No. 16 FOR MOST NATIONAL TV GAMES SINCE 2011

99 GAMES in past 10 seasons on an ESPN network

11 GAMES in 2020 on one of the ESPN networks

BYU attracts national exposure and national schedule

As an FBS independent, BYŪ annually plays a national schedule featuring teams from the top conferences and is one of the nation's most showcased programs in national television games. In 2020, despite the COVID-19 pandemic prompting the cancelation of all but two games on BYU's original 2020 schedule in late summer, BYU was able to reconstruct a full schedule for the fall against teams from across the country.

BYU, who accepted an invitation on Sept. 10, 2021, to join the Big 12 Conference starting in 2023, embarked upon its 11th season as a football independent in 2021. BYU started competing as an independent in 2011 as the only school with an exclusive television partnership with ESPN. The partnership, inked on Sept. 1, 2010, annually features Cougar football home games on the sports leader's family of networks.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN executive vice president, programming and scheduling. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

National Television Exposure

One of the most important goals in becoming an independent was the opportunity for more national exposure for the university and football program.

Over the past 10 seasons as an independent, BYU is ranked No. 16 in the country for the most major national TV games (on ABC, NBC, CBS, FOX, ESPN, ESPN2), totaling 78 for an average of nearly eight per season. Only two schools west of the Mississippi River—Oklahoma (No. 5, 99 games) and USC, Pac-12 (No. 9, 91 games)—have had more games on the major national networks in that span.

The Cougars have been featured on one of the ESPN family of networks 99 times over the past 10 seasons. Last year, 11 of BYU's 12 games were broadcast on one of the ESPN networks, including six games on ESPN, three on ESPN2 and one on ESPNU, while ESPN3 also carried one game televised nationally by BYUtv.

Every BYU home football game will be televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Each year, a minimum of three BYU home games are carried on ESPN, ESPN2 or ABC while additional home games can be televised on those networks or on ESPNU.

At least one BYU game each season is also televised live on BYUtv, which in its own right offers a national reach of more than 54 million households. Additionally, BYU fans are able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has the rights through conference agreements with the host school.

Challenging National Schedules

Through independence, BYU has sought better access for the Cougars' national fan base and the opportunity to schedule high-profile opponents. In 2021 BYU will face seven Power 5 conference opponents, including Arizona, Arizona State, Baylor, USC, Utah, Virginia and Washington State. In addition to games against the ACC, Big 12 and Pac-12, the Cougars face FBS opponents from the American, Mountain West and Sun Belt when they compete against Boise State, Utah State, South Florida and Georgia Southern.

Playing a challenging Power 5-quality schedule as an independent with matchups against some of the best teams from all across the country, the Cougars will complete their final two seasons as an independent in 2021 and 2022 before transitioning to membership in the Big 12 and a full-slate of Power 5 games in 2023.

Since its first season as an independent in 2011, BYU has played teams against all FBS conferences, including the SEC, Big 12, Big Ten, Pac-12, ACC, American, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt, and Western Athletic Conference, as well as fellow independents Notre Dame, UMass, Liberty and New Mexico State.

Additional BYU Football Programming on BYUtv

In addition to live game broadcasts on ESPN and BYUtv, BYU is the only school in the country with nationally televised live 60-minute pregame and 30-60-minute postgame shows before and after every game—home or away. With the pregame and postgame shows, BYUtv brings Cougar fans a live perspective on the game that they can't get anywhere else.

BYU Broadcasting also produces daily and weekly BYU-centric sports shows, including BYU Sports Nation, After Further Review, BYU Football with Kalani Sitake and Coordinators' Corner as well as additional BYU football specials throughout the year to highlight events such as National Letter of Intent Day, BYU spring football, BYU Pro Day and the annual BYU Football National Media Day each summer, which also includes live programming on ESPN3.

BYUtv and BYU Radio/Sirius XM 143 simulcast a daily news show—BYU Sports Nation—that airs live each weekday from noon-1 p.m. ET/10-11 a.m. MT from Studio B at the BYU Broadcasting Building in Provo. The latest news and information about BYU sports are discussed each day by hosts Jarom Jordan and Spencer Linton. During the football season BYUtv also features a weekly one-hour show—After Further Review—where host Dave McCann and a panel of experts provide in-depth analysis of the tactics, plays, and touchdowns of every BYU football game.

BYUtv, available in 54 million North American homes, is on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 800 cable systems. The network has its own state-of-the-art production building on BYU's campus and a top-of-the-line HD truck that allow BYUtv to televise every game in HD.

VS. ARIZONA SATURDAY, SEPT. 4

BYU opens the season for the third time in six years under Kalani Sitake. The Cougars are 2-0 against the Wildcats under Sitake. BYU topped Arizona in 2015 for Sitake's first win as a collegiate head coach and then beat the Wildcats 28-23 in Tucson in 2018.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 18

Former Western Athletic Conference foe Arizona State visits Provo for the first time since 1998 when BYU defeated the No. 14 Sun Devils 26-6 in Provo. The two teams also played 14 times as WAC members during ASU's membership from 1962-1978.

SOUTH FLORIDA SATURDAY, SEPT. 25

BOISE STATE SATURDAY, OCT. 9

BYU and Zach Wilson dismantled the Broncos on the blue turf last season with a 51-17 drubbing. The Cougars also edged Boise State in 2019 with a 28-25 win in Provo. BYU has never won three in a row against the Broncos.

CT BAYLOR SATURDAY, OCT. 16

IDAHO STATE SATURDAY, NOV. 13

Idaho State comes south from Pocatello for a game against the Cougars after visiting LaVell Edwards Stadium in 2019. BYU is 6-0 against the FCS opponent and won the last meeting by a score of 42-10.

THERN SATURDAY, NOV. 20

BYU and Georgia Southern will meet for the first time. The Cougars trip to Georgia will be just the fourth trip to the Peach State. BYU has played in Atlanta twice (Georgia Tech) and once against Georgia in Athens.

SC SATURDAY, NOV. 27

After defeating the Trojans in Provo in 2019, BYU returns to the Coliseum for the first time since 2003. The last time the Cougars visited USC, Matt Leinart and Reggie Bush were leading the offensive attack for the Trojans.

SEASON PREVIEW

Despite the departure of 13 players to the NFL in April, BYU returns talent and experience on both sides of the ball, including veterans named to 15 national award preseason watchlists.

On offense, the Cougars' returning experience includes running backs Tyler Allgeier and Lopini Katoa, Outland Trophy candidate James Empey at center and primary pass-catchers Gunner Romney, Neil Pau'u and Isaac Rex. Sophomore Jaren Hall earned the starting quarterback role vacated by No. 2 overall NFL Draft pick Zach Wilson after strong completion with sophomore Baylor Romney and freshman Jacob Conover.

The BYU defense is anchored by veteran linebackers Payton Wilgar, Keenan Pili and Max Tooley. In the defensive backfield, the Cougars return D'Angelo Mandell, Keenan Ellis, Isaiah Herron and Malik Moore. Chaz Ah You will also return to the field for the Cougar after missing the 2020 season with a season-ending injury in the first game.

Quarterbacks

Offensive coordinator Aaron Roderick, along with head coach Kalani Sitake, announced Hall will start for the Cougars after winning the job in camp. Hall, at 6-foot-1, 205 pounds, has played in nine games, including two starts. He has completed 31 of 46 passes for 420 yards and one touchdown to go along with 139 rushing yards and three scores on the ground.

The Spanish Fork, Utah, product started against Utah State in Logan in 2019, jumpstarting BYU to a 42-14 victory with a dynamic mix of passing and running. In one half of play, Hall went 12 of 16 for 214 yards and rushed seven times for 54 yards and two touchdowns to spark the return of the Old Wagon Wheel to Provo.

Roderick also tabbed Baylor Romney to be the backup for game one, but that all position battles are ongoing throughout the season. Both Hall and Romney have previous starting experience for the Cougars.

Romney, a 6-foot-2, 195-pounder from El-Paso, Texas, has played in 11 games with two starts in his career at BYU. He has totaled 1,008 yards passing on 78 of 120 passes with eight touchdowns. Romney helped defeat No. 14 Boise State 28-25 in Provo in his first career start with a 221-yard, two-touchdown performance.

Conover as a freshman was also in the mix pushing Hall and Romney. Conover is a 6-foot-1, 205-pound top recruit out of Chandler, Arizona, who served as the scout team quarterback in 2020. The former three-time state champion threw for more than 10,000 yards in high school with 102 touchdowns, including 38 as a senior.

Running Backs

BYU has eight running backs in fall camp this year, including top returners Tyler Allgeier and Lopini Katoa. These two combined for 22 touchdowns and 1,574 rushing yards last season. Miles Davis and Sione Finau also saw action in at least four games last season ending with a combined 455 rushing yards.

Allgeier finished last season with 1,130 yards to rank No. 8 in the nation and averaged 7.53 yards per carry and had 13 touchdowns. He added 14 receptions for 174 yards as a receiver, averaging 12.4 yards per catch. Katoa finished the 2020 season with 444 yards, adding to his 1,225-yard career stats. He had five touchdowns and averaged 5.29 yards per carry as well as 23 receptions for 293 yards averaging 12.74 yards per catch.

Jackson McChesney played in one game before suffering a season-ending injury in 2020. Enhancing the depth of the running back position, Hinckley Ropati will see action this season after suffering a season-ending injury in fall camp last season, while Mason Fakahua, true freshmen Beau Robinson will add depth to the position group.

Wide Receivers

BYU entered fall camp with 15 wide receivers, including top returners Gunner Romney and Neil Pau'u, who combined for 84 catches and 1,370 yards last season. Chris Jackson, Kody Epps, Keanu Hill and Brayden Cosper each saw action in at least six games last season as well. They totaled 19 catches for 176 yards in 2020.

Transfers Samson and Puka Nacua joined the Cougars this summer. Both brothers caught touchdowns in last year's shortened season, playing in two games and three games for Utah and Washington, respectively. In their last full seasons, Samson recorded 18 catches for 330 yards and four touchdowns, with Puka tallying seven catches for 168 yards and two touchdowns.

