“Just who do you think you are, Mac? One of the Alsops, or something?”
"You had yours; this happens to be mine. The law of the jungle doesn’t apply here."
“Now, for God’s sake let’s try and do one thing right, and not all dump our stock in the corporation at the same time.”
"I’m glad you like it. It’s a combination of Temptation and 6.12 Insect Repellent."

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (1/3/1959)
“Some night on the town—watching an old man fighting a fish!”
“That? Oh, that’s nothing. Just something I was fooling around with.”
“Our ship leaves in half an hour. Can’t we haggle in units of five dollars or multiples thereof?”
“I don’t care what the ads say. Just don’t go lifting any more portable television sets.”
“I’ve been afraid of this. The people want credit cards!”

Alan Dunn (1/3/1959)
“I know one thing. If the front were on the back and the back were on the front, I’d say yes in a jiffy.”
“George! We can’t call him George. Who ever heard of an Arab called George?”
“This neighborhood certainly is going to pot.”
“Just keep thinking about those eighty miles to the gallon.”
“You’re right, young man. This set doesn’t make the Ferris wheel.”
“Thursday is visiting day, Murphy, and you know it!”
“The sea, Madam, is a cruel mistress.”
BEGINNERS’ SLOPE (1 OF 14)

“Of course you can do it. It’s all up here.”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
BEGINNERS' SLOPE (2 OF 14)
“We find, on the average, only one per cent of our guests are casualties. Breaks, that is—not counting sprains.”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
BEGINNERS’ SLOPE (4 OF 14)

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
BEGINNERS’ SLOPE (5 OF 14)

“You back up a few steps.”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
BEGINNERS’ SLOPE (6 OF 14)

“Excuse me. I can’t stop.”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
“Look at it logically, Harriet. You can’t walk down.”
BEGINNERS’ SLOPE (9 OF 14)

“All right! The less said about who’s chicken, the better.”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
BEGINNERS’ SLOPE (10 of 14)

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
“That was a very nice fall, Mrs. Bleecker.”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
BEGINNERS' SLOPE (12 OF 14)

“I said to Artie this afternoon, ‘That’s the prettiest slalom I ever saw,’ and now I find out it was you.”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
BEGINNERS’ SLOPE (13 OF 14)

“Why, Austin! You’re good!”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
BEGINNERS’ SLOPE (14 OF 14)

“I wonder if you’d mind not walking through the dining room until the new weekend people have finished dinner.”

Charles Saxon (1/10/1959)
“There, Doctor! There it goes again!”
"I have to hand it to you, Mac! You sure got these folks buffaloed."
James Stevenson (1/10/1959)
“And I say it would be an outrageous invasion of the rights of the sovereign State of Alaska!”
“It’s an interesting soup. But not a great soup.”

Eldon Dedini (1/17/1959)
"If that's what he is, you've got to give him credit for trying not to be too abominable."
“Keep that left arm straight, stop moving your head, watch your follow-through . . .”
“Yes, I would mind reading back what I’ve got so far.”

William O’Brien (1/17/1959)
“Old Miss Pringle at her worst never made a mistake like this.”
“I never make an arbitrary choice, Madam. I wait for a volunteer.”

Kenneth Mahood (1/17/1959)
“And remember, kid, you’ve got Blue Cross.”
“Well, there you are, Senator. You would snap back at May Craig!”
George Price (1/17/1959)
“Tell you what. I’ll race you to the next exit, double or nothing.”
“Our losses from shoplifting have been cut to practically nothing.”
“How come every time I say something you ‘beg to differ’ with me? You a jujitsu expert or something?”
“This is they.”
“Well, I’m glad to see that money still means something.”
“Your zeal is commendable, Brother, but I sometimes wonder if you aren’t driving yourself too hard.”
“Suppose you met me for the first time, George. What impression would I make?”
“You’ll find everything here, Comrade—your American passport, Social Security number, birth certificate, driver’s license, and Diners’ Club card.”
“The trouble with you is there isn’t any right way to rub you.”

Eldon Dedini (1/24/1959)
“I want you to know I have my eye on you, Albertson—or is it Griswold?”

Richard Decker (1/24/1959)
“I think you’d make a great President, too.”
“O.K.! You can go now!”
“Which would you rather have—a dime to play it or a quarter not to?”

Perry Barlow (1/24/1959)
“You may get away with evading tithes for a while, but sooner or later they always catch up with you.”
“You’re all I’ve got.”
"He's a nut."
"Oh, it’s no problem telling my wife I’ve been fired, but what am I going to say to ‘Who’s Who’?"
“George! Are you in there?”
“There! You see! You’re not interested in me as a person!”
“The boy is improving. He used to bawl every time he started to lose.”

Barney Tobey (1/31/1959)
"Spending—uh—I mean speaking!"

Alan Dunn (1/31/1959)
“Do Larks wave at each other?”

Perry Barlow (1/31/1959)
“Let’s try to be civilized about this. I love your wives and they love me.”

Mischa Richter (1/31/1959)
“Look, my fine friend! One more comparison between our civilization and ancient Rome’s, and out you go!”

Barney Tobey (1/31/1959)
“And then, besides being overworked and understaffed, the pay here is really quite miserable.”
“All Ed and I did was run down to City Hall.”
“According to the figures, one thing is clear. I can’t live on my salary!”

Alan Dunn (2/7/1959)
“Listen, pal, suppose we just let little old G.M. decide whether or not America wants a small car.”

Perry Barlow (2/7/1959)
“I’m watching ‘Meet the Press.’”

James Mulligan (2/7/1959)
“Where do we file a claim for collision damage?”
“Then she said, ‘And that goes double for that fatheaded, conceited analyst of yours.’”
(6 OF 8)

Saul Steinberg (2/7/1959)
“Just because a fellow happens to agree with me once in a while doesn’t make him a yes man in my book.”
“My! This cruise is all-inclusive!”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (2/7/1959)
“This inflation spiral—how do I get into it?”
“Paul Gauguin was a restless, brooding man who was always searching for that indefinable something.”

Charles Saxon (2/7/1959)
“It’s awfully hard to tell how much they like you when they don’t have an allowance.”
“On the contrary, Madam. If I found cocktail parties dull, boring, and a waste of time, I wouldn’t go to them.”
“But gosh, Harry, a fellow can’t live by bread alone!”
“I’m very sorry, Madam, but we have a firm policy, from which we never deviate: ‘No tickee, no washee.’”
“It turns out, Estelle, that I’m not being kicked upstairs, after all. I’m being kicked downstairs.”
“You might as well relax, Mister. You ordered lobster, and when you order lobster, you wear a bib.”
“How do I go about changing my name to Rembrandt van Rijn?”
“Would you mind doing your thinking somewhere else?”
“For heaven’s sakes, if you’ll only read that note I handed you, you’ll find it’s a simple request for a statement of account!”

Alan Dunn (2/14/1959)
“We’re not living happily ever after.”
“Oh dear! I wish I’d known it was the ‘Erotica.’ That’s my favorite!”

