THE OPENING TIP

After winning their fifth-straight game, a 70-52 win over rival Utah, the 9-seed Cougars are set to face the top-seeded TCU Horned Frogs in the Phillips 66 Big 12 Tournament quarterfinals.

BYU and TCU will face off for the 24th time on Friday, with the Cougars trailing 12-11 in the all-time series. However, BYU leads 2-0 in neutral-site matchups, the most recent coming on Nov. 23, 2018, in the SDSU Thanksgiving Classic. The Cougars and Horned Frogs most recently shared the hardwood on Dec. 31, 2025, in Provo as TCU beat BYU 72-48 for its first conference loss of the season. In the first meeting this season, Sydney Benally and Delaney Gibb combined for 32 of BYU's 48 points on 12-of-30 shooting (.400) as the rest of the team went a combined 6-of-30 (.200) from the floor.

BYU finished Big 12 play 9-9, the best record and conference winning percentage since 2022-23, when BYU was a member of the WCC. With the win over Utah, the Cougars have won 22+ games for the 18th time in program history, the first time since 2021-22 and just the third time in a head coach's first season. With a win against TCU, Lee Cummond would pass Courtney Leishman (22-6; 1977-78) for the second-most wins by a first-year head coach in program history and trail just his mentor and former boss Jeff Judkins (24-9; 2002-03).

ALL-BIG 12 BACKCOURT DUO

Delaney Gibb and Olivia Hamlin each received conference recognitions on Wednesday. Gibb was named to the All-Big 12 First Team, while Hamlin was named Honorable Mention All-Big and to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

DON'T BURST OUR BUBBLE YET...

With three games left in the regular season and on a two-game skid, the Cougars' NCAA Tournament at-large hopes were dwindling. Not so fast! BYU finished the regular season with three-straight wins against bubble teams to put them squarely in the mix for an at-large bid, before knocking off Houston and Utah on back-to-back days in the Big 12 Tournament.

BYU's case? The Cougars have the most quad two wins in the country win nine. They have also played five of the 12 teams ranked immediately ahead of them in the latest ESPN Bracketology. What's their record? BYU holds an 8-1 head-to-head record against Utah (3-0), Arizona St. (2-0), Iowa St. (1-0), Virginia Tech (1-0; w/out Delaney Gibb), and Colorado (1-1). The Cougars also knocked off No. 19 Texas Tech, just the Lady Raiders' second loss of the season. BYU is on a current 5-game winning streak, with wins at Utah, at Arizona St., against Colorado and vs. Houston and Utah in the Big 12 Tournament.

70...IT'S THE MAGIC NUMBER

When the Cougars eclipse 70 points on offense, the Cougars are 17-3 on the season with their only losses coming to No. 17 Vanderbilt (without Delaney Gibb), at Arizona and No. 22 West Virginia. Cummond's squad also prides itself on its ability to defend. BYU has held 23 of 32 opponents under the 70-point threshold and is 21-2 in such games, with their only losses to No. 18 Baylor and at Oklahoma State. BYU's only win when allowing 70+ points came at Utah (86-74). The Cougs have kept 10 of their foes under 60 points this season, and are 24-2 over the past three seasons when doing so.

Utah scored just 52 points against the Cougars on Thursday, the fewest points given up by BYU since holding UCF to 50 points on Dec. 20, in the opening game of Big 12 play.

CONFERENCE-TOURNAMENT COMEBACK KIDS

The Cougars trailed at the half in 10 Big 12 games with a 3-7 record. However, BYU has overcome four halftime deficits since the beginning of Big 12 play, all coming against Arizona State and Utah. The Cougars climbed out of a six-point hole against Arizona State on Jan. 3, outscoring ASU 17-8 in the third quarter, followed by a 26-20 fourth quarter to hand the Sun Devils their first loss of the season.

BYU then erased a 10-point halftime lead against Utah, shooting 55.6 percent after halftime to outscore the Utes 52-30 and win 77-65. Last week, BYU trailed at ASU by one after the first and by 13 at halftime before flipping the script in the second half. The Cougars bested the Sun Devils 28-11 in the third quarter to take a six-point lead into the fourth. BYU then held on for a 66-61 win with a 20-19 fourth quarter.