Hobbs Nyberg, Talmage Gunther, Terrence Fall and Kade Moore each saw action in 2020. Tanner Wall and Maguire Anderson are both true freshmen, and highly regarded 2019 commit Chase Roberts has returned from serving a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Calgary, Canada, and is also a true freshman.

Tight Ends

BYU's tight end room will feature seven returning players and one newcomer in the 2021 season. Despite losing Freshman All-American Matt Bushman, who went to the NFL this offseason with the Las Vegas Raiders, BYU's tight end group will retain several experienced players expected to contribute this season.

Isaac Rex, who was named Freshman All-American and is a 2021 John Mackey Award candidate, played in all 12 games last season, starting in eight. He led the team in receiving touchdowns and tied for No. 1 in the nation with 12 receiving touchdowns and 72 points scored by a tight end. Sophomore Dallin Holker returns after serving a mission to Chile. During his freshman season in 2018, he played in 13 games, recording 235 receiving yards and 19 receptions. Sophomore Masen Wake, a fullback and tight end, also played in all 12 games last season while Carter Wheat returns after playing 10 games last season and recording 18.50 yards per reception.

The tight end room will add Ethan Erickson this season and will feature returning freshmen Bentley Hanshaw and Ben Tuipulotu and junior Lane Lunt.

Offensive Line

The 19-man Cougar offensive line is working to replace three 2020 starters who are currently in the NFL; this includes third-round draft pick Brady Christensen to the Panthers. Tristen Hoge and Chandon Herring signed free agent contracts with the New York Jets and Tennessee Titans, respectively. BYU has three starters returning for fall camp this year, James Empey, Clark Barrington and Blake Freeland. Empey, who is featured on five major pre-season watch lists, has started in all 34 games he has played for the Cougars. Barrington is listed alongside Empey as a nominee for the Rotary Lombardi Award.

Other experienced players expected to contribute this fall include Brayden Keim, Harris LaChance, Joe Tukuafu and Connor Pay as well as JT Gentry. Newcomers competing for time are Campbell Barrington, Chandler Bird, Brock Gunderson, Donovan Hanna, Tysen Lewis, Tyler Little, Cooper McMullan, Burke Parker, Cade Parrish, Dylan Rollins and Seth Willis.

Linebackers

Last year's captain Isaiah Kaufusi tallied 83 tackles including 4.5 tackles for loss, three forced fumbles and an interception returned for a touchdown in the 2020 season. After the graduation of Kaufusi, who signed with the Indianapolis Colts, BYU is anticipating a strong showing from a talented group of backers.

To help in filling the shoes of Kaufusi, BYU returns linebackers Keenan Pili, Max Tooley and Payton Wilgar. The three linebackers all saw time and started in 2020 and combined for 173 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and one interception during the 2020 campaign. In July, Payton Wilgar was named to the Butkus Award and Bronko Nagurski Award watch lists which are given to the nation's best linebacker and defensive player respectively.

BYU also has a plethora of young talent at the linebacker position including Ben Bywater, Drew Jensen, Jackson Kaufusi, Josh Wilson and Morgan Pyper as well as and Jacob Bosco, Theo Dawson, Cade Hoke, Isaac Matua, Cade Pupunu and Viliami Tausinga

Defensive Line

Despite losing three starters from the 2020 season in Khyiris Tonga, Zac Dawe and Bracken El-Bakri, the Cougars return eight players with experience on the defensive line. Redshirt-senior Uriah Leiataua comes into the 2021 season with appearances in 36 games since 2017. Junior Pepe Tanuvasa, a transfer from Navy, played in all 12 games last season, recording 24 total tackles and one sack. Juniors Lorenzo Fauatea and Earl Tuioti-Mariner also provide leadership to the position.

Redshirt-Sophomore Gabe Summers and Freshman Caden Haws both played in all 12 games in 2020, each recording 15 total tackles. Sophomore Atunaisa Mahe, who did not play last year due to health concerns, played in all 13 games in 2019, recording 22 total tackles. Despite his season being cut short last year due to injury, freshman Tyler Batty led the team with four sacks and will be a pillar on defense for the Cougars.

SEASON PREVIEW

Cornerbacks

The Cougars look to replace Chris Wilcox, who was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Highlighting the returners with significant 2020 game experience are juniors Keenan Ellis, D'Angelo Mandell and Shamon Willis as well as sophomore Isaiah Herron.

The four each played in at least eight games last season, with Ellis starting six games and Herron starting one. They recorded 21 starts in the last two seasons and tallied 21 solo tackles with nine pass breakups altogether last season.

Joining the Cougars this season are freshmen Quenton Rice and Jakob Robinson as well as junior Oregon State transfer Kaleb Hayes. Caleb Christensen joins Robinson and former receiver Jacob Boren as expected contributors at the nickel position.

Safeties

After a stellar year for BYU's defensive backs and safeties, in which they held opponents to an average of 197.5 yards per game, the safeties room is looking to reload. The Cougars lose the production of Troy Warner to the Los Angeles Rams and Zayne Anderson to the Kansas City Chiefs who combined for 23 starts, 70 tackles and two interceptions in BYU's 11-1 season.

Despite two Cougars moving on to the NFL, BYU returns the production of Chaz Ah You, Malik Moore, Hayden Livingston and Jared Kapisi who combined for 20 tackles and two interceptions in the 2020 season. Ammon Hannemann and Mitchell Price are another talented returners expected to compete for time at safety.

The position also includes juniors Jason Money and Matthew Criddle and freshmen Dean Jones and Talan Alfrey.

Special Teams

BYU's special teams will be returning notable contributors for the 2021 season. The Cougars are returning sophomore placekicker Jake Oldroyd, who was a Lou Groza Award Finalist for the nation's top placekicker, a 2020 All-American and tied No. 1 nationally in field goal percentage (1.000). He started 11 games and was a perfect 13-13 in field goals in 2020, with more than half of his kicks coming from at least 40 yards out, including three from beyond 50 yards. He also was 60-62 in PATs, placing him at No. 4 in PATs and No. 6 in scoring among kickers (99 points) in the nation.

BYU also returns freshman punter Ryan Rehkow, who earned his starting role as a true freshman during the 2020 season. He was named the 2020 Phil Steele All-Independent First Team punter after tallying 28 punts, averaging 45.14 yards. He punted a career-long of 61 yards against Houston and rushed for 49 yards on his lone punt fake attempt.

Other notable contributors include sophomore deep snapper Britton Hogan and freshman deep snapper, Austin Riggs. BYU's special teams will also include experienced returners freshman Caleb Christensen on kick returns and freshman Hobbs Nyberg. Others who could see time as a specialist including sophomore Jacob Boren and senior Samson Nacua on punt returns. Freshman kickers Justen Smith and Cash Peterman look to contribute as well this season.

The NCAA will also implement a variety of new rules for the 2021 season.

Overtime 2-Point Conversion Requirements

Teams will be required to run a 2-point conversion play after a touchdown when a game reaches a second overtime period. Previously, a 2-point attempt was required after the third overtime period. Also, if the game reaches a third overtime, teams will run alternating 2-point plays, instead of starting another drive at the opponent's 25-yard line. This is a change from the previous rule, which started to use 2-point plays in the fifth overtime period. This rules change is being made to limit the number of plays from scrimmage and bring the game to a quicker conclusion. Teams can still choose whether to kick the point after touchdown or run a 2-point conversion play during the first overtime period.

Team Area

The team area will be permanently extended to the 20-yard lines, starting in the 2021 season. Previously, the team area extended to the 25-yard lines, but this area was expanded to the 15-yard lines last season to create more spacing due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Unsportsmanlike Tactics

Video board and lighting system operators have been included in those personnel who may not create any distraction that obstructs play.

Feigning injuries

A new framework has been created to allow a school or conference to request a postgame video review about questionable actions through the NCAA secretary-rules editor/national coordinator of officials.

Instant Replay - Clock Adjustments

In order to keep the game moving, when Instant Replay overturns a call on the field, The clock will only be reset when there is less than two minutes remaining in the 2nd quarter and less than five minutes remaining in the 4th quarter.

Points of Emphasis:

- For the 2021 season, targeting and dangerous contact fouls will continue to be a priority for all officials. The NCAA Football Rules Committee continues to embrace the targeting rule to promote player safety and reduce head contact.
- It will be a point of emphasis for officials to penalize any taunting action directed toward an opponent. Committee members think these actions reflect poorly on the game and can lead to unnecessary confrontations.
- Officials are directed to be alert to players who are significantly in violation of uniform rules and to send violators out of the game to correct the issue. This will include specifically the pants, jerseys and T-shirts that extend below the torso.
- Coaches should not enter the field of play or leave the team area to debate officiating decisions. Those who do so will have committed an automatic unsportsmanlike conduct foul.

KALANI SITAKE

BYU HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Kalani Sitake (pronounced kah-lah-nee see-tah-kav) enters his sixth season overseeing the BYU football program in 2021.

A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history and just the fourth since 1972, when Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards took over the program. Sitake is the first former player under Edwards to be named head coach at BYU.

Named BYU's head coach on December 19, 2015, Sitake returned to his alma mater with 15 years of coaching experience, including seven seasons a defensive coordinator and four years as an assistant head coach. He came to BYU from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015 under head coach Gary Andersen. Sitake spent the prior 10 seasons at the University of Utah under head coach Kyle Whittingham. He started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012. He coached 12 all-conference honorees at Utah, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014).

During his career, Sitake has helped mentor 28 NFL Draft picks, including No. 2 overall pick Zach Wilson in the 2021 NFL Draft by the New York Jets. Sitake also coached BYU linebackers Sione Takitaki and Fred Warner and running back Jamaal Williams. Takitaki was a third-round pick of the Cleveland Browns in this year's draft and Warner was one of the league's top rookies after being taken in the third round in 2018 by the San Francisco 49ers.