Everett Opie (2/14/1959)
“You’re barking up the wrong tree.”
WE GIVE TRADING STAMPS
“... with the barometer at two-nine point eight-one and falling. And that’s it. This is Carol Reed, your weather girl, saying good night, and have a happy.”

Alain (2/14/1959)
“Guess what! I think I have a hangover!”

Barney Tobey (2/14/1959)
“First, let’s pin this down. Is what’s eatin’ you why we’re here in general or why we’re here in particular?”
“We are poor little lambs who have lost our way. Baa, baa, baa . . .”
“And God bless A.T.& T., Anaconda Copper, Inland Steel, Parke Davis . . .”
“A copy of Robert’s ‘Rules of Order.’”
“You ought to get married, Joe. How can you stand it night after night, running around with different girls, going to night clubs, hanging around bars with your pals, coming home whenever you damn well please?”
“Are you positive you had five when you started out this morning?”
“Now swivel.”
“I take it, sir, that you’d like to see something a little more conservative.”
“Well, there’s geriatrics for you.”
“You’ve got to learn to accept captivity.”
“Coming from you, that’s a compliment!”
“I don’t like the way he carefully sized us up and then put us in the Knotty-Pine Room.”
“Anyway, now we know he’s not marrying you for your money.”
CUBANA
travel service

Everett Opie (2/28/1959)
“Then in 1927, against Clinton High, with only two minutes to play . . .”
“Judge not, that ye be not judged!”

James Mulligan (2/28/1959)
“This time poor Tom is determined to stop smoking.”
“How do you get so tired every day on your salary?”

Chon Day (2/28/1959)
"Keep this under your hats, kids—Dreme soap not only smells good, it tastes good."

William O’Brian (2/28/1959)
“You are happy, contented, and have no complaints.”

Dana Fradon (2/28/1959)
“Admit it, Miss Norton. Isn’t this more fun than a stuffy old coffee break?”

Barney Tobey (2/28/1959)
“Don’t signal me. I’ll signal you.”
“If I can bring just one member of the Sports Car Club of America back into the fold, it will be well worth what I paid for it.”
“You know, as many times as we’ve done this, I still enjoy the consternation our appearance creates.”
Frank Modell (2/28/1959)
“Lady, could you spare fifty cents so I can phone home to Mother?”

Claude Smith (2/28/1959)
Whitney Darrow, Jr. (3/7/1959)
“Like most people, I’ve been worried about Russia and the atom bomb, about China and Egypt and the missile gap, about juvenile delinquency and the national debt and lots of other things. But that’s not the reason I’m here, Doctor. I’m here because last week I felt I’d come up with perfectly marvellous solutions for all of them.”

James Stevenson (3/7/1959)
William O'Brian (3/7/1959)
“Think it over. One statue sold to one museum, or a dozen fragments sold to a dozen museums.”

Alan Dunn (3/7/1959)
“Tower to test pilot, tower to test pilot, you can bring her down. She’s been declared obsolete.”

Lee Lorenz (3/7/1959)
“That set of the Book of Knowledge cost me a hundred and twenty-five dollars. Now go look something up.”

Charles Saxon (3/7/1959)
“Goodness! What ever happened to his air of quiet distinction?”
“It’s a jury. Discharged without commendation.”
“Now, in this model the strings on the right and the horns on the left are blended through this single opening.”
“Do you realize the odds against this sort of thing actually happening?”
“I don’t want any crowding or shoving. Come aboard in an orderly manner as your names are called. Now, then—the aardvarks . . .”
“Now, don’t go and get mad just because you hurt my feelings!”

Charles Saxon (3/7/1959)
“I’ve just won seventy-five thousand dollars in the Sunny Crunchy contest. I want a divorce.”
“Oh, you wonderful man! Long-stemmed roses!”
“‘Variety.’”
“I haven’t been feeling very exalted lately.”

Robert Kraus (3/14/1959)
“Hold it, men! Our budget’s been slashed.”
“I’ve been thirty-five years behind this bar without making hot buttered rum, and I don’t intend to start now.”

Barney Tobey (3/14/1959)
“Here’s your trouble! Leaky washer.”
“All the charms and joys of remembered happiness will be yours as once again we bring you fifteen minutes of uninterrupted reverie. So, folks, lean back, relax, and gaze again into the dancing flames of memory.”

Robert J. Day (3/14/1959)
“When you come right down to it, I guess whatever makes him collect two pails of sea shells in ten minutes is the same thing that made him president of Amalco at thirty-six.”
“Oh, très distingué!”
“Oh dear! I’m afraid there’s been a slipup somewhere. According to the terms of his will, Johns Hopkins gets his money and you get his brain.”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (3/14/1959)
“How is it every time we see something in New Haven you and Ed always know the second act needs rewriting?”
“It doesn’t look like a lasting peace to me.”
“Five thousand dollars . . . Fifty-five hundred . . . Six thousand . . . Seven thousand . . .”
“If it ain’t from the heart, Mac, it won’t do either of us any good.”

Lee Lorenz (3/14/1959)
“Forget that ‘Mr. Meredith’ business. My name is Freddie. We’re not boss and employee here; we’re just a couple of guys having a friendly drink together. Now then, in all sincerity, what’s your honest opinion of me?”

Joseph Mirachi (3/21/1959)
“What a beating he’s taken! For nine years, night after night, they’ve been insulting his intelligence.”
“That’s right. Don’t bother to knock. Just barge the hell in.”
“I’ll tell you when you’ll get your money. When they let me out evenings to rob banks.”
“I don’t see why they can’t hit it.”
“Do you realize, the way the value of the dollar is dropping, by the time we’re twenty it won’t be worth anything at all?”
“That’s Harold for you—other pastures always look greener.”
“Only one of them really understands me—and I can’t remember which one!”
Blessed are the caretakers.

Kenneth Mahood (3/21/1959)
“Maybe we’re just old-fashioned, Mrs. Haywood, but we recommend Anaconda Copper because we like the folks that run things up there.”
“That damn dripping is driving me crazy!”
Everett Opie (3/21/1959)
“When you read about these closed-door hearings, doesn’t it give you a funny feeling to know that it’s you and me that closes them?”

James Stevenson (3/21/1959)
William O'Brian (3/21/1959)
“But Lenny, you can’t just turn your back on Western civilization.”
“Your delphiniums are going to do wonderfully.”
“Now, with this Zen, you just swing away at the ball. No worry about batting averages, M.V.P. awards, World Series cuts . . .”
“Communism is when the leader goes on the wagon, the whole damn country goes on the wagon.”

Eldon Dedini (3/28/1959)
“Tell us. Of all the countries you visited, which did you enjoy the most?”
“You’re no troupier!”
"I paint what I like, and, by God, if I may say so, I like what I paint."
“Hi, Chuck, what’s new?”
“Before you go crazy with joy, that’s severance pay.”
“Now, if we’re going to face up to reality, I suggest that as a first step you pull that sweater down where it belongs.”
“Thompson, how about you and Miss Hobson shaking hands, and let’s see if we can’t make a fresh start.”
"I'm terribly sorry I can't help you. I don't follow the stock market."
“Do you see what I see?”

