STORYLINES

WELCOMING HOME A NEW ERA

For the first time since 2010, an Olmstead will not be leading BYU women's volleyball. Following Heather Olmstead's departure after 11 seasons at the helm, Rob Neilson was hired on Dec. 23, 2025. Siblings Shawn (2011-14) and Heather (2015-25) Olmstead led the Cougars for 15 consecutive seasons.

Neilson returns to Provo after previously playing for BYU men's volleyball from 2003-06, helping the Cougars win the 2004 national championship. He then spent 10 years on the BYU coaching staff, including a stint as interim head coach in 2011.

20-20 VISION

With the Cougars' win at Iowa State on Nov. 7, BYU secured its ninth 20-win season in the last 10 years, excluding the spring 2020-21 campaign. Head coach Rob Neilson also earned his second consecutive 20-win season after leading Utah State to a 24-8 record last year. Excluding the covid-shortened 2020-21 season, five of Neilson's six seasons as a head coach have reached the 20-win mark.

HOME vs. AWAY

The Cougars are 10-1 (.909) both at home and on the road this season, with an 11-1 (.917) mark away from Provo including neutral-site matches. Neilson went 54-17 (.761) at home and 43-29 (.597) on the road during his six seasons at Utah State.

TOP 25 STAPLES

BYU has a 956-229 (.807) record all-time when ranked in the Top 25, including a 493-63 (.887) record at the Smith Fieldhouse. The Cougars have played 97 games in their history when ranked No. 10, going 80-17 (.825) overall and 33-6 (.846) in Provo.

FIRST SET FEVER

Since becoming members of the Big 12 Conference in 2023, BYU has won the opening set in 80 of its 87 wins. The Cougars' seven victories over that span when dropping the first set have come against Pitt (2023), High Point (2024), Utah State (2024) and Cincinnati (2025), as well as Florida State, Colorado and Arizona State this season.

CONSISTENTLY CONSTANT

Employing seven different starting lineup combinations this season, BYU has relied on two primary lineups in 18 of its 23 matches. The first has been used 10 times, while the second has appeared eight times. Lulu Po'uha, Claire Little Chambers, Elli Mortensen, Brooke Hardy and Kelli Jo Burgess have remained fixtures in the starting lineup, with the first combination pairing Alex Bower and Sophia Callahan while the second features Kaylie Kofe and Kate Prior. In 14 Big 12 matches, the Cougars have used each of their two primary lineups six times.

HITTING HIGH

The Cougars rank third nationally with a .301 season hitting percentage, behind No. 1 Nebraska (.354) and No. 2 Pittsburgh (.337). BYU is also hitting .300 in Big 12 play, nine percentage points higher than the next team (Baylor, .291). Both of the Cougars' middles are hitting above .400 in conference matches: Brooke Hardy (.440) and Kelli Jo Burgess (.401), with Claire Little Chambers just outside the .300 mark at .299. Hardy ranks second in Big 12 play in hitting percentage, behind Kansas' Aisha Aiono's .451.

MOVE TO 6-2

After previously setting in 5-1 systems the last couple of seasons, setters Alex Bower and Kaylie Kofe (Utah State transfer) joined forces in Provo this year as BYU made the switch to a 6-2. The pair of junior signal callers haven't skipped a beat, both averaging over 5.4 assists per set as the Cougars have combined to post 13.23 assists per set on the year and hit at a .301 clip in 2026.

RETURN TO SENDER

The nation's leader in blocks per set since Sept. 22, Kelli Jo Burgess has totaled 147 blocks, averaging 1.84 per set. The fifth-year middle leads the Big 12 in both categories while ranking seventh nationally in total blocks. In conference play, she has recorded 91 blocks, 18 more than the league's second-ranked blocker, Colorado's Maria Splawska. Burgess also averages just under half a block per set more than the conference's next blocker, Arizona's Journey Tucker, in Big 12 matches.

