Head Coach: Kalani Sitake (BYU, 2000)
Record at BYU: 86-45
Career Record: Same

NOTING THE RAMS

- Colorado State improved to 2-0 on the year for the first time since 2011 with a 58-44 win over Southern Utah.
- CSU's offense set the tone early scoring a pair of touchdowns in the first 99 seconds. The Rams finished the day with the fourth most yards in program history (678).
- Colorado State scored 48 points in the first half, the second most ever in any half of CSU football history; one shy of the record 49 against UTEP in 1984. The Rams' 31 second quarter points were the third most in program history.
- Quarterback Hauss Hejny accounted for five touchdowns for the second straight game, passing for four and rushing for another.
- Hejny ended the day with 410 total offensive yards, 325 through the air and 85 on the ground. Seventy-five of his 85 rushing yards came on a touchdown run to cap off his night.
- The gunslinger is ranked second in the nation with nine touchdown passes over the first two weeks and has thrown just one interception.
- CSU had a 100 yard rusher and 100 yard receiver for the first time since 2024 with Mel Brown's 171 on the ground and Jackson Harper's 102 receiving.
- Brown had a pair of runs over 70 yards. His longest of 80 yards was the longest in program history without scoring and tied for the 6th longest overall in program history. His other run was a 73-yard touchdown run, one of his two scores in the game.
- Colorado State forced four turnovers by an opponent for the second straight game with a pair of interceptions and fumbles against SUU. It's the first time since weeks five and six of the 2023 season CSU had forced four or more turnovers in back-to-back games.
- The Rams +3.5 turnover margin is second in the nation only trailing New Mexico.

NOTING THE GAME

- Saturday's game is the first time CSU and BYU have faced each other since the Cougars left the Mountain West in 2010.
- BYU leads the all-time series 39-27-3. The Cougars have won seven straight in the series.
- Colorado State's last win came in 2003 in Provo and last win in Fort Collins was 2002.
- Coming in ranked No. 11 in the AP Poll, BYU will be the highest rated team to ever play at Canvas Stadium, and highest-rated to visit Fort Collins since No. 5/6 Boise State in 2011.
- Colorado State has dropped 27 straight to ranked teams. The last win coming against No. 7/6 Colorado in 2002.
- The program's last win over a ranked team in Fort Collins came in 1993 against No. -/23 Fresno State. The Rams have only beaten two ranked teams in Fort Collins since 1993.

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, submit a request at CSURams.com/FootballCredentials. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved. Credentials are issued to the individual

MEDIA/SCOUTS WILL CALL AND PARKING: Due to ease of pick up outside Canvas Stadium, credentials will NOT be mailed. Credential pick up is available at the northwest corner of Canvas Stadium at a ticket office window and begins two hours prior to kick off.

Parking passes will also be delivered digitally to media and scouts to the phone number listed on the credential application. Parking passes will be sent during game week.

MEDIA/STAFF ELEVATOR: An elevator is available for use throughout the game to allow media to travel between the field level, first floor, and sixth floor press box. However, this elevator is also used by food and beverage staff. The elevator may also be held for coaches of either team in the final minutes of each half, and media members are encouraged to use the stairwell if they are physically able to do so.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Jim Mora and select players will be available to the media. Post-game video is available by request.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the Communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of Colorado State Athletics.

SIDELINE AREAS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Colorado State's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Each Monday during the season, with the exception of bye weeks, head coach Jim Mora holds his weekly press conference beginning at 11:30 a.m. Video will be available of the full availability courtesy of Colorado State Athletics.

PRACTICES: During the regular season, practices are closed completely. Media availability will happen right after practice concludes, roughly 10:30 a.m. Players and assistant coaches are available to the media on Tuesdays; head coach Mora will speak to the media following Wednesday's practice. Media members should submit interview requests for student-athletes by Sunday at noon. Please let Jeff Schmidt or Ryan Pfeifer know in advance if you plan to attend.

Graduate Assistant

Jim Mora was hired Dec. 1, 2025, as the 25th head football coach at Colorado State, bringing an accomplished résumé spanning the NFL and college football. A proven program builder, Mora has recorded 105 career wins and guided teams to postseason appearances at each of his three college head-coaching stops.