William O’Brian (3/28/1959)
“Henry! I thought you came down here to retire.”
“Helen! Quick! Start packing! The polar icecap is melting!”
“Say, would you be interested in coming North with us to have a little fun with the Hempstead, Long Island, Bird Watching Society?”

James Stevenson (4/4/1959)
“See if you can pass that car. He would have wanted it that way.”
“Now, I’m not going to high-pressure you, Mr. Bowser. We’ll just let the facts speak for themselves.”
“From now on I'm looking out for Number 307621!”

Rea Gardner (4/4/1959)
“I love this country of ours, Summers. It’s been good to me.”
“Gentlemen, our small car has to be longer, roomier, wider than any other small car!”
“I wouldn’t marry you, Uncas, if you were the last of the Mohicans.”
“My, there certainly is a religious revival!”
“Somebody on the phone wants you to do something for money. Shall I tell him to go to hell?”
“Here, at least, we seem to be winning the battle for men’s minds.”

James Mulligan (4/4/1959)
“Never ask what kind of a round they had. If they want you to know, they’ll tell you.”

Perry Barlow (4/4/1959)
“Just because you couldn’t get along with your old man, kid, don’t take it out on me.”
“Well, at last!”

Alain (4/11/1959)
“Al, this is Mr. McGivney. His promotion didn’t come through. His oldest daughter is mixed up with a ne’er-do-well. He has to put in a new oil burner. The tax people are giving him a hard time. Good night, now. I’ll see you tomorrow.”
“You are a very gullible woman.”
“Peggy! You’ve made the Honor Roll!”
“And that goes for all of us here at Consolidated, from me on down.”
“But, J.G., if you told me once you told me a hundred times you wanted adult Westerns.”

John Ruge (4/11/1959)
“If you must know, I’m thinking up things for idle hands to do.”
“There! I guess that will show Freddy Barton!”
“They’ll have the four-day week, and then the three-day week, until finally there won’t be any point left in being a bum.”

Eldon Dedini (4/11/1959)
“I want to go down to my friendly Chevrolet dealer and buy a Chevrolet.”
“A fine watchdog you turned out to be!”
“We can’t abandon that commuter line. How in hell are we going to get to work?”

Barney Tobey (4/18/1959)
“Wipe your feet!”

Chon Day (4/18/1959)
"Do you accept cash?"
Jazz came up this river.
“Internal Revenue Service? This is Malcolm T. Mason speaking. I just won two hundred thousand dollars in a jingle contest. What do I do now?”
“You’ll never get me up in one of those things.”

Charles Addams (4/18/1959)
"My dear, I’ve been drinking to your very good health."
“In a democracy, it would be nothing but choice, choice, choice all the time.”
“Giddyap!”
“My God, I didn’t think that the pendulum had swung this far the other way!”
“Someone should tell him. If he puts that woman on a pedestal, he’ll never get her down again.”

Lee Lorenz (4/18/1959)
“See? Even you hate me.”
“Once and for all, Harry, do you want us to read Anthony Trollope together or don’t you?”

Perry Barlow (4/18/1959)
“Do me a favor? Stop saying ‘This is where we are now.’”
“I’m troubled, Brother Simon. I’ve grown to enjoy my hair shirt.”

Dana Fradon (4/18/1959)
“But Comrade, it’s the American inflation!
The ruble just doesn’t buy as many top secrets as it used to.”

Alan Dunn (4/25/1959)
“Will you kindly remove that bird when I’m talking to you?”
“It’s a beautiful spring day here in Westchester. Why not come over for a gambol?”
Bernie Wiseman (4/25/1959)
“Hello, Carlisle, what the hell’s going on around here? Jenkins tells me Universal Copper’s raiding our executives. You’re my Executive V.P., so you’re supposed to watch out for this kind of thing, Carlisle. . . . Carlisle? . . . Carlisle!”
"I hope I never let myself go that way!"
“Gee, that was sure tough about Romeo and Juliet.”
“Pardon me, sir, but I’m afraid we must ask you to leave!”

Everett Opie (4/25/1959)
“You’re not in the least like that cute little cartoon character of yours on TV.”
“Of course there are still a few bugs to be ironed out.”
"Nice shot, Mr. Hennig!"
“I tell you I did try to phone. Could I help it if the booth had seventeen college students in it?”
“If you don’t like the way the subway’s being run, Mac, why don’t you buy it?”
"If God had intended us to fly in jets, He would have seen to it that the Wright Brothers invented jets."
“All I hope is that they spend it locally.”
“That is not me!”
“Oh, stop complaining! It’s an honor to be associated with an enterprise of this magnitude.”

Robert Kraus (5/2/1959)
“The funny thing is Beatrice and I had never even heard of disengagement until this Berlin business came up.”
“Those beat guys give me a pain. If you’re going to be a bum, get out there and be a bum, I say.”
Ton Smits (5/2/1959)
“You know what happened? You stopped talking business.”
"I beg your pardon! I think I was first!"
“Hey, Pop, the Good Humor man can’t change a twenty.”
“You’re darn right I’m a Puritan!”
“Say, do you suppose the one doctor out of five who doesn’t recommend it knows something the other four don’t know?”
“Despite continuing inflationary pressures, it might be advisable at this time to take a profit in the more volatile issues in your portfolio.”

Julian de Miskey (5/9/1959)
“Women, children, and top-level executives first!”

Claude Smith (5/9/1959)
“Did I ask for ‘September Song’?”

Barney Tobey (5/9/1959)
“There’s no hot water.”

Chon Day (5/9/1959)
“Gracious! Three o’clock already! How time flies!”
“Congratulate me! I’m the first man to return to earth from outer space.”

Lee Lorenz (5/9/1959)
David Langdon (5/9/1959)
“The party’s been called off. Helen has a virus.”
“Now do you see why I warned you about pygmy country?”
“Wilson always was a poor loser.”
“No more for him. He’s had enough.”
“Now, please don’t recommend any stock involved directly or indirectly with blowing us all to kingdom come.”
“Have one on the house?”

“Don’t mind if I do.”
“Last night, who do I pick up but O. Roy Chalk, but he wasn’t in a buying mood.”
Ton Smits (5/16/1959)
“It’s time you knew about the bees and us.”
“Now that the Americans have decided to produce cheap little cars, why don’t we switch to producing cheap big cars?”
Claude Smith (5/16/1959)
“This bears out what I’ve always said. It’s a question of getting the right man for the right job.”
“What do you mean ‘start packing’? They didn’t sell me to Kansas City!”
“I’d hate to land here on a foggy day.”

Alain (5/16/1959)
“As for you, young man, you can march right back and set them all up again.”
"Of course, Your Highness, it’s only the way I see you."
INO'S
STRAURANT

ALL PRICES
SLASHED 7%!
HOW DO WE DO IT?
WE DO NOT HONOR
CREDIT CARDS.
“I'd like you to meet Miss Tucker, who's over here on a Guggenheim; Miss Coley, who's here on a Fulbright; and Mr. Stewart, who's on his own.”
“Hello, Bellson? About that new X-11. Congratulations!”
“Did you hear about poor Roy? He was going through the Saint Lawrence Seaway and got squashed in the Eisenhower Lock.”
Otto Soglow (5/23/1959)
"The A.A.A. won’t come."

