Orphan, Foster Child, or Ward of the Court since the age of 13

- A student is an orphan if both his or her parents were dead when 13 or older even if the student was subsequently adopted. Likewise, a student who was at any time since the age of 13 a foster child or a ward of the court is independent even if his or her status changed later.
- The following are examples of documents that could attest the student's former foster youth status: a copy of a court order; the statement of a state or county child welfare agency; the statement of a private provider agency that delivers child welfare services; or the statement from an attorney, guardian ad litem, or court-appointed special advocate documenting the person's relationship to the student as well as the latter's foster youth status.

Emancipated Minor

- If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, emancipated minors (released from control of their parent or guardian), as adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in their state of legal residence at the time of the adjudication. The emancipation must be determined by a court, not by an attorney.
- Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal emancipation of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.

Legal Guardianship

- If they are, or were upon reaching the age of majority, in legal guardianship under persons other than their parents or stepparents. This does not include custody, guardianship of a person's estate, or power of attorney.
- Must provide court ordered paperwork of legal guardianship of the student, signed and stamped by court officials. Copies are acceptable.

None of the above apply me.

- I will logon to my FAFSA to correct my application.
