

Expressive Speech Annual Report

Revised: 12-8-2025

Pursuant to 70 O.S. §2120, Carl Albert State College (“CASC,” or, the “College”) submits the following to demonstrate its course of action for compliance with the requirements of this statute.

Campus Expression Policy

A Use and Scheduling of CASC Properties (Including Expressive Activities) policy was reviewed by the Oklahoma Assistant Attorney General in December 2019. The CASC Board of Regents approved and adopted the policy on January 21, 2020 and it was implemented immediately.

CASC Policies & Procedures Manual (Sec. 5-35)

https://storage.googleapis.com/casc/sites/3/2025/08/FINAL-PP-BOARD-APPROVED\_8.5.25\_compressed.pdf

Information is also available in the 2025-2026 Student Handbook (p. 21-23)

<https://carlalbert.edu/student-life/#handbooks>

Professional Development for Students and Employees

Carl Albert State College will continue to communicate the policy and expectations to students and employees through updated board policy and student handbook publications and on the CASC website for the campus community and the public.

Barriers or Disruptions of Free Expression

Carl Albert State College experienced no barriers or disruptions of free speech:

- 2022-2023 Academic Year
- 2023-2024 Academic Year
- 2024-2025 Academic Year
- Currently through Fall 2025 Academic Year