Mora most recently led UConn to bowl berths in three of his four seasons, including the program's first back-to-back nine-win seasons in 2024 and 2025. He was a finalist for the 2025 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and was named the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston's 2024 Coach of the Year. Under Mora, UConn produced its first FBS-era All-Americans in 2023, when guard Christian Haynes earned honors from the Associated Press and The Sporting News. Haynes became the first NFL Draft selection from Mora's UConn teams when Seattle selected him in the third round in 2024.

Mora spent six seasons at UCLA from 2012-17, compiling a 46-30 record and leading the Bruins to the 2012 Pac-12 South championship, the 2013 Sun Bowl and the 2014 Alamo Bowl. UCLA climbed as high as No. 7 nationally during the 2014 and 2015 seasons, while Mora's teams produced top-20 recruiting classes in each season. Thirty Bruins were selected in the NFL Draft during his tenure, including at least one first-round selection in five of six years, highlighting his success developing players for the next level.

Mora also spent four seasons as an NFL head coach with Atlanta and Seattle, compiling a 32-34 record. In his first season with the Falcons in 2004, he led Atlanta to an 11-5 record, the NFC South title and the NFC Championship Game—the second such appearance in franchise history. He was named NFC Coach of the Year. In 25 years as an NFL head coach and assistant, Mora coached 17 Pro Bowl players.

A 1983 graduate of Washington, Mora played defensive back for the Huskies from 1980-83 and was part of two Rose Bowl teams, including Washington's 1982 victory over Iowa. He began his coaching career as a Washington graduate assistant in 1984 and helped the Huskies to the 1985 Orange Bowl championship over Oklahoma. During his five seasons at Washington, the Huskies compiled a 48-12 record.

14-YARD LINE TRIBUTE

The 14-yard line marks on Sonny Lubick Field at Canvas Stadium are highlighted in Pumpkin (Orange) in honor of Lt. Col. John Mosley, whose No. 14 was retired in 2024 across all sports at Colorado State.

Lt. Col. Mosley came to Colorado State as a National Merit Scholar from Denver's Manual High School in the fall of 1939. He tried out and made the football team as a freshman, becoming the first African American football player at Colorado State since 1906. Lt. Col. Mosley also decided to wrestle for coach Hans Wagner, becoming the second African American wrestler in school and state history, and went on to earn all-conference honors in wrestling. He was a three-year letterwinner in football, becoming the first African American letterwinner in CSU football history.

Following graduation, Lt. Col. Mosley set his sights on flying and trained to be a pilot so he could fly for the Army Air Corps. He enrolled in the Tuskegee Flight training center and became one of the first African American bomber pilots in US history. Lt. Col. Mosley served in the Korean and Vietnam Wars, retiring as a Lt. Col. in the United States Air Force. Post-retirement, he became a spokesperson for black athletes and the Tuskegee Airmen, the first few African American pilots during WWII.

LOT OF NEW IN 2026

Head football coach Jim Mora isn't the only change around Colorado State and the program as 2026 will highlight a series of makeovers across campus and the department.

Coaches: Jim Mora didn't waste any time brining in his own staff as 20 new coaches came to Colorado State. Mora kept just four coaches from the 2025 staff -- Tyson Summers (DC), Matty Ah You (Nickels), Brayden Herdic (Safties) and Trent Matthews (Cornerbacks).

Roster: With 112 total players on the 2026 roster, just 38 of them were in Fort Collins last year. With Coach Mora coming from UConn, he brought with 17 players who were on roster in Storrs a season ago. In total, the Rams have 74 new players on the roster with 38 coming from newcomers via the transfer portal or JUCO signee.

Conference: On July 1, Colorado State became a member of the rebuilt Pac-12 joining holdovers Oregon State and Washington State, while Boise State, Fresno State, San Diego State and Utah State join Colorado State from the Mountain West. Texas State rounded out the eight members coming from the American.

Apparel: Not long after the official move to the Pac-12, Colorado State announced a multiyear deal with adidas to be the official outfitter at Colorado State.

