ON THE PITCH

Arizona opens Big 12 Conference play Friday at Murphey Field at Mulcahy Stadium, welcoming No. 23 BYU to Tucson. The Wildcats enter conference play with a 3-4-1 record after closing their nonconference slate Sunday at Pepperdine. Arizona fell 2-0 to the Waves despite increasing its attacking pressure after halftime. After being limited to two shots in the opening 45 minutes, Arizona generated six second-half attempts and earned six corner kicks after the break. The Wildcats finished with a 10-4 advantage in corners and 51% of possession. Laurynn Ziller kept Pepperdine scoreless over the final 45 minutes, making two saves as Arizona pushed for a second-half response. No. 23 BYU enters Friday coming off a 4-0 loss to Utah State.

BIG 12 BEGINS

Arizona turns its attention to conference play Friday after completing its eight-match nonconference slate. The Wildcats will begin their third season as a member of the Big 12 at home, where Arizona has earned two shutout victories this season. Friday also marks Arizona's second matchup against a nationally ranked opponent this season after hosting then-No. 9 North Carolina on Sept. 3.

SERIES HISTORY

BYU holds a 7-2 advantage in the all-time series against Arizona, with both Wildcat victories coming in Tucson. Arizona is 2-2 against BYU at home and will look to repeat its result from the Cougars' last trip to Mulcahy. The Wildcats earned a 2-1 victory over BYU in 2024. The programs last met in 2025, with BYU earning a 3-2 victory over Arizona.

LAST TIME IN TUCSON

Arizona earned a 2-1 victory over BYU the last time the Cougars visited Mulcahy in 2024. The victory accounts for one of Arizona's two all-time wins over BYU, with the Wildcats holding a 2-2 record against the Cougars at home.

LAST MEETING

Arizona and BYU last met during the 2025 season in Provo, with the Cougars earning a 3-2 victory. Jessica Bedolla and Lily Boydston each scored for the Wildcats in the loss, with Boydston also recording an assist. Bedolla, Boydstun, Zoe Mendiola, Trinity Dorsey and Marissa Arnst each started the match.

SECOND-HALF RESPONSE

Arizona increased its attacking pressure after halftime against Pepperdine, generating six of its eight shots over the final 45 minutes. The Wildcats earned six second-half corner kicks while limiting the Waves to five shots and keeping Pepperdine off the scoreboard after the break. Emerson Stoft, Aranda Hurge and Mireya Stephenson each put an attempt on frame as Arizona searched for a breakthrough. Arizona finished the match with a 10-4 advantage in corner kicks and held 51% of possession.

ZILLER SHUTS THE DOOR

Laurynn Ziller has provided a consistent presence in goal during the second half for Arizona. Ziller played the final 45 minutes against Pepperdine and made two saves while holding the Waves scoreless after halftime. The performance marked Ziller's fifth consecutive scoreless second-half appearance, following shutout halves against Gonzaga, LSU, Dartmouth and Northern Arizona. The stretch includes two penalty-kick saves. Ziller denied Gonzaga from the spot to protect Arizona's 2-1 comeback victory before stopping another penalty against Northern Arizona to help complete the Wildcats' 3-0 shutout.

THREE FOR CATS

Arizona recorded its highest-scoring performance of the season in its most recent match at Mulcahy, earning a 3-0 victory over Northern Arizona.

Three different Wildcats found the back of the net. Ella Weathersby opened the scoring in the 12th minute with her first goal of the season and second of her career before Kyleigh Johnson doubled the advantage just before halftime. Allyson Brown added Arizona's third in the 73rd minute for the first goal of her collegiate career. The Wildcats generated a season-high 19 shots and put eight attempts on goal in the victory.

KJ MAKING AN IMPACT

Kyleigh Johnson enters Big 12 play tied for the team lead with two goals after emerging as one of Arizona's offensive contributors during the nonconference slate.