Sitake has coached in 12 bowl games during his career and has been on the winning side in 10 of those 12 contests, including a 3-1 mark as a head coach. BYU is coming off a 49-23 win in the 2020 Boca Raton Bowl over UCF.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002 under Gary Crowton. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

He began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards. A team captain as a senior, Sitake's last game as a player was also the last game coached by the legendary Edwards, who was a great mentor for Sitake.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake is the nation's first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. Sitake and his wife Timberly have three children, Skye, Sadie and Kelaokalani (KK).

TOM HOLMOE

Director of Athletics

Tom Holmoe was named Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University on March 1, 2005. He oversees a nationally recognized program with 21 intercollegiate sports, involving more than 600 student-athletes and a 190-person staff. Since his appointment, BYU has captured 120 conference regular-season and postseason championships, and more than 275 student-athletes have earned All-America status.

In addition to his role as director of athletics, Holmoe served as a member of the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee from 2015-18 and was the Executive Council Committee Chair for the West Coast Conference from 2014-17. Over his 14-year tenure, BYU has an average ranking of 38th in the annual NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the university's new athletic facilities. In addition to his many roles at the university, Holmoe also served as the Executive Council Committee Chair for the West Coast Conference from 2014-17.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe first came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He earned first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989.

After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91 and later accepted an offer from Hall of Fame coach Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in Zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in Athletic Administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children and seven grandchildren.

BYU'S HISTORY

The establishment of the Brigham Young Academy in 1875 offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into nearly 600 acres and more than 300 buildings. From its inception, the goal of Brigham Young University has been to offer "a new kind of education" for Zion, one based on precepts "revealed by the Lord," as Maeser once remarked. Today, BYU provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The University is widely recognized for its deep commitments to inspired religious values and rigorous intellectual learning.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University — founded, supported, and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints — is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs, and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenge and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind.

AIMS OF A BYU EDUCATION

BYU seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and to serve others throughout their lives. These are the common aims of all education at BYU. Both those who teach in the classroom and those who direct activities outside the classroom are responsible for contributing to this complete educational vision. A BYU education should be:

- Spiritually Strengthening
- Intellectually Enlarging
- Character Building

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities.

The missionary effort is based on the New Testament pattern of missionaries serving in pairs, teaching the gospel and baptizing believers in the name of Jesus Christ (see, for example, the work of Peter and John in the book of Acts).

Approximately 65 percent of the current team has served a Latter-Day Saint mission. Members of the team have served in nearly 30 different countries and on six of the seven continents around the globe. BYU currently has about 30 members of the team (previous signees or on roster) that are currently serving in the mission field.

More than 53,000 full-time missionaries are serving missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Most missionaries are young people under the age of 25, serving in 404 missions throughout the world.

Missionaries work with a companion of the same gender during their mission, with the exception of couples, who work with their spouse. Single men serve missions for two years and single women serve missions for 18 months.

Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent only to countries where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language.

Prior to going to their assigned area, missionaries spend a short period of time at one of 10 missionary training centers throughout the world. There they learn how to teach the gospel in an orderly and clear way and, if necessary, they begin to learn the language of the people they will be teaching. The largest training center is in Provo, Utah, with additional centers in Brazil, Colombia, England, Ghana, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, and South Africa.

A typical missionary day begins by waking at 6:30 a.m. for personal study. The day is spent proselytizing by following up on appointments, visiting homes or meeting people in the street or other public places. Missionaries end their day by 10:30 p.m. Schedules are flexible depending on the culture of the country where missionaries are serving.

Missionary work is voluntary. Missionaries fund their own missions — except for their transportation to and from their field of labor — and are not paid for their services. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church total over 16 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.ChurchofJesusChrist.org

Former BYU offensive lineman Thomas Shoaf served a two-year mission to Honolulu, Hawai'i. Here, Shoaf poses in front of the Laie, Hawai'i Temple. Shoaf redshirted with the team in 2013 before departing on his mission during the 2014 and 2015 seasons. Shoaf returned to the Cougars for the 2016 season where he earned Freshman All-American honors after starting nine games at tackle.

WELCOME TO THE CLUB!

The Cougar Club is dedicated to the success of Coach Kalani Sitake and the BYU football team; donors receive Cougar Club status for any gift to BYU athletics. With the donations and support of thousands of members nationwide, the Cougar Club supports more than 600 BYU student-athletes who represent the university in 21 NCAA sports. Through its fundraising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is enhancing the future success of BYU Athletics.

BYU Athletics depends on loyal Cougar Club members for funding critical to the athletic department's success. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of Cougar Club Members becomes an important key to the future achievements of BYU Athletics.

"BYU's donors and fans make all the difference, and we can't do it without your help!" says Cougar Club Director Greg Vehar. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital athletic priorities, including:

- Funding athletic scholarships
- Building and maintaining state-of-the-art facilities
- Supporting the Student Athlete Life and Learning Center
- Sponsoring outreach to the elementary schools and the community by BYU Student Athletes
- Paying recruiting expenses to help BYU coaches attract talented athletes from across the country and around the world
- Funding the Nutrition Center and the Student Athlete Fuel Card

CONTRIBUTION LEVELS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Annual Members make Cougar Club contributions of between $60 and $2,500 each year, based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. Legacy Members make an initial contribution of $10,000 or more and continue their involvement with sustaining annual gifts of $1,250 or more. To acknowledge the generosity of Club members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Cougar Club members, including priority seating, parking passes, and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU Athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs and making a difference in the lives of more than 600 BYU student-athletes.

"You guys will agree that [Lavell Edwards] stadium is one of the prettiest settings of college football. This stadium is just unbelievable.

KIRK HERBSTREIT.

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

CAPACITY: 63,470

CONSTRUCTED: 1960 (COUGAR STADIUM)

EXPANDED: 1982 RENAMED: 2000 PLAYING SURFACE: NATURAL GRASS

ELEVATION: 4,338

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 63,470-seat capacity, video walls and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

RENAMING

The stadium's name was changed from Cougar Stadium to LaVell Edwards Stadium, in honor of legendary Hall of Fame head coach LaVell Edwards in a pregame ceremony on November 18, 2000, conducted by President Gordon B. Hinckley, president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Edwards had previously announed he would retire following the 2000 season after 29 years at the helm.

HISTORY/EXPANSION/SEATING CAPACITY

Cougar Stadium was originally built in 1964 with a seating capacity of 45,000, including the temporary bleachers in the end zone. As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000.

The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003, BYU added a Juxury "Club" Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045. In 2010 and 2011 BYU created additional wheelchair access inside the stadium, which reduced the capacity by 575 seats to 63.470.

NEW VIDEO BOARDS, LED RIBBONS AND SOUND SYSTEM

In April of 2021, BYU director of athletics Tom Holmoe announced new video boards, LED ribbon boards and a new sound system will be installed in Lavell Edwards Stadium for the 2021 season. The project is funded completely by Nu Skin, a longtime partner and corporate sponsor of BYU Athletics. Both video boards at the north and south ends of the stadium with be replaced. The current dimensions are 34 by 50 feet, the new dimensions of the south board will be 48 by 131 feet and the north board will be 36 by 72 feet. New LED ribbon boards will also be installed on the north and south ends of the stadium to match the current ribbon board on the east side of the stadium. The north and south ribbon boards are currently four feet tall and will be replaced with 8 feet ribbon boards. A new single point sound system will replace the old sound system in the north end zone, which will significantly enhance the audio experience for those in attendance.

2019 UPGRADES & IMPROVEMENTS
Structural sections at the four corners of the stadium have been added for the 2019 season that connect the existing four independent stadium stands at the mezzanine level. The new upgrades improve accessibility, safety and the overall patron experience at BYU football games, allowing fans to walk between stands without having to return to ground level and increasing the number of services and restrooms in the stadium with women's, men's and family-friendly facilities being added on the north and south mezzanine levels.

WI-FI AND DAS

WI-FI AND DAS
In 2018, BYU became the first college football program in the country to implement a full-stadium, high-density Wi-Fi offload solution used in many NFL stadiums. BYU partnered with Verizon Wireless and Extreme Networks to install new state-of-the-art Wi-Fi and distributed antenna system (DAS) in Edwards Stadium. The cutting-edge system provides BYU fans and vendors the ultimate large-venue mobile connectivity experience.

GAME-DAY APP

With state-of-the-art mobile connectivity in place, BYU also introduced in 2018 a new game-day mobile app built specifically for the game-day experience at Edwards Stadium. The feature-rich application developed by Pesci Sports provides Cougar fans in Edwards Stadium a second-screen experience during games that includes real-time statistics, on-demand highlight videous assist modile personnel radio between a valid food highlight videos, social media components, radio broadcast audio, food services, merchandise and much more. The app is available to download on both iPhone and Android phones.

***Due to Covid-19 pandemic, spectators were only allowed to attend four home games which each had varying capacity limits. Many programs across the country did not allow any spectators or had limited access.

EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

Unveiled in the spring of 2021, the newly renovated football locker room offers the football team and staff convenient access to the program's equipment room, athletic training facilities, strength and conditioning center, practice fields and meeting rooms.

Each locker offers a creative, personalized design while providing spacious storage compartments intended for football-specific equipment, pads and gear. A built-in ventilation system takes odor and moisture from each locker compartment and removes it from the locker room. The many amenities also include locking compartments, comfortable soft seats and built-in power and charging ports. The entire facility, including showers and bathrooms, were redone along with the addition of a new team haircutting area.

Other features of the renovations include a Nike gear display, BYU football history uniform displays, new shuffle board tables and televisions, and equipment pick-up lockers. The football staff locker and alumni locker areas within the facility were also renovated.