Playing-surface upgrades: CSU replaced the turf at Canvas Stadium, the football practice fields and inside the Indoor Practice Facility, each upgraded to the FieldTurf Vertex CORE system. Additionally, the floor at Moby Arena was fully replaced down to the base for the first time in 25 years.

NFL COACHES BACK IN COLLEGE

Head Coach Jim Mora is joined by five former NFL head coaches who are guiding college programs in 2026. In total, there has been 33 NFL head coaches who have led college programs.

WELCOME TO FORT COLLINS, NEWBIES.

It's a new era in Fort Collins and Head Coach Jim Mora company got that process started right away via the transfer portal, walk-on program, and first-year signees. In all, the Rams have 74 new players who were not a part of the 2025 roster, including 17 who followed Mora and many of his coaches from UConn. All totaled, 43 of those newcomers joined the program via the transfer portal or were a JUCO signee.

ROSTER BY THE NUMBERS

Jaseim Mitchell and Mukendi Wa-Kalonji have been Rams their whole collegiate career. Arriving on campus for the 2021 season, they've seen a lot of change in their time wearing the Green and Gold; Athletic Director changes, three different head football coaches, a bowl season, a two-win season -- they've stayed loyal to being a Ram.

Colorado State has 10 players on the roster that have been in Fort Collins longer than the rest of their teammates. Ryan McConnell and Jace Bellah, two walk-ons, joined the football program in 2022. Six others remain on roster for the 2023 season -- Dylan Phelps, Lavon Brown, Trey Vincent, Josh Ayers, Kenyon Agurs and Stephon Daily.

SHARED DUTIES

Under Mora, the coordinators will call the game on their respective sides of the ball, allowing him to oversee the entire game.

Tyson Summers is a veteran play caller on defense, but the Wyoming game was Pryce Tracy's first chance to do so offensively. He spent last season as UConn's passing game coordinator, helping to put together the weekly plan.

Tracy's aim will be to spark a turnaround in Colorado State's offense in the decade of the 2020s. In that time, the Rams have not ranked in the top 50 percent nationally in scoring offense, though three times the team ranked in the top half in total offense (2024, 65th; 2023, 56th; 2021, 57th).

It was back in 2014 when the Rams last had an offensive coordinator calling plays and the team averaged better than 30 points per game. Dave Baldwin was the OC from 2012-14, and in those final two seasons, the Rams set a record for points scored (507, 2013) and ranked fourth all-time in 2014 (441).

| FIRST-YEAR PLAY CALLERS |                    |
|-------------------------|--------------------|
| OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR   | SCHOOL             |
| Pryce Tracy             | Colorado State     |

| Pete Thomas             | Cincinnati (Co-OC) |

NOTE EXPANDED

This list of nine coaches have never had a "Coordinator" title at any level of football.

The list would expand if included those who have held a "Coordinator" title at the professional or lower level of football; these nine coaches are calling plays for the first time.

After being selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the fifth round of the 2025 NFL Draft, Tory Horton made an immediate impact as a rookie, recording 13 receptions for 161 yards and five touchdowns in just 11 games. The Colorado State product also added a 95-yard punt return touchdown, giving him six total touchdowns on the season before being placed on injured reserve in November. Horton signed a four-year, $4.6 million rookie contract with Seattle.

HALL OF FAME CLASS

On Oct. 3, Colorado State Athletics will welcome five members into the Hall of Fame, including two former football players.

Shaquil Barrett (2011-13)

One of the most dominate defensive players in program history, Barrett earned three all-conference accolades at Colorado State before embarking on a 10-year NFL career which saw him raise a pair of Super Bowl trophies. After twice being named honorable mention All-Mountain West, Barrett was crowned the league's defensive player of the year in 2013 after registering 20.0 tackles for loss and 12 sacks that season, capped by a remarkable series of plays in the New Mexico Bowl where he caused fumbles on successive plays which set up a remarkable comeback victory for the Rams over Washington State. He went undrafted in the NFL, but after five seasons and a Super Bowl victory with the Denver Broncos, he became an even bigger start for Tampa Bay, once against winning a Super Bowl and establishing the organization's sack record with 19.5 in 2019. He was twice named All Pro.

