Western Athletic Conference

The Western Athletic Conference began its 18th season with the start of the 1979-80 school year. However, things have changed since its formation in 1962. On July 1, 1978, two charter members of the league, Arizona and Arizona State, left the WAC for the Pac-Ten. On the same day, San Diego State made its official entry on the scene, upping the league membership to seven members.

More changes are due this year. The University of Hawaii became the eighth member on July 1, and Nevada-Las Vegas will join the league in July, 1980.

All three of the new members possess good athletic programs and represent three of the fastest growing areas in the country.

When the league expands to nine members in 1980, the WAC will stretch from the pine tree forests of Utah, Colorado, and Wyoming to the desert southwest of West Texas, New Mexico, and Nevada to the coastal surfs of California and Hawaii.

Founded on July 1, 1962, the charter members included Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming. In September 1967, Colorado State and Texas-El Paso were added to make the WAC an eight-team league.

Based in Denver, Colorado, the WAC is led by Commissioner Stan Bates who assumed his current position in 1971. Bates, former athletic director at Washington State University, is the third conference commissioner since the formation of the league.

Nordy Jensen serves as director of information for the WAC; John Adams is supervisor of football officials; and Irv Brown is supervisor of basketball officials.

The office is located at 1515 Cleveland Place, Suite 300, Denver, Colorado 80202. Phone number for the WAC office is (303) 534-0217.

Brigham Young University

Sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Brigham Young University is the nation's largest church-related university (25,000 students).

Its more than 1,100 full-time faculty members hold degrees from throughout the United States and several foreign countries and instruction is offered in 150 subject areas by the University's 16 colleges and graduate schools.

Situated just 45 miles south of Salt Lake City in beautiful Utah Valley, the 536-acre campus has the Wasatch Mountain range as a backdrop on the east with Utah Lake on the west.

BYU has had more than its fair share of firsts, but the University has much more to offer prospective engineers, artists, teachers, and businessmen. It is a place where a student can examine his or her own needs for truth in the context of moral and spiritual development.

The answers to students' searching questions are shaped by the variety of interests, backgrounds and aspirations. BYU is not an island. The largest ethnic group on campus is the American Indian, numbering over 500. There are Chicanos, Blacks, Orientals, and others, all applying their own particular perspective of life to their academic programs.

The campus is perhaps one of the most cosmopolitan in the nation, enrolling students from every state and 70 foreign countries. Nearly 8,000 others are bilingual, having served missions abroad for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Admission is open to those of any race, color, creed, or national origin, provided they meet the University's academic requirements and their personal behavior conforms to the standards of the LDS Church.

It was a century ago that Brigham Young, the great Mormon colonizer of the West, signed a deed of trust to establish an academy of the LDS Church in Provo which later grew to be Brigham Young University. A German immigrant schoolmaster, Dr. Karl G. Maeser, was commissioned to open the institution with this charge: "I want you to remember that you ought not to teach even the alphabet or the multiplication tables without the spirit of God."

30,000-seat Cougar Stadium

Brigham Young University's 30,000-seat stadium—which is known simply as the BYU Stadium—will enter its 15th year this fall. It was opened for use on Oct. 2, 1964, in a night game with the University of New Mexico.

Two years later a crowd of 38,333 watched BYU battle Wyoming for the WAC championship. Wyoming won. Three years ago the second largest crowd on record (35,423) was on hand for BYU's homecoming game with Wyoming. In 1977 the Cougars set a new attendance record for the season, drawing an average of 31,540 fans to five home games. In four of the five games BYU drew crowds well beyond its capacity.

With BYU's student body almost as large as the stadium's seating capacity, a plan to expand to 45,000 seats is under consideration.

The press box is located on the west side of the stands. The west stands is also the location for most public seats, while the students and faculty are on the other side of the field. Temporary bleachers on both ends of the field allow for crowds in excess of capacity.

The all-steel stadium was financed from personal donations of students, faculty, staff, local businessmen, alumni, and friends.

The NCAA track and field championships have been hosted twice; 1967 and 1975 on the Chevron 440 all-weather track.

A WAC Title and Holiday Bowl?

In their role as incumbent 1978 WAC champion and representative to last year's Holiday Bowl, the Cougars will have no early primaries to indicate whether or not they can provide Coach LaVell Edwards with his fifth conference crown.

Following their inaugural battle against Texas A&M, it should be evident if the Cougars can surpass the barrier of nine victories for the past three seasons.

WAC newcomer Hawaii challenged BYU last year, in-state rival Utah will be strong again, as will San Diego State, plus the Cougars will have to visit the Eastern slope of the Rockies twice for tough road visits to Colorado State and Wyoming.

Optimism in the Cougar camp is primed by the presence of quarterbacks Jim McMahon, All-WAC in 1978 as a sophomore, and Marc Wilson, WAC Back of the Year in 1977, in addition to a cadre of redshirts, transfers and freshmen. Offensive wizard Doug Scovil returns to coach from the Chicago Bears, and he has the talent in McMahon or Wilson to keep the Cougars' potent passing attack alive. Both quarterbacks had their ups and downs last season, and either one could emerge as the starter for the majority of the season.

All-American candidates could be either of the quarterbacks, All-WAC offensive guard Tom Bell, and All-WAC defensive end Mat Mendenhall.

Mendenhall leads the quick defensive front four which averages 6-4, 238. And supporting in a defensive role are some strong linebackers who are deceiving, considering last year's losses in this area.

Bell leads the veteran offensive line which averages 6-3, 240, the biggest of which is 6-5, 270 junior Nick Eyre at offensive tackle.

At a glance, the Cougars find the following for 1979: for the second year in a row, 11 of the top 22 starters return, this year mainly on offense; 22 lettermen were lost, and 38 lettermen return; 18 of the BYU squad are seniors, the offensive line is very experienced; and areas of questionable strength and depth are running backs and the interior of the defensive secondary.

Listed below is a more in-depth picture and analysis of the squad:

Offensive Analysis

Pro-Set

QUARTERBACKS: The leading candidates are on a teeter-totter for the starting position. Right now, 1977 sensation Marc Wilson (a senior) is the number one signal caller following the spring games, but 1978 All-WAC Jim McMahon (a junior) could respond from knee surgery and retake the starting helm. As to a decision whether or not McMahon will redshirt, it won't be determined until a few games into the season. Backups in the slot are sophomore Mike Jones and Royce Bybee (junior).

RECEIVERS: Despite graduation losses, the coaches feel this is going to be one of the stronger units on the squad. Wide receivers are junior Bill Davis and senior Kent Tingey. Tingey started a number of games last year and Davis saw considerable action. At split end, Lloyd Jones saw backup action as a sophomore and is now ready for the starting position and sophomore Dan Plater had an excellent year with the freshman corps last season. A dark horse could be transfer speedster Matt Braga. At tight end there is a trio vying for the starting position. Junior Clay Brown saw the most action of the three last season in a reserve role, but redshirt Rob Andersen (a junior) will contest Brown. Andersen was the reserve tight end on the 1977 squad. Both Brown and Andersen have good speed and are good blockers. Senior Dave Smith saw action in double tight formations last year.

RUNNING BACKS: Presently, two-year letterman Scott Phillips (a junior), who is one of the fastest players on the squad, is the top running back. He will be pushed by junior college transfers Eric Lane and Homer Jones who have good speed and can catch the ball. Lane is behind senior Doug Williams at fullback. Redshirted sophomore Mike Lacey has converted to fullback and will add a lot of size.

All-WAC Mat Mendenhall

OFFENSIVE LINE: This is one of the stronger points of the team because four of five starters return from the 1978 squad. Leading the way are offensive guard Tom Bell an All-WAC senior and two-year starting center Scott Neilson (a senior). Junior Nick Eyre at offensive tackle and Danny Hansen at offensive guard round out the other two starters, leaving only an offensive tackle slot in question.

KICKING: Senior Brent Johnson is excellent at field goals and place kicking. Also talented in this department is mission returnee Dave Taylor (a junior) who led BYU's Tangerine Bowl squad in scoring. Punting is uncertain, depending on the status of junior quarterback Jim McMahon. Last year tight end Clay Brown (junior) ably spelled McMahon. Sophomore Mike Mees also has a booming leg.

SUMMARY: There is good balance between running and passing. Coaches feel this is one of the stronger units for the Cougars who have traditionally been strong in the passing game. The return of starting quarterbacks and a veteran offensive line should give the Cougars time to do most anything with the ball.

Defensive Analysis

Defense: 4-3

FRONT FOUR: Half of last year's unit is back, led by senior Mat Mendenhall, regarded by Coach Edwards as one of the premier defensive linemen in the country. All-WAC Mendenhall will anchor one defensive end slot and 1978 backup Rob Buchanan (senior) could occupy the left end, with freshman redshirt Mike Morgan rating high as the backup on either side. The interior of the line has senior Doug Stromberg returning as a starter at right tackle and UCLA transfer Glen Titensor (a junior) with junior Jim Jaramillo providing experienced backup strength. The front four is not as big as the Cougars have been in past years but is perhaps one of the quickest in BYU history.

