EWU 77 - Utah 101

December 20, 2025

Salt Lake City, Utah

Game Summary

Eastern Washington fell to Utah, 101-73, on Saturday afternoon in Salt Lake City. Alton Hamilton IV led the Eagles with a career high 19 points, while Kiree Huie added 17 and Jojo Anderson finished with 10. Anderson dished out a team-high four assists, and Huie and Hamilton each grabbed nine rebounds as Eastern held a slight edge on the glass.

The Eagles competed early and stayed within reach behind second-chance points and timely shooting, but Utah pulled away late in the first half and carried that momentum into the second. Eastern shot 40 percent from the field and outrebounded the Utes 34-31, including an 18-7 advantage on the offensive glass, but Utah's 68 percent shooting, control of the paint, and ability to convert turnovers proved decisive in the 101-73 result.

TALKING POINTS

Season Two in Cheney: Monson's Blueprint

Back in April 2024 Eastern Washington University named Dan Monson as the 20th head men's basketball coach in program history.

In his first season as Head Coach, Monson led the Eagles to a double-digit win season. Under his leadership, several Eagles had career seasons, with Emmett Marquardt, Nic McClain, and Mason Williams being notable standouts. Monson also led the team to several marquee road wins against Sacramento State and Weber State, the Weber win being a notable dominant performance 72-49.

Over his career, Monson has led his programs to 13 postseason appearances, including four NCAA Tournament bids (1999, 2005, 2012, 2024) and nine NIT appearances, winning seven games. Over his career, Monson led his programs to nine conference championships and earned five Coach of the Year awards.

Monson is no stranger to Spokane County after coaching Gonzaga in the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons where he played a pivotal role in the start of the program's current success. Led by Monson, the 'Zags advanced to the 1999 Elite Eight, winning both the WCC regular season and conference tournament championships that season. Monson went 24-10 in his first season with the Bulldogs, advancing to the second round of the NIT after winning the regular season title. He was named WCC Coach of the Year in '98.

Recently, Monson was the head coach at Long Beach State, leaving as the program's all-time winningest coach (275). In 2024, he led the team to the NCAA Tournament after winning the Big West Tournament as the No. 4 seed. He also led the Dirtbags to the 2011-12 NCAA Tournament, along with four NIT appearances during his tenure. In his 17 seasons at Long Beach, Monson coached four Big West Player of the Year winners and 18 First-Team All-Big West honorees.

Prior to Long Beach, Monson spent eight seasons as the head coach at Minnesota. In the 2004-05 season, the Gophers won 21 games and went to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in six seasons. He advanced to the Big Ten tournament five times and made four appearances in the NIT with six wins.

Along with coaching at the collegiate level, Monson was on the staff for two USA Basketball teams. He served on the 20-and-Under World Championships in 2004 and the 1999 Men's World University Games, winning gold medals at both events.

Monson started his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach for the University of Alabama-Birmingham, where he spent two seasons with the Blazers. He earned his master's degree in education, emphasizing athletic administration from UAB in 1988. Monson earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Idaho in 1985.

Monson's dad, Don, was the head coach for Idaho and led the Vandals to the Sweet 16 in the 1982 tournament. Idaho also qualified for the 1981 NCAA Tournament after winning the Big Sky championship. Don started his coaching career at Cheney High School in the 1950s.

Core Returners

The Eagles return seven key players from last season Angelo Winkel, Tyler Powell, Elijah Thomas, Andrew Cook, Maddox Monson, Emmett Marquardt, and Shaumba Ngoyi who bring valuable experience and leadership as they take the court for the Eagles this year

Transfer Arrivals

The Eagles have bolstered their roster with a significant group of transfers this season, as Isaiah Moses, Stratton Rogers, Alton Hamilton IV, Kiree Huie, Johnny Radford, and Jojo Anderson suit up in Eagle red for the first time in their collegiate careers. These newcomers bring experience from programs such as Miami, UC Riverside, Whitworth, the College of Idaho, and Lewis-Clark State, adding depth and talent to a competitive lineup.

Freshman Faces

The Eagles welcome two freshmen to the roster this season, Cole Scherer from Littleton, Colorado, and Alan Gballou from Layton, Utah. The pair represent the underclassmen for the Eagles this year, bringing fresh energy to a veteran dominated lineup and promise to the program's future.

Gauntlet Non-Conference

Coach Monson has forged a challenging non-conference schedule testing the Eagles early and preparing them for Big Sky play. The season opens in Los Angeles, where Eastern will take on nationally ranked No. 12 UCLA. The Eagles will also hit the road for matchups against LMU, Colorado, and Seattle U before returning home to host Eastern Oregon.

Non-conference action concludes with a tough stretch, as the Eagles face Washington State, Utah, and nationally ranked No. 8 BYU in three consecutive games, a demanding slate that promises to sharpen the team against elite competition.

Academic Excellence

Eastern had nine named to the Winter All-Academic Team for the 2024-25 season. Andrew Cook, Pavlo Dziuba, Sebastian Hartmann, Emmet Marquardt, Tyler Powell, Jackson Seale, Sam Stockton, Elijah Thomas, and Angelo Winkel were all recognized.

Moses Making his Mark in the Big Sky

Transfer Isaiah Moses is already making an impact in the Big Sky, earning the conference's first Player of the Week honor of the season. Moses leads Eastern Washington in scoring, three-pointers, free-throw percentage, and assists, showcasing his all-around efficiency to open the year.

Hamilton IV is Heating Up

Junior transfer Alton Hamilton IV is finding his stride for the Eagles, emerging as one of Eastern's most consistent contributors. He has scored in double figures in each of the last six games, highlighted by a career-high 19-point performance against Utah. Hamilton ranks second on the team in scoring with 148 total points (12.3 per game) and leads the Eagles on the glass with 70 rebounds.

Assistant Coach (1st season)

Eastern Washington University head men's basketball coach Dan Monson announced the addition of Chris Martin to the Eagles' coaching staff on Monday. Martin joins EWU after a highly successful tenure at Eastern Arizona College, where he played a pivotal role in elevating the program to national prominence.

Martin spent the last three seasons at Eastern Arizona College (2022-25), helping guide the program to back-to-back ACCAC Conference and NJCAA Region I Championships in 2024 and 2025 — the program's first titles since the mid-1990s. Under head coach Cameron Turner, Martin helped the Gila Monsters compile an impressive 76-20 record (.791), including a 29-4 campaign in 2025 that featured a No. 16 national ranking, the third-best net efficiency mark in the country, and a runner-up finish in the NJCAA West District.

Known for his commitment to player development, Martin coached multiple student-athletes to All-ACCAC and All-Region honors, including standouts Armari Carraway and Raysean Seamster, who both earned Region I MVP recognition and NJCAA All-American honors. His influence also extended to the classroom, where Eastern Arizona posted three straight years with team GPAs above 3.30, produced eight Academic All-Americans, and achieved a 100% graduation and scholarship placement rate for sophomores.

Prior to Eastern Arizona, Martin spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Corban University (NAIA) in Salem, Oregon, focusing on recruiting, guard development, scouting, and game strategy. He helped lead the Warriors to the CCC Spring Championship in 2020 with a 15-3 record.

As a player, Martin began his career at NCAA Division II Cal State Los Angeles before transferring to Corban, where he played a key role in the program's 2017 CCC Tournament Championship run. In the title game, he hit 10 three-pointers in the second half to help secure a berth in the NAIA National Tournament.

A native of Los Angeles and graduate of Price High School, Martin holds both a bachelor's degree in English Communication and an MBA from Corban University.
