

Palmetto Talk Live - Debate - Vote For Darline Graham, Or Not

On Thursday, October 8 at 6 p.m., Corey Allen of Palmetto Talk Live will host and moderate a live debate and discussion between Jordan Cox of The New America Movement Podcast of Pickens County, and James T. Bessinger of The Carolina Courier of Charleston County, representing opposing sides of a widening disagreement among South Carolina conservatives and Republicans.

Cox will present the case being made by those supporting Republican nominee Darline Graham.

Bessinger will argue the case being made by voters who say they intend to continue supporting Republican candidates but will not cast a vote for Darline Graham Nordone.

South Carolina has not elected a Democrat to the U.S. Senate since 1998, yet several recent polls have shown Nordone and Andrews separated by single digits.

Nordone supporters contend that conservatives who won't vote for Nordone are essentially voting for the Democrat.

Nordone's conservative opponents say party loyalty takes a backseat to voting principles and values. Voters will have an opportunity to hear both sides hashed out live.
