- Was named the fifth women's volleyball coach in West Virginia University history on December 20, 2023
- Greeny arrived at WVU from Washington State, where she spent 13 seasons at the helm of the Washington State volleyball program and led the Cougars to three consecutive seasons with 20 wins or more
- She brought a 347-199 (.636) career record to West Virginia, while she compiled a 235-175 (.573) overall mark during her time in Pullman
- During her time at WSU, Greeny brought Cougar volleyball back into the national spotlight with eight consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 2016-23 and 12 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-America selections
- Greeny's Cougars finished in the AVCA Top 25 six times during her time at WSU, including the past four seasons
- Having been a part of the two best postseason runs in program history as both a player (1996 NCAA regional appearance) and an assistant coach (2002 NCAA regional appearance), Greeny inherited a Washington State team that went 0-18 in conference play in 2010, the year before her return to Pullman. She and her staff transformed the program into a perennial force in the Pac-12, reaching the NCAA Round of 16 as a head coach for the first time in 2018
- In 2023, Greeny and Washington State finished with a 26-8 overall record, reaching 20 wins for the third consecutive season to mark the first such stretch since 1995-97. The Cougars' 26 wins in 2023 also marked the highest win total for any team

- under Greeny and the highest single-season win total since 1997. Additionally, WSU knocked off the eventual NCAA National Champions and then-No. 6 Texas, 3-1, at the start of the 2023 campaign
- A two-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year (2016 & 2021), Greeny has coached 12 of the Cougars' 16 AVCA All-Americans while her teams have produced 39 total postseason all-conference honors, including 17 first team All-Pac-12 selections. A former CoSIDA Academic All-American during her time as a Wazzu student-athlete, Greeny's teams also have produced 45 Pac-12 All-Academic nods and a pair of Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year award recipients
- Greeny began her collegiate coaching career with a five-year stint at Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston, Idaho. Prior to turning around the LCSC program, which she led to a 112-24 (.824) record during her tenure, Greeny spent four years on WSU coach Cindy Fredrick's coaching staff. Her time as an assistant coach at WSU was highlighted by the Cougars' second-ever appearance in the regional championship of the NCAA Tournament in 2002
- As a volleyball student-athlete at WSU, she became the seventh player in Washington State history to reach 1,000 career kills and was a three time All-Pac-10 Conference selection. Greeny (Stinson) still ranks eighth in career block assists (360), fourth in total blocks (419) and eighth in solo blocks (59)
- Greeny earned her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Washington State in 1999. She and her husband Burdette, a former standout pitcher at WSU and an associate head coach on Greeny's staff in Morgantown, have two daughters, Lauren and Leah