FRESH THREADS

The Cougars updated a few of their sleeveless jerseys this year and will now have five different uniform options. BYU is 7-2 in navy threads this season and 14-0 in royal ones. The Cougars' 2026 record in each jersey is:

White tanks w/ navy trim: 1-1 • Navy tanks: 6-1
White tanks w/ royal trim: 5-0 • Royal tanks: 4-0 • Black tanks w/ royal trim: 5-0

- Head coach Danijela Tomić is in her second season at Cincinnati. She is 26-26 (.500) with the Bearcats and 420-248 (.629) in her 22-year career.
- The Cougars lead the all-time series 4-1 and won last year's meeting in Cincinnati in four sets.

A WINNING TRADITION

BYU COACHING HISTORY

Three BYU coaches are found among the winningest in the history of NCAA women's volleyball. BYU is the only program with three coaches posting a winning percentage of .800 or higher.

Elaine Michaelis led the Cougars from 1969-2001, going 886-219-5 (.800). Shawn Olmstead, now the head coach of the BYU men's volleyball team, had a 103-25 (.805) record during his time. Heather Olmstead went 279-55 (.835) over the last 11 seasons, posting the fourth-highest active DI winning percentage before moving on from BYU.

New head coach Rob Neilson went 112-59 (.655) in six seasons at Utah State. He is one of 42 active DI head coaches with 6+ year of experience to win 65% or more of their matches.

NCAA WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Heading into the 2026 season, the Cougars rank second on the NCAA's all-time wins list, with 1,442. Surpassing UCLA during the 2023 campaign, they sit behind Nebraska's 1,532 but ahead of Penn State's 1,433, UCLA's 1,430 and Texas' 1,416.

BYU has an all-time program win percentage of .783, which ranks sixth behind Penn State (.846), Nebraska (.846), Hawai'i (.832), Florida (.816) and Stanford (.814).

Over the last five seasons, the Cougars rank 13th in win percentage (.771), behind Pittsburgh, Nebraska, Texas, Louisville, Creighton, Wisconsin, Western Kentucky, Towson, Stanford, Dayton, Kentucky and Florida Gulf Coast.

In the last five years, BYU is also tied for 17th in total wins, going 118-35.

AVCA POLLS

The Cougars rank among the top-10 of programs most ranked in the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) poll, sitting at ninth-most all-time.

BYU has been ranked in 519 of the organization's 673 total polls, seeing its name in 77.12% of all AVCA rankings since 1982.

Over the last 12 seasons, the Cougars have seen their name in all but two of the AVCA's 189 Top 25 polls.

POSTSEASON REGULARS

BYU has appeared in 38 of 45 NCAA postseasons since the tournament began in 1981, including each of the last 14 seasons since 2012.

The Cougars are 56-37 (.602) all time in the tourney and have earned a hosting bid in six of the last 10 seasons, but have been bounced in the first round two years in a row.

In the last 14 seasons, BYU has finished in the top half of its conference, posted a .655 winning percentage or better, played in the NCAA Tournament (including advancing to the Sweet 16 or further nine times) and been ranked inside the Top 25 during the year.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY IN PROVO, UTAH

Students and student-athletes come from all over the world to study and compete at Brigham Young University. Nearly 150 years after its humble beginnings, this church-sponsored institution has become one of the largest private universities in the United States. Nestled at the foot of the towering Wasatch Mountains in Provo, Utah, BYU's 738-acre campus is home to more than 35,000 students who come from 105 countries and every state in the United States.

Amidst BYU's growth, there has remained a constant thread. Dedicated faculty, administrators, coaches and students embrace a vision of learning, in which academics and faith go hand in hand and the ultimate goal is to help students develop their full divine potential as children of God.

The mission of BYU Athletics is to "build a distinctive, exceptional athletic program that prominently promotes the values of Brigham Young University and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by developing successful, faith-based, influential scholar-athlete leaders who are ambassadors for good." The Cougars' vision is to: "inspire others through competitive excellence while striving to live the values taught by Jesus Christ."

Missionary service has been a staple within BYU Athletics since its inception. More than half of all BYU students serve missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. While those within the Church understand the details of what a mission entails, they can be foreign to those not of the faith. In an effort to help those interested, media members and others understand a bit more about missions, we hope the following is helpful.

WHAT IS A MISSION?

The Church's missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities. The expectation for mission duration is between 18 months to two years. Missions are voluntary and self-funded. BYU student-athletes who chose to serve missions do so out of a love for Jesus Christ and a desire to serve others.