Michael Gallup (2016-17)

He established himself as one of the greatest wideouts in Colorado State history and only needed two years to prove it through a series of highlight receptions where he made the difficult catch look ordinary. He was a two-time All-Mountain West selection and a consensus All-American in 2017 when he was a Biletnikoff Award finalist. He graduated fifth in receptions and with the single-season mark of 100 catches. Twice he had 13 catches in a game, leaving ranked second in yards for a season (1,413), yards in a game (263), and career scoring catches (21). He is the only Ram with a trio of games where he caught three scoring passes. He was a third-round pick by Dallas in the 2018 NFL Draft, playing professionally for six seasons.

SECOND RING OF HONOR CLASS

Colorado State Athletics will welcome six members to the Ring of Honor over the course of the season: Katie Cronin, women's basketball; Clark Haggans and Lawrence McCutchen, football; Tippy Martinez, baseball; and Diane Saba, volleyball.

The two football players will have their names added to the Canvas Stadium facade inside the stadium during the Sept. 19 game when the Rams host BYU.

Lawrence McCutchen

He graduated in 1972 as Colorado State's career rushing leader, and more than 50 years later, his 2,917 yards still rank in the top 10 for the Rams. He was the first CSU back to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, doing it in back-to-back campaigns (1970-71). An honorable mention All-American in 1970, he was also the first Ram to rush for 200 yards in a game. In the NFL, starting for the Los Angeles Rams, he was a five-time Pro Bowler.

Clark Haggans

One of the most disruptive defenders in Colorado State history, Haggans was part of a defense that bullied opponents in the late 1990s, helping the Rams win conference championships in 1997 and 1999. He still holds the career records for sacks (33.0) and tackles for loss (54.0), making a habit out of changing the course of games with his aggressive style of play. He then embarked on a 13-year NFL career, winning Super Bowl XL with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

RAM TRADITIONS

TRADITIONS AT CSU

Colorado State has a number of long-standing traditions around its football program. Some are celebrated each game, some only at home, and some only on Homecoming.

» COMATOSE

The thunderous and often startling boom of cannon fire has been part of Aggie and Ram football game-day experience since 1920, making it the oldest continuous – and loudest – traditions. Army ROTC cadets manage “Comatose,” firing blank 75mm shells each time the Rams score a touchdown, field goal or PAT. Alumni are among those chosen as guest cannoneers who have the high honor of firing Comatose before kickoff.

At Canvas Stadium, the cannon is located at field level in the southeast corner. The cannon was completely refurbished in Denver in the summer of 2018.

» HOMECOMING

The first time CSU grads “came home” was back in 1884 when then-President Charles L. Ingersoll invited the first three graduates of Colorado Agricultural College – Elizabeth “Libbie” Coy, Leonidas Loomis, and George Glover – back to campus to establish the Alumni Association. From there, the Alumni Association would become the keepers of CSU traditions, initiating the first official Homecoming in October of 1914. Today, Homecoming and Family Weekend features the University’s most beloved traditions, including a football game, the firing of Comatose, the 50 Year Club Luncheon, and many others. The weekend is so much more than a series of events – it’s a way to connect students to alumni, relive history by participating in time-honored traditions, and a way to show your love and pride for all things Green and Gold.

» HOMECOMING FLAG

From 2014-2025, each Homecoming game, one Colorado State player was selected to run out of the tunnel with an Aggie A flag from 1925. The flag was stolen by CU fans during the 1925 Homecoming game and returned for the playing of the 100th Homecoming game in 2014.

Then-head coach Jim McElwain started the tradition which has been carried on until 2025, when the flag was retired due to age and durability, to a trophy case inside the Hall of Champions

» THE AGGIE A

The prominent white “A” displayed on the foothills overlooking the old Hughes Stadium site is the second-oldest ongoing tradition associated with Colorado State University.

At a special assembly on Dec. 4, 1923, students of State Agricultural College agreed it was time to erect an emblem to support the University. The Aggie students voted to emblazon an “A” on a hill west of campus, and work began shortly afterward.

The college declared Dec. 12 a special holiday, and students worked from that morning until mid-afternoon to form the “A.” Although work began in 1923, the project was not completed until September of the following year, when students lengthened and widened the emblem to its present size — 450 feet from top to bottom and 210 feet across at its widest point.

