KNIGHT NOTES

STARTING FIVE - QUICK FACTS ABOUT THE KNIGHTS

- Themus Fulks (6.7 avg) ranks second in the Big 12 and 13th nationally, accounting for 36.8% of UCF's scoring (780 points responsible for). He's one of two Big 12 players with at least five 10+ assist games and is on pace to challenge the program's single-season assist record (183).
- Jamichael Stillwell has six double-doubles and ranks third in the Big 12 in offensive rebounds (3.39/g). UCF is 16-0 when winning the rebounding battle.
- UCF is 17-1 when leading with five minutes left, 18-0 when leading with two minutes left, 11-0 when recording 17+ assists, and 15-1 when shooting 45% or better. The Knights are 12-1 when holding opponents under 45% shooting and 13-2 when holding teams under 80 points. Control the glass (9-0 with 40+ rebounds) and share the ball, that's the blueprint.
- UCF earned an AP Top 25 ranking after beating No. 17 Kansas and owns four Quad 1 wins. Currently 46 NET (high of 30) and 49 KenPom, best metrics stretch of the Big 12 era.
- The Knights rank 29th nationally and third in the Big 12 at 37.4% from three. Set a program record with 19 threes vs. FGCU and has five 50% shooting games after four all last season. The Black and Gold knocked down a program-record 328 threes last year and are on pace to rival that production again.

NCAA TOURNAMENT RESUME

- UCF as of Feb. 22, 2026 has a wins above bubble score of 2.71. No team last season on this same day missed the tournament with a win above bubble score of 2.00 or more (per NCAA Stats). The Knights sit at 28th in wins above bubble rank, and no team that finished at or better than that same ranking on Feb. 22 last season missed the tournament.
- UCF is one of 37 Division I teams with four or more Quad 1 wins. The Knights are one of 32 teams with nine total quad 1 and quad 2 wins.
- Historically, no Big 12 team has missed the NCAA Tournament after finishing above .500 in conference play since 2009.

IT'S UCF...NOT CENTRAL FLORIDA

A warm Sunshine State hello to all our new conference-mates in the Big 12 and to others we may not have crossed paths with before. The 2025-26 season is our third in our new conference, and we'd like to make sure we are referred to correctly on all accounts. Please refer to the University of Central Florida as "UCF," not "Central Florida," on all references. Also, we are not the "Golden Knights," instead, we are simply known as the "Knights."

FULKS CONTROLS THE FLOW

- ◆ Milwaukee transfer Themus Fulks has quickly established himself as UCF's floor general, ranking second in the Big 12 and 13th nationally with 6.7 assists per game (174 assists) across 26 games. He delivered his most impressive performance in the Knights' win over Quinnipiac on Nov. 25, dishing out 13 assists, the most by a UCF player in more than a decade. That effort left him just one shy of the program's single-game record of 14, held by Kingsley Edwards and Cory Perry.
- ◆ Should Fulks maintain a seven-assist per game average across the regular season, he'd shatter the previous program single-season assist record of 183 set in the 1991-92 season by Sinua Phillips.
- ◆ Fulks is one of only two players in the Big 12 with at least five games with 10 or more assists, Texas Tech's Christian Anderson has reached the feat seven times this season.
- ◆ The Winston-Salem native has directly contributed 363 points himself and another 417 through his assists, giving him responsibility for 780 of UCF's 2,117 total points. That means he has accounted for an impressive 36.8 percent of the Knights' total scoring production this season.
- ◆ Fulks has recorded three point-assist double-doubles this season: 11 points and 10 assists against Oakland, an impressive 24 points and 12 assists in the win over FAU, and a stellar in a road conference win against Kansas State. Fulks is the first Knight to ever have three point-assist double-doubles in a single season.

THE 4 FACTOR

- ◆ Number four, Jamichael Stillwell, who transferred from Milwaukee alongside Fulks, has become a dominant two-way presence for the Knights, already recording six double-doubles across 26 games. Unsurprising for the senior who averaged 13 points and 10.7 rebounds last season. He ranks third in the Big 12 and 29th nationally with 3.25 offensive rebounds per game, highlighted by a career-best 10 in the win over VMI, which ties him for second all-time in program history for offensive boards in a single game.
- ◆ Stillwell is on pace to surpass UCF's single-season double-double record of 12, set by Tacko Fall during the 2016-17 season. Notably, Stillwell recorded 16 double-doubles last season at Milwaukee.
- ◆ Fall also set UCF's single-season offensive rebounding record in 2016-17 with 129, another benchmark Stillwell could challenge if he maintains his production on the offensive glass throughout the season.
- ◆ It is worth noting that Fall was a true center, but no forward has surpassed 100 offensive rebounds in a single season, a benchmark that Stillwell is 22 away from reaching.
- ◆ Stillwell's five double-doubles in non-conference play tied him for fifth-most in the Big 12 at the conclusion of non-conference play, and ranking him third in program history for double-doubles during non-conference competition, trailing only 2012-13 Keith Clanton (7) and 2016-17 Tacko Fall (8).

THE KNIGHTS' CHECKMATE

- ◆ The Knights' blueprint for success has gone far beyond shooting percentages, driven by their ability to control the game.
- ◆ The Black and Gold have been unbeatable during games where they lead with two minutes remaining, sitting at 18-0.
- ◆ In games where UCF records 17 or more assists, the Knights post an 11-0 record.
- ◆ The Knights are 15-1 when logging a 45% field goal percentage or better. On the defensive-end, UCF is 12-1 when holding opponents below 45% from the field.
- ◆ Achieving 40-plus total rebounds in a game leads to success for the Black and Gold, registering a 9-0 record.
- ◆ UCF is 8-0 in games where the Knights shoot at or better than the Division 1 game averages for field goals made (27), field goals attempted (59), and field goal percentage (45.3%).
- ◆ Defense has been a defining strength for UCF, while holding its opponents under 80 points, with an 13-2 record in those matches.
- ◆ The Knights also remain undefeated (16-0) when controlling the glass and out rebounding their opponents.

