

Hey, hey, we're the Can Do Kids.

We can fly to any land.

CAN DO KIDS BAND

G'day, G'day!

We're flying to Australia.

To hear and play the wonderful music there.

Hear the sounds of Aboriginal tribes.

Playing in traditional styles.

As we listen and admire the view.

We hear an amazing didgeridoo.

We've been invited to traditional land.

To jam with an Indigenous band.

Singing and playing as one.

Everyone having fun!

Now, we are in the west.

Playing the city of Perth.

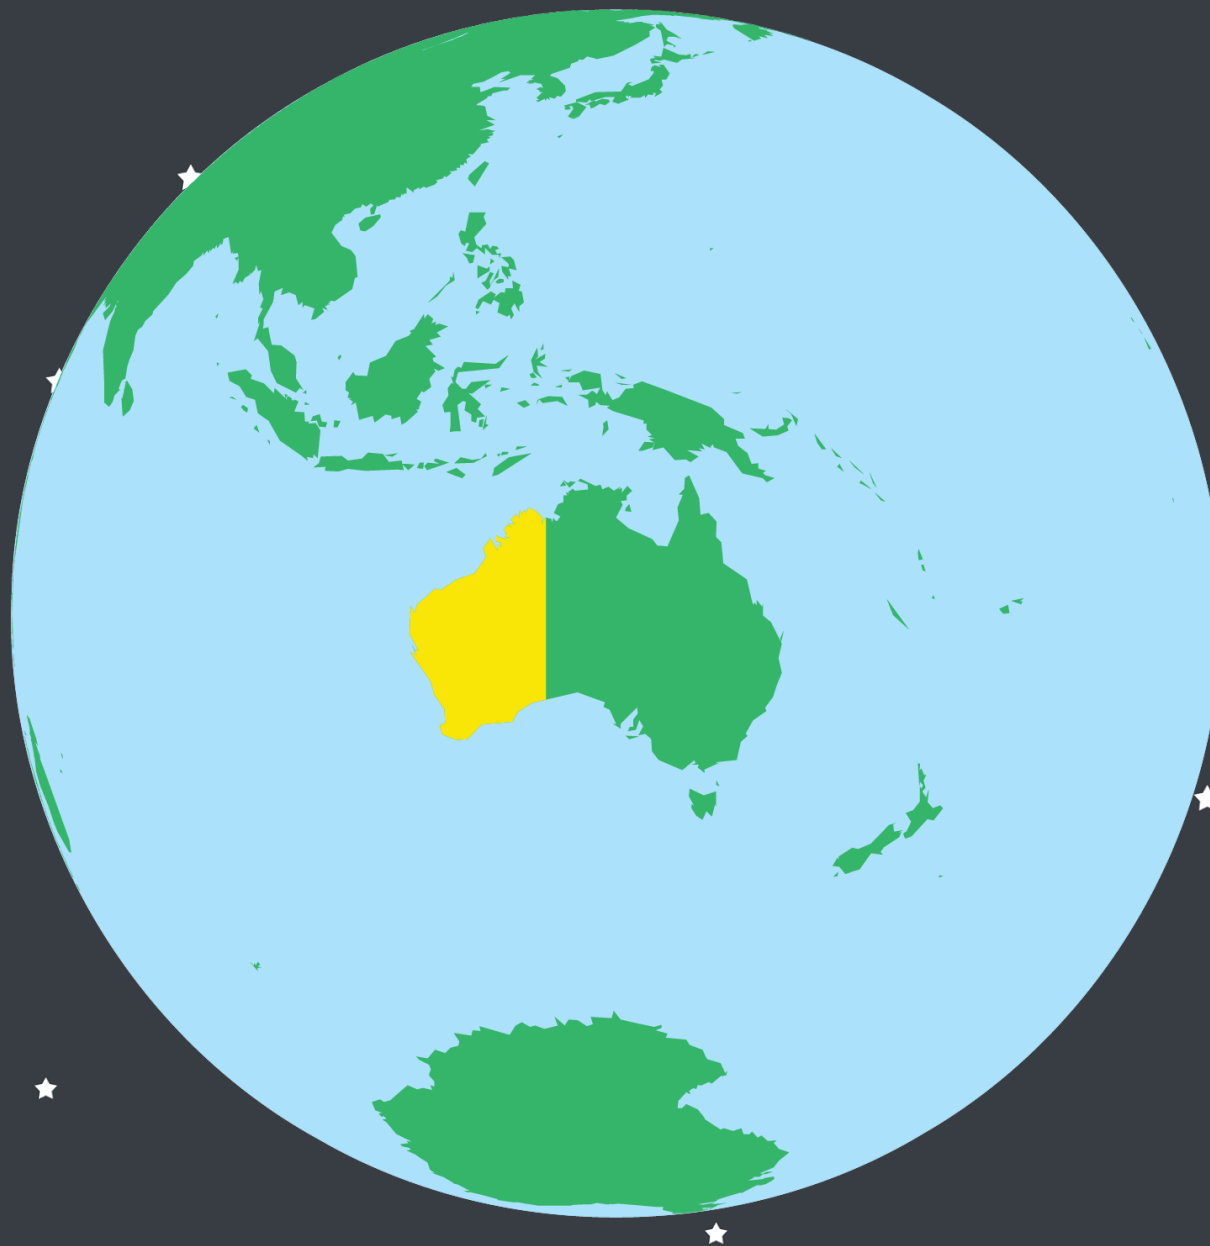

They say their beaches are the best.

Yeah, they're the best on earth.

Western Australia is a big place.

You can see it from outer space.

We love surfing and sailing.

And, at night we're playing.

G'day, G'day!
Are the friendly words we hear.

G'day mate, G'day!
We're pleased to see you here.

Across the Nullarbor Plain we go.

To Adelaide for another show.

Down by the river, it's nice and hot.

And, by the cricket ground, it's just the spot.

Then, to the Isle of Tasmania.