Mischa Richter (5/23/1959)
“Damn it, Emily! It’ll be just like the horse! And you know who wound up taking care of him!”

Claude Smith (5/23/1959)
“And that’s the Mater—in the round.”

Richard Taylor (5/23/1959)
“I don’t like Jack Paar any more than you do, but I can make contact with him as a human being.”
“Now, for heaven’s sake don’t say anything to irritate him.”
“Unpretentiousness? Jauntiness? Youthfulness? What the devil kind of feeling should ownership of a new small car induce?”

Barney Tobey (5/23/1959)
Repent
It is later than you think.
“Didn’t your forefathers or the medicine man or somebody tip you off where the hell the fish are?”
“Mother, I'd like you to meet a nose-cone-recovery team.”

Barney Tobey (5/30/1959)
"You can kill two birds with this one. It’s good literature and it’s dirty."

Alan Dunn (5/30/1959)
Otto Soglow (5/30/1959)
“But, Magda, couldn’t you learn to relate to me?”
“For heaven’s sake! Edelweiss!”
"The world could use a lot more of that sort of thing, if you ask me."
The Complete Cartoons of The New Yorker

Dana Fradon (5/30/1959)
“Now, remember—we want you to drop in any time. That’s our way of life!”
“How long would it take to get a smattering of each? I’m going on a round-the-world cruise.”

Barney Tobey (6/6/1959)
“I want you to meet the McKettricks. They cried during the first act of ‘Wozzeck,’ too.”
“Say, who’s minding the monastery?”

Eldon Dedini (6/6/1959)
Mischa Richter (6/6/1959)
“Captain Bradford, the entire nation is ashamed of you!”

James Stevenson (6/6/1959)
“Du Pont’s got theirs.”

Robert J. Day (6/6/1959)
“From now on the company wants no more excuses. We have radar, sonar, radio direction finder, autopilot, gyrocompass repeaters, and, as of today, an old salt from Gloucester.”
“I suppose we could relax our rule about never picking up hitchhikers.”
“I’m not asking for a raise, sir, but do you think you could give me a little pep talk?”
“Is it all right to sneer at these now?”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (6/6/1959)
“You’re complaining about being typed!”
“Do you really love me, Anthony, or is it just because I live on the thirty-eighth floor?”

Claude Smith (6/6/1959)
"I just had it backward, Fred. With this kind, it’s pink that’s poisonous."
“You’re here to install what swimming pool?”
“That’s not the electric clock. That’s my heart.”
“Someone nudge me if I give the impression of being coöperative.”
Rea Gardner (6/13/1959)

THE COMPLETE CARTOONS OF THE NEW YORKER
“Let’s try it again now. One, two, three, jump!”
“It just so happens I don’t care what you think.”
“That’s what I’m really asking. Where did we all take the wrong turn in the road?”

Charles Saxon (6/13/1959)
“Fore!”

Kenneth Mahood (6/13/1959)
“Any holly? Any corn? Any roses or juniper?”
“Then I started really thinking for myself and gave them all up.”
“‘Siena, elevation 1,050 feet, 52,652 inhabitants, situated on three hills between the Arbia and the Elsa, is, after Florence, the Tuscan town most rich in works of art and the one which, of all Italian towns, has best conserved the spirit and appearance of the Middle Ages. Siena was first an Etruscan . . .’”

Alan Dunn (6/13/1959)
“The TV camera is still on you, kid. Kick the water cooler in disgust.”

Barney Tobey (6/13/1959)
“He belongs to the Book-of-the-Month Club. I mean, how can you reach someone like that?”
Ton Smits (6/13/1959)
“I hope I’ll be able to recognize the fine line between relaxing from the tensions of business and going to pot.”
"I wish to report a two-headed meadow lark."
"It could be worse. He could be out chasing you know what."
“All through the nation
There’s a birthday celebration
For the one-hundredth year of A. & P.
It’s a value jubilee. It’s the anniversary
Of one hundred happy years for A. & P.
Thanks, America, for making it come true.”

Everett Opie (6/20/1959)
THE COMPLETE CARTOONS OF THE NEW YORKER

Alan Dunn (6/20/1959)
“How’d you make out at the track?”
“I feel like a damn fool.”
“He says he’s from the Ford Foundation, and why aren’t you home painting?”
“That reminds me. Your Diners’ Club statement arrived today.”
“I can’t help thinking how sad we’re all going to feel when we have to leave the place next September.”
“I don’t know who he is, but he’s obviously quite a raconteur.”
“Don’t kid yourself. They still go where he wants to go.”

Dana Fradon (6/20/1959)
"I don’t know what to do about him. He’s even lost the will to look."
“And I say to you, sir, God bless America!”
“Next time you want information, don’t send up three monkeys!”

Alan Dunn (6/27/1959)
“There’s real nepotism for you!”
“No wonder they’re ahead of us. It says here that in the whole of Russia there is not one single golf course.”
“Hold it, girls! Vermont has just been admitted.”
Claude Smith (6/27/1959)
“I agree that giving all our workers a wage increase would aggravate the inflationary spiral, but do you really think the nation’s economy would be affected by giving me a little raise?”
“I’m Commander Norton. We’re relocating you. Atomic tests have been scheduled for this area.”
“And it goes on to say, ‘The price of bricks is away out, and the cost of grease has bugged the economy of Thebes for years. Everybody is twitching in the kitchen and hunching for bread. Queen Hatshepsut is the craziest, but she’s not hip to the fact that taxes are the most, like, man, the most!’”
“I kinda liked it. Maybe I’m older than I thought I was.”
“Young man, the world owes you a debt of gratitude!”
“Well, it finally happened.”
“Beatnik.”
“I told him they were salt pills.”
“Monsieur! Please! This is a gastronomical tour!”

Peter Arno (7/4/1959)
“I don’t give a damn if it is a Triple A!”

Claude Smith (7/4/1959)
“Remember, I’ve got my eye on you!”

Frank Modell (7/4/1959)
“And I’d give anything to be able to paint the way you do.”
“This summer, Bert, I smell trouble.”
“You realize, Hadley, that ‘everything’ includes you?”
“Well, if it isn’t Ed Grady! What are you doing in this neck of the woods?”

James Mulligan (7/4/1959)
“Now, listen to Mother, Alvin. You’re going to have a wonderful time, do you hear? A simply wonderful time!”
“Can’t you stop remaining everyone’s obedient servant and just be yours truly, for a change?”

Stan Hunt (7/4/1959)
“So far I haven’t recognized one word from my Living Language records.”

Barney Tobey (7/11/1959)
“Lest we be accused of contributing to inflation later on, let’s vote ourselves a good little raise right here and now.”
“You are going to take a long, long trip.”
“Some say the world is made for fun and frolic, and so do I, and so do I.”
“Mr. Bronson, I wonder if you would consider a neighbor’s request.”
“Well! Looks like you really struck oil last year, eh, Mr. Flanders?”
“Look that way! From the ground you can look up.”
“Schonberg, in the ‘Times’, thought Cliburn played it with a great deal of fire and virtuosity.”