RIISING THROUGH THE RANKS

- ◆ UCF men's basketball debuted at No. 25 in the Week 9 AP Top 25, marking its first appearance in the poll since 2019.
- ◆ The ranking came during the best start of head coach Johnny Dawkins' tenure, as the Knights entered Week 9 with a 12-1 record.
- ◆ UCF earned the ranking after a statement 81-75 win over then-No. 17 Kansas on Jan. 3.
- ◆ The week nine ranking marks the sixth week UCF has appeared in the AP Top 25 since the program began in 1969, and the second time under Dawkins.
- ◆ As of Feb. 22, UCF ranks 46th in the NCAA NET, climbing as high as 30th, its best NET ranking since joining the Big 12. They have shown far more movement than in their first two seasons, when they sat 80th at this point in 2025 and 72nd in 2024.
- ◆ The Knights are also 49th in KenPom, nearing the program's all-time best of No. 34, last reached in 2019.
- ◆ The Black and Gold have four quad 1 wins, having swept Texas A&M in a home-and-home series, beating No. 17 Kansas at home, winning at Colorado in a shootout, and defeating #11 Texas Tech in the Space Game. UCF's remaining schedule includes two quad 1 games, one quad 2 game, and one quad 3 game.
- ◆ Dawkins' 2018-19 team finished nonconference play ranked 46th in the NCAA NET Rankings, though they climbed as high as 26 before ending their season in the tournament's second round.

BENCH BRIGADE

- ◆ Depth has been a defining trait for the 2025-26 roster, with seven different players leading the team in scoring through 26 games. A balance that has translated to one of the Big 12's most productive benches, as the Black and Gold are averaging 23.81 points per game from their reserves, fifth-best in the conference, highlighted by a 51-point bench performance in the win over Florida A&M on Nov. 11.
- ◆ The Knights' bench reached a program high in 2010-11, scoring 828 points at an average of 25.5 per game. So far, the 2025-26 reserves have amassed 619 points, hinting that this year's bench could emerge as one of the most efficient in recent history.
- ◆ Among the UCF's bench contributors are key sharpshooters like Carmelo Pacheco, who has scored 108 of his 120 points this season from beyond the arc. Pacheco ranked fourth in NCAA Division I in three-point field goal percentage last season at 46.4 percent and is looking to match that again, currently maintaining a strong 41.3 percent.
- ◆ Beyond scoring, the bench has contributed 264 rebounds so far, echoing Coach Dawkins' 2023-24 unit, which set a program record with 475 rebounds, a mark this year's group is over halfway toward.

HISTORY WITH BYU

- ◆ The Knights are 0-4 against the Cougars all-time, seeking its first win over the program in men's hoops.
- ◆ The Black and Gold hosted BYU in the last meeting between the two teams, falling 81-75.
- ◆ UCF has faced BYU in Provo once during the matchup's history, losing Feb. 13, 2024, 90-88 to the 19th ranked Cougars at the time. Despite a miraculous late-game scoring effort of 15 points in the last minute of play by the Knights, it would not be enough to catch up to BYU.

ON POINT FROM THE LONG RANGE

- ◆ UCF broke a program record with 19 three-pointers in the game against FGCU (12/20), the previous record was 17 against Tulsa (2/11/23)
- ◆ The Knights are currently ranked 29th in the nation and third in the Big 12 with a 37.4 three-point percentage.
- ◆ Transfers George Beale Jr. and Carmelo Pacheco shot the three-ball above 40% last season.
- ◆ Both Beale Jr. Pacheco averaged 6.3 three-point attempts per game on their two previous teams, respectively.

- ◆ UCF earned 10 or more three-pointers for the 14th time last season against Oregon State, hitting 10 or more threes in four of its last five games after not doing so for the entire month of February. The streak included tying a season-high 14 made threes vs. Kansas in the second round of the Big 12 Championship. To put in perspective the shooting capability of this year's team, the Knights hit 10 or more three pointers just twice last season. Additionally, UCF has five games where they've shot 50% or better from the floor after doing that four times in the previous campaign.
- ◆ The Black and Gold have knocked down a program record 328 three pointers last season, reaching the milestone during the College Basketball Crown first round. The mark tops the 295 made triples during the 2022-23 season.
- ◆ The Knights averaged 8.9 made three pointers per game, beating the previous record during Dawkins' tenure at 8.8 during the 2021-22 campaign. The high clip has helped UCF to its highest scoring offense under Dawkins as well.

KNIGHTS ESCAPE UTAH WITH 73-71 VICTORY

- ◆ In a contest featuring 16 lead changes and neither team leading by double-digits, it all came down to Themus Fulks knocking down two free throws with 3.7 seconds left to seal the game. Fulk's late-game heroics capped off a game-high 24 points.
- ◆ This year's squad is the fastest UCF team to reach 19 wins in a season since the 2019 tournament run.
- ◆ The Knights generated its advantage through defensive pressure, forcing eight turnovers in the second half that translated to 11 points.
- ◆ With the victory, UCF advances to 8-6 in conference play, the most wins during conference play since joining the Big 12 conference ahead of the 2023-24 season.

FULKS TABBED TO BIG 12 STARTING FIVE - WEEK 11 AND WEEK 13

- ◆ Themus Fulks is fresh off his second Big 12 starting five honor earning a nod in weeks 11 and 13.
- ◆ The fifth-year guard earned the first honor after helping UCF secure its first Big 12 road win of the season and scoring a career-best 30 points against No. 1 Arizona. Fulks totaled 13 points and 12 assists in an 82-73 win at Kansas State, becoming the first Knight with five double-digit assist games in a season. Against Arizona, he tallied 30 points, eight assists and five rebounds to become the fourth DI player in the last 30 years to have at least 30 points, five rebounds and five assists against a No. 1 opponent, joining Boston College's Ky Bowman, Oklahoma's Buddy Hield and Clemson's Greg Buckner.
- ◆ He is the first UCF player this century with three point-assist double-doubles in a season and the first in program history with back-to-back games of 10+ assists.
- ◆ The second honor came as Fulks led the Knights to their second ranked victory of the year against #11 Texas Tech. He poured in a team-high 21 points and dished out seven assists against Texas Tech and earlier in the week contributed six assists and 12 points in the Knights comeback win against Arizona State.

