THE OPENING TIP

WHAT'S AT STAKE || With a win, the Cougars would notch the second-ranked win and highest of the Whiting era by knocking off No. 12 K-State. The Cougars would also earn their first-ever win over KSU.

FINISHING POSSESSIONS || Grabbing defensive boards to finish possessions has been a point of emphasis for Whiting's squad which is giving up 11.5 offensive boards to opponents in conference play. The Cougars are also surrendering 15 second-chance points in four Big 12 games thus far. In wins, the Cougars only surrender 7 second-chance points.

VALUING THE BASKETBALL || Ball security is crucial for BYU. In their four Big 12 games this season, the Cougars have committed 21.5 turnovers per game and opponents are scoring 22.5 points off turnovers. In wins this season, the Cougars average 13.6 giveaways, 8.6 less than in losses, and give up 11 points.

SOMETIMES YOU, SOMETIMES ME, ALWAYS US || The Cougars have had five different players lead the team in scoring so far this season. In the last seven games, Whiting, Gibb, Calvert and Davenport have each set career-highs in wins over Houston (20), Washington State (26), UTEP (27) and Utah Valley (20), respectively.

BYU || NOTES AND QUOTES

DELANEY'S DREAM START || Delaney Gibb has been named the Big 12 Freshman of the Week three times (Nov. 11, Dec. 16, Dec. 23) so far this season. The Canada native is scoring 16.5 points per game on 47.5 percent shooting and 39.4 percent from deep. Gibb averages 5.1 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 1.5 steals. The freshman has scored over 15 points in 11-of-15 games this year including back-to-back games of 26 and 23 points against Washington State and Arizona.

COUGAR ASSIST CLUB || BYU has assisted on 237-of-390 (.608) field goals this year and has had three or more players finish in double-figures in nine of 14 games. In wins this season, BYU averages 17.2 assists in comparison to just 13 in losses. Against Houston, BYU assisted on 70 percent of its made field goals (23-of-33).

DEFENSE IS THE CALLING CARD || Coach Whiting calls defense the silver bullet to her team's success. In BYU's nine wins, the Cougars have held opponents to 59.9 points and 36.2 percent from the field. In losses, opponents have shot 40.9 percent from the floor and averaged 66.0 points. BYU has only allowed an opponent to score over 70 points twice this season.

RUN-AND-GUN || The Cougars retooled their offensive approach over the summer, instituting a four- and five-out system built on playing with pace and space. The Cougars have attempted 23.7 3-point field goals per game this season, 4.5 more than their 2023-24 average, and making 8.1 per contest. In wins, BYU shoots an efficient 38.3 percent from behind the arc in contrast to 29.3 percent in its four defeats.

REBOUNDING BY COMMITTEE || Last season, Lauren Gustin accounted for nearly 40 percent of all rebounds (504 of 1,294). This season, Amari Whiting leads BYU in rebounding but only accounts for 15.5 percent of the Cougars' 38.7 boards per game. In the win over Houston, Barber grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds with Calvert and Whiting each tallying seven, Gibb grabbing four and Cannon and Congdon each with three.

CALVERT'S NATURAL HABITAT || With the graduation of Lauren Gustin, Emma Calvert has moved back to playing her natural position and is thriving. With her increased role, Calvert is the second-leading scorer for BYU at 13.5 points per game on 54.1 percent shooting and 34.4 percent from three. The senior also leads the team in blocks (17) and is the third-leading rebounder at 5.1 per game.

Against UTEP, Calvert scored a career-high 27 points on 13-of-18 from the floor without attempting a three and just one free throw attempt.

"WHO THE HECK ARE YOU?" || The Cougars return just four players from a year ago that will see the floor this season (Mackey-Williams & Krebs out with injury). Whiting added four Division I transfers and five true-freshman who each look to make waves in a BYU uniform during the 2024-25 season.

FAITH OVER FEAR

Coach Whiting spoke on the mantra of Faith over Fear saying, "That's me. I wear it every day, faith over fear, it's how I live my life. I feel like if you're prepared, and not just in basketball, but specifically in basketball when you go into a game you can't go into it fearful. You have to go into it fearless. The only way to get there is to make sure you've prepared and done everything up to that point."

#0 Naia Tanuvasa

Tanuvasa comes to BYU as a walk-on freshman who won three-state titles with teammate Sarah Bartholomew at Lone Peak High School. During her senior year, Tanuvasa was named the Utah 6A Region MVP and was a Utah 6A First Team honoree.