Yesterday, BYU trailed by nine at halftime before holding the Utes to just 16 second-half points. The Cougars outscored Utah 43-16 en route to their 18-point win to complete the 3-0 series sweep of their arch-rival.

GERMAN ENGINEERED EXCELLENCE

Lara Rohkohl averages 10 points on 71.3 percent shooting, 7.1 rebounds, 1.8 blocks and 1.1 steals per contest in BYU wins. Rohkohl shoots 64.5 percent from the floor, which is the fourth-highest single-season percentage in BYU history (p. 35) and ranks in the 99th percentile nationally for the 2025-26 season. In the last two games, Rohkohl has scored 27 points on 9-of-13 from the floor (.692), a team-high 16 rebounds, four assists, two blocks and a steal. BYU is 13-0 when she scores 10+ points and 14-3 when she leads BYU in blocks.

PERPETUAL PERIMETER PRECISION

BYU holds the second-longest active and the third-longest all-time streak of games with a made 3-point field goal in NCAA women's basketball. With a make against Utah, BYU will have made at least one triple in 827-straight games. The streak began on March 2, 2000, in an 86-69 win over Air Force. Chattanoogaoga holds the longest active streak of 835 consecutive games with a triple.

IT'S DELANEY'S WORLD AND WE'RE JUST LIVING IN IT

Delaney Gibb has scored 20 or more points in four of her last six games, leading to All-Big 12 First Team honors and a spot on the USBWA Ann Meyers Drysdale Shooting Guard of the Year Midseason Top-10 list. During the Cougars five game winning streak, Gibb is averaging 24.2 points, 5.8 assists, 5.6 rebounds, 2.0 steals, 1.2 blocks and 3.2 made triples per game in 37.7

minutes of play. It also includes her 37-point outing at Utah in which she knocked down 5-of-8 attempts from deep in the 86-74 win over the Utes. The sophomore also contributed five assists, five rebounds, two steals, two blocks and scored 18 fourth-quarter points in the career day in Salt Lake City.

Students and student-athletes come from all over the world to study and compete at Brigham Young University. Nearly 150 years after its humble beginnings, this church-sponsored institution has become one of the largest private universities in the United States. Nestled at the foot of the towering Wasatch Mountains in Provo, Utah, BYU's 738-acre campus is home to more than 35,000 students who come from 105 countries and every state in the United States. Amidst BYU's growth, there has remained a constant thread. Dedicated faculty, administrators, coaches and students embrace a vision of learning, in which academics and faith go hand in hand and the ultimate goal is to help students develop their full divine potential as children of God.

The mission of BYU Athletics is to, "Build a distinctive, exceptional athletic program that prominently promotes the values of Brigham Young University and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by developing successful, faith-based, influential scholar-athlete leaders who are ambassadors for good. BYU Athletics' Vision Statement is to, "...inspire others through competitive excellence while striving to live the values taught by Jesus Christ."

WHAT IS A MISSION? AND WHY SERVE?

Missionary service has been a staple within BYU Athletics since its inception. More than half of all BYU students serve missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. While Church members understand what a mission entails, the details of missionary service can be foreign to those not of the faith. This page is to help our Big 12 friends, media members and others understand more about missionary service.

WHAT IS A MISSION?

The Church's missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of major cities as well as in smaller communities around the world. Both men and women can choose to serve missions that are voluntary and self-funded. Female missionaries serve for a period of 18 months. BYU student-athletes who chose to serve missions do so out of a love for Jesus Christ and a desire to serve others.

Female student-athletes are eligible to serve missions after their 19th birthday, and often take a break from studying and competing at BYU to participate in missionary service. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent to countries throughout the world where governments allow the Church to operate.

Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language. Due in part to the many international missionary service experiences among BYU students, more than 60 percent of the student body speaks a second language.

HOW TO TALK ABOUT MISSIONS

We request that those referring to missions do not refer to missions as "mission trips," "Mormon missions" or "LDS missions"

We request that those referring to missions use terms such as "serving a mission," "full-time mission," "18-month mission," "missionary service," "Latter-day Saint mission," or "a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints" For more information, check out The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints' style guide.

WHY SERVE A MISSION?

