THE OPENING TIP

After defeating New Mexico to move to 5-0 for the fourth consecutive season, the Cougars host the Utah State Aggies for the first time since 2023.

BYU leads the all-time series 41-4 and has won the last six meetings. The most recent matchup came on Dec. 5, 2023, when the Cougars handed the Aggies a 72-66 defeat at the Marriott Center. BYU has won the last three meetings in Provo.

Last time out, Delaney Gibb tallied 28 points, seven rebounds, five assists and two steals in the win over the Lobos, a stat line that has been accomplished by just three BYU players since 1999. Gibb has done so three times, while no other player has done so more than once.

Despite allowing New Mexico to shoot 52.2 percent, the Cougars forced 23 turnovers (+9) and grabbed 15 offensive rebounds (+13), leading to 33 points off giveaways and 13 second-chance points. BYU earned its fourth win of the season by 17 or more points, with Gibb, Olivia Hamlin and Sydney Benally all finishing in double figures.

PRODUCTION OFF THE PINE

BYU ranks in the 93rd percentile in bench production this season, with the Cougar reserves averaging 31.8 points per game. Sydney Benally leads the bench brigade with 8.8 points per contest, followed by Prasayus Notoa (8.6), Kambree Taylor (5.0), Stella Sakalas and Bolanle Yussuf (4.2 each) and Mariam Traore (4.0).

DOMINATING WINNING TIME

The second half continues to be pivotal as BYU has outscored opponents by 16.6 points after intermission through five games. The third period has been especially dominant, with the Cougars averaging 23.8 points and outscoring opponents by 10.8 points in the frame. BYU holds a 119-65 aggregate edge in third-quarter scoring this season.

DISRUPTING AND DICTATING

Head coach Lee Cummard wants his team to be a defensive juggernaut by disrupting and dictating opposing offenses. BYU has forced at least 15 turnovers in each of its first five games, including 19 or more four times. The Cougars average 20.4 forced turnovers and score 24.4 points per game off giveaways, highlighted by a season-high 28 points in the opener against Idaho State. Five Cougars average at least one steal per game, led by Brinley Cannon and Sydney Benally at 2.2. They are followed by Delaney Gibb (2.0), Olivia Hamlin (1.2) and Kambree Taylor (1.0).

PEDAL TO THE METAL

Led by Olivia Hamlin—one of the nation's top players at pushing the pace—BYU is averaging 18.4 transition points through its first five games, which ranks in the 93rd percentile nationally. Hamlin averages 14.8 points per game, with 7.2 of those points (46.7 percent) coming from fast-break buckets, ranking in the 99th and 97th percentiles nationally.

IMMACULATE INSIDE THE ARC

Despite struggling from 3-point range through five games, the Cougars excel in the paint, scoring 37.6 points per game in the key. Eight qualifying players are shooting over 50 percent from 2-point range, led by Sydney Benally at 76.9 percent. The rest of the group features Mariam Traore (75.0 percent), Stella Sakalas (75.0 percent), Prasayus Notoa (71.4 percent), Brinley Cannon (63.6 percent), Kambree Taylor (60.0 percent), Olivia Hamlin (57.1 percent) and Bolanle Yussuf (53.8 percent). BYU also excels on the offensive glass, ranking in the 93rd percentile with a 43.1 percent offensive rebounding rate.

PERPETUAL PERIMETER PRECISION

BYU holds the second-longest active and third-longest all-time NCAA Division I streaks of games with a made 3-pointer at 837 consecutive games. The streak began on March 2, 2000, in an 86-69 win over Air Force. Chattanooga holds the longest active streak at 842 games.

WISE BEYOND THEIR YEARS

Despite having no seniors or fifth-year players on its roster, BYU returns a wealth of experience. Four Cougars rank among the top six in all-time freshman minutes played: Sydney Benally at No. 2 (1,108), Olivia Hamlin at No. 3 (1,097), Kailey Woolston at No. 4 (1,067) and Delaney Gibb at No. 6 (1,013).

Three of those players also rank in the top five in all-time freshman scoring: Gibb is No. 2 with 522 points (while leading in points per game), Hamlin sits at No. 3 with 490 points and Woolston is No. 5 with 425 points. Woolston was the second-ranked 3-point shooter in the NCAA during her 2023-24 freshman season at 46.6 percent.

FAMILIAR COUGS

The Cougars boast the sixth-highest roster continuity in the country by minutes returned (71.1 percent), per CBB Analytics. Cummard returns four starters from last year's squad, alongside Kailey Woolston, who started all 32 games in 2023-24 before missing the last two seasons while serving a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. BYU returns 72.3 percent of its scoring, 58 percent of its rebounding, 82.9 percent of its assists, 55.1 percent of its blocks and 76.5 percent of its steals production from a year ago.

NEW FACES IN COUGAR BLUE

CCummard welcomed four newcomers for the 2026-27 season: true freshmen Prasayus Notoa, Vahayliah Seumanutafa and Stella Sakalas, and North Carolina transfer Liza Astakhova.