LINEBACKERS: This group is just as good if not better than any group ever at BYU. Three-year letterman Gary Kama redshirted last year and returns for his senior year at middle linebacker. Sophomore Danny Frazier also redshirted last year and gave every indication in past outings with the varsity that he can shore up the weakside linebacker spot. And junior Glen Redd is a hard-nosed, versatile player who will man the strongside linebacking. Redd nearly led the Cougar defensive scoring system last year as a reserve. Junior Ed St. Pierre is also equipped because of considerable backup experience in 1978.

SECONDARY: The two starting corners are back for their junior years. Dave Francis, one of the team's fastest players, is experienced at the right corner; and Bill Schoepflin will play the left corner. Also, reserve senior Tim Halverson is very experienced at the corners. The big need is to come up with two safeties to replace All-American Jason Coloma and two-year starter Ron Velasco. The leading candidates for strong safety are senior headhunter John Neal or Mark Brady (sophomore), both of whom redshirted last year. At weak safety, junior Rob Wilson or junior Bob Prested look like contenders.

SUMMARY: Overall the Cougars are inexperienced but quicker than they have been in the past. Edwards feels that although his defenders are young, they are talented. The Cougars may be hurting depth-wise, but some key redshirting and development of incoming personnel provide for a strong contingent.

Quarterbacks Wilson and McMahon

By Dick Harmon

It is not uncommon for football teams to take pride in two offensive superstars which fans drool over, newspapers devote ink to, and leagues like to tag with special honors.

It is usually a quarterback-receiver combination—a dynamic duo exalted above the rest.

Brigham Young University is one of those situations, only it differs from the others.

It seems the Cougars are in the enviable position of having two superstars. The only catch is that just one is allowed to trot on the field at a time, since both are quarterbacks.

Quarterback Jim McMahon, a junior from Roy, Utah, and senior Marc Wilson from Seattle, Washington, hold respectable positions in Western Athletic Conference history.

In a league known for its open offense and pass-happy quarterbacks, WAC coaches have tagged both Wilson and McMahon among the best. Wilson is the guy who likes to break NCAA records, and McMahon was named the 1978 All-WAC quarterback—the first time ever the honor was bestowed on a sophomore.

Even stranger than BYU's depth at QB is the similarity in the careers of the two signal callers.

Both achieved success as sophomores; both had their first chance to take charge after replacing NCAA passing leaders at the quarterback position; and both made their debut against Colorado State.

In 1977 Wilson was a reserve quarterback playing behind the Cougars' All-American Gifford Nielsen. On October 8 in Corvallis, Oregon, BYU was protecting a 19-0 lead against Oregon State when the roof fell in on Nielsen.

The 6-5 Nielsen, who was one of the front runners for the Heisman Trophy at the time, suffered a knee injury which sidelined him for the remainder of the season. The Cougars lost to the Beavers 24-19, one of two losses that season.

Wilson got the nod to start the following week against an undefeated team from Colorado State in Ft. Collins, Colorado. CSU led the WAC in defense and was 5-0 and on the verge of obtaining a national ranking for the first time in school history.

The day of the game, the local newspaper in Ft. Collins quoted some CSU defensive players expressing disappointment at not having a crack at Nielsen.

Wilson blasted the Ram secondary for 15 of 25 passes for 332 yards and seven touchdowns. CSU fans stared in wonder at the scoreboard at the game's end which read BYU 63, CSU 17.

Wilson's seven touchdowns was a new WAC record. In the next two days, the 6-5 Wilson was named WAC Back of the West, United Press International Back of the Week, Associated Press Back of the Week, and Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. He again received the UPI honor later that season.

The former reserve from Seattle went on to set one NCAA record and tie another. Against Utah, Wilson threw for more yardage than any passer in collegiate history, connecting on 26 of 41 for 571 yards. Two weeks later against Long Beach State he completed 27 passes in the first half to tie another NCAA record (most completed in one half).

When the 1977 season was over, Wilson led BYU to its second NCAA passing title averaging 341.6 yards per game. BYU was second in scoring offense (39.4) and third in total offense (470.3). BYU ended up 16th nationally in AP rankings.

Wilson garnered his share of plaudits. He was named the WAC Offensive Player of the Year and Honorable Mention All-America by both wire services.

That was history.

High expectations hovered around the Cougar camp before the 1978 season with Wilson returning with nearly all his receivers. The 1978 campaign offered several surprises, however.

In the third game of the season, the Cougars were at home against CSU in a regionally televised game; and it was no secret the Rams wanted to atone for the loss in 1977.

Early in the first quarter Wilson was tackled and received a severe bruise to his hamstring muscle.

Entering the game as Wilson's replacement was McMahon—only a sophomore.

The 6-1, 185 pounder sparked the Cougars to a 32-6 victory, hitting on seven of nine passes for 112 yards and one TD. He also rushed for 80 yards.

It was McMahon's versatility with both the pass and the run that earned him the starting spot a few weeks later against Texas-El Paso.

BYU coach LaVell Edwards still maintains the pass is the primary offensive thrust. But in leading the Cougars to their third WAC title in as many years, McMahon made opponents respect his shifty feet and 4.6 speed as well as his passing arm.

Two of the Cougars' longest plays of the 1978 season were McMahon centered. He led the Cats to a 48-14 bombing of Wyoming in the conference title game by passing for 317 yards and two touchdowns.

One of his tosses was a 71-yard bomb to tight end Clay Brown which was not good for a score but set a WAC record for the longest nonscoring pass play.

McMahon's ability to both pass and run prompted WAC coaches to vote him to the first-team all-conference team.

Jim joins other standout QB's including ASU's Dennis Sproul (1977), Gifford Nielsen of BYU (1976), ASU's Danny White, and the Cougars' Virgil Carter (1965), to name just a few.

Which of the two quarterbacks will the Cougars start in 1979?

Who knows? McMahon underwent a knee operation last winter, but could be ready. Wilson looked strong during last spring's drills. And offensive coaching whiz Doug Scovil is back from a year's stint with the Chicago Bears.

It is an interesting dilemma, but Coach Edwards wouldn't trade it with any other coach in the country.

All-WAC first team last year ... was coaches player-of-the-game for Arizona State, Wyoming and New Mexico games last year.

TV announcer Paul Dietzel at the Holiday Bowl had high praise for Bell's play.

Tom Bell

Clay Blackwell

... Once I get on the football field I can't disassociate myself with anything else that goes on in the game whether it's defense or offense. Before a game I don't yell and scream, I have to sit down and calm myself or else I find that I end up firing so hard that I don't do my job correctly. I used to go nuts out on the field and miss, now I have learned to channel that energy and play with a controlled fury.

... marriage has settled me down a lot, but my wife (Rose, an all-conference basketball player for BYU's women's team) knows what I have to do to get ready for a game and she expects me to do it. I can walk away from the coaches after a year, but I'll always be with my wife, so I know I'd better be good.

... last year I wanted to be all-conference and I made it. This year I think I am good enough to be All-American, then I want to be drafted and play pro ball, then start my own business so that I have enough time and money to go to law school and then become a senator.

... I could have stayed back East and played grind out football, but I said "no thank you." I wanted to play out West where it is fast and fun football. We aren't scared to put the ball up out here.

... I want to go to the bowl again. My wife and I have centered our plans to do a lot of things after the bowl is over. The biggest challenge of my career is that we win a bowl before I leave. We have to get over the hump.

LaVell says: "Tom is one of the most highly competitive players we've had in our program."

Mark Brady

Steve Brady

Clay Brown

NEAL, JOHN (47) Defensive Back, 5-10, 195, Sr., Mountain View, California

PERSONAL: Born 12/18/56 in San Jose, Calif. ... married Jan Hill two years ago ... has a son named Casey ... parents are John (detective) and Peggy (housewife) ... brothers used him as a tackling dummy ... majoring in physical education.

HIGH SCHOOL: Was an all-league performer several times while at Los Altos High ... MVP in Santa Clara Valley his junior and senior years ... still holds the valley scoring title with 144 points, 22 TD's and six PAT's ... a tailback coached by Tom Burt (Santa Barbara).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Attended Foothill College in Los Altos ... was all-conference and MVP.

BYU: A head-hunter, according to teammates ... had 116 defensive points in '77 ... led team in kickoff returns, too, with 23.1 average ... had a 72-yard kickoff return against Oregon State ... played in a backup safety role, but started two games in '77 ... redshirted in '78 ... a definite candidate for starting position and post-season honors.

... During the first hitting practice I knocked out a receiver. The coaches were filming the practice and it wasn't a matter of competition, it was just knowing the position and I was battling to get the coaches' confidence.

... in 1978 I had a near flawless spring and LaVell told me if I wasn't starting the coaches were thinking about redshirting me. I said, "Coach, I wouldn't have it any other way." I'm really glad I made the decision because I need to be a starter and it helped me mature.

... I want a shot at the pros. I want to be the one guy that hopefully makes it. A lot of my friends look to me as a Messiah. I'm the last hope from Mountain View and I want my friends and everybody to be a part of it. My friends were too small to play.

... A lot of the teams this year haven't seen me on film, so I'm an unknown to them. That will be an advantage and will take a lot of pressure off me.

... My Dad (John) is a detective. When I graduate from BYU I will be the first Neal ever to get a college degree.