Today, the “A” is an official landmark and remains a prominent symbol of Colorado State spirit. Early each fall, freshman football players join forces with several other campus organizations to give the “A” a fresh coat of white paint.

The tradition reaches an even greater height during Homecoming & Family Weekend, when the lighting of the “A” serves as a centerpiece of the annual Friday Night Lights event.

» OLD MAIN BELL

The story of Colorado State’s Old Main Bell, which rings before each home football game, is a long and twisting one.

Around 1910, Colorado Agricultural College acquired a bell and installed it in the tower of Old Main, which was the center of student activity on campus at the time. Manufactured in 1894 and weighing nearly 500 pounds, the bell originally announced the start of classes each day. Later, its peals came to signify triumph on the football field.

The bell stopped chiming around 1919, and its whereabouts remained a mystery for nearly a century. The bell had been stolen and hidden away, with its location known only to a select few. During the years it was missing, generations of loyal Aggies and Rams cared for the bell and kept it safe until the timing was right for it to return home.

In February 2016, the bell re-emerged when an unknown individual anonymously delivered it to the driveway of Kristi Bohlender, then the Executive Director of the CSU Alumni Association. Its return offered an opportunity to honor Colorado State’s history and revive one of the University’s oldest traditions.

The Alumni Association and the Associated Students of Colorado State University worked together to restore the bell. Today, the Old Main Bell hangs in the Jim and Nadine Henry Family Tower outside the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center and rings once again before each home football game — reminding current students and alumni everywhere that we are proud to be CSU Rams.

NOTES AND TIDBITS

STAYING HOME

Colorado State will be the only Group of 6 program in 2026 to host seven regularly scheduled home games for a third consecutive season. The Rams hosted seven home games for the first time in program history in 2024 and has continued the streak through the 2026 season.

Also for the 2026 schedule, CSU is one of 19 programs in FBS that will start the season at home with three consecutive home games. The Rams join seven Big Ten, six SEC and five Big 12 programs, plus CSU as the lone Pac-12 program.

CANVAS CHAOS

Over the past three seasons, Ram Country has made Canvas Stadium a hostile environment for visiting teams. Recording four of the highest six attended games at Canvas Stadium during that span.

What's even more, in each of the past three seasons, the Rams have announced attendance over 40,000 in a game

| 2026 | Wyoming  | 40,546 | W, 35-18 |
|------|----------|--------|----------|
| 2025 | Hawai'i  | 40,416 | L, 19-31 |
| 2024 | Colorado | 40,099 | L, 9-28  |

In the 2026 home opener against Wyoming, CSU announced the highest attended game in program history. Four of the top six attended home openers have happened since Canvas Stadium was built, along with four of the most attended games in the same span.

HOME OPENERS

| 2026 | Wyoming           | 40,546 | W, 35-18 |
|------|-------------------|--------|----------|
| 2017 | Oregon State      | 37,584 | W, 58-27 |
| 2025 | Northern Colorado | 37,023 | W, 21-17 |
| 2024 | Northern Colorado | 36,573 | W, 34-17 |

Student attendance has also been record setting and breaking. The record was set in 2025 against Northern Colorado for the season opener with 15,740, then broken in the 2026 season opener against Wyoming with 17,573 helping fill the lower east bowl.

STARTING OFF RIGHT

Following a dominate win against Southern Utah in week 2, Colorado State was 2-0 for the first time since 2011. While the program has seen that record before -- 29 times to be precise; it's been 14 seasons since the last time.

The Rams started 2-0 six times during the 2000s and 16 of the 30 events occurred before 1950, and 20 occurred before 1960.

RECENT 2-0 STARTS

| 1994 | 2-0   | 10-2   | WAC Champs / Holiday Bowl   |

FIRST GAME, FIRST WIN, SECOND WIN

Jim Mora became just the eighth coach in program history to produce a win in their first game. He became the third to win their first two games -- joining Wagner (1942) and Davis (1947).

| COACH                       | STARTING RECORD |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|
| Clarence Griffith (1901)    | 1-0             |
| John McIntosh (1904)        | 1-0             |
| Julius "Hans" Wagner (1942) | 2-0             |
| Bob Davis (1947)            | 2-0             |
| Jerry Wampfler (1970)       | 1-0             |
| Jim McElwain (2012)         | 1-0             |
| Mike Bobo (2015)            | 1-0             |
| Jim Mora (2026)             | 2-0             |

Mora will look to become the first coach in program history to win their first three games at Colorado State.