James Mulligan (7/11/1959)
“Oh, well, easy come, easy go.”
“Well, if we haven’t seen this one before, we’ve seen plenty that are an awful lot like it.”
“I’m a man to be reckoned with, but nobody realizes it.”

Robert Kraus (7/18/1959)
“It’s happened, Ellen. We’re now living beyond our second income.”
Robert J. Day (7/18/1959)
“Oh, no, my dear! Add buffering, you still only get one analgesic.”
THE VINEYARD (1 OF 12)

“I’m sorry. This is all private beach beyond the cove.”

Charles Saxon (7/18/1959)
“Alice wanted to just hang around Darien and go to the beach club, but I told her my idea of a vacation was an entirely new environment.”

Charles Saxon (7/18/1959)
“Harriet! Look!”

Charles Saxon (7/18/1959)
“We had a place in West Chop, but I figured if we built up-island, it couldn’t help being a growth investment.”
“We’re just July people.”

Charles Saxon (7/18/1959)
“There’s nothing to do in the water.”
“Won’t you please make my rocks recede?”

Charles Saxon (7/18/1959)
“I told you thirteen points to open! You can’t communicate with your partner if you don’t know your point count!”

Charles Saxon (7/18/1959)
“Of course I want you to relax. I just wonder why you don’t think it’s relaxing to play in the water with your own children.”
“You must try not to throw sand on people.”
“Vivian says Ralph is getting restless.”

Charles Saxon (7/18/1959)
“Say, Edna, I just found out something. They do not have an option on this place for next summer.”

Charles Saxon (7/18/1959)
“That’s a lovely hat, Madam.”
“I’d say it’s about seven miles—as we fly, of course.”
“Can you imagine? Twenty-four hours ago, we were worrying about whether they’d be hostile.”
“Enjoy a Hitz TV dinner, folks, while looking at me. See how I’m enjoying it while looking at you!”

Claude Smith (7/18/1959)
"You call this a hedge against inflation?"
“Now, if you so much as mention ‘Doctor Zhivago,’ I’m walking right out.”

James Stevenson (7/25/1959)
“George? Oh, he’s starting another flop.”
“Will you stop saying it’s all a part of the game? It’s not part of the game.”

Mischa Richter (7/25/1959)
"Look! Stereo!"
“With this model, Madam, you get your whole life in one compact unit.”
“My constituents are insisting I do a horrible thing. They want me to fire my mother!”
“Now, let’s get one thing straight. We’re not going to pretend we’re anything but Americans.”
“Hello, folks, this is your captain, Charles Cosgrove. Your copilot is Burt Whipple, and your stewardesses are Miss Partridge and Miss Hewitt. In a moment the girls will be serving you drinks. We all hope that you will have a smooth and happy flight.”
“It was one of those things. It just didn’t catch on.”
“Oh, just for once come and watch it with me. It’s Ladies’ Day, you know.”
“All men are not created equal. I’m vastly superior to you.”

Robert Kraus (7/25/1959)
“Have you tried Seconal?”
“Remember this, men. You’re now executives of Jet-Age, Incorporated, so for Pete’s sake stop saluting each other.”

James Stevenson (8/1/1959)
“Thank God! They’re friendly!”
Rhodes & Rhodes
Investment Brokers

Grand Opening!
Free Tip
On low-priced electronic issue with strong growth possibilities to first fifty customers
“What are you doing after the bazaar?”
“And every time he manages to scrape a dollar or two together he rushes out and buys another one of those things.”
“Oh, I see what you mean, Dad. It’s like in ‘Lady Chatterley’s Lover.’”

Barney Tobey (8/1/1959)
“We would have come before, but we were afraid you’d turn out to be a grouchy old Cotton Mather or something.”
“And then the most wonderful thing happened. He switched from the polite to the familiar form!”
1. F.B.I. REPORTS
   JUVENILE CRIME ON INCREASE

2. FARMER GOES
   BERSERK KILLS
   TWO IN-LAWS,
   SIX CHILDREN

3. BERLIN
   THREAT
   GROWS

4. TREASURY
   AGENTS TO CRACK DOWN

5. FALLOUT
   SHELTERS
   CLAIMED
   VITAL TO SURVIVAL

William Steig (8/1/1959)
“In a way, I’m sorry. That ‘Give me liberty or give me death’ speech was one of the most moving things I ever heard.”
“You don’t know how to play.”
“I have every major household appliance there is, but I’m still tired.”
“Now, if you so much as mention Little Rock, I’m walking right out.”

James Stevenson (8/8/1959)
“Personally, I find this as good a raison d’être as any.”
“For your information, I paint things the way I see them, and I happen to see things the way one hundred and eighty million other decent, normal Americans see them.”
“Maybe at future parties you’ll leave it to Vance Packard to tell people what strata they belong to.”
“If I’m asked to take a pay cut next season, I’ll sure as hell know who to blame for it!”

Robert Kraus (8/8/1959)
“Park Avenue at Eighty-sixth. We’re to come as we are.”
Ottó Sóglow (8/8/1959)

Return to Main Menu
“And if you take all three—‘Modern Love,’ ‘True Confessions,’ and ‘Love Stories’—I can give you a special rate.”

James Mulligan (8/8/1959)
“Oh, come right in. We were just discussing our budget.”
“What gets me is we’re paying our debt to a society that is morally bankrupt itself.”
“America needn’t feel so cocky. In a few years we’ll have traffic snarls, too.”
Are you a no-cholesterol doctor or are you one of those no-cholesterol-is-all-bosh doctors?
“One good thing, though—you don’t hear any more of that damn-fool talk about breaking us up.”
“Say, isn’t that George Burckhart and his boys?”
“Well, if it’s true we’re the last two people on earth, it’s comforting to know you’re a Yale man.”

Eldon Dedini (8/15/1959)
“It’s not insomnia. It’s that constant drip, drip, drip of the Drip ’n’ Dry, night after night, that’s ruining Paris for me.”

Perry Barlow (8/15/1959)
"My God, it's following us!"
“Look, Mr. Schuster, any of that Jekyll-and-Hyde business tonight and out you go.”
“He just found out, you know, about the Bridgeport ‘Herald’ calling his book ‘delightful.’”

Charles Saxon (8/15/1959)
“Let down that ladder this minute. You built that for the children and you know it.”

Barney Tobey (8/15/1959)
“If there’s one thing I can’t abide, it’s an out-and-out status seeker.”

James Stevenson (8/22/1959)
“There’s been some mistake. I’m an atheist.”
“Well, you ‘naturally assumed’ wrong, suh. Ah happen to want an Alexander.”

George Price (8/22/1959)
“Wowie! A Ballantine blast!”

Lee Lorenz (8/22/1959)
"Oh, David, what’s to become of us when your Guggenheim and my Fulbright end?"
“Lucky us! Probably not another pen in the country overlooks a drive-in movie.”
“While we two are lying here, there are two people in China making pig iron in their back yard.”
"If the two of you hadn’t been so busy waving at each other . . ."
after around bee butter fly chaser chasing collector environment fear going himself insect insects natural nature net outdoors run running scared sees sting stung turns 1959

Dana Fradon (8/22/1959)

Return to Main Menu
“Well, for heaven’s sake, go on. You can’t just say ‘I’ve had an insight’ and then clam up.”
“Why can’t you lead a life of quiet desperation, like everybody else?”
“Well, Harry, you know, it’s like J.P. Morgan said. If you have to worry about how much it costs to maintain it, you can’t afford it.”