Ultimately, missionary work is about serving God, His children and dedicating one's life to that service. Missionaries often talk about serving a mission as a small way to show appreciation to God for all that He has given them in their lives. As missionaries learn, work and serve, they also gain essential life skills in areas of study, planning, logistics, interpersonal communication, relationship building, cross-cultural competence, patience, resilience and time management. A mission can serve as an important foundation for the rest of one's life, ultimately benefiting those who serve in their future education, family life, work life and Church service.

DAY-TO-DAY LIFE AS A MISSIONARY

The overarching purpose of missionary service is to invite individuals to learn about and follow the teachings Jesus Christ. Missionaries wake up at 6:30 a.m. and spend time each morning exercising and doing religious study. They then spend the day talking to people, visiting in their homes and providing service from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Missionaries look for ways to serve and help others. Missionaries hold the title of "Elder" or "Sister" and are referred to as such, with their last names (Sister Woolston or Sister Bartholomew). Each missionary serves in a companionship with one or two other missionaries. The companionships are assigned to specific geographic areas with assignments changing at different times throughout their mission. Missionaries have a weekly preparation day to grocery shop, do laundry and complete other necessities of life. Outside of the occasional game of non-competitive basketball, missionaries have little to no sport-specific training while serving their missions.

CURRENT COUGS ON MISSIONS

Sarah Bartholomew is the Cougars' lone missionary currently serving, but both Kailey Woolston and McKinley Willardson, who suited up in 2023-24, both returned from their respective missions in December 2025.

In the midst of a record-setting freshman campaign, Kailey Woolston announced to her teammates on Feb. 27, 2024 that she would be putting basketball on hold to serve an 18-month mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. For the last 18 months, the second-ranked three-point shooter in 2023-24 spent her time inviting individuals to learn about and follow Jesus Christ before returning to BYU.

Sister Woolston said, "When I think about all the Lord has done for me, giving a year and a half of my time completely to Him is the least I can do. I can never come close to repaying all He has done for me, but this is one small way I can show my gratitude...It is the best experience of my life! I have never felt so much joy and fulfillment than the time that I have had on my mission. The changes I am able to see in people's lives when they feel the hope that Christ brings is priceless. I wouldn't trade it for the world."

Sarah Bartholomew, who redshirted during her freshman season in 2024-25, is currently serving as a missionary in the Brisbane Australia Mission.

Sister Bartholomew said, "'I decided to serve a mission because I know it is what God needed me to do. Now, just four months later, I have gained a greater appreciation for my family, my faith, and my relationship with God. I know this gospel of Jesus Christ is true and I have seen it soften hearts and transform lives! While the work is hard, it is so worth it. At the start, I didn't understand why God needed me, but I am realizing it was because I needed Him."

LEE CUMMARD

HEAD COACH || 1ST SEASON AT BYU || BYU '09

BYU director of athletics Tom Holmoe has named Lee Cumnard head women's basketball coach.

Cummard has been the interim head coach since the departure of Amber Whiting on March 8. He served as associate head coach under Whiting and has been an assistant on the staff since 2019. Previous to that, Cummard was an assistant coach and graduate assistant on the men's basketball team, following a standout playing career with the Cougars.

"Lee has been an important part of our BYU Athletics family for many years," Holmoe said. "His time as a star player on the men's team, and a member of both the men's and women's basketball coaching staffs, gives him valuable experience and connection in this important position. He has displayed a loyal commitment to BYU and understands the valuable mission of our university. He will be able to retain key players and recruit those that will fit, excel and align at BYU."

Cummard, a native of Mesa, Arizona, takes the reigns as the Cougars' eighth head coach in program history.

"I am extremely grateful and honored to be given the opportunity to serve as the head coach of BYU women's basketball," Cummard said. "BYU is a special place that changes lives, and I am grateful for the impact it has had on my life. This program has a tremendous history of winning and doing things the right way, with great people. I am committed to continuing that tradition, and I look forward to helping our current and future student-athletes excel both on and off the basketball court."

While on staff as associate head coach from 2022-25, Cummard helped the Cougars to back-to-back postseason appearances, the WBIT in 2024 and the WNIT in 2023. The coaching staff helped develop the 2025 Big 12 Freshman of the Year, Delaney Gibb as well as BYU's all-time leading rebounder and 2023 WCC Defensive Player of the Year, Lauren Gustin.

During this time, four players earned All-Conference honors with Gustin (2023 - WCC, 2024 - Big 12) and Nani Falatea (2023 - WCC) earning First Team Honors, Gibb (2025 - Big 12) selected to the second team and Kailey Woolston (2024 - Big 12) being named honorable mention.