NOTES & QUOTES

Notoa chose BYU over reigning national champion UCLA and TCU, which reached the Elite Eight last season. She led the Australian National Team to a silver medal at the 2025 FIBA U19 Women's Basketball World Cup, averaging 7.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.7 steals. She shot 54.8 percent from the field and 46.7 percent from deep, recording an 11-point, 13-rebound double-double with six assists and two steals against Argentina in the Round of 16.

Astakhova spent her freshman season at North Carolina, appearing in 12 games and averaging 4.7 minutes per outing. She scored a career-high six points in the season opener against NC Central and grabbed a personal-best three rebounds three times, including twice in ACC play against SMU and Pitt.

Seumanutafa is a first-generation college student and the first cousin of teammate Prasayus Notoa. After suiting up for the U19 Australian National Team at the 2024 FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup, she played for the NBL1 Logan Thunder in 2025 and 2026, averaging 6.5 points, 2.8 rebounds, 0.8 assists and 0.7 steals over 13 games.

YOU CAN COUNT ON CANNON

Brinley Cannon was an unsung hero for the Cougars in 2025–26, averaging 7.5 points per game while shooting 42.9 percent from the field and 35.9 percent from 3-point range. The junior pulled down 4.7 rebounds, dished 1.6 assists and recorded 1.4 steals per contest. BYU is 14-2 when Cannon scores in double figures, 10-3 when she tallies three or more assists and 8-1 when she records three or more steals. Cannon also increased her 3-point percentage from 27.7 percent as a freshman to 35.9 percent during her sophomore season.

NAVAJO DIME DROPPER

Despite coming off the bench in the first five games this season, Sydney Benally is averaging 21.5 minutes and 8.8 points per game while increasing her field goal percentage from 30.3 to 50.0 percent and her 3-point percentage from 25.2 to 33.3 percent.

Benally set a BYU freshman record with 148 assists, surpassing two-time WCC Player of the Year Shaylee Gonzales (134). Benally assisted on 24.9 percent of BYU's made baskets while on the floor, ranking in the 91st percentile nationally.

She finished second in the Big 12 and sixth nationally among freshmen in total assists, while her 3.9 assists per game ranked second in the conference and 10th nationally. BYU went 22-6 when Benally recorded at least three assists and 14-1 when she dished out at least five.

In addition to breaking the freshman assist record, Benally started and played in a BYU freshman-record 38 games. She also ranked high in several other freshman categories: second in 3-point field goal attempts (202) and minutes played (1,108:28); fifth in assists per game (3.90); seventh in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.36-to-1) and 3-pointers made (51); eighth in 3-pointers per game (1.38), total steals (51) and minutes per game (29:10); and 12th in steals per game (1.42).

70: THE COUGARS' MAGIC NUMBER

The Cougars posted a 21-3 record when eclipsing 70 points in 2025–26. BYU held 27 of its 38 opponents under 70 points and went 24-3 in those contests. Since 2023–24, the Cougars are 26-2 when holding foes under 60 points.

This season, Cummard's squad has scored over 70 points in four of five games and held opponents to 65 or fewer in each contest, with opponents scoring 60 or fewer in three of those games.

LUCKY NUMBER 7

Olivia Hamlin spearheads BYU's transition attack, scoring 36 of her 74 points this season in transition. She averages 7.6 points per game in the paint and 7.2 in transition, ranking in the 94th and 99th percentiles nationally. She has scored 14 or more points in her last three games on 19-of-35 shooting (54.3 percent) from the field.

Hamlin earned All-Big 12 honorable mention, Big 12 All-Freshman Team honors and two Big 12 Freshman of the Week selections last season. She left her mark on the BYU freshman record book, finishing first in field goal attempts (458); third in total points (490), made field goals (186), steals (65) and minutes played (1,097:07); fourth in 3-pointers made (57); sixth in steals per game (1.71); seventh in 3-pointers per game (1.50); ninth in minutes per game (28:52); and 10th in points per game (12.90).

Hamlin matched a career high with 23 points in a win over Iowa State and again in a WBIT victory against Missouri, shooting 8-for-15 from the field with three triples, a rebound, an assist, a steal and a block.

The Santa Clara, Utah, native led all Big 12 freshmen with 65 total steals, which ranked 10th overall in the conference in 2025–26. She averaged 1.72 steals per game, placing 16th in the league and first among freshmen.

DELANEY GIBB: PREDICTABLY HISTORIC

In 2025–26, Gibb earned All-Big 12 First Team honors and a spot on the USBWA Ann Meyers Drysdale Shooting Guard of the Year midseason top-10 list while leading the Cougars in scoring, assists and steals per game. The junior was one of just three NCAA Division I players to average 18 points, five rebounds, four assists and two steals per game, joining Liv McGill (then of Florida, now at Oklahoma State) and Hannah Hidalgo (Notre Dame). She also became the 34th member of BYU Women's Hoops' 1,000-point club, reaching the milestone in just 57 games—the third-fastest in program history.