CAPTAINS

Coach Mora does not set season-long captains. Rather, he names four weekly captains every Friday of game week. Those that are selected, each of them will have a "C" on their helmet. Once a player is named a captain, the player will keep his title and the "C" on their helmet for the rest of the year.

So far this season's captains have been:

Week 1: Oumar Diomande, Robby Harrison, John Holthaus, Phillip Ocon

Week 2: Jaseim Mitchell, Dominic Toy, RJ Vick, Stephon Wright

Week 3:

RECORD NOTES

WEEK 1 VS. WYOMING

Hauss Hejny threw five touchdown passes, tied for the second most in a single game at CSU. He was the third quarterback to hit the number in a season opener (Nick Stevens, 2015; K.J. Carta-Samuels, 2018). Hejny and Carta-Samuels are the only two to throw five in their first start.

The three touchdown receptions by RJ Vick also stands No. 2 in a single game at CSU. The last wideout to catch three in a season opener was Kory Sperry in 2007.

The win was the first in a season opener since 2017, the day Canvas Stadium hosted its first game (Oregon State).

WEEK 2 VS. SOUTHERN UTAH

The Rams moved to 2-0 for the first time since the 2011 season. The last time the team won it's first two games for a new head coach was in 1947 under Bob Davis.

The 48 points in the first half were the second most scored by a CSU team in a half. The 31 points in the second quarter ranked fourth.

Hauss Hejny threw another four touchdowns, bringing his total to nine over the first two games to tie for the record for most TD passes in successive games, first done by Nick Stevens in 2026.

The Rams had 678 yards of total offense, ranking fourth in program history in a single game.

LACK OF STARTERS RETURNING

Colorado State's starting 22 in the season opener against Wyoming looked new again. With only five players having started a game previously for the Rams.

OFFENSE

Phillip Ocon: Appeared in eight games a season ago, making two starts against New Mexico and Boise State.

DEFENSE

Kenyon Agurs: Appeared in all 12 games in 2025, making 10 starts, including his debut in the season opener against Washington.

Jack Moran: Appeared in all 12 games in 2025 while making seven starts - his first in the home opener against Northern Colorado.

Jaseim Mitchell: Was injured the beginning half of the season before appearing in six games and starting the final four.

C.J. Blocker: Appeared in all 12 games in 2025, making his first start in the season finale against Air Force.

STARTING FRESH

Colorado State had 17 players make their first start in a CSU uniform in the opener against Wyoming.

Of the season opener starters, Phillip Ocon, Kenyon Agurs, Jack Moran and CJ Blocker are the only returners who had started a game for the Rams.

NEW OFFENSE (10)

MORA FAMILY, FOOTBALL IS LIFE

Coach Mora's father, Jim E. Mora, spent 43 years coaching football at the collegiate and professional levels, giving his son a strong in-house mentor for his career.

The elder Mora spent 17 seasons coaching collegiately beginning his journey at Occidental College in 1961, where he was named the head coach of his alma mater from 1964-1966.

In 1975, he moved to the NFL when he was named the defensive coordinator of the Seattle Seahawks, a role he held for four seasons. After spending 1982 with the New England Patriots, he was named the head coach of the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars in the USFL, leading his squad to the championship game all three seasons and winning a pair of championships.

He returned to the NFL in 1986 as head coach of the New Orleans Saints for 11 seasons, then was named the head coach of the Indianapolis Colts in 1998, holding the role through the 2001 season.

Jim E., was named the NFL Coach of the Year in 1987 and later elected to the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame. Overall, the elder Mora compiled a 125-112 record in the NFL, was 18-9 as a college head coach and 48-13-1 in the USFL.

His son was part of his staff at New Orleans, serving as the defensive backs coach from 1992-1996. Extending the bloodline, Jim L. Mora's son, Trey, is part of his Colorado State staff as the assistant quarterbacks coach.