LaVell says: "John is as good a hitter as we have ever had play for us in the secondary."

NEILSON, SCOTT (50) Center, 6-3, 225, Sr., Salt Lake City, Utah

... we had practiced for Mike Bell (CSU's All-American in 1978), but CSU threw a 4-3 defense at us for a trick and the first play of the game Bell came whizzing past me like I wasn't there. I thought it was going to be a long afternoon. As time went on we got to him and he got frustrated. Some of the writers accused me of doing something, but Bell was right in saying we just had a different cadence.

... I was one of the last kids to sign in the state because of my wrestling and I didn't want to make a decision until I was done with state finals. I had narrowed it down to play for either BYU or Utah. LaVell (Edwards) called me up and for some strange reason I said "yes" I would come to BYU. About 10 minutes later LaVell was knocking at my door with a pen in his hand—I thought he had been calling from Provo. After I signed I went to Deseret Gym to work out and a Utah coach was on the phone within an hour trying to find out why I had signed with BYU.

... Orrin Olsen (BYU's All-American center and brother of Merlin and Phil) was ahead of me in the center spot before my mission. I knew I couldn't stick around with Orrin around.

... I was the smallest lineman BYU has probably ever had in a starting position. When I got back from my mission in 1977 I weighed 205 pounds and I got pushed around quite a bit. But I found out you don't have to be big to play, you just have to know how to get the job done.

LaVell says: "Neilson is extremely strong and quick and works very hard."

BYU Administration

BYU President Dallin Oaks, also pictured

Dr. Clayne R. Jensen

Dr. Glen Tuckett

Dallin H. Oaks, University President

The President of Brigham Young University is youthful Dallin H. Oaks, who assumed the responsibilities of the nation's largest church-related institution of higher learning Aug. 1, 1971. President Oaks, a former professor of law at University of Chicago, replaced Dr. Ernest L. Wilkinson who served as president of BYU for a period of 20 years (1951-1971).

President Oaks graduated from BYU in 1954 with high honors, receiving the B.A. degree in accounting and economics. At University of Chicago Law School he received the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree in 1957, graduating cum laude, second in a class of 86, and was named to the Order of the Coif. He was also editor-in-chief of the university's Law Review in 1956-57.

He began his legal career as a law clerk to Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, Earl Warren. A year later he entered private law practice in Chicago. In 1961 he became associate professor of law at University of Chicago and was associate dean from May 1962 to January 1963, serving as dean during the last three months of this period. He was also Assistant States Attorney of Cook County (1964) and visiting professor of law at University of Michigan Law School (1968).

From January through June 1970, he was on leave of absence to serve as legal and research adviser to the Bill of Rights Committee of the Illinois Constitutional Convention. He became executive director of the American Bar Foundation (1970).

Pres. Oaks has been co-editor, co-author, or author of five books dealing with subjects of church and state, trust law, and operation of criminal courts in Chicago. He has also authored about 50 articles in leading periodicals and other magazines.

He is president of the American Association of Presidents of Independent Colleges and Universities, a member of the American Bar Association Committee to Survey Legal Needs, the Advisory Council of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, the Board of Governors of the Public Broadcasting Services, the American Law Institute, and a fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

Prominent in the LDS Church, he serves as a regional representative. He married June Dixon of Spanish Fork and they have six children and two grandchildren.

Dr. Clayne Jensen, Dean and Faculty Representative

An experienced and respected administrator, Dr. Clayne Jensen is beginning his sixth year as dean of the College of Physical Education, which encompasses BYU athletics . . . he replaced Dr. Milton F. Hartvigsen, who served as dean for nearly 19 years. . . . Dr. Jensen served in the capacity of assistant dean beginning in 1968 before becoming dean . . . he was also full professor within the college . . . born March 17, 1930 in Gunnison, Utah . . . he graduated from the University of Utah in 1956, and obtained his doctorate from Indiana in 1963 . . . from 1953-55 he was a captain in the U.S. Marine Corps, and coached two all-Marine championship teams in track and field . . . was teaching assistant at Utah (1955-56) and Indiana (1961-62) . . . was faculty member at Utah State (1956-64), and associate professor and coordinator of college programs, P.E. at BYU (1965-67) . . . member of Phi Kappa Phi and recipient of Breithbard Athletic Foundation Award (1955) . . . author of several books and texts . . . member and chairman of several professional boards and special committees dealing with recreation and parks . . . holds membership in five professional organizations . . . has traveled 44 states and 18 countries . . . married to former Elouise Henrie, and they have four boys: Craig, 24; Mike (a defensive back on BYU football team, as was Craig), 21; Blake, 19; and Chris, 14.

Dr. Glen Tuckett Athletic Director

The Cougars' athletic director likes to think the 1978-79 school year will be typical of things to come in the future at BYU . . . the Mountain Cats won six conference championships last year . . . Glen will be entering his third year as A.D. at BYU . . . In 1976 he replaced Stan Watts, who moved into retirement after 29 years as coach and administrator . . . the choice was no surprise to those who follow athletics and who, for many years, have come to regard Tuckett as one of the outstanding members of the Cougar staff . . . Glen has invested himself in the very productive side of athletics . . . as an athlete (amateur and professional), as coach, as a teacher and as an administrator . . . he has brought vigor and vitality to his assignments, and he uses his varied talents to push the wholesome, worthwhile programs in athletics . . . he is acknowledged as one of the foremost leaders in his field . . . like his predecessor, Tuckett is also a native of Murray, Utah, where he was an all-around athlete at Murray High . . . he entered professional baseball after graduation, but continued his studies at the University of Utah where he obtained his B.S. degree in 1953 . . . Glen spent nine seasons in professional ball and twice was selected on all-star teams . . . and he usually led the league in fielding his position . . . he launched his coaching career at West High School in Salt Lake City, where he coached three sports . . . in 1960 he joined the staff at BYU . . . since then his teams have won 13 division titles, three conference championships, and two NCAA District 7 crowns . . . his teams went to College World Series in Omaha twice . . . one of the high points of his career came in 1974, when he was chosen as coach of the United States team which won the World Amateur Baseball Tournament for only the second time in the tourney's 22-year history . . . Tuckett was the 1977 president of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches . . . last January he was inducted into the Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame . . . used to be a color commentator for KSL Radio before his athletic director appointment . . . voted outstanding teacher at BYU . . . obtained his M.S. degree from BYU in 1962, and received his doctorate in 1976 . . . a former Bishop, Tuckett now serves as a counselor in the Edgemont Stake Presidency . . . Glen is married to the former Josephine Whittaker of Stockport, England, and they have four daughters: Alison, 18, Shannon, 17, Kendall, 13; and Erin, six.

LaVell Edwards

In his seven seasons as head coach at Brigham Young University, Coach LaVell Edwards has moved the football program to new highs, compiling the best record of any football coach in BYU history, posting 9-2 seasons in 1976 and 1977 and a 9-4 season in 1978, guiding the Cougars to a WAC title win or share four different times, and taking them to three post-season bowl games.

Edwards' current record is 52-28-1 (.648).

Coming into the 1978 season, Edwards' overall record was 43-24-1, and last year against San Diego State, the Cougars presented him with his 50th win as head coach.

LaVell serves on the Board of Trustees for the American College Football Coaches Association and will be one of the coaches in this January's East-West Shrine Game.

Edwards, 48, has had numerous honors come his way because of his fine coaching. He was named WAC coach of the year in 1972, his first season as head coach, when he guided a team picked to finish low to a 7-4 record and a tie for second place in the WAC. He has been Utah Sportsman of the Year. In 1977, at the end of his second 9-2 season, he was named Kodak coach of the year for district eight. He has coached twice in the Blue-Gray game. He has also served on the College Football Association Committee and helped coach the West squad at the All-America game three years ago.

Edwards played football at Utah State University, where he was a three-year letterman at center and was captain and all-conference for two years (1950-51). He played service ball for the Army (1952-54) at Fort Lee, Va., and was player-coach for a 6-3 team at Fort Meade, Md. He joined the BYU staff in 1962 after coaching at Granite High School in Salt Lake City. After developing some strong defensive units, Edwards was named head coach in 1972.

The coach is also known as "Doc" in some circles, since he completed his Ed.D. work at BYU last year. At that time he walked through the graduation line with his daughter Ann and her husband Ken, who received bachelor's degrees. LaVell obtained his bachelor's degree at Utah State and his M.S. degree from the University of Utah in 1960.

A product of Utah Valley (the family farm was only a mile or so from the site of the present football stadium), LaVell was raised in a large family in what was then rural Utah Valley. Counting a cousin raised by the family, LaVell's parents (Mr. and Mrs. Philo Edwards) raised a total of 14 children; 13 sons and daughters. LaVell's parents observed their 60th wedding anniversary in 1977 and all 14 children and their spouses were present at the reception.

The Edwards' family organization numbers around 210 people and each year they purchase a block of 100 tickets.

