

History, Political Science, and Pre law		Required & Elective Courses in Major
Program Outcomes/Performance Indicators	HIST 1483 American History 1492-1865	POS 1113 American Federal Government	HIST 1113 Early Western Civilization	HIST 1493 American History 1865 to Present	HIST 1123 Modern Western Civilization	HIST 1063 Oklahoma History	HIST 2723 Native American History	POS 2113 State and Local Government
Upon completion of the program, the student will relate key elements in the development of Western Civilizations to the historical development of the United States and to the framework of the US government. A. Recognize the key elements/periods in the development of Western Civilization B. Connect the components of early western civilization that were pulled to the framework of the United States government C. Interpret how this framework is protected through the US Constitution	R	A	A		R			R
Upon completion of the program, the student will apply the principles of the US Constitution to historical and contemporary issues. A. Identify historical and contemporary issues that relate to the US Constitution B. Discuss how these issues were impacted by the US Constitution C. Explain how the Constitution impacts everyday life in America	R	A	R	R	R			R
Upon completion of the program, the student will analyze both primary and secondary sources in the field of study. A. Distinguish between a primary and secondary source B. Connect sources to historical events C. Apply logic to the documents/sources	R	A	R	R	R	A	A	R