GREEN QUARTERBACK ROOM

Colorado State's quarterback room this season fits the primary school color - green. In all, the Rams have four quarterbacks that are in their first two years of collegiate football and combined for just THREE starts.

The room is the youngest in the country and the only quarterback room without a fourth-year or higher on scholarship. In terms of cumulative passes attempted entering the season, they are - you guessed it - also the youngest.

HOME GROWN RAMS

Colorado State's roster features 16 players from the state of Colorado - by far the most among the three FBS schools in the state (Air Force - 9; Colorado - 9).

THE BORDER WAR

In terms of games played, Colorado State's chief rivalry game against Wyoming is one of the country's oldest.

The teams have played 118 times since 1899 and every year since 1946 - 81 consecutive seasons - following World War II. It is the third-oldest rivalry game west of the Mississippi River (behind Cal-Stanford, 1892, Oregon-Oregon State, 1894, and tied with Arizona-Arizona State, 1899) and owns one of the longest consecutive games played streaks.

THIS WEEK IN HISTORY

A Well-Earned Game Ball

By John Hirn, CSU Historian

A nearly 17-year span has filled the gap since CSU last played the BYU Cougars, but this week a rivalry which began in 1922 is renewed again. As we look back at the many games the Aggies and Rams have played against BYU, we can relive one game by looking at one football that is now on display in the Markley Family Hall of Champions for all to see. Perched on top of a mountain of footballs is a shriveled football with the score clearly reading, Colorado A&M 16, BYU 14.

In late January of 2026, Pam Decker, the daughter of former CSU halfback Joe Folsom donated a football to Colorado State University signed by all of the members of the 1949 Colorado A&M team. The ball is the game ball from the November 11, 1949, game in Provo, Utah against BYU that Folsom earned for a job well done in a close game. Looking back at the newspapers from that game, here is what that old ball, now a historic artifact, did on that day.

The Rocky Mountain Collegian serves as our vehicle to look back at this game, with the article written by Jack Snyder started out by saying, "Colorado A&M's Rams eked out a 16-14 victory over BYU's winless Cougars in a game played at Provo last Friday before 5,000 partisan fans. The Aggie victory came in the last 35 seconds of a ball game when Frank Faucett booted a field goal from 20 yards out."

That two-sentence statement may be all most fans need to know about this game, but when a player receives a game ball, it is for his achievements on the field. So why did Faucett, the kicker who won the game on a 20-yard field goal not get this ball? The answer is in the details of the game write up.

Joe Folsom, a senior on the 1949 team was reported to have been a standout all day in that game. Folsom's 40-yard pass to Faucett set up a third-quarter touchdown by Dassel Hallmark to finally get the Aggies on the board, Faucett's PAT was missed. BYU, was a 35-point underdog going into the game, led 14-0 at the half and were dominating the Rams all day. In the fourth quarter, with A&M trailing 14-6, Faucett grabbed a Statue of Liberty play and drove the Rams to the six-inch line where he dove into the end zone to score a touchdown on the next play and kick the extra point to make it 14-13 in favor of the Cougars.

The real drama happened in a goal-line stand late in the fourth quarter when the Aggies held the Cougars on their own 1-yard-line, then drove the ball 90 yards down the field only to have the drive end with an interception. Later, Jack Christiansen's touchdown was called back and with little time remaining in the game, the Aggies had to try for the field goal with only 35 seconds left.

Folsom made the play of the day on the last drive by Colorado A&M when he took the ball around the end on fourth-and-8 and ran 36 yards for a first down and allowed the Rams to get into field goal position. It was this effort, along with the goal-line stand and passing by Folsom that earned him the game ball after the win.

While fans of today's football might ask why both players didn't get a ball for their efforts, in 1949, it was typical to only use one ball during the entire game. Today several balls are used during a football game, but in the days of leather-helmet football, there was usually only one ball used per game and only one ball was awarded by the head coach to the player he felt played the best that day. A tough decision considering Faucett scored 10 of the Rams 16 points that day but deserving to Folsom who was the workhorse of the team.