Edwards has a father image with his players, but also places a lot of responsibility on the individual athlete. His teams have the reputation for playing entertaining football. BYU was the top passing team in the nation in 1976 and 1977 and the Cougars' offense has ranked high in other departments as well. They have several players listed in the NCAA's record books, including Marc Wilson in 1977 for most passes completed in a half (27) and passing yards in a game (571), and Jay Miller for most passes caught in one game (22 in 1973). Pete Van Valkenburg was the nation's leading rusher most of Edward's first season, and Miller led the nation in 1973 in pass receiving. Gifford Nielsen amassed several records under Edwards' tutelage, leading the nation in several categories in 1976. He had the single game high in rushing and passing (455 yards), single game high in passing (468 yards), most touchdown passes in one game (5 against Utah State) and most TD passes in a season (29).

Edwards has had more players drafted into the pros (35) than all other BYU grid coaches combined.

The coach's outlook on the game of football is that it should help the players develop permanent values, while they are having fun:

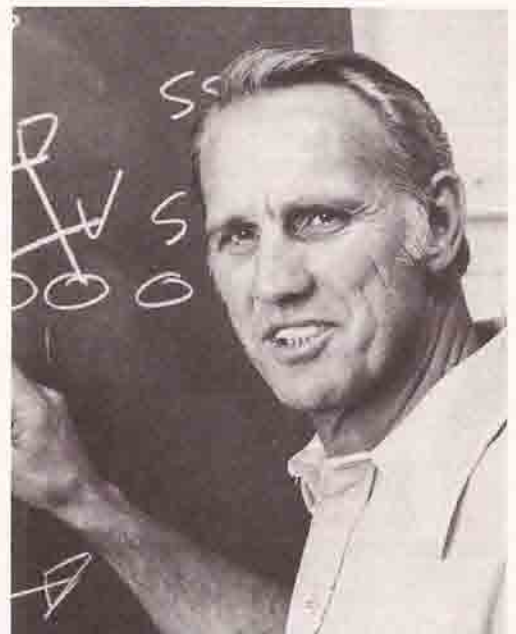

"I'm a firm believer in hard work to reach the desired goals," he says, "but I also believe football should be fun; a sport the players, as well as the fans, can enjoy. It doesn't have to be regimentation or drudgery. The outgrowth of football should be good, positive values that will benefit a player for the remainder of his life."

His teams have won outright or shared four WAC championships, played in three post-season bowl games, traveled to Japan for the Silk Bowl, etc. He has served on the College Football Association Committee, and coached at the All-America game in Lubbock, Tex.

Born Oct. 11, 1930, in Provo, Utah . . . attended schools in nearby Orem . . . was all-state at Lincoln High School (now Orem High) in 1946 and 1947 . . . three-year regular at center . . . also lettered two years each in basketball and track . . . enrolled at Utah State in 1948, played center and linebacker . . . three-year letterman as center for the Aggies . . . was captain and all-conference for two years (1950-51) . . . he played service ball for the Army (1952-54) at Fort Lee, Va. . . was player-coach for 6-3 team at Fort Meade, Maryland . . . returned to Utah and joined staff at Granite High in Salt Lake City (1954), serving as head football coach, wrestling coach, golf coach for a period of eight years . . . also tennis and basketball (1954-55) for two seasons . . . he joined the BYU staff in 1962 . . . seven seasons at BYU . . . his teams have completed an overall record of 52-28-1 (7-4 in 1972, 5-6 in 1973, 7-4-1 in 1974, 6-5 in 1975, 9-2 in 1976, 9-2 in 1977, and 9-4 in 1978) . . . in 1974 he was recipient of the coveted Dale Rex Memorial Trophy and was also honored as the Utah Sportsman of the Year . . . he was WAC Coach of the Year in 1972 . . . twice he has served on the coaching staff of the Blue-Gray game . . . LaVell obtained his M.S. degree from the University of Utah in 1960, and last year he received his Ed.D. from BYU . . . married former Patty Louise Covey of Big Piney, Wyoming, and they have three children: Ann, 23, now married; John, 20, serving a church mission in Canada (he was 880 runner in track and holds state high school record); and James, 16, attending Provo High . . . LaVell is one of the better golfers among the nation's football coaches, also gardens . . . phone 375-0487.

Third Straight Nine-Victory Season

What a way to end a regular BYU football season—a bowl berth, another WAC title, some new records, a third straight nine-victory season and some players in post-season bowl games.

In fact, one of the few things to elude the Cougars' grasp was the Beehive Boot, the in-state supremacy title, following losses to rivals Utah and Utah State.

BYU Head Coach LaVell Edwards refers to this past season simply as "a very satisfying year," despite the 23-16 loss to Navy in the Holiday Bowl at San Diego, Calif.

"We were very satisfied with all that we accomplished. Our young players have developed and we have a lot of experience that will be good for the future," said Edwards.

Among that talent for the future are quarterbacks Jim McMahon and Marc Wilson, both of whom were twice named WAC offensive players of the week this season. McMahon was voted as the All WAC quarterback for 1978, while Wilson was the selection last year.

Both Wilson and McMahon are credited with playing 11 games and each played a part in the Cougars' 9-3 season. In passing, Wilson is 121 of 233 passes for 1499 yards and eight TD passes. McMahon is 87 of 176 for 1307 yards and six TD passes. McMahon is the third leading rusher for BYU this season with 248 yards.

But the two quarterbacks have been partially responsible for the new records this season. The only WAC record the Cougars set was most first downs gained by penalties (31). The old record was 27 set by Colorado State in 1969 and 1974.

Among the BYU records set was most first downs (263), beating the mark of 262 in 1977; and two attendance records were broken. The season total attendance for this year was 372,000 for an average of 31,000 in 12 games. The old record was 356,276 persons attending football games in 1976 and last year's season average was 30,215.

Wilson and McMahon were in the top ten BYU season marks in total offense and passing offense. Chronister's 22 touchdowns in three seasons ranks him third on the career scoring list behind Phil Odle with 25 touchdowns. Chronister and Thompson are in the top 15 BYU receivers' list for the second consecutive year. And Bill Ring and Brent Johnson are in the top 10 scorers on a seasonal basis.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 10, OREGON STATE 6
Sept. 9—Evening Game (6 p.m.) (Showers, 60°)
at Corvallis, Oregon (19,651)

It wasn't a good night for football—very wet and on the chilly side. It showed up in the offense of both teams, and the contest was essentially a defensive battle. As was expected, the Cougars went to the air early. Quarterback Marc Wilson hit tight end Tod Thompson in the end zone in the first period as the Cougars took a 7-0 lead. Early in the second period, place-kicker Bob Kittell booted a 24-yard field goal, and that was it for BYU scoring. Oregon State scored on a 46-yard bomb in the third period. OSU was limited to 207 yards total offense, and 46 of that came on one play. Wilson was 38-15-3 for 193 yards and one TD for the evening. Tailback Casey Wingard was the top rusher with 48 yards on nine carries. Win leaves series record at 4-3, OSU. BYU now 1-0.

ARIZONA STATE 24, BRIGHAM YOUNG 17
Sept. 16—Night Game (Cloudy, Windy)
at Tempe (70,311)

Playing before the largest crowd ever to watch an athletic event in Arizona, the two teams were involved in a non-conference game of geographical import. The Sun Devils were new members of the Pac-Ten, and BYU the leading contender in the WAC. A wide-open offensive show was expected. BYU got on the scoreboard first with a one-yard run by fullback Bill Ring. ASU countered in the second period with a nine-yard pass. Tailback Casey Wingard scored on a 29-yard scamper to give the Cougars a 14-6 lead at halftime. BYU's passing attack stalled as Marc Wilson was limited to 17 completions on 42 attempts (there were four interceptions). Meanwhile, the Sun Devils found it easy going through the air, connecting on TD passes in the third and fourth quarters. The final score was ASU 24, BYU 17, in the final meeting of the two teams on the football field. No future meetings are scheduled between the two teams. BYU now 1-1.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 32, COLORADO STATE 6
Sept. 23—Morning Game (10:50 a.m.) (Clear, 70°)
at Provo (31,052)

A regionally televised contest (ABC), the kickoff for the game came at 10:50 a.m. with a crowd of 31,052 on hand to see the Cougars play their first home game. In an unexpected turn of events, quarterback Marc Wilson was injured early in the second quarter and was replaced by sophomore Jim McMahon. BYU was ahead 7-0 when McMahon went onto the field. Before he hobbled off the field late in the game, Jim had helped push the score to 32-6. McMahon passed for one score (39-yarder to Lloyd Jones) and rushed eight yards for another. In all, he had 80 yards rushing and 112 passing (seven of nine). Again, the Cougars got an impressive assist from the defense. CSU had only 63 yards rushing. Reflecting on the discovery of a second starter at quarterback, Coach LaVell Edwards said, "It's nice to have quarterbacks like those two, isn't it?" McMahon was voted WAC offensive player of the week for his performance and was recipient of a $1,000 Chevrolet scholarship. Linebacker Tom Enlow received a similar award as defensive player of the game. BYU now 2-1.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 27, NEW MEXICO 23
Sept. 30—Night Game (Fair, 75°)
at Albuquerque (24,892)