KNIGHTS ECLIPSE NO. 11 RED RAIDERS, 88-80

- ◆ UCF led for 36 minutes and six seconds, knocking off 11th ranked Texas Tech for a second ranked win this season.
- ◆ The Black and Gold asserted dominance on the glass with a 35-23 rebound advantage, matching that presence with tight ball security, forcing 13 turnovers while surrendering only six.
- ◆ John Bol's standout performance for a second career double-double with 14 points, 10 rebounds, and 6-8 shooting, rallied UCF to victory.
- ◆ The Red Raiders made a final push late to pull within two with 1:55 remaining, but the Knights kicked into full throttle, as a Chris Johnson fastbreak dunk in the final moments put UCF in the front seat of victory, 88-80.
- ◆ The victory lifts the Knights to 17-4 overall, the most wins through the month of January in program history, and 6-3 in Big 12 play. UCF asserted itself on the glass with a double-digit rebounding advantage (35-23) and matched that presence with tight ball security, forcing 13 turnovers while surrendering only six, an effort that underscored their control throughout.

UCF RALLIES FROM 12-POINT DEFICIT, 79-76 OVER ARIZONA STATE

- ◆ In the last six minutes of regulation, the Knights, down 12, came back in miraculous fashion to advance to 16-4, their best mark since the 2018-19 season, and their best Big 12 Conference start.
- ◆ After trailing 12 with 6:09 left, the Knights fired up a 21-6 run until the clock hit zero, punctuated by a Jordan Burks three from the left wing to give the Black and Gold a 78-76 lead with 34 seconds remaining. Burks followed just moments later, stealing the ball with 11 seconds remaining to seal the victory.
- ◆ After shooting 1-10 from downtown in the first half, UCF found their shooter's touch, going 6-12 from behind the arc in the second half.

KNIGHTS EDGE COLORADO, 95-86

- ◆ UCF put on a shooting masterclass in Boulder, shooting 61.1% from the field and 62.5% downtown, a program best during Big 12 conference play.
- ◆ Five players scored in double figures, led by Riley Kugel's 22 points and a career-high six three-pointers made. Themus Fulks scored 19 points of his own, dishing out eight assists.
- ◆ The Knights were 10-13 from long range in the opening period, the second time UCF has made 10 threes in a half this season, and the third time in program history the Knights earned this mark.
- ◆ The Buffalos trimmed the Knights lead down to six with under three minutes remaining in the second period, but a miraculous bank shot three by Kugel with 0.6 left on the shot clock swung momentum UCF's way, with the team making its next nine field goal attempts to seal the 95-86 victory.

BIG 12 ROAD WOES NO MORE | KNIGHTS BEST KANSAS STATE 82-73

- ◆ UCF snapped an eight game Big 12 away game losing streak, getting the Knights' first ever win at Bramlage Coliseum and advancing to 14-2 on the season.
- ◆ Themus Fulks records his fifth 10-plus assist performance of the season with 12 against the Wildcats, and holds the program record for most 10-plus assist games in a single season by an individual player.
- ◆ Riley Kugel led in scoring for the fourth straight game, finishing with 19

KNIGHTS HOLD OFF CINCINNATI AT HOME

- ◆ In the first matchup this season against the Bearcats, neither team led by double digits, then No. 25 UCF men's basketball survived a late surge from Cincinnati to earn a 73-72 victory on Jan. 11 inside Addition Financial Arena.
- ◆ The Black and Gold shot 57.7% from the field, their best mark against a Big 12 opponent since joining the conference ahead of the 2023-24 season.
- ◆ A 6-0 run by the Bearcats put them up by one with less than two minutes remaining, but a Fulks jumper gave UCF the - lead with 13 seconds remaining. The Knights held on defensively to secure the one-point victory.

- Riley Kugel led the game in scoring with 19, with Jamichael Stillwell adding 15 of his own, and Jeremy Fomena tailed 12 points with a season-high eight rebounds.
- Themus Fulks' 12 assists is his fourth 10-plus assist performance on the season.

NOW YOU'RE DAWKIN': KNIGHTS START 12-1

- Since head coach Johnny Dawkins took the helm in 2016, the Knights have never opened a season quite like this, as their electrifying 12-1 start stands as the best of his tenure. Their win over No. 17 Kansas on Jan. 3 also pushed their streak to 11 straight victories, the longest ever by a Dawkins-led team and the longest since the 2010-11 season when the squad opened the season on a 14-0 tear.
- UCF was one of three teams in the Big 12 with just one loss as they entered conference play, joined by Oklahoma State, No. 8 Houston and No. 19 BYU, while No. 1 Arizona and No. 3 Iowa State stepped into Big 12 play undefeated.
- Beyond Dawkins' own record-breaking start, his group has already left its mark in the program record book, as the Knights set a new single-game record with 19 made three-pointers in their Dec. 20 win over FGCU, surpassing the previous mark of 17 set against Tulsa on Feb. 11, 2023.
- Dawkins has his core group locked down early, as the Knights have yet to lose with Riley Kugel, Themus Fulks, Jamichael Stillwell, Jordan Burks, and John Bol in the starting lineup.

KNIGHTS TOPPLE NO. 17 KANSAS IN BIG 12 OPENER

- With the game tied at 72 and under a minute remaining, Jordan Burks delivered when it mattered most. UCF and Kansas had battled every second, each team vying to start the Big 12 season 1-0. But Kansas' hopes were dashed as Burks pulled up from the long range in the final moments, sinking a clutch three-pointer to lift the Knights to an 81-75 upset at Addition Financial Arena.
- This is the second consecutive season the Knights have won their conference opener, and the first time they've beaten a ranked opponent since last year's season home opener against then No. 13/15 Texas A&M. Dawkins, as a player and coach, is now a combined 7-3 in meetings against either Kansas or Bill Self, or a combination of both.
- The Knights committed just six turnovers all evening while forcing 12 from the Jayhawks, who normally average 10.8 turnovers per game and force 9.46 themselves.
- A trio of Knights scored in double digits as Riley Kugel led the way with 19 points followed by Themus Fulks with 16 and Burks added in 14.