Faucett remembered this game in a 2008 interview and stated that despite winning on the last-second field goal, coach Bob Davis was unhappy with how his team performed against a team it should have easily beat. As soon as the team got off the plane from Provo, Davis gathered them around in a circle and told them to report for practice on Sunday, they needed work. That team went on to a 9-1 record, missed the conference championship by one loss to Wyoming and endured a season when their star halfback died suddenly after the season opener.

As you look at this football now resting in Canvas Stadium, remember that it is the ball which was used to score all of those points, was kicked for extra points and the game-winning field goal. One leather football, signed by players of the Colorado A&M team, as a trophy to just one football game played nearly 80 years ago. It was awarded to a player who played one of the best games of his career and he kept it in his home until his death in 2023. Both Faucett and Folsom died only two months apart, the last few members of this great era of CSU football.

CANVAS STADIUM

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium is the name for Colorado State University's 36,500-capacity multipurpose stadium that opened on the school's Fort Collins campus in 2017. Canvas Credit Union received naming rights to the facility through a $37.7 million partnership agreement announced in April 2018. The agreement, which stood as one of the largest collegiate athletic venue naming agreements in history, was part of an ambitious re-branding initiative being undertaken by the previously branded Public Service Credit Union, under the direction of company President and CEO Todd Marksberry.

The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot stadium proved immensely popular and attractive to fans in its inaugural season of 2017, and drew rave reviews from local and national media, as well national television networks that broadcast Colorado State's games to large audiences. The Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062, representing a 16-percent attendance increase from 2016—eighth-highest in all of college football. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

The return of CSU football games to campus from Hughes Stadium in 2017 brought the pageantry and celebration of Rams game days back to the heart of the university for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage.

The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brings the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.

SONNY LUBICK FIELD

The playing surface at Canvas Stadium is named in honor of former head coach Sonny Lubick who spent 15 seasons (1993-2007) on the sidelines. Over his career, Lubick amassed 108 victories and a career winning percentage of .593 - both the second-best marks in program history.

Of Colorado State's 15 conference championships, Lubick's team captured six over a span of nine seasons (1994-2002), marking the most successful era in program history. For his efforts, Lubick was named the conference coach of the year four times during his CSU career (1994, 1997, 1999, 2000), and three times during his career, the Rams finished in the final top 25 rankings (1994, 15th; 1997, 16th; 2000, 14th).

FORT COLLINS — Hauss Hejny threw five touchdown passes, Colorado State's buzzing defense had three interceptions and the Rams got off to a successful start under new head coach Jim Mora with a 35-13 win over Wyoming on Saturday night.

Hejny, a transfer from Oklahoma State, connected with RJ Vick for three scores, including a 57-yard reception as the Rams began their tenure in the Pac-12 Conference on the right note. Hejny finished with 214 yards passing and had a 28-yard catch on a trick play that set up a Colorado State TD on its opening drive.

The Rams brought home the Bronze Boot trophy as part of their "Border War" rivalry with Wyoming. For the first time in decades, the teams did not meet as conference foes. CSU moved to the Pac-12 this season, while Wyoming remains in the Mountain West. The teams are not slated to play next season but will resume again in 2028.

Soon after the final whistle, players sprinted to the sideline and grabbed the trophy as fans filtered onto the field. Mora later sat with the trophy at his news conference. He arrived at Colorado State from Connecticut, where he spent the last four seasons, and has provided an instant boost to the program.

Mora brought in 76 new players this season, including 41 transfers. Two newcomers were Hejny and Vick, who landed in Fort Collins after stints with Virginia Union and Wake Forest. Vick had six catches for 75 yards.

Wyoming had a short-lived momentum swing at the end of the first half when Rams kicker Kali Nguma missed a 54-yard field goal with 33 seconds left. The Cowboys made it a 14-6 game after Erik Sandvik connected on a 48-yard field goal.

Quarterback Tyler Hughes scrambled for a 9-yard score on the opening drive of the third quarter to draw the Cowboys to 14-13. Colorado State's defense then came up big with Oumar Diomande's interception as the Cowboys were driving. Two plays later, Hejny found Vick to extend the lead. The Rams closed out the game by recovering a fumble.