James Mulligan (8/22/1959)
“You lost ignominiously!”

Robert Kraus (8/22/1959)
“That book of yours is going to be pretty damned monotonous! ‘Joe’s gathering firewood,’ ‘Joe worked on the outboard again today,’ ‘Joe’s out catching fish for dinner’ . . .”
“Did you ever know it to fail? No matter how bad the jam, there’s always some damn fool behind trumpeting.”
“It seems like every day I get more and more grizzly.”
“Have you heard about poor Staphylococcus aureus? They’ve discovered a cure for him.”
Saul Steinberg (8/29/1959)
(4 OF 5)

Saul Steinberg (8/29/1959)
“Let’s face it. They’re all the picture of health!”
“Don’t you ever want to better yourself?”
“He’s a great one for delegating responsibility.”
“There isn’t a soul here I’d care to know socially.”
“She’s lovely, but I don’t want to get involved.”
“Ever have the feeling you’re being followed?”

Ton Smits (8/29/1959)
“Anybody home?”
“Oh, we’re all just fine, thank you. How are you all?”
Richard Taylor (9/5/1959)
“They’re starting to move! I told you we should have been in the other lane!”
“Counterclockwise, damn it.”
THE COMPLETE CARTOONS OF THE NEW YORKER

Charles Addams (9/5/1959)
You can’t fight city hall.

Dana Fradon (9/5/1959)
“I have here the final results of our Gasoline Economy Run. They will be destroyed and never referred to again.”
"Hasta la vista. It means ‘See you later.’"
“I found my sheep through The New York Times!”
“Didn’t I meet you before at a jazz festival or someplace?”
“It’s cold and damp and cheerless. That’s what’s wrong with it.”
Barney Tobey (9/5/1959)
"I'm the captain of this ship!"
“Goodness! I had no idea it was that late.”
“Of course, they didn’t have radio or television or anything in those days, and I suppose they had to do something.”

Stan Hunt (9/12/1959)
Dana Fradon (9/12/1959)
"I just saw a vet, and he told me to see you."
“... and please keep me from falling out of bed again tonight.”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (9/12/1959)
“Look at the bright side, Pete. Food, lodging, medical care, entertainment, clothing—it must add up to five or six thousand a year, free and clear of taxes.”
“I know it seems unfair, girls, but Alabama always goes first.”
“You may be box-office poison to Mr. Hagerstrom, Marcia, but you’re Standing Room Only with me.”
“How much would it be without the trout stream?”

Richard Decker (9/12/1959)
“We’re terribly proud of our little town. I defy you to spot the A. & P.”
“Nehru hasn’t got around to his basic problem, which is the establishment of an executive class.”
ECONOMY CARDS

WHEN YOU DON'T CARE ENOUGH TO SEND THE VERY BEST
“Harry, we’re forty-two. Don’t you think it’s time we got up off the floor?”
James Stevenson (9/12/1959)
“Pshaw! I grabbed the wrong bag.”
“We’ll cross that bridge when we come to it, Jones!”
“What I’d like to know is who’s minding the Kremlin?”

Kenneth Mahood (9/19/1959)
Sell all thou hast!
“May I ask if you intend to chatter into that contraption all the way to Pittsburgh?”

Perry Barlow (9/19/1959)
"You’re absolutely right, sir. It’s just that it’s impossible to live on what I’m worth."
“I guess I’d better hang up now, Alice. I think someone wants to use the phone.”

Mischa Richter (9/19/1959)
“Why don’t you take a tip from Edward R. Murrow and give yourself a sabbatical from TV?”
“No doubt about it, Ethel. Somebody up there likes us.”

Barney Tobey (9/19/1959)
“Would it disturb your meditating if I vacuumed up in here?”
“I don’t say it had anything to do with the collapse of their civilization. I merely say it dates from that period.”

James Stevenson (9/19/1959)
“I ought to punch you right in the teeth, but it isn’t worth a recurrence of my bursitis.”

Charles Saxon (9/19/1959)
“In a way you have to admire him. He was plugging away at the same old rat race for twenty-five years when one day he decided to chuck it all and take a long hard look at what he was doing with his life.”
James Stevenson (9/26/1959)
"I’m watching myself!"
“The first one that flies off is chicken.”
“Can you believe it, dear? We no longer owe the Davises, the Connollys, the Richardses, the Walkers, the Harrises, the Tom Smiths, the Norris Smiths, and the Robinsons, and now the Barclays, the Trumbulls, the Stones, the Craighills, and the Douglasses owe us.”

James Stevenson (9/26/1959)
Eldon Dedini (9/26/1959)
"But Arnold, we know them. It's the Burkes. They're our friends!"
Daniel had the Spanish influenza.
Papa said that Mr. Hoffman was a genius.
Caruso was Papa’s favorite singer.
Everyone said Mrs. Mantle was crazy.
Papa was an expert rower.

William Steig (9/26/1959)
Sometimes Mama cried for days.
Grandma was farsighted.
Mama and Papa never quarrelled
in front of the children.

William Steig (9/26/1959)
Papa came home from work at seven o’clock.
Some European friends came to visit.
Mrs. Dixon loved cats.
Mama was very sorry for poor Mrs. Harris.
We won the war.

William Steig (9/26/1959)
“My country can lick any other country in the house.”
“Does that ‘forsaking all others’ include the Harvard Club?”

Rea Gardner (9/26/1959)
“He’s either Upstairs at the Downstairs or Downstairs at the Upstairs, but anyway he’s a scream.”
“We had a motorcycle escort.”
George Price (9/26/1959)
“We’re in Japanese waters, that’s for sure.”
“I think I’ll go without breakfast this morning, Fran. I’ve got to be grouchy today.”
“There! ‘Clayton’s Mother’!”
“Go back and get the peace pipe, Oganah. I think they outnumber us.”
“I’ve been reading the ‘Times’ every morning for six months now. Has my conversation become more interesting?”
“You know what? I think every man here should go out and buy a Gillette razor as a way of saying ‘Thank you.’”
“Well, I didn’t choose to go down with it, so shall we change the subject?”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (10/3/1959)
“I'll go for help. And whatever you do, don't stop painting.”
“Au revoir!”
“But Walter, there must be thousands and thousands of men who can’t remember their old Army serial number.”
“Which edition is this? I don’t want to get stuck with the nice Lady Chatterley.”
“Get rid of that parachute, Hanrahan. You’re giving the rest of us the jitters.”
“Prepare yourself for a little fence-mending, Senator.”
"Vic Tanny’s is on the third floor, Jack."
William O'Brian (10/3/1959)

Love thy neighbor.
“Is that what they teach you at caddy school, boy? How to stare at people?”
“It’s nice, but before we decide don’t you think we ought to see what Borgward, Corvair, Simca, Goliath, Lark, Rambler, Volkswagen, Falcon, Hillman, Renault, Peugeot, DKW, Opel, Consul, Fiat, Dauphine, Morris, Sunbeam, Singer, Prinz, BMW, Datsun, Valiant, Austin, Volvo, Saab, and Lloyd have to offer?”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (10/10/1959)
“Is it my fault they weren’t all Grade A Large?”