Johnson recorded the first goal of her collegiate career to equalize against LSU before turning in a career-high three-point performance against Northern Arizona. She scored her second goal of the season just before halftime against the Lumberjacks before assisting Allyson Brown's second-half goal. Johnson enters conference action with two goals and an assist.

SHARING THE WEALTH

Arizona received contributions throughout its lineup during nonconference play.

Six Wildcats found the back of the net over the opening eight matches. Jessica Bedolla, Mireya Stephenson and Kyleigh Johnson each scored twice, while Lainey Swanson, Ella Weathersby and Allyson Brown each added a goal. Eight Wildcats have recorded assists. Bedolla, Ashley May, Whitney Reinhardt, Lily Boydstun, Brown, Swanson, Johnson and Emerson Stoft have each helped set up an Arizona goal. Arizona's nine goals have come from six different goal scorers.

BEDOLLA DOING BOTH

Jessica Bedolla enters Big 12 play tied for the team lead with two goals.

Bedolla scored in Arizona's home-opening victory over New Mexico State before finding the back of the net against No. 9 North Carolina. She added her first assist of the season on Ella Weathersby's opening goal in the Wildcats' 3-0 victory over Northern Arizona.

The junior also has previous success against Friday's opponent, scoring in Arizona's 2-1 home victory over BYU in 2024.

NEWCOMERS MAKING AN IMPACT

Arizona's newcomers made an immediate impact throughout the nonconference slate.

Lainey Swanson enters Big 12 play with a goal and an assist, while freshman Ashley May appeared in each of Arizona's eight nonconference matches and recorded her first collegiate assist against New Mexico State. Ally Brown recorded her first assist as a Wildcat against LSU before scoring the first goal of her collegiate career against Northern Arizona. Brown enters conference play with a goal and an assist.

RECORD NIGHT AT MULCAHY

Arizona returns to Mulcahy for the first time since its 3-0 shutout victory over Northern Arizona.

The Wildcats are 2-2 at home this season, earning shutout victories over New Mexico State and Northern Arizona. Arizona has also seen strong support in Tucson this season, highlighted by a program-record crowd of 1,753 against then-No. 9 North Carolina. The Wildcats also welcomed 1,126 fans for their home-opening victory over New Mexico State. Friday's matchup marks Arizona's second home contest against a nationally ranked opponent this season.

LEADING THE WAY

Captains Marissa Arnst, Trinity Dorsey and Ella Weathersby continue to lead Arizona's experienced core in 2026. Arnst and Dorsey have started each of Arizona's first seven matches, while Weathersby recorded the first goal of her collegiate career in Thursday's victory over Northern Arizona.

All three also have previous experience against Pepperdine, with Arnst and Dorsey starting against the Waves last season. Arnst put both of her shots on goal in the matchup.

MOROS
HEAD COACH
SIXTH YEAR
DUKE UNIVERSITY '06

Becca Moros was named Arizona Soccer's head coach on June 16, 2021. Moros enters her sixth season at the helm of the Wildcats in 2026 and Arizona's third season as a member of the Big 12 Conference.

In 2025, Arizona scored 22 goals, led by Aurora Gaines and Jessica Bedolla with four apiece. The Wildcats opened the season with three consecutive victories over UNLV, UC Irvine and New Mexico State and earned Big 12 wins over UCF and Oklahoma State, while recording a scoreless draw against Arizona State.

Since taking over the program, Moros has guided Arizona through its transition from the Pac-12 to the Big 12 while developing conference award winners, professional draft selections and several of the top performers in program history.

In Arizona's inaugural Big 12 season in 2024, the Wildcats advanced to the first round of the Big 12 Championship and earned six conference victories, including wins over Baylor, Cincinnati, BYU, UCF, Kansas State and Arizona State. Nicole Dallin and Gianna Christensen led the attack with eight goals apiece as Arizona scored 32 goals on the season. Dallin earned Preseason All-Big 12 honors as well as TopDrawerSoccer and Big 12 weekly recognition, while Christensen and Narissa Fults also collected conference weekly honors.