Prior to serving on Whiting's staff, Cummard spent the 2019 through 2022 seasons as an assistant to Jeff Judkins. Cummard helped the Cougars to two NCAA Tournament appearances (2021 and 2022), reaching the Round of 32 in the 2021 Tournament before falling to Final Four-bound Arizona.

With the assistance of Cummard, the Cougars took home the 2022 WCC regular season title with a program-best 25 wins and went undefeated at the Marriott Center (14-0) including five ranked victories. In 2022, BYU finished with a No. 20 final ranking, spent a program-record 16 weeks in the AP Top 25 poll and set an attendance record for regular-season average and single-game attendance with 6,289 fans cheering the Cougars on to a 63-39 victory over Gonzaga.

Due to COVID-19 sidelining Judkins for a stint during the 2021-22 season, Cummard assumed the role of acting head coach for a three-game stretch. While fulfilling head coaching responsibilities, Cummard went 3-0, including a win over in-state rival Utah State and two ranked wins over No. 17 Florida State and No. 22 West Virginia to win the St. Pete Showcase.

Cummard also helped five players garner 12 All-Conference honors between 2019-22, including two-time WCC Player of the Year Shaylee Gonzales, WCC Defensive Player of the Year Sara Hamson and three-time First Team All-WCC honorees Paisley Johnson Harding and Brenna Chase Drollinger.

Before coaching the women, Cummard spent three seasons on staff with the BYU men's basketball team, one year as an assistant (2018-19) and two as a graduate assistant (2016-18) under head coach Dave Rose. While serving on the men's staff, Cummard helped the Cougars to three consecutive 20-win seasons and two trips to the NIT. Those teams saw four players earn a combined seven all-conference honors.

Cummard suited up for the Cougars from 2005 to 2009, when he earned All-American status as a junior and senior. The 6-foot-7 guard was named an AP All-American Honorable Mention in 2008 and was named a Fourth Team All-American by FOXSports.com in 2009. Cummard was named the 2008 Mountain West Conference Player of the Year and was a three-time All-MWC honoree, earning third-team honors as a sophomore in 2006-07 and receiving first-team nods in his final two years with the Cougars in 2007-08 and 2008-09.

At the close of his four-year BYU career, Cummard ranked in the top 20 of 28 statistical categories. He ranks second in effective field goal percentage (.608), third in consecutive games played (131), fifth in 3-point field goal percentage (.431) and free throw percentage (.842). He also sits sixth in consecutive games started (102), 10th in offensive rebounds (202), blocks (106), total victories (97) and 5-steal games, 12th in games played (131), games started (116) and 3-block games. The new head coach also ranks 13th in made threes (153), steals (129), minutes played (3,602), points per field goal attempt (1.4957), 14th in blocks per game (.809), 15th in made field goals (561), double-figure scoring games (77), 16th in points (1,569), 17th in field goal percentage (.5348) and 20th in rebounds (686).

Following his playing career at BYU, Cummard played professionally from 2009-16 in France (2009-11), Japan (2011-12) and Belgium (2012-16).

He served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Tennessee. Cummard and his wife Sarah have three sons.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT COACH CUMMARD...

JIMMER FREDETTE || 2011 NCAA CONSENSUS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

"It was such a great time to have Lee as a teammate. Lee is a great person and a great basketball mind, one of the smartest players that I played with. He is also super competitive and did anything it took to help the team win and I know that will translate to the way he will coach his players at BYU."

AUSTIN AINGE || UTAH JAZZ PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

"Lee has an amazing basketball mind. He has always seen the game at an extremely high level. Combine that with his toughness and competitiveness you have a stud of a head coach."

DAVE RICE || FORMER BYU ASSISTANT & SALT LAKE C.C. HEAD COACH

"Coach Rose and our staff were so grateful for all Lee did to help us build our culture and put our program on the national map. There were other players who received more notoriety than Lee, but no one on a daily basis brought more leadership, toughness and commitment to team. Let me be clear, Lee was a great player, good enough to be the conference player of the year and yet, he didn't care about those awards. All Lee cared about was winning and making our team better. I know he will impart those same values and lessons to his coaching staff and players which will make him a great head coach."