Her 37-point performance at Utah, alongside four straight 20-point games, earned Gibb a Big 12 Starting Five nod in back-to-back weeks (Feb. 23 and March 2, 2026). She also became just the third Cougar to score 35-plus points in a game over the last decade—joining WCC Players of the Year Shaylee Gonzales and Cassie Broadhead Devashrayee—and the only one to do so more than once (36 at Utah on March 1, 2025).

Over the past two seasons, Gibb was one of four Division I players to accumulate at least 1,000 points, 300 rebounds, 200 assists and 100 steals as an underclassman, joining Ohio State's Jaloni Cambridge, Oklahoma State's Liv McGill and UConn's Sarah Strong.

Gibb currently sits seventh on the all-time BYU scoring list at 17.58 points per game, just behind two-time WCC Player of the Year Shaylee Gonzales, and 29th in career points with 1,125. She ranks second in 3-point field goals per game (2.41), fifth in career assists per game (4.47), seventh in minutes per game (33:04), 12th in 3-point field goals made (152) and 14th in 3-point field goal percentage (.360).

Gibb was one of four unanimous selections to the Preseason All-Big 12 Team, joining Baylor's Talia Scott, Kansas' S'Mya Nichols and Oklahoma State's Audi Crooks. The junior was named to the Ann Meyers Drysdale Shooting Guard of the Year Watch List for the second consecutive season—one of three Big 12 players selected—and earned a spot on the Naismith Trophy Women's College Player of the Year Watch List.

After recording the seventh triple-double in BYU women's basketball history on Nov. 7 against Montana—and the first since 1986—Gibb earned Big 12 Player of the Week honors and was named one of five USBWA Ann Meyers Drysdale Players of the Week.

With her 28-point, seven-rebound, five-assist and two-steal performance against New Mexico, Gibb became the third BYU player since 1999 to record 28+ points, 7+ rebounds, 5+ assists and 2+ steals in the same game. She has achieved the feat three times, with no other player recording more than one such game.

ALL-BIG 12 BACKCOURT

Delaney Gibb and Olivia Hamlin each received conference recognition last season for their stellar backcourt play. Gibb was named to the First Team, while Hamlin earned All-Big 12 honorable mention and a spot on the All-Freshman Team.

Through five games, the duo is averaging 31.4 points, 9.4 rebounds, 6.4 assists and 3.2 steals per game.

#1 PRASAYUS NOTOA

Prasayus Notoa chose to play basketball at BYU over reigning national champion UCLA and TCU, which made a run to the Elite Eight a season ago. She will play alongside her first cousin, Vahayliah Seumanutafa.

Notoa led the Australian National Team to a silver medal at the 2025 FIBA U19 Women's Basketball World Cup, averaging 7.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.7 steals. She shot 54.8 percent from the field and 46.7 percent from deep in the tournament. Against Argentina in the Round of 16, she recorded an 11-point, 13-rebound double-double that also included six assists and two steals.

The freshman was named the Most Valuable Player and Defensive Player of the Tournament after helping the Queensland U20 team secure a silver medal at the 2026 Foot Locker U20 National Championships. Notoa tallied 15.8 points, 12.2 rebounds, 3.0 on the offensive glass, 6.2 assists, 2.2 steals and 0.8 blocks in five games.

Notoa also suited up for the Logan Thunder in NBL1, a semi-professional basketball league in Australia operated by the National Basketball League. She helped guide the Thunder to the NBL1 North Conference Championship and earned the league's Youth Player of the Year honors in 2025.

#2 SYDNEY BENALLY

Sydney Benally was named New Mexico's Gatorade Player of the Year in 2024 and 2025 en route to back-to-back state championships with Sandia High School. She was the 88th-ranked player in the class of 2025 by ESPN HoopGurlz and a 2024–25 McDonald's All-American nominee.

Benally is one of nine players in NCAA Division I women's basketball of Native American descent and one of two of Navajo descent. She participated in the Native American Basketball Invitational in 2024 and 2025, winning back-to-back team titles with the Rezbommers and earning consecutive MVP awards. NABI is the largest all-Native American high school basketball tournament in the country, empowering Indigenous youth through sports, education, and community engagement. Benally was named the first female ambassador for NABI in 2025, a position that makes her one of the most visible role models in Native American basketball.

This summer, Benally was recognized by the 25th Navajo Nation Council for her contributions to the Navajo Nation and her achievements on and off the basketball court. She was also featured in an episode of the Emmy Award-winning television show Navajo Highways, a Navajo-language educational children's series created to make Diné Bizaad and cultural teachings accessible and engaging for young learners. The purpose of the show is to "demonstrate the power of Diné storytelling, creating a place where Navajo children can see themselves, hear their language and know their stories belong on screen".