George Price (10/10/1959)
"That's 'Nor any drop to drink.'"
“Oh dear, I just can’t get used to thinking in hard francs!”
"I suppose you would have published it if Pasternak had written it."

Richard Decker (10/10/1959)
“Ever notice? There’s one sour apple in every barrel.”
“I think it was along about here that he slipped a disc.”
“Honest, I don’t have a cent. I’m just a college boy.”
“Let’s not deride any shibboleths tonight, David. Let’s just have a good time.”
“The success of this campaign, gentlemen, depends upon something new and vital, something even radical, if you will...”

“So with that end in mind, Mr. Kile, our art director is here to present his answer to our problem.”
“Maybe you haven’t been drinking, but I have.”

Frank Modell (10/10/1959)
“Just the teensy-weensiest bit short.”
“If we were in business in New York or Chicago, we could look forward to retiring and coming down here to live. But as things stand, what have we got to look forward to?”

James Stevenson (10/10/1959)
“Can’t we wait till tomorrow to analyze why I lost?”
“Papa, posso avere la gondola stasera?”
“Charles! You said you’d quit!”
“I can’t deceive you any longer, Laura. I’m really a feature writer for Scripps-Howard.”
“Before reading Miss Simpkins’ will, may I say that you are a very lucky cat?”
“It is the opinion of the Missionary Review Board, Andrews, that you have been down here long enough.”
"I always said it wouldn’t last."
“Grandmother! You’re not cheating!”

Charles Addams (10/17/1959)
“Ate baba au rhum for first time tonight.”
“But dear, why don't you just tell Mr. Hagerstrom that you're sensitive to criticism?”
“And do you fellows know what this is? This is yours truly nervously pacing back and forth on the sidelines.”
“The makers of Klenzo tell me you folks are not buying enough Klenzo!”

Robert Kraus (10/17/1959)
David Langdon (10/17/1959)
CHEER UP! SOMEDAY YOUR SHIP WILL COME IN!

SWEET ARE THE USES OF ADVERSITY

CHIN UP!

HOME WASN'T BUILT IN A DAY

SMILE! TOMORROW WILL BE A BRIGHTER DAY

GOOD WILL TRIUMPH OVER EVIL!

THINGS ARE NOT AS BAD AS THEY SEEM!

LAUGH AND THE WORLD LAUGHS WITH YOU!

CHIN UP AND LEPRECHAUNS

Robert J. Day (10/17/1959)
“I agree it looks bad, George, but, after all, he is president, and I don’t feel it’s my place to ask any questions.”

James Stevenson (10/17/1959)
“Hasn’t anyone at all reported a missing man, medium-sized, balding, with small mustache, wearing glasses, weighing one hundred and forty-five pounds, five feet nine inches tall, last seen wearing a brown suit, red necktie, and gray hat?”
“Dear Lily:
What must you think of a friend who waited so long to thank you? I had thought that all originality in a mouchoir had ceased to exist . . . .”
“For future reference, young lady, a Gibson has an onion in it.”
“Someday, Son, these will all be yours, I’m afraid.”

Otto Soglow (10/24/1959)
“Hi, Mac! Where are all your Merry Men?”

Joseph Mirachi (10/24/1959)
“One thing I never thought
I'd be—an abominable communal snowman.”
“No wonder you can’t write. You’re not plugged in!”

Stan Hunt (10/24/1959)
“The bottom dropped out of Consolidated Potash. I’m ruined! You’re all I have left now, Myrna. Myrna! Are you there?”
"Lawrence Spivak would take that tone with me just once!"
“Mr. Stevens! You’re late!”
“He just can’t get it through his head he’s not Public Enemy Number One any more.”
“I’ll beat the hell out of him. God willing!”
“Please go ahead. Mine’s not so much a complaint as a veiled criticism.”
“Why shouldn’t Hans Schmidt be doing better than me? He’s got those damn little elves helping him.”
“Take the next ‘Saturday Evening Post,’ lady, and change at Eighty-sixth Street to an eastbound 7-Up.”

Alan Dunn (10/31/1959)
“Now, here’s a slightly cheaper pen that writes through oleomargarine.”
“How about Nelson Rockefeller as President, David Rockefeller as Secretary of the Treasury, Winthrop Rockefeller as Secretary of Agriculture, Laurence Rockefeller as Secretary of the Interior, John . . .”
“We found the Swiss charming. Of course, we only stopped there to refuel.”
“And I promise never again to try to shoot a living creature. O.K.?”
“I should think you’d be pleased that I’m worried over the fate of the Western world.”

Charles Saxon (10/31/1959)
“Do your cameras photograph people who are not holding you up?”

Stan Hunt (10/31/1959)
“Oh, Mr. Farber! I think I’m falling under your spell!”

Lee Lorenz (10/31/1959)
“When Colonel Cashleigh says ‘separate but equal,’ he means separate but equal!”
“But no, not you. You wouldn’t spend a buck for a few lollipops and candy bars.”
Ton Smits (10/31/1959)
“The trouble is, people never read these books for parents until they’ve had children, and then it’s too late.”

Rea Gardner (10/31/1959)
Dana Fradon (10/31/1959)
"I notice the signatures are never abstract."
“I’ll be all right in a minute. I’m afraid I accelerated on the way down.”
“Here’s the stuff you wanted, Comrade. I simply sent out questionnaires to thirty thousand people, coast to coast, and got a fantastic response.”
“What’s the meaning of this, Harris? Didn’t you get my get-well card?”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (11/7/1959)
“I wish he would forget an anniversary occasionally.”
“On the contrary, I think you look quite distinguished without a beard.”
“You see? You had an awfully nice time and made lots of new friends, and you didn’t even want to come.”
“You ought to have a talk with him, Harry. After all, he graduated last June and it’s November already.”
“Everything else has gone up, why not chestnuts?”
"What an aeon to be alive in!"
Alain (11/7/1959)
“They selected the same lobster.”
“That’ll be the day!”

Dana Fradon (11/7/1959)
"The end of the world is near."

"Last chance to buy salted peanuts."

Otto Soglow (11/7/1959)
“Do you want to know your trouble? All you care about is money!”
“I feel like a damn fool.”

Robert J. Day (11/14/1959)
“If I had wanted to marry someone like Brigitte Bardot, I would have married someone like Brigitte Bardot.”
“Fellows, look! We’re saved!”
“I'd say I'm about forty-two per cent for Nixon, thirty-nine per cent for Rockefeller, and nineteen per cent undecided.”
“A husband and wife together? Now, now, we can’t have that!”

Perry Barlow (11/14/1959)
“American ship, sir. Wants to know if they can go through now, pay later.”