TRAINING FACILITIES

BYU's training facilities include a newly renovated hydro therapy room with the one of the largest, state-of-the-art aquatic therapy treadmill in the west, along with two large hot and cold whirlpool therapy pools. BYU athletes can do full sprinting, unload their body weight for faster recoveries, and watch their body mechanics on monitors thanks to multiple underwater cameras from both front and lateral views. Doctor's offices are on site in the training facilities where bikes, treadmills and the latest equipment are also utilized as trainers and doctors assist and treat BYU athletes.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER/ PLAYERS' LOUNGE

The football team's Strength and Conditioning Center is conveniently located with easy access from the football locker room in the Student Athlete Building and to the team's practice fields. Most of the equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. With a new 2,500 square foot addition completed for the 2017 season, the facility features 20 full power racks with platforms as well as reverse hypers, Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, Nordic Track incline trainers, Verscaclimbers, Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. Another new addition perched above the Strength and Conditioning Center from a second-floor overlook is the new players' lounge for the team. The lounge features several flat screen television and gaming consoles, along with other game tables and areas to relax.

BYU PLAYMAKERS HELP COUGARS ACHIEVE 11-1 RECORD AND NO. 11 FINAL RANKING IN 2020

Led by a All-American quarterback Zach Wilson and a consistently strong defense, BYU was a big story on the national scene throughout the 2020 season, boasting a top-10 offense and defense to finish 11-1 with a No. 11 final national ranking.

Kalani Sitake's team achieved only the sixth one-loss or undefeated season in BYU football history and the first since 1996 when quarterback Steve Sarkisian led BYU to a 14-1 record and No. 5 final ranking after winning the Cotton Bowl. BYU also recorded 11 wins for the first time since 2009 and only the 12th time overall in program history. In 2009, BYU finished ranked No. 12 in both final polls with an 11-2 record.

After opening the 2020 season with 55-3 victory at Navy, BYU earned a place in the national rankings in each of the 16 polls released during the season. The last time the Cougars were ranked in 16 consecutive weeks during a season was in 2008 when BYU was ranked in all 17 polls of the season to bridge a string of 29 consecutive weeks ranked from Nov. 18, 2007 to Oct. 18, 2009.

The Cougars were ranked as high as No. 8, a slot they maintained for four weeks, while winning their first nine games of the season. BYU's No. 8 ranking was the program's highest placement during a season since earning a No. 7 ranking by the AP in 2009 and being rated No. 7 by the coaches in 2008.

Reflecting the successful production that fueled its 11-1 record in 2020, BYU achieved top-10 rankings in 18 different statistical categories in the NCAA ratings. The only team to finished with a top-10 offense and defense, the Cougars finished No. 3 in scoring offense (43.5 ppg), No. 4 in scoring defense (15.3 ppg), No. 6 in total offense (522.2 ypg) and No. 10 in total defense (317.4 ypg).

The Cougars saw six different players receiving All-America recognition in 2020 for their outstanding play, led by NCAA Consensus All-American left tackle Brady Christensen. Quarterback Zach Wilson, who finished No. 8 in the Heisman Trophy voting, receiver Dax Milne and kicker Jake Oldroyd also earned All-America honors, while running back Tyler Allgeier received All-America honorable mention and tight end Isaac Rex was named a Freshman All-American.

Wilson, a Manning Award finalist, posted 11 different top-10 rankings in 2020. He was ranked No. 2 nationally in points responsible for (264), passing efficiency (196.4) and completion percentage (73.5); No. 3 in passing yards (3,692), passing touchdowns (33), yards per pass attempt (10.99) and points responsible for per game (22.0); No. 4 in rushing touchdowns by a quarterback; No. 5 in passing yards per completion (14.95); No. 8 in total offense (328.8); and No. 10 in passing yards per game (307.7).

Milne, a Burlsworth Trophy finalist, finished the year ranked No. 4 nationally with 1,188 receiving yards and No.18 with eight touchdown grabs. Allgeier was No. 7 in the country in yards per carry (7.53), No. 8 in total rushing yards (1,130) and No. 10 in rushing touchdowns (13). Rex finished No. 3 in the nation in receiving touchdowns (12) and tied for No. 1 among tight ends. Oldroyd, meanwhile, was perfect on field goals to tie for No. 1 in field goal percentage and ranked No. 4 for most PATs (60) and No. 13 in total points scored (99) as a Lou Groza finalist.

Linebacker Isaiah Kaufusi led the Cougar defense with 83 tackles and four sacks, while senior defensive backs Troy Warner, Zayne Anderson and Chris Wilcox provided an experienced secondary. Up front BYU played well led by Outland Trophy watch lister Khyiris Tonga along with Bracken El-Bakri and Zac Dawe. In addition to Oldroyd among the specialists, punter Ryan Rehkow had a strong freshman campaign, averaging 45.1 yards per punt while placing 16 of 28 punts inside the 20-yard line.

BYU capped off the season at the 2020 RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl with a dominating 49-23 victory over the AAC's UCF Knights (6-3). The Cougars also began the 2020 season on the East Coast against the Naval Academy of the AAC. After a 55-3 win over the Midshipmen, BYU earned home wins over Troy (48-7), Louisiana Tech (45-14) and UTSA (27-20) before another road trip in AAC territory for a 43-26 victory at Houston.

The Cougars then downed Texas State (52-14) and Western Kentucky (41-10) in Provo before dominating No. 21 Boise State on the Blue in Boise 51-17. BYU improved to 9-0 with a home win over North Alabama (66-14) to set up a last-minute game with No. 14 Coastal Carolina on yet another visit to the shores of the Atlantic Ocean. In a game arranged on Thursday, the Cougars traveled cross-country on Friday and came up one-yard short of the end zone on the potential game winner on the final play in a 22-17 loss. BYU rebounded with a 28-14 win over San Diego State in Provo, scoring the most points on the year against SDSU's elite defense.

Remade Pandemic Schedule

The Cougars were able to begin fall camp according to the directives given by the NCAA. By mid-August, however, BYU's original schedule of 12 games, including six Power Five opponents, had been reduced to only two games as conferences either canceled their seasons or restricted play to conference-only contests.

BYU went about scheduling new opponents for the soon-to-begin season from conferences still playing non-league games, adding Navy from the American Conference, Troy and Texas State from the Sun Belt, and Louisiana Tech, UTSA and Western Kentucky from Conference USA to the slate. The originally scheduled game with Houston was later changed to a road game, with BYU traveling to Texas to keep the matchup, while Boise State and San Diego State ultimately returned to the schedule once the Mountain West determined to return to action midseason. A first-ever date with Army, an independent, was also added early in the season but later postponed and then canceled when the Cougars weren't able to travel to New York due to COVID-19.

The ultimate display of the unique nature of scheduling during a pandemic season came when BYU added nationally ranked Coastal Carolina of the Sun Belt Conference on a Thursday morning and traveled to the East Coast on Friday to face the unbeaten Chanticleers on Saturday. The Cougars went on to face UCF of the AAC in the Boca Raton Bowl to complete a reconstituted 12 game schedule in 2020. Thanks to its determination to find a way to navigate the pandemic safely and still have a season, BYU held the unique designation for the early part of the season as the only team in the West playing college football.

The BYU offense gained momentum with two long passes to Lopini Katoa and Tyler Allegier to put BYU in the red zone for the first time. On fourth-and-one at the goal line, fullback Masen Wake pushed his way into the end zone to close out the first quarter as the Cougars went up 7-0.

Zach Wilson showed his arm strength to open the second quarter sending a pass 41-yards downfield to Gunner Romney to Troy's 1-yard line. It was quickly followed by a quarterback sneak from Wilson for a touchdown to put BYU ahead 14-0. A 52-yard pass to Gunner Romney, again put the BYU offense in the red zone and the Cougars capped the drive with a 10-yard pass to Isaac Rex for another six points and a PAT from Jake Oldroyd. With under two minutes left in the quarter the Cougars were up 21-0.

The Trojans responded with a two-yard rushing touchdown to bring the scoring margin to 21-7 with just over one minute remaining in the half. BYU had the final say of the quarter as Oldroyd boomed a kick through the uprights with a 54-yard field goal to make the score 24-7 going into halftime.

To open the second half, Wilson threw a 70-yard bomb downfield to an open Dax Milne on the second play of the half and Milne ran the ball into the end zone for a 31-7 lead. HOUSTON — Despite trailing at halftime and at the end of the third quarter after a fast start, No. 13/14 BYU finished strong putting up 29 unanswered points in the second half to defeat Houston 43-26 on Friday night at TDECU Stadium.

Quarterback Zach Wilson and wide receiver Dax Milne led the charge on the offense with both recording career high games. Milne boasted a career-best 184 receiving yards as well as career highs in receptions with nine and touchdowns with three.

Wilson went 25-for-35 on the night with his first career 400-yard passing game, finishing with exactly 400 yards and four touchdowns. Isaiah Kaufusi and Keenan Pili led the Cougars on defense, both totaling eight tackles and one tackle for loss each. Zac Dawe added three tackles for loss, including one sack, while Tyler Batty recorded 1.5 tackles for loss.

Despite Houston getting an early 3-0 lead on the first drive, the BYU offense came out flying. With BYU's first play of the game, Wilson sent a ball 78 yards deep to Milne who took the ball all the way into the end zone for BYU's first score. The one-play, 19-second touchdown pass was a career-long for both Wilson and Milne as BYU went up 7-3 with 9:34 left in the first quarter.

On the next BYU drive, Wilson used his feet, scrambling down the field for a 32-yard gain followed immediately by a 35-yard pass to tight end Isaac Rex. Three plays later, Lopini Katoa punched in the ball for another BYU touchdown, increasing BYU's lead to 14-3.

Houston fought its way back, putting up a touchdown of its own followed by a field goal on its next drive. With the two scoring drives, Houston took the lead again at 17-14 with 4:42 left in the half. Houston capped the first half with a 49-yard field goal, pushing its lead to 20-14 going into halftime.

Houston continued with the momentum by eating up the majority of the clock on a 16-play, 99-yard drive that resulted in a touchdown with just over three minutes left in the quarter. Houston opted to go for two instead of a PAT, but Cougar defensive back George Udo intercepted the pass and Houston settled with six points for a 26-14 lead.

BYU got the final say of the quarter, getting in the end zone one last time before the time expired. An 18-yard pass to Pau'u followed by a 19-yard reception to Masen Wake set up Wilson to again connect with Milne, this time for 37-yards, to the Houston one-yard line. Two plays later Milne caught the ball for six points and Oldroyd connect on the PAT to decrease Houston's lead, 26-21.