RECORD NIGHT VS. FGCU

- A program record night from the three-point range and a balanced scoring effort that saw five Knights reach double figures, as the Knights rolled past FGCU, 102-80, on Saturday, December 20.
- The three-point barrage was led by Jordan Burks, who drilled a career-high six triples on his way to a game-high 23 points, also a personal best for the Alabama native.
- Jamichael Stillwell finished the night with 14 points and 13 rebounds to earn his second consecutive double-double and fifth of the season. His 13 rebounds included eight on the offensive glass, pushing his season total to 46 offensive boards, the second most in the Big 12.
- Devan Cambridge finished the night with 16 points, the outing marked his first double-digit scoring performance of the season and highest total as a Knight. The Nashville native was nearly perfect from the field, knocking down 6-of-7 attempts, including a perfect 4-of-4 from the three-point line.
- Chris Johnson (12) and Themus Fulks (21) added to the quintet of double digits scorers. Fulks and Johnson also directed the offense throughout the night, each handing out five assists.
- John Bol made an impact on the glass, pulling down a career-high nine rebounds.

BEATING FLORIDA FOES

- UCF has found success against in-state opponents under head coach Johnny Dawkins, going 31-11 against teams from Florida since his arrival. The Knights swept the Florida foes this season, as they faced Florida A&M, FGCU and Florida Atlantic adding three wins to Dawkin's record against Florida teams.
- UCF added two tallies to the win column last season with the 100-94 win over Florida Atlantic on Nov. 12 and the 86-66 victory over Jacksonville on Dec. 21.
- The Knights have topped Florida, Florida State, Miami, South Florida, Stetson, FIU, Jacksonville, Bethune-Cookman and Florida A&M during Johnny Dawkins' tenure as UCF's head coach and added Florida Atlantic to that list last season.

STILLWELL TABBED TO BIG 12 STARTING FIVE

- UCF senior Jamichael Stillwell was named to the Big 12 Starting Five, the first Knight in program history to earn the weekly honor
- The Big 12 Starting Five recognizes five top performers across the league each week
- Logged second double-double of the season in the win over Pittsburgh: 12 points, 11 rebounds, 32 minutes
- Recorded first double-double of the season (and UCF's first of the year) vs. Oakland: 20 points, 14 rebounds, 8-of-13 shooting

- ◆ For the first time in UCF program history, the Knights played in Cameron Indoor against Duke in an exhibition game on Oct. 21.
- ◆ The exhibition was part of Duke men's basketball series called the "Brotherhood Run", a tradition in which Duke invites former players who are now collegiate head coaches back to Durham for a matchup.
- ◆ Prior to the game, Coach Dawkins was honored at half court by Duke head coach Jon Scheyer and former Duke head coach Mike Krzyzewski, they handed him a commemorative basketball.
- ◆ Head Coach Johnny Dawkins returned to his alma mater, where he was a two-time consensus All-American and was enshrined in the Duke Hall of Fame in September 1996, when his No. 24 jersey was retired.
- ◆ Dawkins stepped back onto the hardwood at Cameron for the first time since 2008, when he was an associate head coach at Duke.
- ◆ The last matchup between the two teams took place on March 24, 2019, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament at Colonial Life Arena in Columbia, South Carolina, where the Blue Devils advanced following a narrow 77-76 victory.
- ◆ Dawkins played at Duke for Coach Mike Krzyzewski from 1982-86. He is regarded as a key early figure in the program's ascent to becoming a national power. Dawkins and company began to build the foundation for Duke basketball after a sub-.500 freshman season. The Blue Devils finished 24-10 the following campaign, sparking back-to-back NCAA Tournament Second Round appearances. His senior season culminated with a 37-3 record and a National Championship game appearance.
- ◆ Throughout his time at Duke, Dawkins piled up 2,556 points, a mark that stood as the school's scoring record until 2006 and remains second all-time. He was a two-time consensus All-American, a four-time All-ACC selection, four-time team MVP, and was the recipient of the 1986 Naismith National Player of the Year award.

FEAR THE FRONDS

"The Most Florida Free Throw Distraction"

A storm, in multiple senses of the word, created a new tradition for Knight Nation in attendance at UCF men's basketball games. The legend goes that the night prior to the Black and Gold's first home conference game as a member of the Big 12, a massive storm rolled through campus. The wind blew down plenty of palm fronds across campus, and students picked them up and brought them into the game to use as a free throw distraction. It ended up working, as No. 3 Kansas shot just 6-for-11 from the free throw stripe in the second half in front of the student section. The fronds gave UCF that extra edge to top the Jayhawks 65-60, winning by as many points as Kansas had missed second half free throws.

Now, that's not exactly how one of college basketball's newest traditions was born. UCF's Brand Experience team wanted to create a unique experience for the team's first season in the Big 12. Director of brand experience Tim Connor (UCF alumna 2017) and assistant director of brand experience Lexi Campagna (UCF alumna 2022) created and executed the idea. Knight Nation immediately took to the new tradition and the country took notice. The pair were named as one of nine finalists in NACMA's "Best Of" Awards in the People's Choice - Student Engagement category.

As the flagship Big 12 institution in The Sunshine State, nothing says Florida like palm trees. Design elements incorporated on social media, uniforms and even the lane on the court, all included palm trees and fronds. Leaning into that element wound up creating the most Florida free throw distraction imaginable.

Not only was the new free throw distraction perfectly on brand, but it actually worked. The palm fronds caused opponents to miss nearly 10% of their second half free throws in Big 12 play and the postseason. Visiting teams made 75% of their first half free throws while making just 66.4% in the second half, accounting for a total of 44 misses.

As the final buzzer sounded on UCF's upset over No. 3 Kansas, the team's first conference win as a Big 12 member, fans stormed the court with palm fronds in hand. The Knights had topped the highest ranked opponent in program history (previously No. 4 UConn, a 68-63 neutral site win on Nov. 25, 2011).

UCF went on to beat a total of three ranked opponents during the 2023-24 Big 12 slate, all at home in front of the frond-waving faithful. The win against No. 3 Kansas was the first, followed by a 74-63 win over No. 23 Oklahoma on Feb. 3 and a 75-61 triumph over No. 23 Texas Tech on Feb. 24.

With two seasons of the "Fear the Fronds" mantra in the students section they are here to stay as a long standing tradition at men's basketball games.

