Justice and Mercy Legal Aid Clinic

Donate Online at: www.jamlac.org/give

Do you want to seek justice, love mercy, and walk humbly but aren't sure how?

Justice and Mercy Legal Aid Center JAMLAC is a nonprofit seeking justice for those struggling with poverty and oppression. We are the only Christian organization providing full legal representation in the metro Denver area. Going to court alone or navigating the legal process is daunting. Without an attorney, many people have no or inadequate access to justice. We are helping hundreds of low-income children, families, and victims of abuse with their legal matters so they can break free from violent situations and/or obtain immigration benefits available to them. Your support will make an impact!

Here are the ways to get involved:

Become a monthly donor and or financial partner, pray for our clients and immigrants/asylum seekers, support our Micah 6:8, 3-year initiative to expand our services, volunteer – opportunities for attorneys and non-attorneys, attend one of our events/workshops, host a small gathering to share our impactful work with your network

GROWING TOGETHER

OUR VISION FOR THE FUTURE

Our vision is to relocate our church family to a new facility at 14000 E. Jewell Ave. (former Gander Mt. building) that we might continue to grow together under one roof; reaching more for Jesus while preserving that unique and special multicultural environment with which God has blessed us.

Update:

Construction at our new base camp officially began Monday, February 4th and was commemorated with a Groundbreaking Ceremony attended by over 100 people.

Please pray for all who are working on the building site. We are continuing the conversation with a local church to pursue the possibility of them purchasing our West facility. Please pray for this opportunity.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

Total Pledged: $4,414,622 • Received to date: $1,880,339

Get the latest information on the project and how to get started on fulfilling your pledge at www.GrowTogether.co.