After a 13-yard shanked punt by Houston, BYU's offense got the ball back on Houston's 23-yard line. Wilson made quick work with a 13-yard pass to Milne, followed by a quick underhand shovel pass to Wake for eight yards that put BYU in the end zone again. BYU elected to go for two and Wilson found Tyler Allgeier in the end zone as BYU pulled ahead 29-26 at the 10:35 mark.

The Cougars built on their momentum as Wilson made long yardage plays with a 24-yard rush and a 20-yard pass to Rex before finding again finding Milne with an 18-yard touchdown pass on 3rd-and-15 from the Houston 18-yard line.

BYU closed out the game with one last touchdown as Allgeier rushed 14 yards out to close the game and taking the win, 43-26.

PROVO, Utah — No. 8 BYU rolled past North Alabama 66-14 Saturday afternoon at LaVell Edwards Stadium to remain unbeaten on the season.

The Cougars (9-0) jumped out to a quick 35-0 lead and never looked back, gaining a total of 555 total yards of offense. BYU's defense held the Lions (0-4) to 354 yards and forced three turnovers.

Wilson connected with Gunner Romney over the top for a 50-yard gain on the BYU offense's first play of the game, putting the Cougars at the Lion 30-yard line. A 14-yard rush by Allgeier, followed by a 15-yard reception by Isaac Rex, then brought BYU down to the 1-yard line. Wilson found Rex again two plays later in the back corner of the endzone, putting the Cougars up 7-0.

Wilson connected for gains of 11 and 20 yards, respectively, bringing BYU to the North Alabama 25-yard line. Allgeier then pounded the ball up the middle on three consecutive plays, finishing off the drive with a 2-yard touchdown run and putting the Cougars up 14-0.

A 30-yard run by Allgeier down the sideline brought the Cougars to the North Alabama 11-yard line. Allgeier once again finished off the drive with a 2-yard touchdown run, increasing BYU's lead to 21-0.

The Cougar defense forced a turnover on downs on the following Lion drive, giving BYU's offense the ball back at its own 38-yard line. The Cougars quickly took advantage, as an Allgeier 39-yard rush on the second play of the drive brought BYU to the Lion 19-yard line. Wilson connected with Pau'u on the following play in the corner of the endzone, putting BYU up 28-0.

The Cougar defense came away with another turnover on the ensuing possession, as Isaiah Kaufusi picked up a fumble forced by Payton Wilgar and returned it 50 yards to the North Alabama 6-yard line. After three straight runs set up fourth-and-goal from the Lion 2-yard line, Wilson once again found Rex in the endzone to give BYU a 35-0 advantage.

BYU's offense continued to roll, as Wilson hit Milne in-stride for a 58-yard completion on the first play of the next drive to put the Cougars at the Lion 17-yard line. Three plays later, Wilson found Kavika Fonua with a sidearm pass and Fonua scampered into the endzone, giving BYU a 42-7 lead into the half.

Malik Moore picked off North Alabama quarterback Rett Files on the first play of the Lions' first drive of the half, giving BYU's offense the ball on the North Alabama 39-yard line. Baylor Romney found Carter Wheat for a 25-yard reception before connecting with his brother, Gunner, for a 10-yard gain to bring the Cougars to the Lion 8-yard line. Fonua then hauled in a 7-yard touchdown reception from Romney to build BYU's lead to 49-7.

After North Alabama's offense marched down to the Cougar 31-yard line on the next drive, back-to-back sacks by Earl Mariner-Tuioti forced a turnover on downs. A 16-yard rush by Fonua followed by an 11-yard scramble by Romney quickly put BYU in Lion territory. Romney then found Daivs Miles for a 7-yard completion and Kody Epps for an 8-yard reception, putting the Cougars at the North Alabama 11-yard line. Davis found room around the edge two plays later, running untouched into the endzone to put BYU up 56-7.

Uriah Leiataua forced a Lion fumble two plays into the ensuing possession, which was recovered by Micah Harper at the North Alabama 26-yard line. Davis scored again on the first play of the BYU offense's drive, sealing the 66-14 Cougar win.

BYU FALLS SHORT TO COASTAL CAROLINA 22-17

CONWAY, S.C. — No. 8 BYU football came up just short against No. 14 Coastal Carolina Saturday night at Brooks Stadium, falling 22-17 for its first loss of the season.

Down by five with three seconds left in the game and with the ball at the Chanticleers' (10-0) 18-yard line, Cougar quarterback Zach Wilson connected with receiver Dax Milne inside the five-yard line. Milne was immediately met by a pair of Coastal Carolina defenders, however, and came up just one yard short from scoring what would have been the game-winning touchdown.

Wilson completed 19 of 30 pass attempts on the night for 240 yards and a touchdown for BYU (9-1) while adding a season-high 55 rushing yards on 10 attempts. Wilson connected with seven different receivers, including Milne, who hauled in a game-high six receptions for 106 yards and a score. Tyler Allgeier led BYU's ground attack with 106 yards on 13 attempts, including a 42-yard touchdown in the second quarter. He averaged more than eight yards per carry.

Coastal Carolina proceeded to put together a 17-play, 94-yard drive resulting in a 6-yard touch-down run by running back CJ Marable. The Chanticleers missed the ensuing extra-point attempt, keeping the score at 6-0.

On the next possession for the Cougar offense, Wilson's12-yard Wilson run was followed by a 16-yard completion to Pau'u to bring BYU to the Coastal Carolina 48-yard line. Two plays later, Allgeier found a huge hole up the middle and ran 42 yards untouched into the end zone, putting the Cougars up 7-6.

Coastal Carolina then used an 11-play, 51-yard touchdown drive to take back the lead, 13-7, with four minutes left in the half.

Starting at the BYU 6-yard line, Wilson opened the following possession with an 18-yard completion to a wide-open Dax Milne near the sideline. Four plays later, Wilson kept the ball on an option play for a 17-yard run into Chanticleer territory. Wilson connected with Milne again on the ensuing play, who tip-toed down the sideline for a 41-yard touchdown. The score gave BYU a 14-13 lead with 1:45 until halftime.

On the Cougars' opening drive of the half, a 12-yard run down the sideline by Wilson was followed by a Chanticleer penalty for a late hit out of bounds to put BYU in Coastal Carolina territory. Wilson found Pau'u for a 23-yard pickup on the next play. Three consecutive runs by Wilson, however, then resulted in a fourth down. A 29-yard field goal attempt by Jake Oldroyd split the uprights and gave BYU a 17-13 advantage.

After BYU's defense came up with a stop to give the offense the ball back, the Chanticleers recovered a fumble by Allgeier on the first play of the drive at the Cougar 29-yard line. BYU's defense held tough once again for three straight plays, and Coastal Carolina settled for a 41-yard field goal to tighten the score, 17-16.

Following a BYU punt near the end of the third, the Chanticleers drove 85 yards in 13 plays and scored on a 2-yard CJ Marable run. Coastal Carolina proceeded to attempt a two-point conversion but running back Reese White was stuffed at the line of scrimmage, keeping the score at 22-17 for the Chanticleers.

BYU DEFEATS SAN DIEGO STATE 28-14 ON SENIOR NIGHT

PROVO, Utah — No. 14/16 BYU football defeated San Diego State 28-14 Saturday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium on senior night. Playing in their all-black uniforms, the Cougars (10-1) scored 21 unanswered points after falling behind 14-7 in the first quarter to secure their first 10-win season since 2011.

Starting from the BYU 25-yard line, Wilson hit Milne with a back-shoulder throw on the first play of the game for an 18-yard gain. A nine-yard reception by Pau'u and a 10-yard run by Lopini Katoa then put the Cougars at the Aztec 43-yard line. Wilson found Pau'u again four plays later for a 21-yard gain to set up first-and-goal from the 10. Three plays later, Wilson connected with a wide-open Milne for a 5-yard touchdown, putting BYU up 7-0.

San Diego State answered with its ground attack, putting together a 9-play, 77-yard touchdown drive to even the score at 7. The Aztecs passed the ball just once on the drive which was capped off by a 25-yard Kaegun Williams touchdown run.

The Cougars gave the ball right back to San Diego State on the first play of the following possession, as Isaac Rex was stripped of the ball after making a catch at the BYU 33-yard line. The Aztecs capitalized, earning a first down on a fake field goal attempt before scoring on a 15-yard touchdown reception by Elijah Kothe to take a 14-7 lead.

Facing a fourth-and-one situation at the Aztec 45-yard line on the ensuing BYU drive, Katoa ran through a gaping hole up the middle before finally being stopped at the 2-yard line. Wilson hit Rex in the back of the end zone on the following play to tie the game back up at 14.

Teams traded punts until, with 1:17 left in the half, the Cougars got the ball back at their own 32-yard line. Wilson connected with Pau'u for a 15-yard gain and Milne for a 19-yard completion on back-to-back plays to put BYU in Aztec territory with 27 seconds until halftime. Milne hauled in another 9-yard reception to set up a 50-yard Jake Oldroyd field goal attempt with four seconds left in the half. Oldroyd drilled the field goal to give the Cougars a 17-14 advantage at the break.

On the following Cougar drive, Katoa took a short pass from Wilson 28 yards up field and Wilson connected with Rex on the following play to put BYU near midfield. The Cougars continued to march up the field, as a 19-yard catch by Pau'u on a slant route brought BYU to the Aztec 15-yard line. The offense couldn't pick up another first down, however, and was forced to settle for a 29-yard field goal attempt. Oldroyd nailed the kick to increase the Cougars' lead to six, 20-14.

Wilson hit Milne on a 34-yard back-shoulder throw on the third play of the ensuing BYU possession to put the Cougars at the San Diego State 37-yard line. Three plays later, Pau'u picked up a first down on a 14-yard reception at the Aztec 20-yard line. Rex laid out in the back of the end zone on the following play to haul in a 20-yard touchdown catch from Wilson, bringing the score to 26-14 for BYU. The offense stayed on the field for a two-point conversion attempt, and Wilson found Katoa in the end zone to extend the Cougars' lead to 28-14.