On the floor, Benally finished in the top 12 of 14 statistical categories in the freshman record book:

1st: Assists (148), Games Played (38), Games Started (38)
2nd: 3-Point Field Goal Attempts (202), Minutes Played (1,108:28)
3rd: Turnovers (109)
5th: Assists Per Game (3.90), Field Goal Attempts (330)
7th: Assist-to-Turnover Ratio (1.36:1), 3-Point Field Goals Made (51)
8th: 3-Point Field Goals Per Game (1.38), Minutes Per Game (29:10), Steals (51)
12th: Sydney Benally (1.42)

#3 BOLANLE YUSSUF

Bolanle Yussuf, also known as Bola, came to BYU from Nigeria after playing high school basketball at a prep academy in Japan, where she averaged 24.7 points and 18.9 rebounds during her senior season en route to the U18 Nissin League Championship in 2024 and 2025.

Yussuf explained her love for the game: "I play for something much bigger than myself. Coming from Lagos, Nigeria, basketball has given me a stage where people look up to me. I love this game because it gives me the ultimate opportunity to uplift my family, inspire the next generation, and give back to people at home."

The sophomore noted that her biggest basketball inspirations are Chiney and Nneka Ogwumike. "What they do on the court is incredible, but who they are as leaders is what truly inspires me," she said. "Chiney hosts basketball camps in Nigeria, and seeing her give back to our people showed me what is possible. My ultimate goal is not just to play the game; I want to be impactful, support my family, and give back to my community just like they do."

This past summer, Yussuf and Mariam Traore visited Senegal and Egypt to host basketball camps for local youth and provide free medical eye care in collaboration with the Mali Foundation. Each camper received a jersey and a pair of shoes ahead of the two-day camp, which included on-court coaching, drills, and games.

Reflecting on the experience, Yussuf said, "The talent and energy were amazing! You could really see how much joy the game of basketball brings to their communities. The most rewarding part is that the medical teams returned a month later to perform surgeries and provide advanced care. Being able to bring sustainable, life-altering vision care back to the people we met in both countries was a joy to witness."

The Lagos, Nigeria, native established 11 freshman records that rank in the top 15 in program history:

Games Played (38), Personal Fouls (117)
6th: Blocks (33), Rebounds (191), Times Disqualified (4)
7th: Defensive Rebounds (120), Offensive Rebounds (71), Offensive Rebounds Per Game (1.87)
8th: Blocks Per Game (0.87)

#5 LIZA ASTAKHOVA

Liza Astakhova spent her freshman season at North Carolina where she appeared in appeared in 12 games, averaging 4.7 minutes per outing. She scored a career-high six points in the season opener against NC Central, grabbed a personal-best three rebounds three times, including twice in ACC action against SMU and Pitt.

Astakhova chose to play for the Cougars because of the coaching staff, the love she felt from her soon-to-be teammates on her visit and previous connections to BYU. Astakhova is a Kobe Bryant disciple. Bryant is her biggest basketball inspiration because of his play style, mentality and approach to the game, all of which she tries to emulate in her play.

#6 VAHAYLIAH SEUMANUTAFA

After suiting up for the U19 Australian National Team at the 2024 FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup, she played for the NBL1 Logan Thunder in 2025 and 2026, averaging 6.5 points, 2.8 rebounds, 0.8 assists, and 0.7 steals over 13 games.

Seumanutafa also suited up for the Queensland team in 2021, 2022, and 2024. She was named to the U15 Australian National Team for the FIBA Oceania Championship, but was unable to participate due to a knee injury suffered shortly before the tournament.

#7 OLIVIA HAMLIN

Olivia Hamlin originally committed to play college basketball at Nebraska, but flipped her commitment to BYU after the hiring of head coach Lee Cummard in March 2025. After a record-setting freshman season, Hamlin said, "There is no doubt that I made the right decision. My path to get to BYU wasn't the normal recruiting path, but that's okay because I am here now and so glad that when the right time came, I listened to my heart and committed to BYU."

"...I love being here because I love all the girls and the coaches. The team chemistry is amazing. The team is so diverse, but we are all focused on building a strong program. We feel like we are building something special here and I love being a part of it. I love the fans too. They are so passionate and they make me just want to compete and play for them."

Hamlin was the 59th-ranked player by Prospects Nation and ranked 73rd by BTN Scouting for the class of 2025. She led Snow Canyon High School to Utah 4A state runner-up finishes in 2024 and 2025 and was named the 4A Player of the Year in both seasons. Hamlin is one of two players in Utah girls' basketball history to eclipse 2,500 career points and led all classifications in scoring in 2024 and 2025. She is Utah's all-time steals leader with 465. Hamlin was recruited by Clemson, Harvard, Marquette, Minnesota, Nebraska, TCU, UNLV, and Virginia Tech.

Hamlin speaks Mandarin Chinese and participated in the Chinese immersion program from first through ninth grade.

