

Return this form to any of the following:

- Poteau: Hemphill Hall HH102
- Sallisaw: Mayo 8002
- Email: financialaid@carlalbert.edu
- Fax: 918-647-1227

2024-2025 Conflicting Dependency Verification Court Ordered

Student Name:    Phone Number:   Date of Birth:	30000 3100100
You indicated on your FAFSA that you are an Independent student by means other than age, marital status, military status, or supporting legal dependents. Please provide documentation verifying your situation.  Check the applicable box and submit the appropriate documentation with this form:    Orphan, Foster Child, or Ward of the Court since the age of 13   A student is an orphan if both his or her parents were dead when 13 or older even if the student was subsequently adopted. Likewise, a student who was at any time since the age of 13 a foster child or a ward of the court is independent even if his or her status changed later.   The following are examples of documents that could attest the student's former foster youth status: a copy of a court order; the statement of a state or county child welfare agency; the statement of a private provider agency that delivers child welfare services; or the statement from an attorney, guardian ad liten, or court-appointed special advocate documenting the person's relationship to the student as well as the latter's foster youth status.    Emancipated Minor	Student Name:	Student ID#:
Status, or supporting legal dependents. Please provide documentation verifying your situation.  Check the applicable box and submit the appropriate documentation with this form:  Orphan, Foster Child, or Ward of the Court since the age of 13  A student is an orphan if both his or her parents were dead when 13 or older even if the student was subsequently adopted. Likewise, a student who was at any time since the age of 13 a foster child or a ward of the court is independent even if his or her status changed later.  The following are examples of documents that could attest the student's former foster youth status: a copy of a court order; the statement of a state or county child welfare agency; the statement of a private provider agency that delivers child welfare services; or the statement from an attorney, guardian all item, or court-appointed special advocate documenting the person's relationship to the student as well as the latter's foster youth status.  Emancipated Minor  If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, emancipated minors (released from control of their parent or guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their state of legal residence at the time of the adjudication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by an attorney.  Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal emancipation of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.  Legal Guardianship  If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.  Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.  None of the above apply me.  I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.	Phone Number:	Date of Birth:
<ul> <li>□ Orphan, Foster Child, or Ward of the Court since the age of 13</li> <li>• A student is an orphan if both his or her parents were dead when 13 or older even if the student was subsequently adopted. Likewise, a student who was at any time since the age of 13 a foster child or a ward of the court is independent even if his or her status changed later.</li> <li>• The following are examples of documents that could attest the student's former foster youth status: a copy of a court order; the statement of a state or county child welfare agency; the statement of a private provider agency that delivers child welfare services; or the statement from an attorney, guardian ad litem, or court-appointed special advocate documenting the person's relationship to the student as well as the latter's foster youth status.</li> <li>□ Emancipated Minor</li> <li>• If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, emancipated minors (released from control of their parent or guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their state of legal residence at the time of the adjudication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by an attorney.</li> <li>• Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal emancipation of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.</li> <li>□ Legal Guardianship</li> <li>• If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.</li> <li>• Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.</li> <li>□ None of the above apply me.</li> <li>• 1 will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.</li> <li>I,</li></ul>	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
<ul> <li>A student is an orphan if both his or her parents were dead when 13 or older even if the student was subsequently adopted. Likewise, a student who was at any time since the age of 13 a foster child or a ward of the court is independent even if his or her status changed later.</li> <li>The following are examples of documents that could attest the student's former foster youth status: a copy of a court order; the statement of a state or county child welfare agency; the statement of a private provider agency that delivers child welfare services; or the statement from an attorney, guardian ad litem, or court-appointed special advocate documenting the person's relationship to the student as well as the latter's foster youth status.</li> <li>Emancipated Minor</li> <li>If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, emancipated minors (released from control of their parent or guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their state of legal residence at the time of the adjudication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by an attorney.</li> <li>Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal emancipation of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.</li> <li>Legal Guardianship</li> <li>If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.</li> <li>Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.</li> <li>None of the above apply me.</li> <li>I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.</li> <li>I,</li></ul>	Check the applicable box and submit the appropriate documentation with	this form:
adopted. Likewise, a student who was at any time since the age of 13 a foster child or a ward of the court is independent even if his or her status changed later.  • The following are examples of documents that could attest the student's former foster youth status: a copy of a court order; the statement of a state or county child welfare agency; the statement of a private provider agency that delivers child welfare services; or the statement from an attorney, guardian ad litem, or court-appointed special advocate documenting the person's relationship to the student as well as the latter's foster youth status.  □ Emancipated Minor  • If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, emancipated minors (released from control of their parent or guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their state of legal residence at the time of the adjudication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by an attorney.  • Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal emancipation of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.  □ Legal Guardianship  • If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.  • Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.  □ None of the above apply me.  • I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.  I,	☐ Orphan, Foster Child, or Ward of the Court since the age of 13 order; the statement of a state or county child welfare agency; the statement of a private provider agency that delivers child welfare services; or the statement from an attorney, guardian ad litem, or court-appointed special advocate documenting the person's relationship to the student as well as the latter's foster youth status.    Emancipated Minor   If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, emancipated minors (released from control of their parent or guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their state of legal residence at the time of the adjudication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by an attorney.   Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal emancipation of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.    Legal Guardianship   If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.   Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.    None of the above apply me.   I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.  I,	adopted. Likewise, a student who was at any time since the age of 13 a
<ul> <li>If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, emancipated minors (released from control of their parent or guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their state of legal residence at the time of the adjudication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by an attorney.</li> <li>Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal emancipation of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.</li> <li>Legal Guardianship</li> <li>If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.</li> <li>Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.</li> <li>None of the above apply me.</li> <li>I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.</li> <li>I,</li></ul>	order; the statement of a state or county child welfare agency; the statement child welfare services; or the statement from an attorney, guardian ad lite	nent of a private provider agency that delivers em, or court-appointed special advocate guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their state of legal residence at the time of the adjudication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by an attorney.  • Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal emancipation of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.  □ Legal Guardianship  • If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.  • Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.  □ None of the above apply me.  • I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.  I,	☐ Emancipated Minor Copies are acceptable.  Legal Guardianship  If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.  Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.  None of the above apply me.  I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.  Cprint name)  documentation is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. Furthermore, I understand that purposely providing false or misleading information may result in a fine, imprisonment, or both.	guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their standidication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by	ate of legal residence at the time of the an attorney.
<ul> <li>• If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.</li> <li>• Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.</li> <li>□ None of the above apply me.</li> <li>• I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.</li> <li>I,</li></ul>		dent, signed and stamped by court officials.
stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.  • Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.  □ None of the above apply me.  • I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.  I,	☐ Legal Guardianship
None of the above apply me.  • I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.  I,	stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's e  • Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the stud	estate, or power of attorney.
• I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.  I,
(print name) documentation is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. Furthermore, I understand that purposely providing false or misleading information may result in a fine, imprisonment, or both.	· misleading information may result in a fine, imprisonment, or both.	(print name) understand that purposely providing talse or
Signature	Sionature	Date