After a Cougar punt, BYU's defense held strong once again on the following possession, forcing a turnover on downs nine plays into the drive with 20 seconds remaining. Wilson took a knee to run out the clock and secure the 28-14 Cougar win.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

After finishing the 1984 season with a perfect 13-0 record, the Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America. BYU head coach LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

The perfect season featured several game-saving plays as the Cougars moved their way up the rankings. Quarterback Robbie Bosco connected with wide receiver Adam Haysbert for a 50-yard touchdown pass with 1:37 left to play to take the lead in the season-opening win at No. 3 rank

Safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center to stop a quarterback sneak show momentum they needed to foil Hawai'i's upset attempt. Tight end David Mills wa through with a leaping grab in the end zone to help BYU overcome Wyoming 41

The Cougars ascended to the No. 1 spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then No. 2 South Carolina. The Cougars maintained their No. 1 ranking heading into the bowl game defeating Utah State 38-13 in the final contest of the regular season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the first quarter with an ankle injury, but returned late in the second taped up and played in the shotgun to finish the game. BYU trailed 17-10 after Michigan hit a field goal to begin the fourth quarter. The Cougars then took over the game, Bosco completed seven pass attempts to five different receivers and hit wide receiver Glen Kozlowski between two Michigan defenders for the game-tying touchdown.

Michigan threatened to score again, but linebacker Kurt Gouveia sacked the Wolverine quarterback for a 16-yard loss to force a punt. BYU moved the ball 70 yards to the Michigan 13-yard line when Bosco scrambled up the middle, keeping his eyes down field, and found running back Kelly Smith for the game-winning touchdown.

REMEMBERING COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME HEAD COACH LAVEIT

257 CAREER VICTORIES • 19 CONFERENCE TITLES • 1 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Legendary BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards passed away Dec. 29, 2016 at the age of 86 surrounded by his wife Patti and their family.

Edwards, a coaching icon in college football, led the Cougars for 29 seasons from 1972 to 2000. He amassed 257 victories, which ranks seventh in NCAA Division I history. In addition, Edwards led BYU to the 1984 National Championship and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

"I love LaVell Edwards," said BYU director of athletics Tom Holmoe. "He was a great coach, a wonderful person, a disciple of Christ, a loyal family man and a true friend. LaVell had a pure heart. His example will forever be with me and I will strive to live a life of love as he always did."

Known for his stoic sideline demeanor and quick-witted humor, Edwards was once labeled by USA Today as a "national coaching treasure." Beloved not only in coaching circles and all of Cougar Nation, but especially by the many hundreds of players under his tutelage, including current head coach Kalani Sitake who was a fullback and team captain for the Cougars.

In 1972, Edwards assumed command of a BYU program that had won just 173 games over 49 seasons, including just 14 winning seasons. The Cougars had never been to a bowl game and had iust one conference championship prior to Edwards' promotion to head coach.

Undaunted by the formidable rebuilding task that lay ahead, Edwards transformed BYU into a national power, pioneering an aggressive and innoto conference titles in 19 of 29 seasons and an overall record of 257-101-3.

vative passing attack that led BYU

In his first season as the head coach, he led the Cougars to a 7-4 overall record, including a 16-7 win over in-state rival Utah. Just two seasons later. Fdwards had the team rolling. The Cougars won the WAC Championship after a 48-20 victory over the Utes and accepted an invitation to the Fiesta Bowlthe team's first-ever bowl appearance, starting a run of 22 bowls in 29 years. The 1974 season turned out to be the first of 27 straight non-losing seasons.

After recording an 11-1 record in 1979, a 12-1 record in 1980 another 11-win season in 1981, eight more wins in 1982, and 11 additional wins in 1983, Edwards led BYU to a perfect 13-0 season in 1984. Following a 24-17 win over Michigan in the Holiday Bowl, the Cougars were crowned national champions. Not surprisingly, Edwards was named the National Coach conference titles from 1976 through 1985 and played in 17 consecutive bowl games from 1978 until 1994.

1997. BYU set an NCAA record with 14 victories Bowl to cap the 1996 season in a thrilling 19-15 victory over No. 14 Kansas State. BYU finished ranked No. 5 nationally—its highest finish since1984.

"In the South there's Bear Bryant, Daryl Royal and Frank Boyles, in the East there's Joe Paterno, in the Midwest there's Bo Schembechler, Woody Hayes and Tom Osborne and in the West there's John McKay and LaVell Edwards. He's a legend. And as good a football coach as he was, he's a better man and he did it the right way. He's known throughout the country as a legend."

- LEE CORSO, ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY ANALYST

Edwards announced his retirement prior to the 2000 season. BYU would honor him by renaming Cougar Stadium, LaVell Edwards Stadium prior to the final home game of the year on Nov. 18. A banner bearing the new name was unveiled in a pregame ceremony conducted by President Gordon B. Hinckley, president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

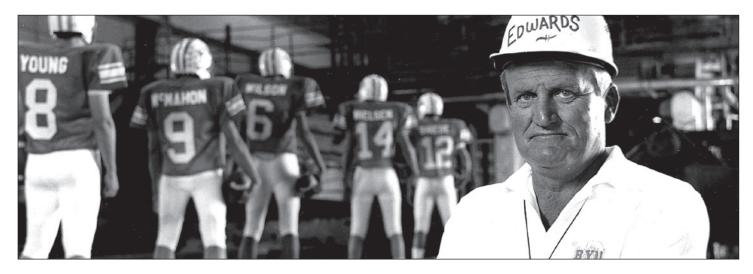

A week later BYU gave Edwards one more magic moment. Trailing Utah 27-26 in Salt Lake City with 23 seconds left, quarterback Brandon Doman scored a 7-yard touchdown run to send Edwards out a winner in his final game.

Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien awardees, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy Winners, 31 All-Americans and six College Football Hall of Famers. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984.

Following his coaching career, Edwards served a full-time LDS mission with his wife Patti to New York City from 2002-03. He also served on several committees and boards for various college football awards and governing bodies following his retirement.

The eighth of 14 children, Edwards graduated from Lincoln High School in Orem. He attended Utah State University, where he was an all-conference lineman before serving a two-year commitment in the Army. He and Patti were married for more than 65 years. The Edwards have three children, Ann [Cannon], John and Jim.

THE QUARTERBACK FACTORY

Beginning with Virgil Carter in the 1960s and Gary Sheide in the early 1970s, BYU has produced an assembly line of outstanding quarterbacks in Provo that have earned unprecedented success in college and professional football. Twelve BYU quarterbacks have earned at least an honorable mention All-America citation or Academic All-America honors.

The BYU quarterback factory has owned the NCAA record books and have won the Sammy Baugh trophy seven times and the Davey O'Brien four times. BYU has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Ty Detmer have all been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top-15 career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that would change the future of college football.

In a time when throwing the football was a mere change of pace to running the ball, BYU began leading the nation in offensive statistics year after year with its revolutionary passing attack.

In 46 seasons prior to Edwards, BYU had won a total of 171 games with just 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU is No. 8 in total wins with 420. The Cougars have won 23 conference titles, played in 38 bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

Since 1976, 13 different Cougar quarter-backs have thrown for 3,000 yards. BYU has passed for at least 3,000 yards in 32 of the past 40 seasons, including 14 seasons with at least 4,000 yards and one season in 1990 with over 5,000 yards.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-foot, 175-pound, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 vards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. The trophy is on display in the lobby of Legacy Hall, located in the Student Athlete Building.

THE OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy has been awarded annually by the Football Writers Association of America since 1946 to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. It is named after the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Pennsylvania in the late 1800s.

The Outland Trophy is the third oldest player award in major-college football behind the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award. In 1988, Jim Ridlon was commissioned to design and sculpt the Outland Trophy. A member of the National College Football Awards Association, the award has become one of college football's most prestigious.

JASON BUCK 1986

Jason Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound defensive lineman from St. Anthony, Idaho, started out as a quarterback and linebacker at Ricks College before coming to BYU in 1985 as a lineman.

Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks. Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

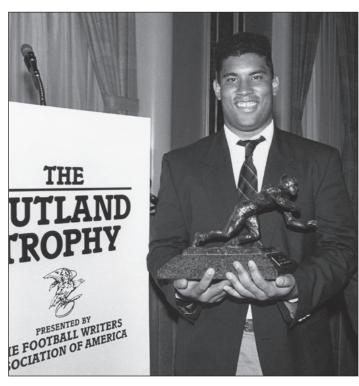

He was selected in the first round of the 1987 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. He played seven seasons in the NFL with Cincinnati and Washington where he won a Super Bowl Championship at the end of the 1992 season.

He was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. He played four seasons in the NFL with Washington, where he won a Super Bowl in 1992 and also Philadelphia. Elewonibi later played 10 years in the CFL with Winnipeg and British Columbia.

Founded in 1951 by the National Football Foundation, the College Football Hall of Fame immortalizes the greatest of the amateur gridiron. 5.1 million people have coached or played the game and less than 1,300 are inductees in the Hall. This makes the College Football Hall of Fame an extremely selective group of individuals. In other words, about two ten-thousandths of one percent (.0002) of the individuals who have played the game have been deemed worthy of this distinction.

BYU has produced seven Hall of Fame members, including six players and head coach LaVell Edwards.

Founded in 1947, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame inducted its first class of inductees in 1951. The first class featured 32 players and 19 coaches, including Illinois' Red Grange, Notre Dame's Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg and Carlisle's Jim Thorpe.

More than 300 schools are represented with at least one former athletes in the College Football Hall of Fame. The new College Football Hall of Fame, which opened on Aug. 23, 2014, is a 94,256-square-foot attraction located in the heart of Atlanta's sports, entertainment and tourism district.

