The Mission of The Courier is to:

1. Serve as a “Voice of the Community” by providing a monthly publication free to community residents and by paid subscription to other interested individuals and organizations.
2. Provide a welcoming format for contributions by community members of all ages.
3. Publish content that educates, informs, inspires, and entertains.
4. Serve as an historical record for the Camptonville community. Archives are located at courier.camptonville.net/p/archives.html, starting with 2003.
5. Provide a means for public agencies, local businesses, and organizations to convey information to the community.
6. Support the local economy by promoting area businesses through articles and paid advertisements.
7. Encourage literacy, writing skills, contemplation, and creativity.
8. Provide reliable and solutionary coverage of news and views that fall within Courier Editorial Guidelines.