Off the hardwood, Tanuvasa was an all-state and Utah State Champion on the soccer pitch as well. She led the Knights to four-straight region titles and the 2023 state championship.

Tanuvasa comes from an athletic family. Her father Ben played football at Oregon State, her brother Malae plays safety for BYU and her brother-in-law Karene Reid plays linebacker at Utah.

#1 Amari Whiting

Whiting came to BYU as the 33rd-ranked recruit in the ESPN top 100 for the class of 2023. Due to an ACL injury suffered in September 2022, Whiting missed her senior season and chose to graduate early to enroll at BYU in January 2023.

Whiting originally committed to play at Oregon, but after coach Amber Whiting was hired at BYU she reopened her recruitment and committed to play at BYU. Amari is the daughter of head coach Amber Whiting making them the second parent-player combo to play at BYU, the first being former head coach Jeff Judkins and daughters Jamie (2006-10) and Jenna (2004-06).

Because of the family dynamic, Amari never calls Coach Whiting mom while at practice or games. Instead, she always refers to her as Amber, Coach Whiting or Coach.

Whiting had a historic freshman season as she etched her name in the BYU freshman top-10 in 15 categories: points scored (349; 7th), 3-point field goals made (31; 7th), 3-point field goal percentage (.310; 9th), 3-point field goals per game (0.94; 8th), free throws made (80; 2nd), rebounds (163; 10th), defensive rebounds (136; 3rd), defensive rebounds per game (4.12; 4th), assists (123; 3rd), assists per game (3.73; 4th), steals (50; 7th), steals per game (1.52; 8th), games played (33; 3rd), games started (33; 1st), minutes played (1,046; 29; 3rd) and minutes per game (31:43; 5th).

Students and student-athletes come from all over the world to study and compete at Brigham Young University. Nearly 150 years after its humble beginnings, this church-sponsored institution has become one of the largest private universities in the United States. Nestled at the foot of the towering Wasatch Mountains in Provo, Utah, BYU's 738-acre campus is home to more than 35,000 students who come from 105 countries and every state in the United States.

Amidst BYU's growth, there has remained a constant thread. Dedicated faculty, administrators, coaches and students embrace a vision of learning, in which academics and faith go hand in hand and the ultimate goal is to help students develop their full divine potential as children of God.

The mission of BYU Athletics is to, "Build a distinctive, exceptional athletic program that prominently promotes the values of Brigham Young University and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by developing successful, faith-based, influential scholar-athlete leaders who are ambassadors for good. BYU Athletics' Vision Statement is to, "...inspire others through competitive excellence while striving to live the values taught by Jesus Christ."

WHAT IS A MISSION? AND WHY?

Missionary service has been a staple within BYU Athletics since its inception. More than half of all BYU students serve missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. While Church members understand what a mission entails, the details of missionary service can be foreign to those not of the faith.

This page is to help our Big 12 friends, media members and others understand more about missionary service. We hope the following is helpful.

WHAT IS A MISSION? || The Church's missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of major cities as well as in smaller communities around the world. Both men and women can choose to serve missions that are voluntary and self-funded. Female missionaries serve for a period of 18 months. BYU student-athletes who chose to serve missions do so out of a love for Jesus Christ and a desire to serve others.

Female student-athletes are eligible to serve missions after their 19th birthday, and often take a break from studying and competing at BYU to perform their missionary service. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent to countries throughout the world where governments allow the Church to operate.

Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language. Due in part to the many international missionary service experiences among BYU students, more than 60 percent of the student body speaks a second language.

HOW TO TALK ABOUT MISSIONS || We request that those referring to missions do not refer to missions as "mission trips," "Mormon missions" or "LDS missions"

We request that those referring to missions use terms such as "serving a mission," "full-time mission," "18-month mission," "missionary service," "Latter-day Saint mission," and "a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints" For more information, check out The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints' style guide.

WHY SERVE A MISSION? || Ultimately, missionary work is about serving God, His children and dedicating one's life to that service. Missionaries often talk about serving a mission as a small way to show appreciation to God for all that He has given them in their lives. As missionaries learn, work and serve, they also gain essential life skills in areas of study, planning, logistics, interpersonal communication, relationship building, cross-cultural competence, patience, resilience and time management. A mission can serve as an important foundation for the rest of one's life, ultimately benefiting those who serve in their future education, family life, work life and Church service.