The rising sophomore earned a selection to the All-Big 12 Freshman Team and was named an All-Big 12 honorable mention after setting 16 top-15 freshman marks in 2025–26:

1st: Field Goal Attempts (458), Games Played (38)
3rd: Field Goals Made (186), Minutes Played (1,097:07), Points (490), Steals (65)
4th: 3-Point Field Goals Made (57), 3-Point Field Goal Attempts (188)
6th: Steals Per Game (1.71)
7th: 3-Point Field Goals Per Game (1.50)
9th: Free Throw Attempts (89), Minutes Played Per Game (28:52), Points Per Game (12.90)
12th: Free Throws Made (61)
14th: Defensive Rebounds (84)
15th: Assists (51)

#10 KAILEY WOOLSTON

Kailey Woolston returned from serving an 18-month mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Baltimore, Maryland, in December 2025 and rejoined the team in January. Because she returned in the middle of the academic year, Woolston redshirted the 2025-26 season to prepare for the 2026-27 campaign.

Of her mission, Woolston said, "The gospel of Jesus Christ correlates a lot with the game of basketball. One big thing that I learned on my mission is the perspective that basketball is important, but it's not everything. At BYU, we love basketball and we want to compete at a high level, but we know that it isn't the most important thing in our lives. Understanding that my worth doesn't lie in who I am as a basketball player, or my performance on any given night... The way that BYU develops us as people is unmatched.""

During her freshman season in 2023-24, Woolston ranked No. 2 in the NCAA in 3-point percentage at 46.6 percent, setting a BYU freshman record. She earned back-to-back Big 12 weekly honors on Nov. 20 and 27 and scored a career-high 26 points against Kansas on Jan. 31, 2024, at Allen Fieldhouse. She shot 8-of-14 from the field–including 6-for-10 from 3-point range–and scored in double figures in 24 of the 32 games she appeared in during her freshman campaign.

#11 DELANEY GIBB

Gibb entered her freshman campaign as the 77th-ranked player in ESPN's 2024 HoopGurlz Recruiting Rankings and exceeded all expectations as she single-handedly rewrote the BYU freshman record book en route to 10 Big 12 Freshman of the Year nods and the Big 12 Freshman of the Year designation.

During her sophomore season, Gibb was one of three players in Division I to average 18 points, five rebounds, four assists and two steals per game, joining Liv McGill (Florida, now at Oklahoma State) and Hannah Hidalgo (Notre Dame). The sophomore also became the third-fastest player in BYU history to reach 1,000-career points, doing so in 57 games and one of just seven active players to reach 1,000-career points during their sophomore seasons.

Gibb was named to the All-Big 12 First Team, the USBWA Ann Meyers Drysdale Shooting Guard of the Year Midseason Top 10 and was a three-time Big 12 Starting Five honoree.

With a career-high 37 points at Utah, Gibb became just the third Cougar to score 35+ points in a game in the last decade, joining WCC Players of the Year Shaylee Gonzales and Cassie Broadhead Devashrayee. Gibb is the only player to do so twice, during that stretch, as she also scored 36 at Utah on March 1, 2025.

The Raymond, Alberta native's ultimate goal in basketball is to represent Team Canada in the Olympics, and Gibb is well on her way to making that dream a reality. She has suited up for Team Canada at the U16, U17, U19 and Senior National Teams levels, has collected three medals in her national team career and was selected to the Canada Basketball Senior National Team Player Pool for the 2026 FIBA World Cup.

Gibb helped Canada to a bronze medal with the Senior National Team at the 2025 FIBA AmeriCup, recording the game-winning assist by finding Michigan's Syla Swords to secure the bronze. She also captured bronze at the 2023 U19 World Championship and a silver medal at the 2021 FIBA U16 Americas Championship.

Gibb most recently suited up for Canada Basketball at the 2026 FIBA Women's Olympic Pre-Qualifying Tournament in Guadalajara, Mexico. Gibb turned in 7.2 points, 3.3 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.8 steals per contest en route to the tournament title, punching Canada's ticket to the 2028 FIBA Women's Olympic Qualifying Tournament. Gibb participated in the Canadian National Team training camp ahead of the 2024 Paris Olympics and was selected as the first alternate for the final Olympic roster.

#12 STELLA SAKALAS

Stella Sakalas comes from an athletic family, with both parents having been Division I athletes at Iowa State. Her father, Mike, was an offensive lineman for the Cyclones from 1992-96. Her mother, Cindy, was a swimmer for Iowa State from 1992-96 and was named ISU's Most Improved Swimmer in 1992-93. Her younger twin brothers, Henry and Hank, both play varsity football for Nazareth Academy; Henry is committed to Michigan State, and Hank is headed to Southwest Minnesota State in 2027.

Sakalas lived the first 12 years of her life in Australia and holds dual citizenship. She competed in the School Sports Australia national cross country championship for Victoria in 2017.

Ranked as the No. 78 player in the class of 2026 by Prep Girls Hoops, Sakalas was named the 2026 Illinois 4A Media Co-Player of the Year and earned Illinois 4A All-State First Team honors after leading Nazareth Academy to the 2026 Illinois 4A state championship. During her senior season, she averaged 18 points and eight rebounds while shooting 55 percent from the field and 44 percent from 3-point range.