The Wildcats scored 25 goals in 2023 behind nine from

Dallin, the fourth-most in the Pac-12 that season. Arizona earned conference victories over Oregon, Utah and Arizona State and battled No. 11 USC to a 1-1 draw. Goalkeeper Hope Hisey concluded her Arizona career as the program's all-time leader with 366 saves and was named the 2023 Pac-12 Women's Soccer Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Hisey was later selected by the Kansas City Current with the 46th pick of the NWSL Draft, becoming the second Wildcat drafted during Moros' tenure.

Moros guided Arizona to an 8-7-3 record in 2022, including five conference victories and a sixth-place Pac-12 finish after the Wildcats were picked last in the preseason conference poll. Arizona opened the season with victories over Iowa State and Texas Tech, marking the first time in program history the Wildcats began a season with consecutive wins over Power Five opponents. The Wildcats also showed significant defensive improvement, allowing 15 fewer goals than the previous season. Following the year, Iliana Hocking became Arizona's first NWSL Draft selection when NJ/NY Gotham FC selected her with the 44th overall pick.

During Moros' first season in Tucson, she helped mentor Jill Aguilera as she became Arizona's all-time leader in career goals. The Wildcats closed the season with a 2-1 victory over Arizona State, extending the program's winning streak over the Sun Devils to seven matches.

Before arriving in Tucson, Moros served as an assistant coach with Gotham FC. She helped the club win the East Division during the 2021 NWSL Challenge Cup and served as acting head coach for the final group-stage match. Gotham ultimately finished as Challenge Cup runner-up following a penalty shootout.

A standout at Duke, Moros earned All-America honors and was a three-time All-ACC selection. She appeared in 86 matches during her collegiate career, recording 15 goals and 20 assists, with her 20 assists tied for fifth-most in Duke history at the conclusion of her career. Moros also competed with the U.S. U21 National Team in 2006 and served as a team captain during her senior season.

Moros was selected by the Washington Freedom in the sixth round with the 36th overall pick of the 2009 Women's Professional Soccer Draft. Her professional career spanned more than a decade, including three seasons in Women's

Steve VOLTZ

ASSISTANT COACH

CHRISTOPHER NEWPORT '14

Steve Voltz joins the Arizona Soccer staff in 2026, bringing more than two decades of collegiate coaching experience across the men's and women's game. Most recently, he spent five seasons as head coach at Louisiana Tech, leading the Bulldogs to consecutive Conference USA Tournament appearances and a Conference USA semifinal berth in 2023.

Prior to Louisiana Tech, Voltz spent eight seasons at Millsaps College, including six years as head coach of the men's program. He guided the Majors to two Southern Athletic Association regular-season championships, a conference tournament title, and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in program history.

Throughout his coaching career, Voltz has held positions at Tusculum, Huntingdon College, and Slippery Rock, helping develop numerous all-conference, all-region, and All-America student-athletes. He also brings extensive recruiting and player development experience through his work with the Mississippi, Tennessee, and Alabama Olympic Development Programs.

A native of Offenbach, Germany, Voltz earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Florida and holds multiple coaching certifications through United Soccer Coaches and the United States Soccer Federation.

Nils ROTH

ASSISTANT COACH

INCARNATE WORD '22

Nils Roth joined the Arizona Soccer staff in January 2026 as an assistant/goalkeeper coach after serving as the associate head/goalkeeper coach at his alma mater, Pima College, for three years. During his time at Pima, the Aztecs posted a 51-9-1 record, won the ACCAC Region I Championship, and were named the 2024 United Soccer Coaches West Region Staff of the Year.