POSTSEASON PURSUIT

- Under head coach Johnny Dawkins, the Knights have made a postseason appearance in five of his nine seasons, including three straight postseason appearances.
- UCF experienced immediate postseason success by making the NIT in the first year under Dawkins' new leadership, reaching the NIT semifinal in Madison Square Garden in 2016-2017.
- The Black and Gold returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2005 when they earned an at-large bid into the 2019 bracket as a No. 9 seed. Dawkins led the Knights to their first NCAA Tournament victory in program history, beating VCU 73-58 in the first round. The Black and Gold narrowly defeated in the next round, falling to top-seeded Duke 77-76.
- UCF returned to the postseason by making the NIT in 2022-23 and earning a first round victory over in-state foe Florida. The Knights were the only team to hold Florida below 50 points during 2022-23 while the 49 Gator points were the least they've scored at home since Jan. 13, 1962 when they beat Auburn 43-40.
- The Black and Gold earned a spot in the 2024 NIT bracket as a No. 4 seed in their second straight trip to the tournament.
- This past season, the Knights were invited to compete in the inaugural College Basketball Crown in Las Vegas to play for a share of a pool of NIL prize money. After wins against Oregon State and conference-foe Cincinnati, the Knights would find themselves in a thrilling semi-final game against Villanova. UCF won 104-98 in overtime, earning a guaranteed $100,000 of the NIL prize money pool.
- The Knights have been to five NCAA DI Tournaments and four NITs, totaling 11 postseason appearances (one CBI and one College Basketball Crown).

DAWKINS' DECADE

- Johnny Dawkins enters his 10th season with UCF during the 2025-26 season, he has built a particularly glossy college basketball playing and coaching catalogue—most recently including a 2025 induction to the Washington D.C. Hall of Fame and the 2023 induction into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame and selection of a UCF player in the first round of the 2023 NBA Draft.
- Dawkins has continued to rewrite UCF's history books, as he is responsible for nine of UCF's 11 total wins over ranked opponents. Prior to his arrival, the program had won two total games against ranked foes from 1984-2016.
- UCF had never won two games against ranked teams in a single season, and Dawkins has now accomplished the feat twice. It first happened during the 2018-2019 campaign, taking down No. 6 Houston and then No. 19 Cincinnati in Orlando in a span of five days in March. Now, the Knights have wins over three top-25 teams in 2023-2024, beating No.3 Kansas in January while topping No. 23 Oklahoma and No. 23 Texas Tech in February.
- Dawkins picked up win No. 100 as UCF's head coach in the Knights' win over N.C. A&T on Dec. 11, 2022, becoming just the third coach in UCF history to reach the milestone. Dawkins has a .583 winning percentage since starting with the Knights in 2016, which is the second best of any UCF coach in program history (Torchy Clark, .754 from 1969-83).
- Dawkins is the fastest coach to earn 100 wins in program history in the Division I era, needing only 162 games to do so. At one point during the contest, the Knights had compiled a 20-2 run, dating back to Hall's three prior to halftime.
- Dawkins had his squad off to a 4-0 start to begin the 2024-2025 season, tying the 2021-22 and 2017-18 season for his best starts to a season at UCF.
- Dawkins led UCF to its first NIT Final Four (2017), first at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament (2019), and first NCAA Tournament win (2019). Additionally, he has led the Knights to three straight postseason appearances, including a championship appearance in the inaugural College Basketball Crown last season.
- Associate head coach, Robbie Laing has stayed beside Dawkins throughout his tenure at UCF.
- Laing was responsible for leading the charge in the recruitment of Taylor and Tyler Hendricks, both of whom joined the team's roster in the 2022-23 season.
- Taylor went on to lead the team in scoring, blocks and a multitude of other categories in a phenomenal freshman campaign, one that led to him becoming the program's first one-and-done, as well as first lottery pick in the NBA draft. Taylor was selected ninth overall in the 2023 NBA Draft to the Utah Jazz, the second of UCF's selections in the modern draft era.

DAWKINS' LONGSTANDING SUCCESS VS. KANSAS AND BILL SEIF

ADDITION FINANCIAL ARENA

The UCF men's and women's basketball programs have called the beautiful 10,000-seat Addition Financial Arena its home since the start of the 2007-08 season. Located in the heart of Knights Plaza on the expansive north side of campus, the state-of-the-art facility opened in the fall of 2007 to packed crowds at multiple events. Under the current configuration, the capacity for basketball games sits at 9,400.

Addition Financial Arena's unique design provides an intimate atmosphere for all students, alumni, fans and supporters, while creating an intimidating environment for opponents. With a raucous student section, dubbed the "Knightmare," Addition Financial Arena has quickly become one of the more formidable basketball facilities in the entire southeast. The design offers perfect sight lines for all fans, giving every spectator a spectacular view.

UCF's first year in the Big 12 Conference saw record attendance for the men's basketball teams, hosting a total of 134,000 fans over the 2023-24 season that saw the Knights host 19 home games, averaging just over 9,000 fans per league home contest. The inaugural Big 12 campaign also saw the introduction of palm fronds as a free throw distraction in the student section. The terms "Fear the Frond" and "Frond Warning" were born as Knight Nation helped cause opponents to make 10% less of their second-half free throws in Big 12 and postseason play.

The venue has sold out twice for UCF men's basketball games, the first being the Black and Gold's 2017 NIT Quarterfinal contest against Illinois, filling the seats with 10,011 fans. The second was the Knights' Big 12 Conference home opener against No. 3 Kansas on Jan. 10, 2024, as 9,469 fans piled through the turnstiles. Most of those fans piled out of the stands as both games ended in court stormings. UCF's 65-60 victory over the Jayhawks was the highest-ranked opponent that the Knights had defeated in program history.

Approximately 7,000 seats make up the lower bowl of Addition Financial Arena, with an additional 3,000 seats situated in the upper level. Club level seating is on the east side of the Arena, with exclusive access to the regal Black and Gold Club before, during and after each game. The addition of a courtside club on one of the baselines subtracted 600 seats from the lower bowl, making the current configuration for men's and women's basketball games a 9,400-fan capacity. The area, located floor-level in front of sections 101-103, offers great views of game action as well as access to top-notch food and beverage options.

