal Williams in 2017. Among their many accomplishments, Williams, BYU's all-time rushing leader, also rushed for more than 1,000 yards in 2022 while leading the NFL in rushing touchdowns, while Warner again earned All-Pro honors being widely regarded as one of the top linebackers in the NFL.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002 under Gary Crowton. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

He began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards. A team captain as a senior, Sitake's last game as a player was also the last game coached by the legendary Edwards, who was a great mentor for Sitake.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake is the nation's first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. Sitake and his wife Timberly have four children.