Roth helped guide Pima College to an 18-4 record during the 2025 season and a 20-11 mark in 2024. Both seasons ended in the NJCAA National Semifinals against the eventual national champion. During his tenure, he helped develop seven NJCAA All-Americans, including 2024 Defensive Player of the Year D'Andre Pickett.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Roth joined the coaching staff of FC Tucson in February 2025 as goalkeeper coach for the first team during its USL League Two campaign. He also spent time as a player with FC Tucson, competing for the club in 2023 and 2024.

Roth graduated from the University of the Incarnate Word in 2022 with a degree in business economics. He later earned his Master of Business Administration from Colorado State University Pueblo.

As a player, Roth competed collegiately at Pima College, Incarnate Word, and Colorado State University Pueblo. He was the starting goalkeeper for Pima's 2018 NJCAA Division I National Championship team and earned First Team United Soccer Coaches All-American honors that season. In 2019, he was named Second Team United Soccer Coaches All-Region.

Following two seasons competing in the NCAA Division I Western Athletic Conference at Incarnate Word, Roth transferred to CSU Pueblo as a graduate student, where he helped lead the program to the NCAA Division II National Championship game.

Nat GONZALEZ

ASSISTANT COACH

THIRD YEAR

UCLA '91

Nat Gonzalez joined the Arizona Soccer staff in July 2024 as an assistant coach after spending 11 seasons as the head coach at UC Riverside.

At UC Riverside, Gonzalez coached student-athletes to seven First Team All-Big West selections and eight NSCAA All-Region selections and took the program to three Big West Tournament Semifinals. In total, he guided players to 30 All-Big West selections and four All-Freshman Team honors.

In 2021, Gonzalez was appointed head coach of the Puerto Rican Women's National Team, leading the squad at the CONCACAF W Qualifiers. During his time at the helm of the Puerto Rican national program, he has coached former Wildcat Jill Aguilera.

He led UCR to the three-seed spot in the Big West conference tournament in 2017, after finishing the season tied for second in the league.

Gonzalez's 2014 squad recorded the program's first winning season since 2006, finishing 8-7-3. Under his leadership, Tyler Cunningham broke the single-season assist mark (10), and she and Amber Marani became the first Highlanders to be named to the NSCAA Division I Women All-West Region Team since 2004, both tabbing Second Team spots.

In 2013 Gonzalez was named Big West Coach of the Year as UC Riverside exceeded expectations, finishing third in the Big West during the regular season and defeating UC Irvine in the conference semifinals.

Gonzalez began his second stint with UCR in 2011 as the goalkeeper coach for the men's program. The 2011 squad won a program-record nine matches, including three against nationally-ranked opponents. The Highlanders advanced to their first Big West Tournament before falling to nationally-ranked UC Irvine in the semifinals.

In 2010, Gonzalez was an assistant coach for the women's team at UCLA. He also spent time as an assistant coach with the US Women's National Team U18 and U20 squads while serving as the director of goalkeeping for Legends FC and the technical director at the Temecula Valley Soccer Academy.

His first stint with the Highlanders was just over a decade earlier when he was named the first Division I head coach of the men's soccer team, leading that squad for the first three years of its existence. UC Riverside's program improved each season under his leadership, winning a school-record seven matches in the 2003 season. He became the associate head coach at USC for the women's team in 2005.

Gonzalez became the associate head coach for the women's program at San Diego State in 2007. The Aztecs won the 2009 MWC Tournament Championship and made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 11 years before advancing to the second round.

Prior to joining the Highlanders in 2000, Gonzalez had assistant coaching stops at Cal Poly Pomona and the University of Washington.

Gonzalez, who was a four-year letterwinner at UCLA from 1988-91, won a national championship with the Bruins in 1990 and graduated with a degree in psychology. He served as the women's team's goalkeeping coach from 1994-95.

After finishing his college eligibility he played professionally for six seasons, finishing his career in 1997 with the Seattle SeaDogs of the Continental Indoor Soccer League (CISL).

Gonzalez received his master's degree in exercise science in 2011 from California University of Pennsylvania.