The facility features 16 luxury boxes and suites, a club lounge, open concourse areas and numerous concession options. Fans benefit from a state-of-the-art audio and video system. The scoreboard located at center court features four video screens that show replays and player information with an LED ribbon board stretching around the bottom.

Patrons enter the building through a spacious lobby that has conveniently located concession and apparel stands.

Addition Financial Arena sits on the northern side of campus and is nestled in with UCF's other athletics facilities, including FBC Mortgage Stadium, The Venue, John Euliano Park and the UCF Soccer/Track Complex. FBC Mortgage Stadium also opened up during the same September week in 2007.

The arena is the centerpiece of an area that includes apartment-style dormitories with 2,000 total beds and about 100,000-square feet of retail space. Before and after games, fans can dine and shop at establishments like Barnes & Noble Bookstore, Burger U, Gringos Locos, Domino's, The Pop Parlour, Dunkin', Jimmy John's, Subway and Knightro's.

The neighboring retail area has room for 24 shops.

Addition Financial Arena also hosts premiere concerts along with UCF commencement ceremonies. The Central Florida Crusaders, expansion members of the National Indoor Soccer League, began fielding men's and women's teams in the venue for the 2022-23 season. The Orlando Valkyries of the Pro Volleyball Federation began playing their games in the arena in Jan. 2024.

The arena is located directly in front of UCF's old home, The Venue, which re-opened following a year of massive renovations to create a new home for the women's volleyball program as well as dedicated practice facilities for both the men's and women's basketball programs. The Knights played in the former 5,100-seat building from 1991-2007.

Construction on the new facility began in November of 2005. The arena was designed by HOK Sports and constructed by KUD International.

The arena officially opened on Sept. 8, 2007, with a Reba McEntire concert. The first UCF event at the new arena occurred on Sept. 28, 2007, when the UCF volleyball team hosted East Carolina. The first UCF men's basketball game was a 63-60 victory over Nevada on Nov. 11, 2007 while the first women's contest was on Nov. 9, 2007, in 72-57 loss to Texas Tech.

Johnny DAWKINS

Head Coach / 10th Season at UCF

Hall of Fame and the 2023 induction into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame and selection of a UCF player in the first round of the 2023 NBA Draft.

Dawkins' resume showcases:

- ◆ 17 seasons as a major-college head coach (the last nine at UCF), including 10 postseason berths and a pair of National Invitation Tournament titles
- ◆ Extensive player development, highlighted by Taylor Hendricks' selection in the first round of the 2023 NBA Draft after only a single season at UCF
- ◆ 10 additional previous seasons of experience as an assistant coach at Duke, including NCAA Championship appearances every year, an NCAA title in 2001 and seven Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament crowns
- ◆ A nine-year NBA career that included a career double-figure scoring average
- ◆ A collegiate playing career at Duke that featured national player-of-the-year recognition as a senior as the school's all-time top career scorer, later culminating with his 2023 National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame selection and 2025 Washington D.C. Sports Hall of Fame induction

In nine seasons at UCF, Dawkins has led the program to unprecedented heights, in the only eight-year stretch with four or more postseason appearances during the Division I era. He led the Knights to their first NCAA Championship victory in 2019. He's also responsible for producing UCF's first lottery pick after Taylor Hendricks was selected by the Utah Jazz with the ninth overall pick in the 2023 NBA Draft. In the deepest, most challenging league in college basketball, Dawkins led the Knights to seven victories in their inaugural season as members of the Big 12 Conference in 2023-24, earning a program record three ranked wins during the campaign.

Dawkins boasts nine wins over ranked opponents in his time at the helm of the Knights, accounting for over 80% of the team's wins over Associated Press top-25 teams in the program's history. The Knights led off the 2024-25 season with a win over #13 Texas A&M, marking the first of three tries in a season opener. UCF made a statement in its inaugural home Big 12 game on Jan. 10, 2024, beating No. 3 Kansas by five after trailing by 16 at one point during the contest. The Knights went on to earn additional ranked wins over No. 23 Oklahoma and No. 23 Texas Tech during the inaugural Big 12 slate, joining the 2018-19 season as the only other campaign with multiple wins over ranked opponents in a single season.

The Knights also earned a host of other impressive wins against top-25 foes, beating 15th-ranked Florida State in Tallahassee in 2020, the program's first victory over the Seminoles. The Knights recorded consecutive victories over No. 6 Houston and No. 19 Cincinnati during the 2018-19 regular-season run to the NCAA Championship, solidifying themselves in the field of 68. UCF defeated No. 24 Alabama in December 2017, after earning the first ranked win under Dawkins on Feb. 26, 2017, beating No. 15 Cincinnati 53-49. UCF cracked the AP poll on Mar. 4, 2019, for the first time since 2011, earning a ranking of 25th late in the regular season. It was the latest into a season that the Knights had been ranked. The home finale against Cincinnati in 2019 marked the first matchup of ranked teams at Addition Financial Arena.

The 2019 NCAA Championship Run

The 2018-19 season was one to remember for Dawkins and the Knights, as he guided UCF to a No. 9 seed in the NCAA Championship, its highest seed in five all-time NCAA Championship appearances, and defeated eighth-seeded VCU 73-58 in first-round action.

UCF then came inches away from upsetting top overall seed Duke in the second round, ultimately falling 77-76 to fellow Hall of Famer and his former college coach Mike Krzyzewski, Zion Williamson and RJ Barrett as BJ Taylor's floater rimmed out and Aubrey Dawkins' tip-in barely missed at the buzzer.

The Knights were stellar down the stretch to secure their at-large NCAA Championship berth, winning on the road at No. 6/8 Houston to snap the Cougars' 33-game home win streak and topping No. 19/20 Cincinnati in Orlando. It marked the first time UCF had earned multiple victories over ranked opponents in the same season, and the Knights did it in back-to-back games.

Dawkins led UCF back to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2005, and the first time as an at-large selection (with the previous four NCAA Championships as champions of the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament in 1994, 1996, 2004 and 2005). He helped three individuals earn all-conference accolades from the American Athletic Conference in 2018-19, as UCF led the league with three honorees. BJ Taylor became the first Knight to earn first-team AAC honors, while Aubrey Dawkins was named second team and Tacko Fall added third-team honors. It marked just the second time that the Knights put multiple student-athletes on the AAC all-conference teams and the ninth time in the program's Division I history that multiple Knights earned all-conference honors in the same season (dating back to the 1993-94 season). With two players on the three all-conference teams, only Houston had more players earn all-conference honors.

