2024-2025 Homeless Verification

Student Name:	Student ID#:
Phone Number:	Date of Birth:
Status Determined or Reported by: <input type="checkbox"/> Official Authority <input type="checkbox"/> Self

A student is considered homeless if he or she lacks fixed, regular, and adequate housing. This is broader than just living “on the street.” This includes if at any time on or after July 1, 2023 the student was homeless or at risk of being homeless, the student was determined to be an unaccompanied youth who is homeless, or the student was or is self-supporting and at risk of being homeless.

Reported by Official Authority

Check the applicable box(es) and submit the appropriate documentation with this form:

- A local educational agency homeless liaison, as designated by the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 11432(g)(1)(J)(ii)), or a designee of the liaison.
- The director or designee of an emergency or transitional shelter, street outreach program, homeless youth drop-in center, or other program serving individuals who are experiencing homelessness.
- The director or designee of a program funded under subtitle B of title IV of McKinney-Vento (relating to emergency shelter grants) (42 U.S.C. 11371 et seq.).
- The director or designee of a Federal TRIO program or a Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate program (GEAR UP) grant.
- A financial aid administrator (FAA) at another institution who documented the student’s circumstance in the same or a prior award year.

Reported by Self

Check the applicable box(es) and submit this form:

- Living with other people temporarily because he or she had nowhere else to go.
  - Living in substandard housing (if it doesn’t meet local building codes or the utilities are turned off, it is generally not adequate).
  - Living in emergency or transitional shelters, for example, trailers provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency after disasters.
  - Living in motels, campgrounds, cars, parks, abandoned buildings, bus or train stations, or any public or private place not designed for humans to live in.
  - Living in the school dormitory if the student would otherwise be homeless.
  - Living in any of these situations and fleeing an abusive parent may be considered homeless even if the parent would provide support and a place to live.
- None of the above apply me.
- I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.