DAY-TO-DAY LIFE AS A MISSIONARY || The overarching purpose of missionary service is to invite individuals to learn about and follow the teachings Jesus Christ. Missionaries wake up at 6:30 a.m. and spend time each morning exercising and doing religious study. They then spend the day talking to people, visiting in their homes and providing service from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Missionaries look for ways to serve and help others. Missionaries hold the title of "Elder" or "Sister" and are referred to as such, with their last names (Sister Woolston). Each missionary serves in a companionship with one or two other missionaries. The companionships are assigned to specific geographic areas where they serve. Those assignments change at different times throughout their mission. Missionaries have a weekly preparation day to grocery shop, do laundry and complete other necessities of life. Outside of the occasional game of non-competitive basketball, missionaries have little to no sport-specific training while serving their missions.

SISTER KAILEY WOOLSTON
BALTIMORE MARYLAND MISSION

CURRENT COUGARS ON MISSIONS || In the midst of a record-setting freshman campaign, Kailey Woolston announced to her teammates on Feb. 27, 2024 that she would be putting basketball on hold to serve an 18-month mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

For 18 months, the nations' second-ranked three-point shooter – who shot 46.6 percent from beyond the arc as a freshman – will be inviting individuals to learn about and follow Jesus Christ before returning to BYU.

Sister Woolston said, "When I think about all the Lord has done for me, giving a year and a half of my time completely to Him is the least I can do. I can never come close to repaying all He has done for me, but this is one small way I can show my gratitude."

"It is the best experience of my life! I have never felt so much joy and fulfillment than the time that I have had on my mission. The changes I am able to see in people's lives when they feel the hope that Christ brings is priceless. I wouldn't trade it for the world."

AMBER WHITING

HEAD COACH
3RD YEAR AT BYU
BYU '96

Whiting, a native of Ogden, Utah, is the seventh head coach of BYU women's basketball since becoming an NCAA program in 1972. The 2024-25 campaign will be Whiting's third year at the helm.

She has guided the Cougars to consecutive postseason appearances, reaching the first round of the WNIT in 2023 and the first round of the newly-formed WBIT in 2024.

Her teams have posted 16-17 records in each of her first two seasons in Provo. Last season, Whiting secured her first top-20 win as a Division I head coach as her Cougars knocked off the No. 18 Baylor Bears 78-66 at the Marriott Center on Feb. 7, 2024.

Whiting also secured BYU's first win as a member of the Big 12 Conference on Jan. 13 as her Cougars took down the Cincinnati Bearcats 68-58 at the Marriott Center.

Before taking the reins of the program, Whiting served as the head coach of the Burley High School (Idaho) girls team from 2018-2022 where she won the 2022 state championship, just the third in school history. She was named the 4A Idaho Statesman Coach of the Year, the conference coach of the year and helped the Bobcats to back-to-back region titles.

While at Burley, Whiting took a program with just five wins in her first year to improvement every season including three consecutive 20-win seasons, culminating in a 25-1 campaign and title run in 2021-22. Whiting's posted a 70-37 record in four seasons as the head coach of the Bobcats.

In addition to coaching at the high school level, Whiting was also the head coach for the Adidas 17U 3SSB Select Team on the Spring/Summer Shoe Circuit for the Natalie Williams Basketball Academy.

Whiting was the director of Utah Hard Knox, one of the most successful AAU programs in Utah, consistently producing Division I talent for both men's and women's programs across the state. A standout at Snow College, Whiting was the team MVP for two straight years and was an All-America honorable mention in 1999 as a member of the SWAC All-Tournament team. She led team in scoring and assists and was honored as the Female Athlete of the Year in 1997 at Fremont High School.

Whiting was an All-Region Team selection in back-to-back seasons with the Badgers. Following her two-year career at Snow College, Whiting went on to play one season at Weber State where she averaged 5.0 points per game before transferring to BYU for the 2000-01 season.

Whiting graduated from BYU in 2001 with a degree in history, a minor in psychology and teaching certificate. She went on to earn a master's degree in professional learning communities from Grand Canyon University in 2010.

She is married to former NJCAA All-American men's player Trent Whiting, who played at Snow College and Utah before finishing his collegiate career at BYU in 2001 where he averaged 14.2 points per game and was a MWC all-conference selection. Trent played professionally overseas in Italy for 12 years.

The couple have two children, Jace and Amari. Jace plays basketball at UNLV while Amari will play her sophomore season for BYU in 2024-25.

"I am super excited about the opportunity to be the head coach at BYU," Whiting said. "I've been in basketball my whole life playing, coaching and developing players, and I am looking forward to doing it again at this level. Coach Judkins established a great tradition of winning and a strong culture with some incredible players. I can't wait to surround myself with a great staff, and continue that legacy at a school that means so much to me."