Alan Dunn (11/14/1959)
"I don’t know if it’s in the front or in the rear, and I don’t want to know.”
“Do you always have to have the last word?”
“Well, Doctor, I think we can congratulate ourselves on the new pep pills.”
“But Dad, it’s not like when you were a boy. The smoke in these cigarettes is pulled through tiny, scientific, mentholated air pores, where thirty-five thousand filters trap the nicotine and tars, and protect the throat from harmful irritation.”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (11/14/1959)
“He sure has the knack of firing people without making them bitter.”

Sidney Hoff (11/14/1959)
“But are you really ready for marriage, Sid? I mean, you don’t even own your own motorcycle.”

Lee Lorenz (11/14/1959)
“Now then, what seems to be your trouble?”

Barney Tobey (11/14/1959)
“After you make a million dollars, what then?”

Charles Saxon (11/14/1959)
“We’ll do our part, of course, but it won’t seem the same without cranberries.”
“In keeping with our new policy, I wish to announce that the Million-Dollar Movie you are about to see actually cost only eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars to produce.”
“After the cooling-off period, then what?”

Joseph Mirachi (11/21/1959)
“Sandra’s boy friend would like to buzz our house in his airplane. Do you mind?”
“All of a sudden they’ve stopped calling me ‘boy genius.’”
“All of our troubles suddenly seem insignificant—with the possible exception of that strange clankety-clank in the transmission.”
“I would like to remind you that what you are about to give is deductible, cannot be taken with you, and is considered by some to be the root of all evil.”
“Why do you always say football is such a great molder of men? I mean, you and Ted Daly and Charlie O’Brien and Pinky Rheem and everybody all played at Yale, and—Well, what I mean is . . .”
“Around here, young man, we spell ‘mother’ with a capital ‘M.’”
“Just think! Somebody loves every last one of them!”

Mischa Richter (11/21/1959)
“Lily is the child. Violet is the dog.”
“Do you realize you’re the same age as Cary Grant?”
“It’s a deal, then. I won’t bump you off for your share of the loot, and you won’t bump me off for mine.”
“Well, honey, we’ve done it. We’ve seen ‘Open End’ end!”

Everett Opie (11/28/1959)
“Oh dear, we’re in the throw–it line!”

Perry Barlow (11/28/1959)
The Jig Is Up
“This is going to make their Christmas shopping a lot easier, now that they no longer have everything.”
"Is the ‘H’ in ‘Hrolf’ silent?"
“Well, what do you think? Are they all compatible?”
THE GUGGENHEIM (1 OF 9)

Now, brace yourself!
THE GUGGENHEIM (2 OF 9)

Alan Dunn (11/28/1959)
THE GUGGENHEIM (4 OF 9)
THE GUGGENHEIM (5 OF 9)

I suppose your feet adjust to the angle.

Alan Dunn (11/28/1959)
THE GUGGENHEIM (6 OF 9)

Alan Dunn (11/28/1959)
THE GUGGENHEIM (9 OF 9)

Alan Dunn (11/28/1959)
"I wish I had a hundred and fifty million dollars."
“Night, dear.”
“All I know is it was a lot different around here before he subscribed to ‘U.S. News & World Report.’”

Lee Lorenz (11/28/1959)
“Be patient, Madam. The judging of the funny hats will resume as soon as we get ashore.”
“Why, how sweet of you to inquire! I am watching Yellowstone National Park.”
“Oh, there you are! Goodness, for a minute I thought your briefcase came home without you!”
“It’s not the lousy pesos I’m haggling over. It’s the principle of the thing.”

Robert Kraus (11/28/1959)
“Observe carefully, Mrs. Wallace. We now take your nice veal chops over here for weighing.”

James Stevenson (12/5/1959)
“Either they’ve succeeded in completely cleaning up the industry or the set is on the blink.”
“Say, Lloyd, be a good fellow and read me Footnote Three, will you?”
“Say, Mac, don’t I know you from someplace?”

Dana Fradon (12/5/1959)
“Ah! Good morning! Have you the authority to bless hounds?”

Peter Arno (12/5/1959)
“Snug as a bug in a rug, eh?”

Eldon Dedini (12/5/1959)
“It’s that damn-fool TV commercial of ours. They just dropped in to ‘say hello, chat, and get acquainted.’”

Barney Tobey (12/5/1959)
“We came the minute we got your message!”
“How would you like it if someone broke into your house in the middle of the night?”

James Mulligan (12/5/1959)
“Or is she already svelte?”
Frank Modell (12/5/1959)
“Steer clear of ‘Under Three Dollars’!”

George Price (12/12/1959)
James Stevenson (12/12/1959)
“In my opinion, it is very good, sir.”
“Me bring chicken, duck, pig, goat. You play music I write.”
“Damn it, Ethel, that was a childish thing to do!”
“To me, candy canes make a tree.”
“Hello, Miss Benson; that will be all for now, dear. I mean, hello, dear; that will be all for now, Miss Benson.”
“What a year! I took my money from the Savings Bank at three and a quarter per cent and put it in the new E Bonds at three and three-quarters. I cashed them and bought into a Savings & Loan at four and a half, and then what does the Treasury do but come out with five-per-cent notes? And now I hear Telephone debentures are paying five and three-eighths. Oh, I do wish they’d make up their minds!”
“It doesn’t sound very stereo to me.”
“Remember, Jake, when this town wasn’t big enough for the both of us?”
“You’re a greedy little girl!”
“I’m worried about damaging sludge and grit that collect in my engine and cut down performance, increase engine wear, and add to my fuel costs. What do you recommend?”

Stan Hunt (12/12/1959)
“It’s your boss. He wants to know if you’re thinking.”
“I agree it’s a monument to the genius of Frank Lloyd Wright, but as a museum . . .”

Whitney Darrow, Jr. (12/19/1959)
Mischa Richter (12/19/1959)
“Good heavens, no! Not there!”
“For Heaven’s sake, just because I want to go to the mainland once in a while doesn’t mean I’m a social butterfly.”
“Why is it, Confucius, you never have anything to say to me?”
“But how do I know you’re an enchanted prince?”
“You are a damn fool.”

Chon Day (12/19/1959)
“Throw up your hands!”
“Shall I just climb right back into my cell?”

Robert Kraus (12/19/1959)
“O.K., Harper, let’s see what kind of a salesman you really are.”
“And, whoosh, there she goes again! Now, one more countdown and I must ask for your decision.”
“Heavens, Loretta, just because you don’t care for Hindemith doesn’t mean there’s payola involved!”
“Quick, Doctor, there’s a rumble in the nursery!”
“You’re the one who should be ‘Time’s’ Man of the Year.”
"Oh, but you must come! We’re only having people who hate New Year’s Eve parties!"
“Good King Wenceslas looked out . . .”
“But I’ll miss Dr. Joyce Brothers!”
"It might not be such a bad life, security-wise."
FOUR SCORE AND SEVEN YEARS AGO---
“Remember, now, it may be a few weeks or even a month before it starts to say something to you.”
“You think you didn’t get stuff! I didn’t get the two-wheeler or the satellite-launching station or the chemistry set or . . .”

William O’Brian (12/26/1959)
“I tried to be more of a human being around the office today, but it didn’t come off too well.”