Following the end of the 2018-19 regular season, Dawkins was named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award and the Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year Award.

UCF finished the year 24-9, tied for the fourth most wins in a season in program history. The Knights' 23 regular-season wins marked a record in UCF's Division I era. The team went 13-5 in AAC play, the team's most league wins since joining that conference, and earned the No. 4 seed in the conference tournament for the second time in three seasons.

Dominant Defense

Known for their defense under Dawkins, the Knights ranked 11th in the nation in field-goal percentage defense, holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting in the 2018-19 NCAA Championship run. UCF was also 27th in scoring defense, allowing 64.5 points per game that season.

Defense always has been a priority with UCF teams, as four of Dawkins' nine seasons with the Knights have seen the team finish inside the top 50 nationally in scoring defense, including two top-10 finishes. UCF ranked third in the nation in scoring defense in 2017-18, holding teams to 61.7 points per game and 40.1% shooting, slotting the team at the No. 10 spot in the country. Dawkins' first season with UCF in 2016-17 saw the team finish No. 1 in field-goal percentage defense, limiting foes to 36.5% from the field, and No. 6 in scoring defense, with opponents averaging 61.2 points per contest.

Despite making the jump to one of the nation's toughest leagues in college hoops, UCF held its own on the defensive side of the ball. The Knights led the Big 12 in blocks per game, averaging 5.0 per game, a top 20 mark nationally throughout the year. UCF also ranked in the top 25 in steals per game at 8.7 per contest. Although they finished just outside of the top 50 national rankings for scoring defense, the Knights often held opponents well below their season averages. UCF also posted its second-highest turnovers forced per game clip during the team's first run through the Big 12, finishing in the top 40 with a mark of 14.21.

Highly-Touted Hendricks

Taylor Hendricks qualified as UCF's top recruit in program history upon his arrival prior to the 2022-23 season. He came into college as a top-100 player in two of the three major recruit rankings, as ESPN pinned him No. 54 and Rivals had him at No. 87. Hendricks lived up to the hype on opening night, dropping a team-best 23 points in his collegiate debut and finishing the season with averages of 15.3 points and 6.9 rebounds.

Through plenty of work and coaching throughout the season, Hendricks quietly began to creep into mock drafts across the country. At season's end, Hendricks had achieved two career-high marks of 25 points and recorded five double-doubles. He was the nation's only player to make 60 or more three-pointers, tally 55 or more blocks and record 35 or more dunks. He was honored with a unanimous selection to the American Athletic Conference All-Rookie Team and was named second-team All-AAC.

Hendricks announced his intent to enter the NBA Draft on March 22, 2023, making him UCF's first one-and-done player. The freshman phenom later went on to become the Knights' first lottery pick as well as a first-round selection, going ninth to the Utah Jazz in the 2023 NBA Draft.

Enshrined in the College Basketball Hall of Fame

Dawkins was honored Aug. 30, 2023, as an inductee in the 18th class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame. He was joined by former Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski, who was officially honored in the class of 2023 after initially being among the Hall of Fame's Founding Class in 2006.

Dawkins was inducted for his playing days as a Blue Devil and is one of the most decorated players in Duke history. He is regarded as a key early figure in the program's ascent to becoming a national power. From 1982-86, Dawkins piled up 2,556 points – a mark that stood as the school's scoring record until 2006 and remains second all-time. He was a two-time consensus All-American, a four-time All-ACC selection – and was recipient of the 1986 Naismith National Player of the Year award.

As a senior, Dawkins led Duke to the ACC regular-season and tournament titles, and an appearance in the NCAA National Championship game. The 10th overall pick by the Spurs in the 1986 NBA Draft, Dawkins saw action in nine professional seasons with the Spurs, 76ers and Pistons. He averaged 11.1 points and 5.5 assists through 541 career NBA games.

The Washington D.C. native was selected to be a part of the Washington D.C. Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2025. He was inducted for his playing days at Mackin Catholic High School, Duke and the NBA. He is considered one of the greatest players at the District's Mackin Catholic High School, where he earned All-America recognition before joining Duke.

The Washington D.C. Sports Hall of Fame marked the third Hall of Fame induction for Dawkins. His jersey was retired in 1996 as he was inducted into the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2023, he was an inductee in the 18th class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame.

UCF Player Honors

Multiple players have earned conference and national honors under Dawkins' tenure. Tacko Fall earned a spot on the Lefty Driesell Defensive All-America team in 2016-17 and was named the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year. B.J. Taylor earned first-team All-AAC and NABC first-team All-District honors in 2018-19.

Seven nods to the All-AAC Team were awarded while the Knights were members of that league. An additional three All-Rookie Team honors were earned, all over the last three seasons. Taylor Hendricks earned second-team All-Conference honors as well as a unanimous nod to the All-Rookie Team in 2022-23, as well as tallying a record nine conference rookie-of-the-week accolades. Darius Johnson and Isaiah Adams preceded Hendricks in earning All-Rookie Team nods in 2021-22 and 2020-21, respectively. Aubrey Dawkins (2018-19) and Taylor (2016-17) are the other Knights who received All-AAC second-team honors, while Darin Green Jr. (2021-22), Brandon Mahan (2020-21), Darius Perry (2020-21) and Fall (2018-19) all were members of an AAC third team.

Johnson added to his decorated career as a Knight with an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honor in UCF's first season in the Big 12 (2023-24). He was joined by fellow junior guard Jaylin Sellers and fifth-year forward Ibrahim Diallo on the honorable mention list. Keyshawn Hall and Johnson were both honored by the Big 12 Conference at the end of the 2024-25 season. Hall was named to the All-Big 12 Second Team and All-Newcomer Team while Johnson was tabbed as All-Big 12 Honorable Mention for the second consecutive season.

Postseason Pushes

On top of the NCAA Championship run in 2018-19, the Knights have punched three tickets to the NIT under Dawkins' direction, as he has led UCF to the postseason in five of his nine seasons at the helm of the Black and Gold. That number of postseason appearances is more than half of the SEC, ACC and Big Ten combined over that stretch.