#14 KAMBREE TAYLOR

Kambree (Barber) Taylor appeared in 25 games, making six starts during her freshman season in 2024-25. The Rigby, Idaho, native averaged 17.5 minutes, 4.3 points on 46.7 percent shooting, and 4.7 rebounds per game, with 35 percent of her rebounds coming on the offensive glass. Taylor posted a career-high 15 points and 12 rebounds while going 7-of-9 from the floor against Arizona State on Feb. 1, 2025, en route to her first career double-double and Big 12 Freshman of the Week honors.

The Rigby High School graduate was named to the 5A All-State First Team in 2023 and was the 2022 Idaho 5A Player of the Year. Aside from basketball, Taylor also played volleyball and earned 2023 Idaho 5A All-Conference First Team honors. She was recruited by Boise State, Saint Mary's, and Utah Valley.

On Sept. 28, 2025, Taylor got engaged to Dallas Taylor. The two were married on Dec. 27, 2025, just four days before the Cougars took on the No. 9 TCU Horned Frogs at the Marriott Center on New Year's Eve.

Taylor said, "I love playing basketball at BYU because of the culture and the people here. I am able to compete at a high level while also growing as a person and in my faith. BYU is a place where I could do all of those things."

#24 BRINLEY CANNON

Cannon prepped at Shelley High School, where she earned back-to-back 4A Player of the Year honors in 2023 and 2024 en route to winning the 2024 Idaho 4A state championship. She is the all-time leading scorer and rebounder at Shelley High with 1,818 career points and 1,009 rebounds.

She comes from an athletic family; her brother McKay suited up for the Cougars from 2018-20. Cannon's mother, Jennifer, played basketball at Ricks College (1991-93) and Idaho State (1993-95), while her father, Seth, played at Ricks (1991-93) and the College of Idaho (1993-95).

Cannon is the youngest of five children and has a twin brother who is currently serving a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She grew up in the gym watching her brothers play. One of her earliest basketball memories is playing on an all-boys team with her brothers, with her dad as head coach. Her older brother McKay, who played at BYU, is her biggest role model because of his competitive and fearless approach to the game, which she tries to emulate on the court.

The 2025-26 season was a breakout campaign for Cannon as she scored in double figures 12 times, with the Cougars going 10-2 in those contests. She turned in her career-best performance in BYU's 77-65 home win over rival Utah, scoring 21 points on 6-of-9 shooting from 3-point range. Cannon also added four rebounds, two assists, two steals, and two blocks as BYU secured the first of three wins over the Utes in 2025-26.

#30 MARIAM TRAORE

Traore missed the majority of her junior and all of her senior seasons due to back-to-back knee injuries. She played her junior season at Bella Vista College Prep in Phoenix, Arizona, before transferring to Liahona Preparatory Academy for her senior year of high school.

Traore is the younger sister of former BYU men's basketball player Fousseyni Traore. Traore appeared in three games in 2025-26, after returning from injury. She scored two points in both her debut against UTEP, and the WBIT quarterfinal against Missouri.

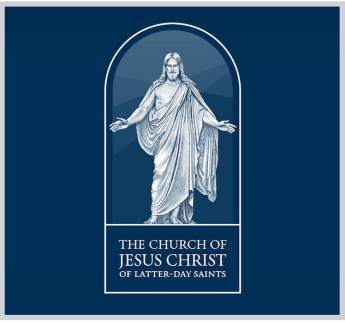

Students and student-athletes come from all over the world to study and compete at Brigham Young University. For more than 150 years since its humble beginnings, this church-sponsored institution has become one of the largest private universities in the United States. Nestled at the foot of the towering Wasatch Mountains in Provo, Utah, BYU's 738-acre campus is home to more than 35,000 students who come from 105 countries and every state in the United States. Amidst BYU's growth, there has remained a constant thread. Dedicated faculty, administrators, coaches and students embrace a vision of learning, in which academics and faith go hand in hand and the ultimate goal is to help students develop their full divine potential as children of God.

The mission of BYU Athletics is to, "Build a distinctive, exceptional athletic program that prominently promotes the values of Brigham Young University and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by developing successful, faith-based, influential scholar-athlete leaders who are ambassadors for good. BYU Athletics' Vision Statement is to, "...inspire others through competitive excellence while striving to live the values taught by Jesus Christ."

WHAT IS A MISSION? AND WHY SERVE?

Missionary service has been a staple within BYU Athletics since its inception. More than half of all BYU students serve missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. While Church members understand what a mission entails, the details of missionary service can be foreign to those not of the faith. This page is to help our Big 12 friends, media members and others understand more about missionary service.

WHAT IS A MISSION?

The Church's missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of major cities as well as in smaller communities around the world. Both men and women can choose to serve missions that are voluntary and self-funded. Female missionaries serve for a period of 18 months. BYU student-athletes who chose to serve missions do so out of a love for Jesus Christ and a desire to serve others.

Female student-athletes are eligible to serve missions after their 18th birthday, and often take a break from studying and competing at BYU to participate in missionary service. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent to countries throughout the world where governments allow the Church to operate.

Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language. Due in part to the many international missionary service experiences among BYU students, more than 60 percent of the student body speaks a second language.