Some BYU student-athletes elect to fulfill their missionary service after they graduate high school and defer their enrollment to BYU. Others take a break from studying and competing at BYU and perform their missionary service partway through their time as a student-athlete. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent to countries all throughout the world where governments allow the Church to operate.

Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language. Due in part to the many international missionary service experiences among BYU students, more than 60 percent of BYU students speak a second language, and they speak more than 120 different languages, with 84 different languages taught at BYU.

HOW TO TALK ABOUT MISSIONS

- We request that those referring to missions use terms such as "serving a mission," "full-time mission," "missionary service," "Latter-day Saint mission," and "a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints".
- We request that those referring to missions do not refer to missions as "mission trips," "Mormon missions" or "LDS missions".
- See more information about using the full name of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Church's style guide.

WHY SERVE A MISSION?

Ultimately, missionary work is about serving God and His children and dedicating one's life to that service for a set period. Missionaries often view their service as a way to show gratitude to God. As they learn, work and serve, they develop essential skills in study, planning, communication, relationships, patience, resilience and time management that benefit them throughout life.

COUGARS & MISSIONS

Sophia Callahan: Arequipa, Peru (2023-24)
"My missionary service was divinely inspired. I never anticipated serving a mission; it was a prompting I felt out of nowhere during my sophomore year. It was a blessing to test and grow my faith in such an intense and fulfilling way. The people in Peru taught me how to love unconditionally and look outside of myself for joy. Such a blessing!"

Rachel Jepsen: Paris, France (2024-25)
"I absolutely loved my mission and am forever grateful for the life-long friends I met and strengthening experiences I had. I learned so much more about Jesus Christ and His gospel. It is really because of Jesus Christ that we have everlasting peace and hope, despite the trials."

Kaylee Tingey: Porto Alegre, Brazil (January 2027)
"I decided to serve a mission because of the joy that the knowledge of Christ and His gospel has brought into my life. I want everyone to be able to experience and feel that same joy and the love of their Savior."

Anna Blamires: Santa Fe, Argentina (February 2027)
"I am choosing to serve a mission because I want others to feel and experience the light of Christ that I have felt throughout my life. I want to share the peace that the gospel has brought to me and see the smiles on others' faces. I'm so excited to serve in the Argentina Santa Fe Mission and to see how the Lord can use me to bless the lives of the people I meet!"

Grace Fredrick: Helsinki, Finland (March 2027)
"I decided to serve because I want to share the peace and joy that I feel everyday from my Savior Jesus Christ. I know He loves me and I want other people to have the chance to feel that love!"

LEARNING A LANGUAGE

Before traveling to their assigned area of service, missionaries first report to a Missionary Training Center (MTC). The largest MTC is located directly north of the BYU campus, just a few blocks east of LaVell Edwards Stadium. During this time of training, missionaries are instructed in how to be effective teachers and companions. They also learn about the culture of where they are serving. Those who are serving missions where they don't need to learn a language spend just three weeks in an MTC. Those learning languages spend up to nine weeks. Language study continues throughout their service, with missionaries practicing and improving their skills through daily immersion in homes and communities.

DAY-TO-DAY LIFE AS A MISSIONARY

The overarching purpose of missionary service is to invite individuals to learn about and follow Jesus Christ. Missionaries wake up at 6:30 each morning for exercise and religious study before spending the day, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., talking to people on the street, knocking on doors, visiting homes and looking for ways to serve others. Missionaries hold the title of "Elder" or "Sister" and are referred to by that title and their last name (Elder Neilson, Sister Callahan, Sister Jepsen, Sister Tingey, Sister Blamires, Sister Fredrick, etc.). Each missionary serves with one or two companions in a specific geographic area, with companions and assignments changing at different times throughout their 18 months to two years. Missionaries have one day off each week, but aside from the occasional game of catch or non-competitive game of soccer or basketball, they have little to no specific sports training during their time of service.

He developed offensive game plans in 2017 before transitioning to defensive responsibilities in 2018 and 2019.

In 2015, Neilson worked for VolleyMetrics, gaining experience in video and data analysis that helped bridge his BYU and USA Volleyball experience to women's collegiate volleyball. He joined Utah State in 2020 and transformed the Aggies into a perennial Mountain West contender.