GIFFORD NIELSEN QUARTERBACK: 1975-77 INDUCTED: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon Rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win over New Mexico by completing 10 of 12 passes. As a junior in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-America. The next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked. "It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game. Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last guarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

MARC WILSON QUARTERBACK: 1976-79 INDUCTED: 1996

One of the most celebrated guarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set 15 NCAA records. The 6-5, 204-pound guarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its post-graduate scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots. He and his wife, Colleen have four children.

LAVELL EDWARDS

HEAD COACH: 1972-2000 INDUCTED: 2004

A coaching icon whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU—a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17-straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him seventh in NCAA Division I-A history.

At the helm, Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans — not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. He was named NCAA District

8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality," said former BYU quarterback Steve Young. "In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

STEVE YOUNG QUARTERBACK: 1975-77 INDUCTED: 2001

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time. Young set 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player of the Year honors. In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306 of 429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second-straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. He completed 592 of 907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and had 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games. A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to win the Super Bowl in 1995, earning MVP honors.

GORDON HUDSON TIGHT END: 1980-83 INDUCTED: 2009

Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall. A consensus All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4) in a career, most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

TY DETMER QUARTERBACK: 1988-91 INDUCTED: 2012

Heisman Trophy Winner, Detmer is BYU's seventh inductee into the Hall of Fame. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award, two Davey O'Brien Awards and set 63 NCAA records in his tenure. Twice named a consensus All-American. Detmer won national player of the year awards from organizations such as UPI, CBS, Scripps Howard and the U.S. Sports Academy. His 15,031 career passing yards and 121 touchdowns were NCAA bests at the time, and the gunslinger still holds three records. A threetime first team All-WAC performer, Detmer led College Football Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards' teams to three conference titles, four bowl games, three AP Top-25 finishes and a 28-21 win over top-ranked and defending national champion Miami on Sept. 8, 1990. The NCAA Today's Top VI Award recipient was a ninth round selection of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and played 14 seasons in the NFL. A 2000 inductee of the BYU Athletics Hall of Fame, Detmer returned to BYU as the offensive coordinator and guarterbacks coach in 2016-2017.

BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in the offense for decades. Most recently, 2020 All-America candidate Matt Bushman enters his senior season having joined former BYU consensus All-Americans Gordon Hudson and Dennis Pitta as the only Cougar tight ends with three consecutive seasons with more than 500 receiving yards. Last year he had 47 receptions for 688 yards. He started his BYU career by leading all freshman tight ends in college football in 2017 with 49 receptions, 520 yards and three touchdowns to earn Freshman All-America status. The All-America candidate also led the team as a sophomore in receiving yards in 2018.

Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, nine BYU tight ends have earned All-America recognition. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 20 first-team All-Conference citations. Hudson, a two-time consensus All-American, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Five former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with the Seattle Seahawks in 2006, Gabriel Reid with the Chicago Bears in 2007 and Pitta with the Baltimore Ravens in 2013.

Two former BYU Cougars, Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis, have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers as tight ends. A BYU tight end was named first-team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007, 2008 and 2009) in five-straight years. In 2009, BYU became the first team in MWC history to sweep the tight end honors as Andrew George earned All-MWC Second Team accolades while Pitta was a consensus All-American.

The Polynesian Islands have become a hotbed for college football recuiting in recent years, but BYU has been one of the pioneers in bringing players from Tonga, Samoa, the Hawaiian Islands and all of Polynesia to the forefront of college football since the early 1950s.

Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawai'i, transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars in 1951, becoming the first Polynesian to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963), John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965).

Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders and players who have gone on to compete in the NFL. BYU's former and current football staff also boast a Polynesian tradition.

Kalani Sitake was named BYU's 14th head coach on Dec. 19, 2015, becoming the first Tongan head football coach in NCAA history. Sitake was raised in Laie, Hawaii, and later moved to the mainland. His staff includes Polynesians Ilaisa Tuiaki, Fesi Sitake, Nu'u Tafisi, Jack Damuni, Jasen Ah You, Vince Feula and Harvey Unga, Al Pupunu and Kalani Simeona.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU and dozens have gone on to successful careers in the NFL. Polynesian players have come from all over the Pacific including Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's No. 2 career rusher, Harvey Unga.

Of the hundreds of Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian. Two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards are also Polynesian. Since 1982, 11 of BYU's season rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

ZACH WILSON2020 POLYNESIAN COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

BYU quarterback Zach Kapono Wilson, of Hawaiian ancestry, and University of Southern California safety Talanoa Hufanga, of Tongan ancestry, were named co-recipients of the 2020 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award. The award is presented annually to the most outstanding Polynesian college football player that epitomizes great ability and integrity.

Wilson led BYU to a 11-1 record in 2020 while earning All-America honors and finishing No. 8 in the Heisman Trophy voting. The All-Independent First Team honoree threw for 3,692 yards, 33 touchdowns and only three interceptions on the season. He broke a BYU record, previously held by Steve Young, for completion percentage, completing 73.5 percent of his passes in 2020. He also rushed for 255 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Wilson posted 11 different top-10 rankings in 2020. He was ranked No. 2 nationally in points responsible for (264), passing efficiency (196.4) and completion percentage (73.5); No. 3 in passing yards (3,692), passing touchdowns (33), yards per pass attempt (10.99) and points responsible for per game (22.0); No. 4 in rushing touchdowns by a quarterback; No. 5 in passing yards per completion (14.95); No. 8 in total offense (328.8); and No. 10 in passing yards per game (307.7)

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) recognizes All-America teams selected by the AP, AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News, and the WCFF to determine consensus All-Americans. If more than half of the organizations select a player to their first team, he receives the "consensus" honor. Depending upon the distribution of first team honors at any given position, it is possible to be consensus with fewer than three first-team selections. If no player qualifies under that criterion, a player named to two first teams can be chosen. If a player is named an All-American by all five organizations, he receives "unanimous All-American" recognition.

FIRST-TEAM ALL CONFERENCE

Over its nearly 100 year football history, BYU has been a member of four different conferences before becoming an NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision independent prior to the 2011 season. Since Since 1928, 358 Cougars have been named first-team all-conference or to a national all-independence team. Sanky Dixon—who would go on to coach LaVell Edwards at Lincoln High School in Orem, Utah—was BYU's first all-conference perfomer in 1928, while 12 Cougrs received the honor in 2020. A record 13 Cougars were named to the 1979 All-WAC First Team from a squad that went 11-1 and was ranked as high as No. XX nationally.

*All-Independent

INDEPENDENT (2011-PRESENT)

On September 1, 2010, BYU announced its football program would compete in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision as an independent beginning with the 2011 season. Since the university instituted a football program in 1922, BYU had been a member of four different conferences, including the Rocky Mountain (1922-37), Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61), Western Athletic (1962-98) and Mountain West (1999-2010). The Cougars claimed their first conference championship in program history in 1965, going 4-2 in the WAC under head coach Tom Hudspeth. BYU won its next title, the first of 19 under legendary coach LaVell Edwards, in 1974 and have captured a total of 23 conference championships through the years. During its time in the MWC, the Cougars won four championships, including back-to-back undefeated conference seasons in 2006 and 2007 under Bronco Mendenhall.

Mountain West (1999-10)

- For the third time in program history, BYU chartered the creation of a new conference, this time joined by New Mexico, Utah, Air Force, Colorado St., San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming. TCU joined in 2005.
- BYU football posted a 64-26 (.711) conference record in its 12 years in the conference.
- The Cougars' four MWC titles, 64 wins and 54 All-MWC First Team selections equal or surpass any MWC team since the league's inception.
- BYU won four MWC titles, including back-to-back championships in 2006-07. In three of its championship seasons, BYU went undefeated in conference play

Western Athletic (1962-98)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference along with Arizona, Arizona State, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.
- The WAC eventually expanded to as many as 16 schools in 1996.
- BYU football posted a 187-69-2 (.729) conference record in its 37 years in the conference.
- While in the WAC, the Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing 13-0.
- BYU won a total of 19 titles in the WAC, including its first-ever football championship in 1965 and 10-straight from 1976-85.
- BYU's 19 WAC titles, 187 conference wins and 199 All-WAC First Team selections are all still the most by far of any WAC team.

MOUNTAIN States/Skyline (1938-61)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference, leaving with Colorado, Colorado State, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Wyoming when the RMFAC was deemed too large. Montana and New Mexico joined in 1951.
- After Colorado left in 1947, the conference became popularly known as the Skyline Conference.
- Football posted a 41-75-12 (.367) conference record in its 24 years in the conference.
- The conference dissolved in early 1962 after BYU, Utah, Wyoming and New Mexico left to form the WAC.

Rocky Mountain Faculty Athletic (1922-37)

- BYU joined the RMFAC in 1918 with football participation beginning four years later.
- BYU football posted a 46-52-4 (.471) conference record in its 16 years in the conference.
- When BYU joined, other RMFAC schools included Colorado, Colorado A&M (now Colorado State), Colorado College, Colorado School of Mines, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Montana State. Wyoming, Western St. and Colorado Teacher's College (now Northern Colorado) joined two years later.

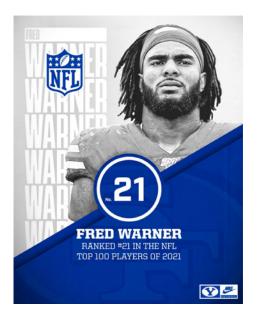

When the 2021 NFL fall camps opened, BYU had 25 players on 20 different teams. In addition, former Cougar offensive lineman Andy Reid is the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. Reid and defensive back Daniel Sorensen won Super Bowl LIV in February of 2020 and returned to participate in Super Bowl LV in 2021. Five Cougars were selected in the 2021 NFL Draft—the most since 2002. Zach Wilson became the highest drafted Cougar ever when the New York Jets made him the No. 2 overall pick. Consensus All-American Brady Christensen was selected in the third round by the Carolina Panthers, while defensive lineman Khyiris Tonga (Chicago Bears), cornerback Chris Wilcox (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and wide receiver Dax Milne (Washington) had their names called in the seventh round. In addition, seven other Cougars signed free-agent deals.