HOW TO TALK ABOUT MISSIONS

We request that those referring to missions do not refer to missions as "mission trips," "Mormon missions" or "LDS missions"

We request that those referring to missions use terms such as "serving a mission," "full-time mission," "18-month mission," "missionary service," "Latter-day Saint mission," or "a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints" For more information, check out The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints' style guide.

WHY SERVE A MISSION?

Ultimately, missionary work is about serving God, His children and dedicating one's life to that service. Missionaries often talk about serving a mission as a small way to show appreciation to God for all that He has given them in their lives. As missionaries learn, work and serve, they also gain essential life skills in areas of study, planning, logistics, interpersonal communication, relationship building, cross-cultural competence, patience, resilience and time management. A mission can serve as an important foundation for the rest of one's life, ultimately benefiting those who serve in their future education, family life, work life and Church service.

DAY-TO-DAY LIFE AS A MISSIONARY

The overarching purpose of missionary service is to invite individuals to learn about and follow the teachings Jesus Christ. Missionaries wake up at 6:30 a.m. and spend time each morning exercising and doing religious study. They then spend the day talking to people, visiting in their homes and providing service from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Missionaries look for ways to serve and help others. Missionaries hold the title of "Elder" or "Sister" and are referred to as such, with their last names (Sister Woolston or Sister Bartholomew). Each missionary serves in a companionship with one or two other missionaries. The companionships are assigned to specific geographic areas with assignments changing at different times throughout their mission. Missionaries have a weekly preparation day to grocery shop, do laundry and complete other necessities of life. Outside of the occasional game of non-competitive basketball, missionaries have little to no sport-specific training while serving their missions.

CURRENT COUGS ON MISSIONS

The Cougars have two missionaries currently serving in the mission field, and one that will make her return to the hardwood this season.

SISTER KAILEY WOOLSTON
BALTIMORE MARYLAND MISSION

In the midst of a record-setting freshman campaign, Kailey Woolston announced to her teammates on Feb. 27, 2024 that she would be putting basketball on hold to serve an 18-month mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. For 18 months, the second-ranked three-point shooter in 2023-24 spent her time inviting individuals to learn about and follow Jesus Christ. She now returns in hopes of helping the Cougars reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2022, and the first time as a Big 12 Conference member.

Of her mission, Sister Woolston said, "The gospel of Jesus Christ correlates a lot with the game of basketball. One big thing that I learned on my mission is the perspective that basketball is important, but it's not everything. At BYU, we love basketball and we want to compete at a high level, but we know that it isn't the most important thing in our lives. I have learned that my worth doesn't lie in who I am as a basketball player, or my performance on any given night. Instead, my worth lies in the fact that I am a Child of God, and the love He has for me isn't conditional to any performance or worldly accolade.

Sarah Bartholomew, who suited up for the Cougars in 2024-25, is serving in the Brisbane, Australia mission and is set to return in late 2026. Upon her arrival, Bartholomew will rejoin the BYU roster in January, primed and ready to make an impact for the Cougar squad.

SISTER SARAH BARTHOLOMEW
BRISBANE AUSTRALIA MISSION

Of her mission, Sister Bartholomew said, "I am so glad that i came on a mission...There were definitely some major low moments, but there's something about God, he doesn't just give us quick fixes to please us in the moment and leave us feeling empty the next morning. He cares for us, shows us loves, gives us hope, helps us overcome, and accomplish something we could have never done alone. Looking back, I know that I could have NEVER done this unless it was for God and WITH God. He truly has been with me every step of the way. He is so aware of us. Anyone who doesn't understand would look back at the past 15 months and say it was a waste, that it was the worst thing I could have done for my athletic career. But they don't understand. He is what is most important. He is my true source of joy. I love Him!"

Incoming freshman Kennedy Woolston, younger sister of Kailey, is the second missionary. She chose to serve her mission before gracing the hardwood for the Cougars, as she serves in Indianapolis, Indiana. She will miss the 2026-27 and 2027-28 season before returning as a freshman for the 2028-29 campaign.

LEE CUMMARD

HEAD COACH · 2ND SEASON · M.P.A. BYU '18

Historic Debut Season – 2025-26

The former All-American with the Cougars wasted no time making his mark, leading BYU to a 26-12 record, two wins in the Big 12 Tournament, and an appearance in the WBIT championship game during the 2025-26 season.

In his first season at the helm, Cummard led the Cougars to 26 victories—the second-most wins in a season in program history. He also set the program record for home wins at the Marriott Center with 15 and notched the school's best conference record (9-9) since BYU entered the Big 12 in 2023. Cummard's squad opened the year by posting an 11-1 non-conference record, good for a .917 winning percentage, the highest ever for a BYU team. Early in the Big 12 slate, Cummard coached the Cougars to their first ranked win of the year, a 73-61 victory over No. 19 Texas Tech.

After encountering a stretch of mid-season adversity, Cummard galvanized his team, sparking a three-game winning streak to conclude the regular season with road wins at Utah and Arizona State, followed by a senior night victory over Colorado. He then guided BYU to its first-ever Big 12 Tournament wins as the Cougars defeated Houston and Utah to reach the quarterfinals. The victory over the Utes capped a 3-0 season sweep against the rival Utes.