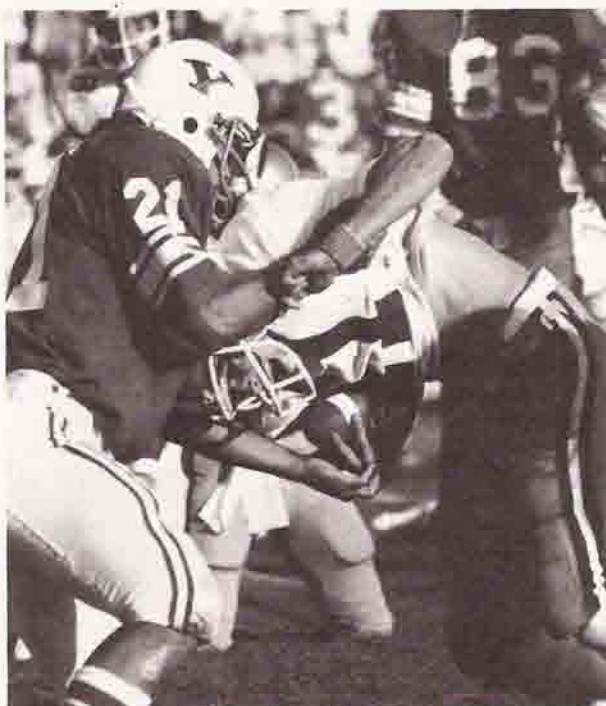

Down 16-6 going into the fourth quarter, the Cougars came up with a superb come-from-behind effort to score 21 points in the final period and squeeze out a very important 27-23 win. Quarterback Marc Wilson got the nod over Jim McMahon as the starter and came up with his best game of the season. Wilson rushed for 44 yards on the ground and went 24 of 39 for 293 yards in the air. New Mexico was most effective on the ground, rushing for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Running backs Bill Ring and Scott Phillips had 105 yards rushing between them. Place-kicker Brent Johnson had two field goals (41 and 39 yards) to account for nine points overall. The win at Albuquerque proved to be a key game in the Cougars' scramble for the championship. Wilson was voted the WAC offensive player of the week. BYU now 3-1.

UTAH STATE 24, BRIGHAM YOUNG 7

Oct. 7—Day Game (Clear, Warm, 62°)
at Provo (32,668)

Selected as another game to be televised regionally by ABC, the game looked like it might be a repeat of the 1977 contest in Logan—a 65-6 rout featuring BYU's Gifford Nielsen. But to the surprise of the viewers, the Aggies totally dominated the game from start to finish. A very smooth, calculating machine, they rolled up a 21-0 lead at the half, mostly on the passing of quarterback Eric Hipple. The Cougars, with perhaps their weakest passing performance in many games, gained only 119 yards through the air. Considering what was expected of both teams, especially after the game the year before in Logan, the contest was a major upset. The Cougars were stunned by the loss, even though it did not affect the club's standing in the conference race. "Utah State is the best team we've faced so far this season," said Coach LaVell Edwards at the end of the game. Offensive lineman Nick Eyre was injured in the game and was lost for three games. BYU now 3-2.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 17, OREGON 16

Oct. 14—Day Game (Fair, Dry, 70°)
Eugene (24,500)

Oregon, dubbed the hard-luck club of college football, had lost three consecutive games as the result of opponents' fourth quarter surges. After building up what appeared to be a safe lead, it happened to the Ducks again, as the Cougars, trailing 16-3 midway through the final period, scored two quick touchdowns to win 17-16. Jim McMahon came on in relief in the third period and connected on 10 of 19 for 104 yards and one TD. With 6:21 left in the game, Jim hit Tod Thompson on a 21-yard scoring pass. The final drive produced a one-yard plunge by running back Doug Williams, who tied the game at 16-16 with 3:03 remaining. Brent Johnson's PAT was the winning margin. A Duck field goal attempt failed as time ran out. On the strength of his performance, Jim McMahon became the Cougars' starting QB for most of the season. Edwards likened the game to that played against New Mexico a week earlier. Fullback Bill Ring rushed for 67 yards, including a 48-yard spring. BYU now 4-2.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 44, TEXAS-EL PASO 0

Oct. 21—Day Game (Cloudy, 62°) Provo (23,335)

This was not a surprise win for the Cougars, even though the Miners had upset San Diego State earlier in the season. BYU scored in every quarter, while holding the Miners scoreless. Offensively and defensively, said Coach Edwards, it was one of the Cougars' best performances of the year. BYU gave up only 163 total yards defensively, while accounting for 383 yards on offense. Quarterback Jim McMahon had 205 yards total offense, and fullback Bill Ring rushed for 83 yards. One of the touchdowns came on a pass interception by freshman Marv Allen, who returned the ball 25 yards for a score. Said UTEP's Bill Michael after the game, "Their defense just smothered us all afternoon." The Cougars scheduled a bye for the following weekend (the 28th). BYU now 5-2.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 48, WYOMING 14

Nov. 4—Day Game (Clear, 60°) Provo (30,415)

Billed at the start of the season as the key game in BYU's championship drive, the game turned out to be a wild offensive show. Because of the fact BYU had drawn a bye the week before, there was some concern about how the "week off" would affect the Cougars. As it turned out, it was the Cougars' best offensive show of the season—559 yards total offense. The Pokes stayed in the game the first half, trailing 20-14. But Jim McMahon had 200 yards at the intermission, and there was no stopping the Cougars. Jim ended up with 366 yards total offense. Split end Mike Chronister caught eight passes for 115 yards. Marc Wilson came into the game late in the fourth quarter, throwing one TD pass and rushing 13 yards for another. Part of the Cougar success was due to a new offensive wrinkle, the double-wing, which kept the Cowboys off balance most of the afternoon. Tight end Clay Brown set a new WAC record (longest non-scoring pass) with a 71-yarder from McMahon. BYU now 6-2.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 21, SAN DIEGO 3

Nov. 11—Day Game (Overcast, Threatening, 37°)
Provo (22,682)

This contest was a crucial one, indeed, for the Cougars. A win over the Aztecs would (1) clinch the WAC championship and (2) assure the Cougars of a berth in the Holiday Bowl. Both teams, who were meeting for the first time as WAC members, had one common obstacle—the weather. It snowed the night before, and more snow was threatening. Quarterback Jim McMahon put the first score on the board with an 11-yard rush soon after the start of the second period. At the end of the game, Coach Claude Gilbert of SDS said BYU's defense was superior. But the Aztec defense wasn't bad either. Eight times they cracked through to sack the BYU quarterback. But the Cougars managed to control the game in the first half with possession time (nearly 20 minutes to 10). Statistically, San Diego State had the edge, 276 yards total offense to BYU's 180. SDS fumbled six times, losing it three times. The win gave the Cougars the WAC title, their third in the last four years, and a ticket to the Holiday Bowl. BYU now 7-2.

UTAH 23, BRIGHAM YOUNG 22

Nov. 18—Day Game (High Clouds, 43°)
Salt Lake City (29,326)

Only a football fan who has lived in the Beehive State knows the impact of this traditional game between the Utes and Cougars. BYU, having won the title, was favored to win a seventh consecutive game against Utah. For a while it appeared they would. Soon after the kickoff, Jim McMahon ran the ball 56 yards up the middle on a sneak. But the Ute defense held, and the Cougars had to settle for a 20-yard field goal by Brent Johnson. McMahon put six more on the board with a 37-yard pass to Lloyd Jones. Things tightened up, however, in the second period. The Cougars' Brent Johnson kicked two field goals (52 and 21 yards) to give BYU a 16-0 lead at the half. Utah came storming back with Randy Gomez connecting on three TD passes, the last one with only 2:13 left in the game. Utah shut off BYU's offense in the second half. It was LaVell Edwards' first loss to Utah in the seven seasons he has been coaching at BYU. BYU now 7-3.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 31, HAWAII 13

Nov. 25—Night Game (Fair, 74°) Honolulu (35,678)

The Cougars headed into this non-conference game a bit deflated after the one-point loss to Utah and with Hawaii holding a 4-1 lead over BYU in previous contests. Marc Wilson got the starting nod at quarterback, replacing the injured Jim McMahon, and passed for 291 yards and two touchdowns, completing 21 of 30. He also ran for 61 yards and a touchdown in 17 carries. The Cougars struggled through the first quarter, as the Rainbows put two touchdowns on the board and took a 13-0 lead. Wilson got BYU going in the second quarter with a 23-yard TD pass to Kent Tingey. Safety Ron Velasco picked up a fumble; and two plays later, Wilson ran 18 yards for another score. A 45-yard half-back pass from Scott Phillips to Stan Younger set up Wilson's 6-yard TD pass to Bill Ring, giving BYU a 21-13 halftime lead. In the third quarter, Ring scored on a 1-yard run and Brent Johnson kicked a 44-yard field goal. BYU now 8-3.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 28, NEVADA-LAS VEGAS 24

Dec. 2—Day Game (Overcast, Threatening, 50°)
Yokohama, Japan (27,500)

In one of the hardest-fought games of the season, the Cougars had to come from behind again to claim a 28-24 win over Nevada-Las Vegas. Geographically, the two teams are only 400 miles apart. But they traveled thousands of miles to Yokohama for the final game of the season for both schools. The Rebels carried a seven-game winning streak into the contest, while the Cougars, who were 5-1 in league play, had already won the WAC title and had been invited to represent the Conference in the Holiday Bowl. UNLV ran up a quick 10-0 lead at the half, and ailing quarterback Jim McMahon was forced to the sidelines in the first period. Marc Wilson, who opened the season as the starting QB, came into the game and threw for three touchdown passes. At one point in the fourth quarter, the Cougars were ready to attempt a field goal that would have tied the game at 24-24. But a dead ball penalty put the Cougars closer to the goal line. The kick by Brent Johnson was good, but he was roughed in the process, thus putting BYU even closer to a TD. At that point the Cougars elected to go for the TD, and tailback Casey Wingard ran it in from seven yards out, giving the Cougars a lead that couldn't be overcome by a UNLV field goal, 28-24. Feelings ran high on both sides, and the BYU win gave the Cougars their third consecutive nine-game winning season, 9-3 overall.