BOWL AGREEMENTS

The bowl agreement with ESPN Events provides a bowl tie-in for BYU in 2022 and 2024 if the Cougars are bowl eligible and not selected to participate in a New Year's Six bowl. Since 2011, the Cougars have played in five of the 16 bowls owned and operated by ESPN Events, including the 2020 Boca Raton Bowl, 2018 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, 2015 Las Vegas Bowl, 2014 Miami Beach Bowl (now Frisco Bowl) and 2011 Armed Forces Bowl.

Under the terms of the new Independence Bowl agreement, the Cougars are slated to appear in Shreveport in 2021 and 2025 versus an opponent from Conference USA and in 2023 versus a team from the Pac-12. The Independence Bowl, televised on an ESPN Network, is the 11th-oldest bowl game in the country. It was founded in 1976 and is played annually in December at Independence Stadium in Shreveport.

"BYU is steeped in college football tradition," said Independence Bowl Chairman Art Carmody IV. "They have provided some of the sport's most iconic moments and greatest players, and we are excited to feature this great program in our historic game. We look forward to having BYU in future Independence Bowls and look forward to hosting their tremendous fan base in Shreveport."

As part of both BYU bowl agreements, the Cougars also have an option to potentially participate in the Cheez-It Bowl in Arizona should its conference tie-ins (Big Ten and Big 12) be unable to provide an opponent. If applicable, that option can be exercised in lieu of one Independence Bowl and one ESPN Events bowl game. The Cheez-It Bowl airs on an ESPN network.

Since its first appearance in the 1974 Fiesta Bowl, BYU has played in 38 bowl games over the past 46 seasons, including 15 of the past 16 years.

ESPN, Inc. is the leading multinational, multimedia sports entertainment entity featuring the broadest portfolio of multimedia sports assets with over 50 business entities. ESPN launched on September 7, 1979, and is 80 percent owned by ABC, Inc., an indirect subsidiary of The Walt Disney Company. The network has televised many of the great games in Cougars football history, beginning with ESPN's first live regular-season college football telecast in 1984 where BYU defeated No. 3 ranked Pitt to begin its undefeated run to a national championship.

ESPN Events, a division of ESPN, owns and operates a large portfolio of 34 collegiate sporting events nationwide. The roster includes three Labor Day weekend college football games, the FCS opening-weekend game, 16 college bowl games, 11 college basketball events, a college softball event and two college award shows, which accounts for approximately 375-plus hours of live programming, reaches nearly 64 million viewers and attracts over 800,000 attendees each year. With satellite offices in Albuquerque, Birmingham, Boca Raton, Boise, Dallas-Fort Worth, Honolulu, Las Vegas, Montgomery and Tampa, ESPN Events builds relationships with conferences, schools and local communities, as well as providing unique experiences for teams and fans.

Quarterback Steve Young caught the game-winning touchdown from running back Eddie Stinnett with under a minute to play vs. Missouri to win the 1983 Holiday Bowl 21-17.

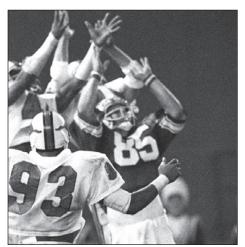

Robbie Bosco led BYU to a 24-17 over Michigan to secure BYU's 1984 National Championship in the Holiday Bowl.

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy essentially took over for BYU in the 2012 Poinsettia Bowl, where he forced and recovered a fumble for the go-ahead touchdown and minutes later returned an interception for his second-defensive score of the 4th quarter en route to a 23-6 victory over SDSU at Qualcomm Stadium.

LaVell Edwards celebrates BYU's 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State in 1997. It has been the Cougars' only New Year's Day bowl game.

In one of the greatest bowls games in NCAA history, BYU overcame a 45-25 deficit with 4:07 left in the game to win 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl over SMU, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl." With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown.

The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder right before the quarter ended. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter with a touchdown run giving the Cowboys a 7-6 halftime advantage. A field goal from 32 yards out put OSU in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored a touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-224. #### GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. After a back and forth third quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to give the Hoosiers the lead 38-37 midway through the fourth. With 2:06 remaining in the game, BYU moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Brent Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

Jim McMahon connected with Clay Brown on a 41-yard TD pass with three seconds left on the clock to complete one of the greatest comebacks in NCAA bowl history as BYU defeated SMU 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl.

McMahon was 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson collected seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. #### GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards. The Cougars turned the ball over three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ten different Cougars caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by guarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeves went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first guarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a fiveyard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the 1984 national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

LaVell Edwards addresses the media following the Cougars 24-17 victory over Michigan in the 1984 Holiday Bowl. The win clinched BYU's first-ever perfect season at 13-0 and extended its consecutive-game winning streak to 24-straight. A few weeks later BYU would be crowned national champions and Edwards named national coach of the year.

GAME SUMMARY.

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 17 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

Chitty, who set a season best for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia then went on a 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. BYU trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining and scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The two-point conversion try to tie the game was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, Penn State safety Gary Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the score. BYU finished the season ranked 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second-largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

Quarterback Matt Rodgers led 7th ranked lowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second guarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling when Detmer found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for a touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. lowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the lowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli took the opening kickoff 94 yards for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four-straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14 and 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into 10th-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters outnumbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard "Hail Mary" pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32 yards to James Dye and 28 yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan intercepted a Wildcat slant pass at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-vard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blindside corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. To cap off his MVP performance, Chapman scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped the potential interception.

The champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return on the opening kickoff. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone two more times. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28 of 46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best – and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record – 181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first guarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. True freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna got a piece of UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired in one of the more memorable bowl finishes in BYU football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins—one of just two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. BYU, who finished the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns, while Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. He was also credited with a game-high 195 all-purpose yards, including three kick returns for a total of 88 yards. The win marked the first time BYU had won back-to-back bowl games since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl. The win over UCLA extended the Cougars' win streak to 10 straight games, which marked the nation's longest active winning streak.

Austin Collie added to his BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied an NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. Credentials shall be issued only to accredited newsgathering media outlets. Fan-based websites will not be issued media access and credentials but are invited to utilize resources provided online at BYUcougars. com to obtain notes, quotes, statistics and other information about BYU football.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game to ensure consideration. Credentials for working media are restricted in accordance with BYU and NCAA rules and guidelines. Non-working persons, including spouses, dates and children, will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on a specific newsgathering assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment from a credentialed media outlet, are not eligible for credentials.

Credentials must be displayed prominently. All NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Jaren Wilkey at (801) 422-7322.

TELEVISION PARTNERS

On Sept. 1, 2010, Brigham Young University announced a partnership with ESPN to televise Cougar football on the sports leader's family of networks. BYU is the first program to sign an exclusive deal with ESPN. In January 2020, the BYU and ESPN announced a new seven-year media rights agreement continuing their longstanding relationship through the 2026 season.

One of BYU's goals in becoming an independent was the opportunity for more national television exposure. As an independent, every BYU home football game since 2011 has been televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Including road games, BYU has had 99 games in that span on one of the ESPN networks.

Overall, the Cougars are ranked 16th in the country and No. 3 in the West after USC and Oklahoma for the most major national TV games since going independent. Through its partnership with ESPN, each season a minimum of four BYU home games will be televised on an ESPN network with at least three home games carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC. Additional home games can be televised on those networks or on ESPNU.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN executive vice president of programming and scheduling. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

Historically, ESPN has televised many of the great games in Cougar football history, beginning with the network's first live college football telecast. In that 1984 game, the Cougars defeated No. 3 Pitt at the beginning of BYU's national championship season. ESPN also carried BYU's defeat of top-ranked Miami in 1990, a contest long rated among the top regular-season college football games on ESPN since that year. BYU's season-opening win over No. 3 Oklahoma was ESPN's ninth-highest rated game of the 2009 regular season.

As part of the agreement, at least one BYU home game each season will be carried live on BYUtv and simulcast on ESPN3. BYUtv also provides the Cougars' national fan base access to same-day rebroadcasts of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has rights through conference agreements with the host team.

In 54 million North American homes, BYUtv is on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 800 cable systems. The network has its own state-of-the-art production building on BYU's campus and a top-of-the-line HD truck that allow BYUtv to televise every game in HD as well as produce pregame and postgame shows for every BYU game. BYU is the only school in the country with nationally televised live 60-minute pregame and 30-60-minute postgame shows before and after every game—home or away.

RADIO

BYU football games are heard exclusively on the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network. Broadcasts are produced by BYU Radio, which carries the games coast-to-coast on satellite radio via SiriusXM 143. Games are also broadcast on over-the-air flagship KSL Newsradio (102.7 FM/1160 AM) and network affiliates in in the Intermountain West.

The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his 21st season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU graduate, Wrubell is in his 30th season on the football radio broadcast crew, having served as sideline reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU quarterback Riley Nelson, who in 2019 will made his debut as game analyst. Nelson succeeded veteran color commentator Marc Lyons, who retired in 2018 after 38 seasons in the booth. Former Cougar receiver Mitchell Juergens is back for his fourth season as sideline reporter, while Jason Shepherd returns as the host of pregame, halftime and postgame coverage.

BYU football broadcasts are also heard online at BYURadio.org and on the BYU Radio and BYU Gameday apps, with the live audio stream and archives made available to a worldwide listening audience. You can also listen to BYU football on your Alexa smart speakers by asking for "BYU Radio."

COACHES' SHOWS

In addition to comprehensive game-day coverage, BYU Broadcasting produces "BYU Football with Kalani Sitake," Tuesday nights at 6:30 p.m. MT, throughout the season on BYUtv.org and the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network. A live audience joins Coach Sitake, player guests and host Greg Wrubell at the BYUtv studios for an insightful and entertaining weekly look inside Cougar football.

In addition, assistant coaches Ed Lamb, Aaron Roderick and Ilaisa Tuiaki will be featured guests on the weekly "Coordinators' Corner" broadcast, airing Mondays in-season, from 11 am-noon MT. Greg Wrubell hosts the program, which will air live from the BYU Broadcasting studios on BYUtv. org and BYU Radio.