Despite being the first team left out of the NCAA Tournament field, Cummard's squad carried its momentum into the Women's Basketball Invitational Tournament. The Cougars opened the tournament with a 72-47 victory over Alabama A&M. They then defeated fourth-seeded Missouri 93-75, marking the most points BYU has scored in a win over a Power-4 opponent since 2001. BYU advanced to the WBIT Final Four with a 76-61 win over No. 2 seed Stanford.

With that victory, the Cougars earned a semifinal rematch with Kansas, avenging an earlier regular-season defeat with a 70-67 win to advance to the program's first postseason tournament title game. The victory over the Jayhawks marked BYU's fourth win of the postseason, the most ever by a Cougar team.

Cummard coached two Cougars to All-Big 12 honors in 2025-26. Delaney Gibb was named to the All-Big 12 First Team, making her one of just three underclassmen selected to the 10-player team. Olivia Hamlin received All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors, finishing as one of only two freshmen to earn all-conference accolades this season.

The first-year head coach placed a premium on defense, helping BYU improve from 141st nationally in opponent field goal percentage (.399) in 2024-25 to 22nd-best in the country (.369) in 2025-26. The Cougars also locked down the perimeter, jumping from 322nd a year ago (34.2%) to 25th in 3-point field goal defense, holding opponents to 27.4% from beyond the arc. On the glass, BYU rose from 116th in total rebounding (37.7 per game) to 35th, pulling down 40.7 boards per contest.

Cummard's Coaching Climb

Associate Head Coach (2022-25): Serving under former head coach Amber Whiting, Cummard helped secure back-to-back postseason bids to the WNIT in 2023 and the WBIT in 2024. He helped coach Lauren Gustin, BYU's all-time leading rebounder and a two-time All-America Honorable Mention selection. He was also instrumental in the recruiting and development of All-Big 12 selections Delaney Gibb and Kailey Woolston. Cummard also helped lead the Cougars to marquee wins over No. 18 Baylor in 2024 and No. 20 Oklahoma State in 2025.

Assistant Coach (2019-22): Working alongside Jeff Judkins, the winningest coach in BYU basketball history, Cummard helped the women's team secure consecutive NCAA Tournament trips in 2021 and 2022. During the historic 2021-22 season, BYU spent a school-record 16 consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25, reached a peak ranking of No. 20, won the West Coast Conference regular-season championship, and logged five wins against Power Five opponents.

When Judkins was sidelined due to COVID-19, Cummard stepped in as acting head coach and led the Cougars to a 3-0 record, including ranked wins over No. 17 Florida State and No. 22 West Virginia to win the St. Pete Showcase. In three seasons, Cummard tutored six all-conference players who combined for 12 yearly conference honors, including two-time WCC Player of the Year Shaylee Gonzales, three-time All-WCC First Team selection and current assistant coach Paisley Johnson Harding, and WCC Defensive Player of the Year Sara Hamson.

Men's Basketball Staff (2016–19): Cummard began his coaching career under his former collegiate coach, Dave Rose. As an assistant coach in 2018-19, he helped guide the men's team to a 19-13 record. As a graduate assistant from 2016 to 2018, he contributed to consecutive 20-win seasons and back-to-back NIT berths while coaching Cougar stars Yoeli Childs, TJ Haws, Eric Mika, and NBA champion Elijah Bryant.

Before transitioning into coaching, Cummard played professionally for seven years, with stints in France (2009–11), Japan (2011–12), and Belgium (2012–16).

A Decorated Playing Career

Cummard has excelled at practicing what he preaches. He spent his own collegiate career on the Marriott Center hardwood, starring for BYU from 2005 to 2009.

He earned All-America honors as a junior and senior, receiving an AP All-America Honorable Mention nod in 2008 and a Fourth Team All-America selection from FOXSports.com in 2009. Cummard was named the 2008 Mountain West Conference Player of the Year and was a three-time All-MWC honoree, earning third-team honors as a sophomore in 2007 before receiving first-team selection in 2008 and 2009.

At the conclusion of his four-year BYU career, Cummard ranked in the top 20 of 28 different school statistical categories. He ranks second in effective field goal percentage (.608), third in consecutive games played (131), fifth in 3-point field goal percentage (.431), and fifth in free-throw percentage (.842). He also sits sixth in consecutive games started (102); 10th in offensive rebounds (202), blocks (106), total victories (97), and five-steal games; and 12th in games played (131), games started (116), and three-block games.

Additionally, he ranks 13th in 3-pointers made (153), steals (129), minutes played (3,602), and points per field-goal attempt (1.49); 14th in blocks per game (0.81); 15th in field goals made (561) and double-figure scoring games (77); 16th in total points (1,569); 17th in field-goal percentage (.535); and 20th in rebounds (686).

Cummard and his wife, Sarah, have three sons. He served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Tennessee.