Holiday Bowl I

Brigham Young University was part of the first Holiday Bowl which was played last Dec. 22 in the San Diego Stadium. The bowl itself was the culmination of a tremendous amount of work by people of a civic-minded community.

The city and county of San Diego can be extremely proud of the initial game that drew a sellout crowd, a national television audience and an exciting game, won by the United States Naval Academy over WAC champion, Brigham Young University, 23-16.

G.E. "Vinnie" Vinson, entering his second year as President of the Holiday Bowl Game Association, reported on the success of the initial game.

"The 1978 Holiday Bowl was an overwhelming success, thanks to the hard work and dedication of many generous people and organizations. However, we of the Holiday Bowl committee have no plans to sit on our laurels. Our goal is to make the 1979 game bigger and better than the inaugural effort.

"The game was a complete sellout—52,500—and the two participating schools were awarded one of the highest totals ever given to schools playing in the first game, more than $437,000. The actual figure received by the two institutions was $218,644.00."

The week-long Holiday Bowl festivities impressed not only the participating school, but the media as well. Sports editor of the San Diego Union, Jack Murphy, had this comment: "... the Holiday Bowl has quickly established itself as a shiny attraction on San Diego's winter calendar. Even those who complain about a surfeit of bowl games recognize the merit of this competition."

In still another article, Murphy continued his praise: "Rarely has the community had reason to be so pleased with itself. The Holiday Bowl was first rate in every respect. Its purpose was to create good will and display the city's beauty and charm to the rest of America, and this was accomplished."

Observers all across the country and many disappointed local fans who could not attend the game because all available seats had been sold were impressed with the first year game. Of the 15 major bowl games, the Holiday Bowl was seventh in total attendance and one of only six sellouts.

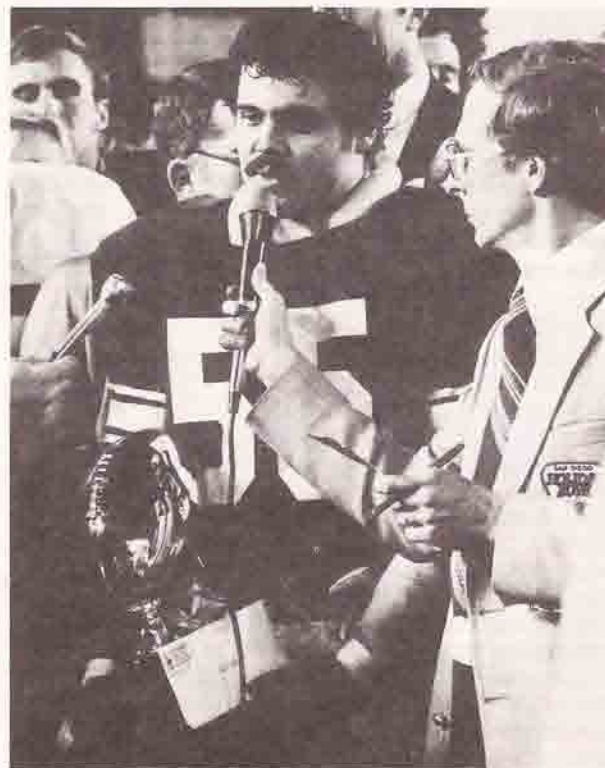

The freshman Holiday Bowl was seen coast-to-coast on the Mizlou Television Network and the 1979 game will once again be carried by the nation's leading independent network.

A major addition to the Holiday Bowl family is the Mutual Broadcasting Company, with over 400 radio outlets in all 50 states. They will carry the broadcast of the 1979 game.

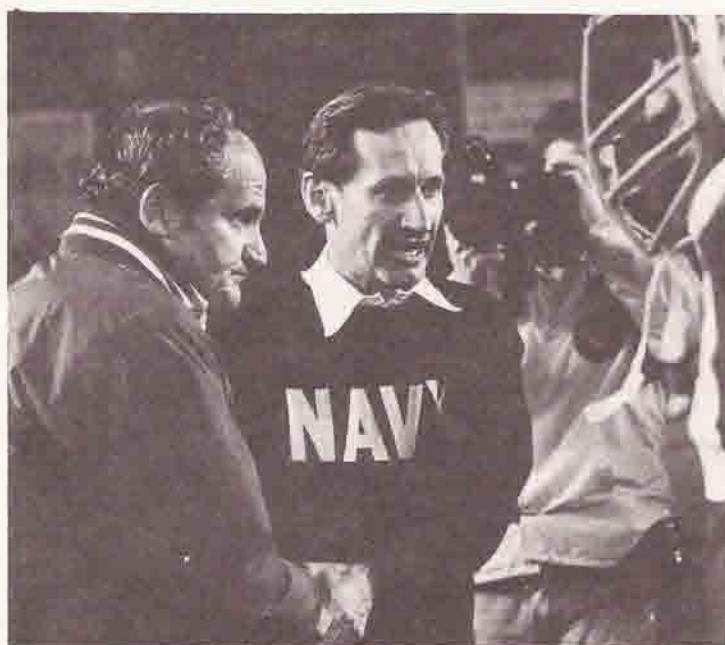

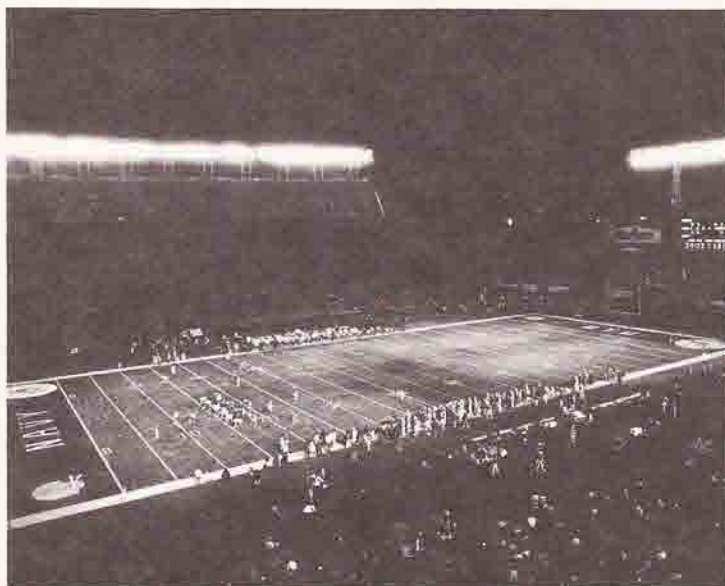

Still other changes are being made for 1979. Les Land, the first executive director of the game (on a strictly volunteer basis) is returning to private business but will remain as Chairman of the Bowl Steering Committee. John Gough, a veteran of 30 years in the San Diego sports business, has replaced him as the full-time executive director.

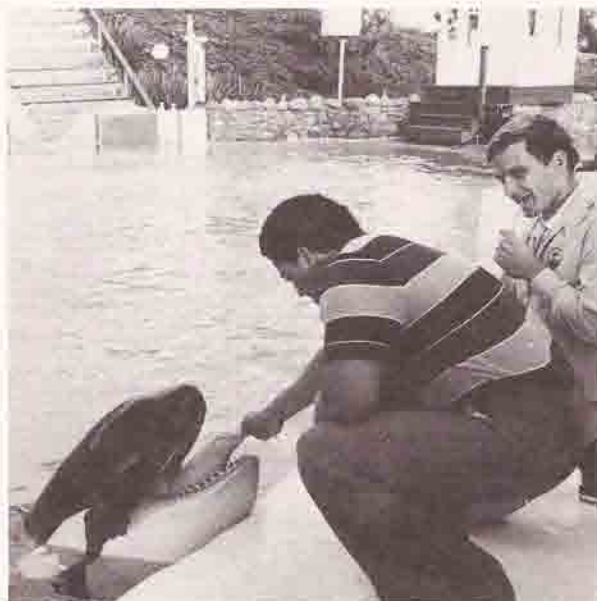

50,000-seat San Diego Stadium, Home of the Holiday Bowl

No. 1—Texas A&M

September 8—7:30 p.m. (CDT)

Houston (Rice Stadium)

Tom Wilson

Location: College Station, Texas
Conference: Southwest
Enrollment: 30,000
Colors: Maroon and White
Stadium: Kyle Field
Surface: AstroTurf
Seating: 49,700
Mascot: Reveille IV, American Collie
Offensive: "I" formation

Defensive: 4-3

Head Coach: Tom Wilson (4-2)

Athletic Director: Marvin Tate

Series Record With BYU: First Meeting

1978 Record: 7-4

League Record: 4-4 (third in Southwestern)

1979 Outlook: The offensive star is tailback Curtis Dickey, a Heisman candidate and a two-time NCAA indoor 60-yard dash champion. Dickey's 1,146 yards last year is the third best in A&M rushing history. The defensive star is defensive end Jacob Green, an Outland and Lombardi candidate. Green is 6-3, 247 and had 116 tackles, 25 of which netted 160 yards in losses.