The Black and Gold participated in the inaugural College Basketball Crown (2025), a 16-team tournament hosted in Las Vegas for a share of a pool of NIL prize money. Dawkins and company led the Knights to the championship game as they fell just short of earning a title, falling 77-66 to Nebraska.

UCF's most recent NIT bid saw the squad earn a No. 4 seed. In 2023, the Knights traveled to Gainesville, Florida, and handily beat Florida 67-49, UCF's first road victory against the Gators in program history. The Knights were the only team to hold Florida under 50 points all season. It was the sixth time that season UCF limited an opponent to 50 points or fewer. The Knights' run came to an end in their inaugural meeting with top-seeded Oregon in Eugene.

The 2016-17 season took UCF to New York's Madison Square Garden in Dawkins' first year at the helm of the Knights. UCF hosted its first NIT game, defeating Colorado for the program's first postseason win in an NIT or NCAA game. The Knights went on to defeat top-seeded Illinois State on the road, before coming home to the first sellout crowd at Addition Financial Arena and winning 68-58 over Illinois to earn a spot in the NIT semifinals. Under Dawkins' leadership, UCF led all NCAA Division I teams in defensive field-goal percentage, holding opponents to just 36.5 percent from the floor. The Knights were also sixth in the nation, allowing only 61.2 points per game, and gave up 45 or fewer points in four games over the course of the year. Dawkins was a finalist for both the Jim Phelan and Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year awards in his first season at UCF. Matt Williams set UCF records for three-pointers in a career, season and game, before signing a professional contract with the Miami Heat.

Notable Notes

In UCF's Dec. 11, 2021, win over North Carolina A&T, Dawkins picked up his 100th victory with the Knights, becoming the fastest coach in program history and just the third one to do so. He earned his 300th career victory in the Black and Gold's 74-63 win over No. 23 Oklahoma. Following the end of the 2023-24 season, Dawkins stands 148-103 all-time as head coach of the Knights, a winning percentage of .590, currently the second highest in program history and first during the Division I era, trailing only Torchey Clark's .755 mark.

In nine years, Dawkins has done a similarly successful job with his players in the classroom. With Dawkins at the helm, the Knights men's basketball program recorded an average semester team grade-point average over 3.0 for the first time in recorded history in 2018. Then the Knights did it again, setting a program record with an average semester GPA of 3.03 in spring 2019. Under Dawkins' watch, more than 45 nods have been earned by Knights on the AAC All-Academic team.

When Dawkins took over at UCF, the Knights had gone 12-18 the season before and hadn't finished above .500 since 2012-13. He led UCF to a 24-12 record in his first season at the helm, the sixth-best turnaround in the nation. With just seven scholarship players due to transfers and injuries, the Knights earned the fourth seed – their highest ever – in the American Athletic Conference Tournament, eventually falling to league champion SMU in the semifinals.

Stanford Stint

Stanford put together four 20-win seasons in Dawkins' tenure as head coach. He is only the second coach in Stanford history with at least four 20-win seasons. Stanford's success on the court came against some of the toughest schedules in the nation. During the 2015-16 season, the Cardinal faced the sixth-most difficult slate in the country—with a nation-leading 17 of Stanford's 30 games against RPI top-50 squads. Stanford's strength of schedule was rated in the top 50 each of his final four seasons, including two in the top 20, with an average rank of 27.75.

The Cardinal basketball program also excelled in the classroom during Dawkins' tenure, earning at least three Pac-12 All-Academic selections for five consecutive seasons and producing back-to-back Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year recipients (2014, 2015). Stanford also received annual national academic recognition, with three players earning National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Honors Court status in 2015. The Cardinal were one of 20 NCAA Division I teams to earn an NABC Team Academic Excellence Award in 2016.

In 2012, Dawkins mentored Chasson Randle to become the consummate student-athlete. Randle finished that season as Stanford's all-time leading scorer and earned the program's initial first-team Academic All-America selection since 2006. Under Dawkins, Stanford recorded back-to-back perfect Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores of 1,000 in both the 2012-13 and 2013-14 reports.

Player development was also markedly improved at Stanford under Dawkins' tutelage. Four Cardinal players were selected in the NBA Draft following their collegiate careers—including 2014 first-round pick Josh Huestis.

Learning from a Legend

The Washington, D.C., native coached for 10 years under the legendary Mike Krzyzewski at Duke. During Dawkins' decade as a coach at Duke, the Blue Devils won a national championship (2001), tallied six ACC regular-season championships, recorded seven ACC Tournament titles and posted a 330-60 (.846) record. In four consecutive seasons from 1999-2002, Duke finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in both national polls, a first in college basketball history. Duke reached a No. 1 national ranking in seven of 10 seasons with Dawkins on the coaching staff.

While at Duke, he also served as the player personnel director for the USA Basketball Senior National Team from 2006-08.

Decorated at Duke

Following a prolific high school career at Mackin Catholic High School in Washington, D.C. (McDonald's All-American and third-team Parade All-American), Dawkins made his way to Duke, where he would become one of the most decorated players to set foot in Durham, North Carolina.

He played for the Blue Devils from 1982-83 through 1985-86, earning consensus All-America honors twice (1985, 1986). Dawkins was also voted the 1986 Naismith National Player of the Year and named a Freshman All-American in 1983. During his collegiate career, he helped lead Duke to three NCAA Championship berths, including an NCAA title-game appearance in 1986. He was an All-ACC honoree all four seasons as a Blue Devil. Dawkins helped Duke win the 1986 ACC Tournament title in his senior season, claiming the MVP award in the process.

Dawkins finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer and held that honor until 2006 when J.J. Redick surpassed his mark of 2,556 points. He recorded double-figure point totals in 129 of 133 collegiate games. Dawkins led the Blue Devils in scoring all four years, recording the fourth-highest season point total in school history with 809 in 1986. Dawkins remains Duke's career record-holder in field goals (1,026) and field goals attempted (2,019) while also setting the school's single-season mark for field goals (331) during the 1986 campaign.

Dawkins was inducted into the Duke Sports Hall of Fame in September 1996. His jersey number 24 was retired by the school.