Sports Information Director: Spec Gammon (713) 845-5725, Home: (713) 696-5925

Head Football Coach: Tom Wilson (713) 845-1241, Best Time to Reach: Weekday mornings

No. 2—Weber State

Pete Riehlman

Location: Ogden, Utah
Conference: Big Sky Conference
Enrollment: 8,600
Colors: Purple and White
Stadium: Wildcat
Surface: Natural Turf
Seating: 17,200
Mascot: Wildcats
Offensive: Pro Set
Defensive: 4-3

Head Coach: Pete Riehlman (Utah '56) 3rd year, 8-13

Athletic Director: Gary Crompton

Series Record With BYU: 1-0, BYU

1978 Record: 4-7

League Record: 2-4

1979 Outlook: Another strong passing team is expected, even though the Wildcats suffered some major personnel losses. But the Wildcats have a nucleus from team that led the Big Sky in passing, total offense, and passing defense last year. May look a little different, but will be stronger. Should be better balanced offensively.

Sports Information Director: John Peterson (801) 626-6497, Home: (801) 392-4452

Head Football Coach: Pete Riehlman (801) 627-2242, Best Time to Reach: 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Bill Michael

Location: El Paso, Texas
Conference: Western Athletic Conference
Enrollment: 15,800
Colors: Orange and White
Stadium: Sun Bowl
Surface: AstroTurf
Seating: 30,000
Mascot: Miners
Offensive: Pro Set Multiple
Defensive: 5-2

Head Coach: Bill Michael (Arkansas '59) 3rd year, 2-21

Athletic Director: Jim Bowden

Series Record with BYU: 15-5-1, BYU

1978 Record: 1-11

League Record: 1-5

1979 Outlook: Dogged by injuries and a shortage of players, the Miners can look to some improvement this fall. Rebuilding of the offensive line is a prime chore, and need of a proven quarterback. Two all-WAC players returning in wide receiver Bubba Garcia and defensive back Eddie Forkerway.

Sports Information Director: Scott Binning (915) 747-5330, Home: (915) 584-5971

Head Football Coach: Bill Michael (915) 747-5224, Best Time to Reach: 9:00-Noon

Conference: Western Athletic Conference
Enrollment: 21,000
Colors: Green and White
Stadium: Aloha Stadium
Surface: AstroTurf
Seating: 50,000
Mascot: Rainbow Warriors
Offensive: Multiple
Defensive: 5-2

Head Coach: Dick Tomey (DePauw '61) 3rd year, 11-11

Athletic Director: Ray Nagel

Series Record with BYU: 4-2, Hawaii

1978 Record: 6-5

League Record: Independent

1979 Outlook: Third-year coach Dick Tomey will have 44 lettermen returning from 6-5 squad of last year, along with 10 junior college players. Rainbows would like to strengthen offensive line, and come up with an ace quarterback. With new help aboard, Hawaii should be stronger and deeper this year.

Offensive: Pro Set
Defensive: 5-2

Head Coach: Bruce Snyder (Oregon '63) 4th year, 14-19

Athletic Director: Ladell Anderson

Series Record with BYU: 31-20-3, USU

1978 Record: 7-4

League Record: 4-1

1979 Outlook: In the three years he's been at the helm, Coach Bruce Snyder's teams have shown improvement, and last year the Ags shared the PCAA championship. Again, the outlook is good with 34 lettermen returning. Three standouts in quarterback Eric Hipple, tailback Rick Parros and defensive lineman Rulon "Too Tough" Jones.

Series Record with BYU: 17-10-1, BYU

1978 Record: 7-5

League Record: 3-3

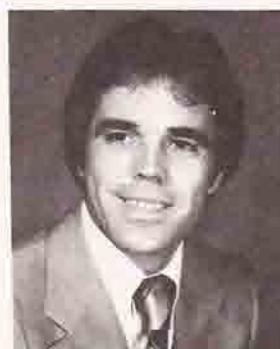

1979 Outlook: It will be a team without all-time rusher Mike Williams. But the Lobos will counter with wide-open attack triggered by junior quarterback Brad Wright and host of quick receivers. UNM linemen will be stronger, deeper. A lineman to watch is 6-3, 270-pound strongman Kevin Linam. Lobos should have another winning season.

League Record: 4-2

1979 Outlook: Despite trouble spots at running back and linebacker, plus established quarterback, the Cowboys have a fine offensive line. Wyoming also has good defensive personnel. Loss of Ken Fantetti will soften linebacker position. Cowboys finished second in WAC last year, could place high again.

1979 Outlook: Coach Sark has to be looking at a rebuilding season, especially in the lines. If CSU can somehow bring forth some strong interiors, the Rams could really be on the move. They have top three rushers returning. The top receiver is back, as is quarterback Keith Lee. There's also good depth at linebacker.

1979 Outlook: With a clear-cut starter at quarterback (senior Paul McGaffigan, an All-American choice in '78), things are definitely looking up. Of the 33 lettermen returning, 13 are starters from '78. "We've got more potential this year than at any time I've been here," says Currey. Forty-Niners should have a strong passing game, again. McGaffigan passed for over 2,000 yards last season.

1979 Outlook: The Utes, it appears, have rounded the corner and are there, thanks to an 8-3 season last fall. A total of 41 lettermen returning off that team. Although quarterback Randy Gomez has moved on, Utah has outstanding running backs. There is good depth and good balance for Howard's third year at Utah.

1979 Outlook: On paper, there isn't much for SDSU to cheer about: only eight starters off last year's 4-7 team. But nobody expects the Aztecs to stay down, since 18 of the 22 second-unit players are back, along with quarterback Mark Halda. The SDSU team should rebound with a host of new stars, some of whom will come from 27 transfers.

The Cougar Club

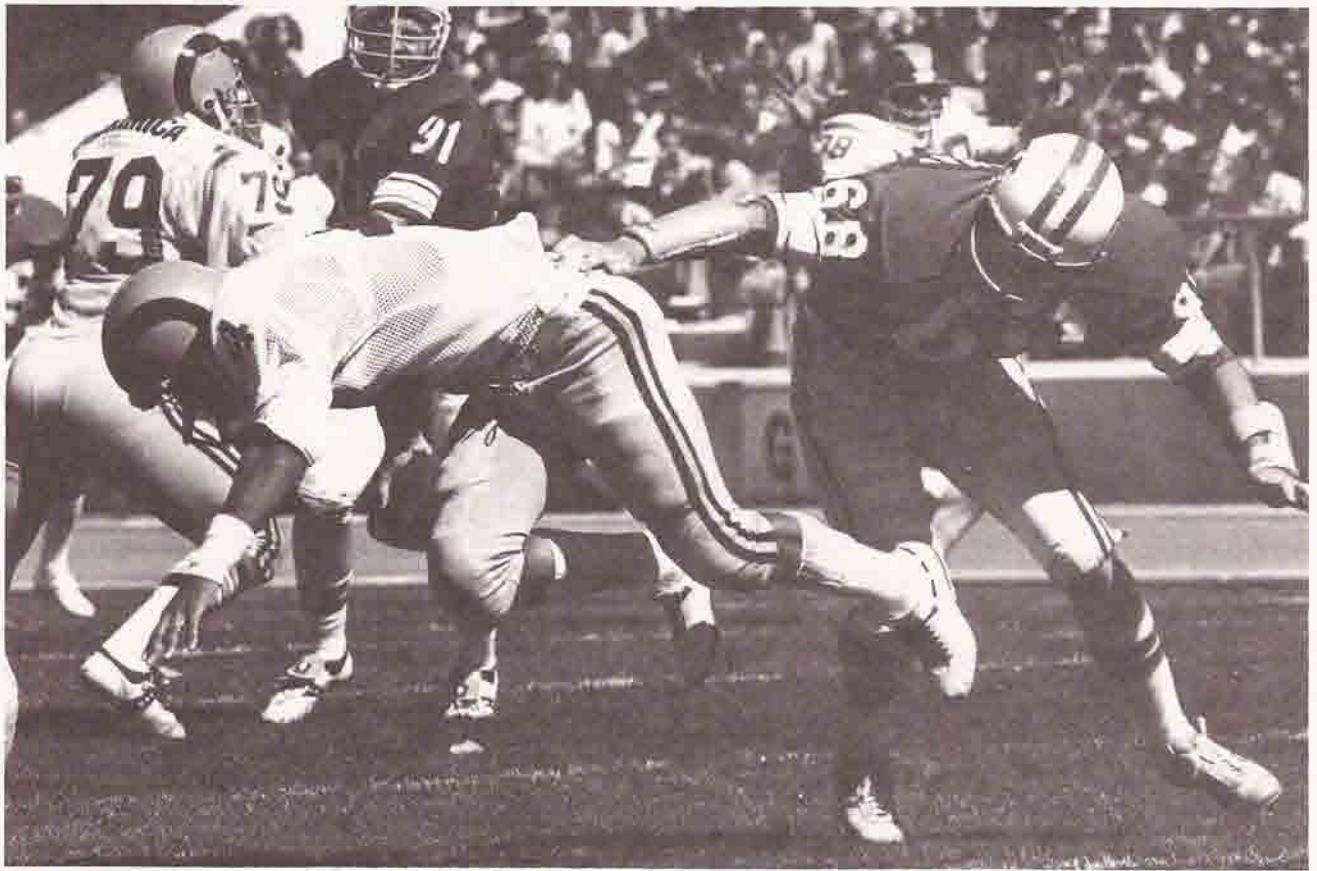

Cougar fans are growing in number and enthusiasm every year. And one of the best indications of this is the BYU Cougar Club.

Headed by Managing Director Dale R. McCann, the Cougar Club has increased in membership over 400 percent in the past five years, and the total number of boosters now exceeds 2,100 with new members signing up every week.

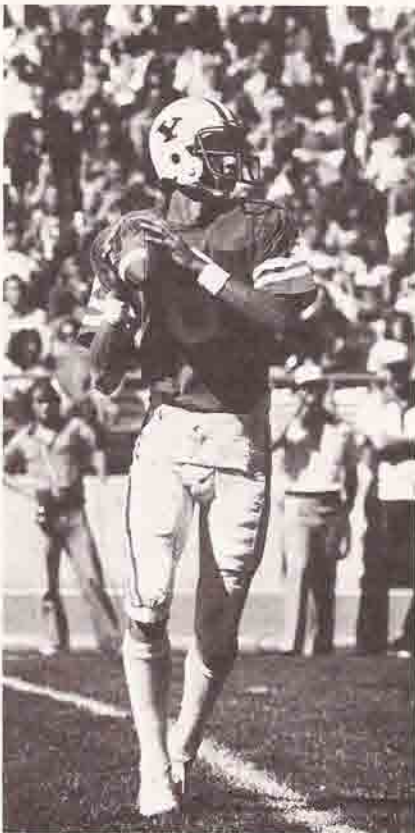

"The contributions we receive," explained McCann, "range from a $50 associate member (age 25 and under) to the lifetime Golden Cougar ($15,000 contributed over a three-year period). Regular membership is $100 annually, and we have several classifications between regular member and the lifetime Golden Cougar."

In return, the contributor 1) has the satisfaction of knowing the contribution is building the program, directly supporting recruitment, and aiding significantly in funding the broadcast of road football and basketball games; 2) is the recipient of a Cougar Club medallion mounted on a walnut shield; 3) is given preferred parking for all BYU home games, with special passes for Golden and Silver Cougars; 4) receives an official football press guide; 5) is invited with partner to the annual Cougar Club banquet (over 2,100 attended the one last spring); 6) receives the twice-monthly sports newsletter, Cougar Close-Up; and 7) can take the contribution as a tax deduction on state and federal returns.

Interested persons should contact Dale McCann, Cougar Club, Alumni House, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84602.

BYU Football History, Stars

Until recently—say, the last ten years—it would be stretching it to say that BYU had a winning football tradition. It was hardnosed, it was competitive; but more often than not there was difficulty in staying on the winning side.

Actually, the game was part of campus life at the turn of the century in Provo, but a fatality brought its discontinuance. It was not adopted again until 1922 as part of the school's intercollegiate program. Take away three more years during World War II when football was suspended, and you have a total of 52 years of football history.

In its first 50 years the Cougars have had a total of 11 coaches and played over 500 games. The Cougars have not been able to claim any undefeated seasons, but there were some highlights. The Ott Romney team of 1932 posted an 8-1 season, and the Cougars' first conference championship came fairly recently under Tommy Hudspeth in 1965.

The greatest movement forward, however, has come under the Cougars' current coach, LaVell Edwards. In 1974 the Mountain Cats captured the WAC title and made their first bowl appearance, the Fiesta Bowl in Phoenix.

In 1976 the Cougars tied for the league championship and were invited to participate in a second bowl, the Tangerine in Orlando, Fla. At the end of the 1977 season they were again WAC champions and traveled to Japan for an appearance in the Silk Bowl in Tokyo.

Last year the Cougars won an outright WAC crown and inaugurated the annual Holiday Bowl in San Diego, Calif.

Historically, when talk turns to the individual stars that have come out of BYU, there's quite a bit to talk about. A few have won All-America honors, participated in post-season games or earned a spot in the NCAA record book.

Those of recent vintage include Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie (whose number 40 jersey has been retired) who was named to several All-American selections in 1962. Forte, a single-wing tailback, was among the national leaders in total offense for that year.

More recently, quarterback Virgil Carter (1964-66) won a host of honors as an outstanding player from BYU. During his tenure with the Cougars, Carter set three major offensive records. One of those NCAA marks—most yards rushing and passing in one game (599 against UTEP)—still stands. In all, Virgil accounted for 6,354 yards total offensive and was responsible for a total of 68 touchdowns in his three-year career with the Cougars. Carter was also named to the Academic All-American selection for two seasons.

One of Carter's favorite targets was Phil Odle (1965-67), who ranks among the top receivers in college ball in receptions, receiving yardage and touchdown catches. Phil ended his career with a total of 181 receptions for 2,548 yards and 25 touchdowns.

Chris Farasopoulos (1968-70), the Galloping Greek from BYU, led the nation in punt returns and set two NCAA kick-return records in 1969. Kick-returns were also the specialty of Golden Richards (1970-71), who topped the nation in punt returns (1971). Richards is still listed with four existing NCAA kick-return records.

Seven years ago Fleet Pete VanValkenburg (1970-72) was the nation's leading rusher, setting several WAC and school records in the process.

Pete was named to second and third team All-American selections and played in three post-season games.

Linemen of special note in recent seasons include defensive end Jeff Slipp (1969), offensive guard Gordon Gravelle (1970), and offensive lineman Paul Howard (1972). Four years ago the Cougars had two top defensive linemen in Wayne Baker and Paul Linford. Three years ago the Cougars had two outstanding interior linemen in Brad Oates and Orrin Olsen, both of whom won national notice. Linemen of more recent note include Dave Hubbard (1976), Mekeli Ieremia (1977), Gary Petersen (1977), and Lance Reynolds (1977).

Five years ago a young BYU sophomore, split end Jay Miller, led the nation in pass receptions (100) and caught more passes in one game (22) than any player in the history of the game. The following year, and the year after, quarterback Gary Sheide was runner-up for the NCAA passing crown.

Gifford Nielsen, a homespun all-around athlete, garnered some of the quarterback honors that eluded Carter and Sheide. During the 1976 season Nielsen established his own realm, leading the nation in touchdown passes for the season (29) and single game (5). Other single game marks that Nielsen paced for the nation were in rushing-passing (455 yards) and passing (468 yards). A consensus All-American, Nielsen balloted sixth in Heisman Trophy voting and set several WAC and school records.

For a while it looked like Nielsen may be headed for Heisman honors, but he suffered a knee injury in the fourth game of the campaign (Oregon State) and was out for the rest of the season.

A player the fans will remember for a long time is Jeff Blanc (1973-76), the school's top career rusher (2,618) who scored 174 career points.

Latest of the school's great running backs is Todd Christensen, a four-year letterman at full-back. Christensen led the Cougars in pass receptions for three seasons (1975-77).

BYU can claim five Western Athletic Conference championships (outright or shared); 1965, 1974, 1976, 1977, and 1978.

Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie

Sixteen years ago BYU's All-American tailback, Eldon Fortie (pictured with then-head coach Hal Mitchell), scored key touchdowns in season finale with Wyoming. Although nursing a shoulder injury, the "Phantom" came off the bench to turn the season final against the Cowboys into a victory. Fortie was second in rushing and total offense in 1962, and his jersey (40) was retired.

KSL Broadcasts

Brigham Young University's football and basketball games have been carried over KSL Radio for more than a quarter of a century. The 50,000-watt station in Salt Lake City (1160 on the dial) reaches audiences in various parts of the country.

Play-by-play announcer for the Cougar games is Paul James, a veteran with 29 years' experience behind him. A University of Utah graduate, James entered broadcasting in 1950. For six years he broadcast Utah basketball and football games before joining the staff at KSL Radio and Television in July of 1965. James has been at the microphone calling BYU games for the past 14 years.

To all members of the news media who may be covering football this fall, we welcome you to BYU via our press guide.

As a matter of policy, press box passes for all home games will be limited to working members only. Passes will be issued on an individual game basis. All requests for tickets, as for other information such as pictures, statistics, etc., should be directed to the Sports Information Office, C-388 ASB, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84602. Press pass requests should be made no later than one week prior to the game.

BYU's press box is located on the west side of the field and press parking is immediately west of the main entrance. Press and media parking credentials will be issued on request.

A telecopier (one) will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Several telephones will also be available on the same basis.