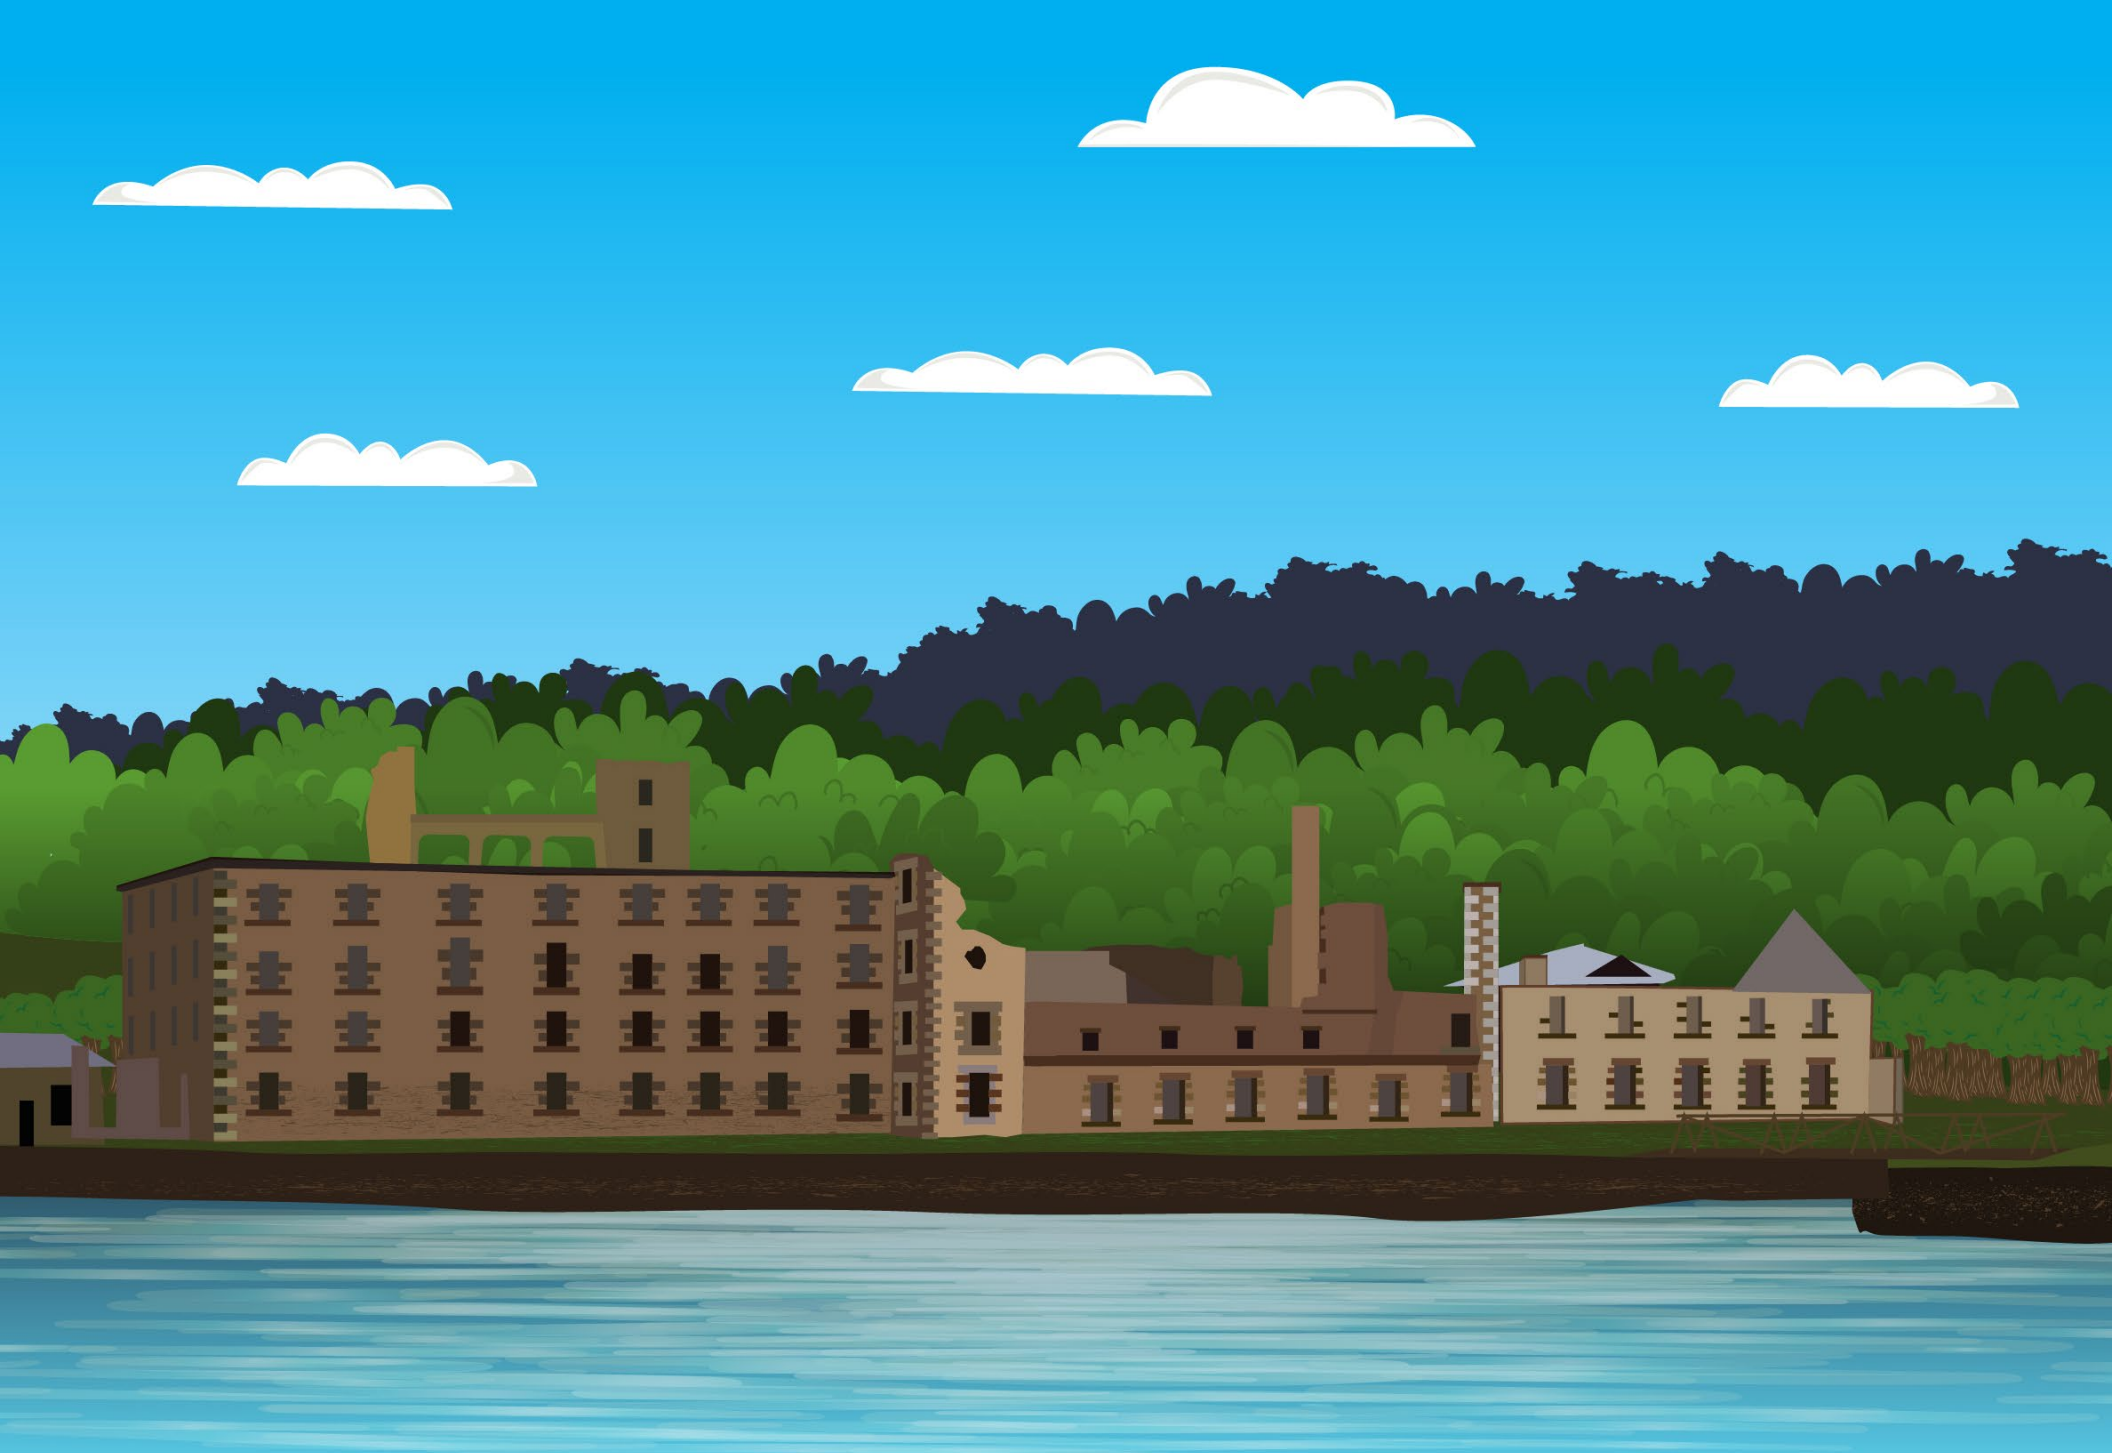

Singing at local fairs.

Visiting the old convict jail.

Which holds many a nightmare tale.

G'day, G'day!
Are the friendly words we hear.

G'day mate, G'day!
We're pleased to see you here.

In the great city of Melbourne.

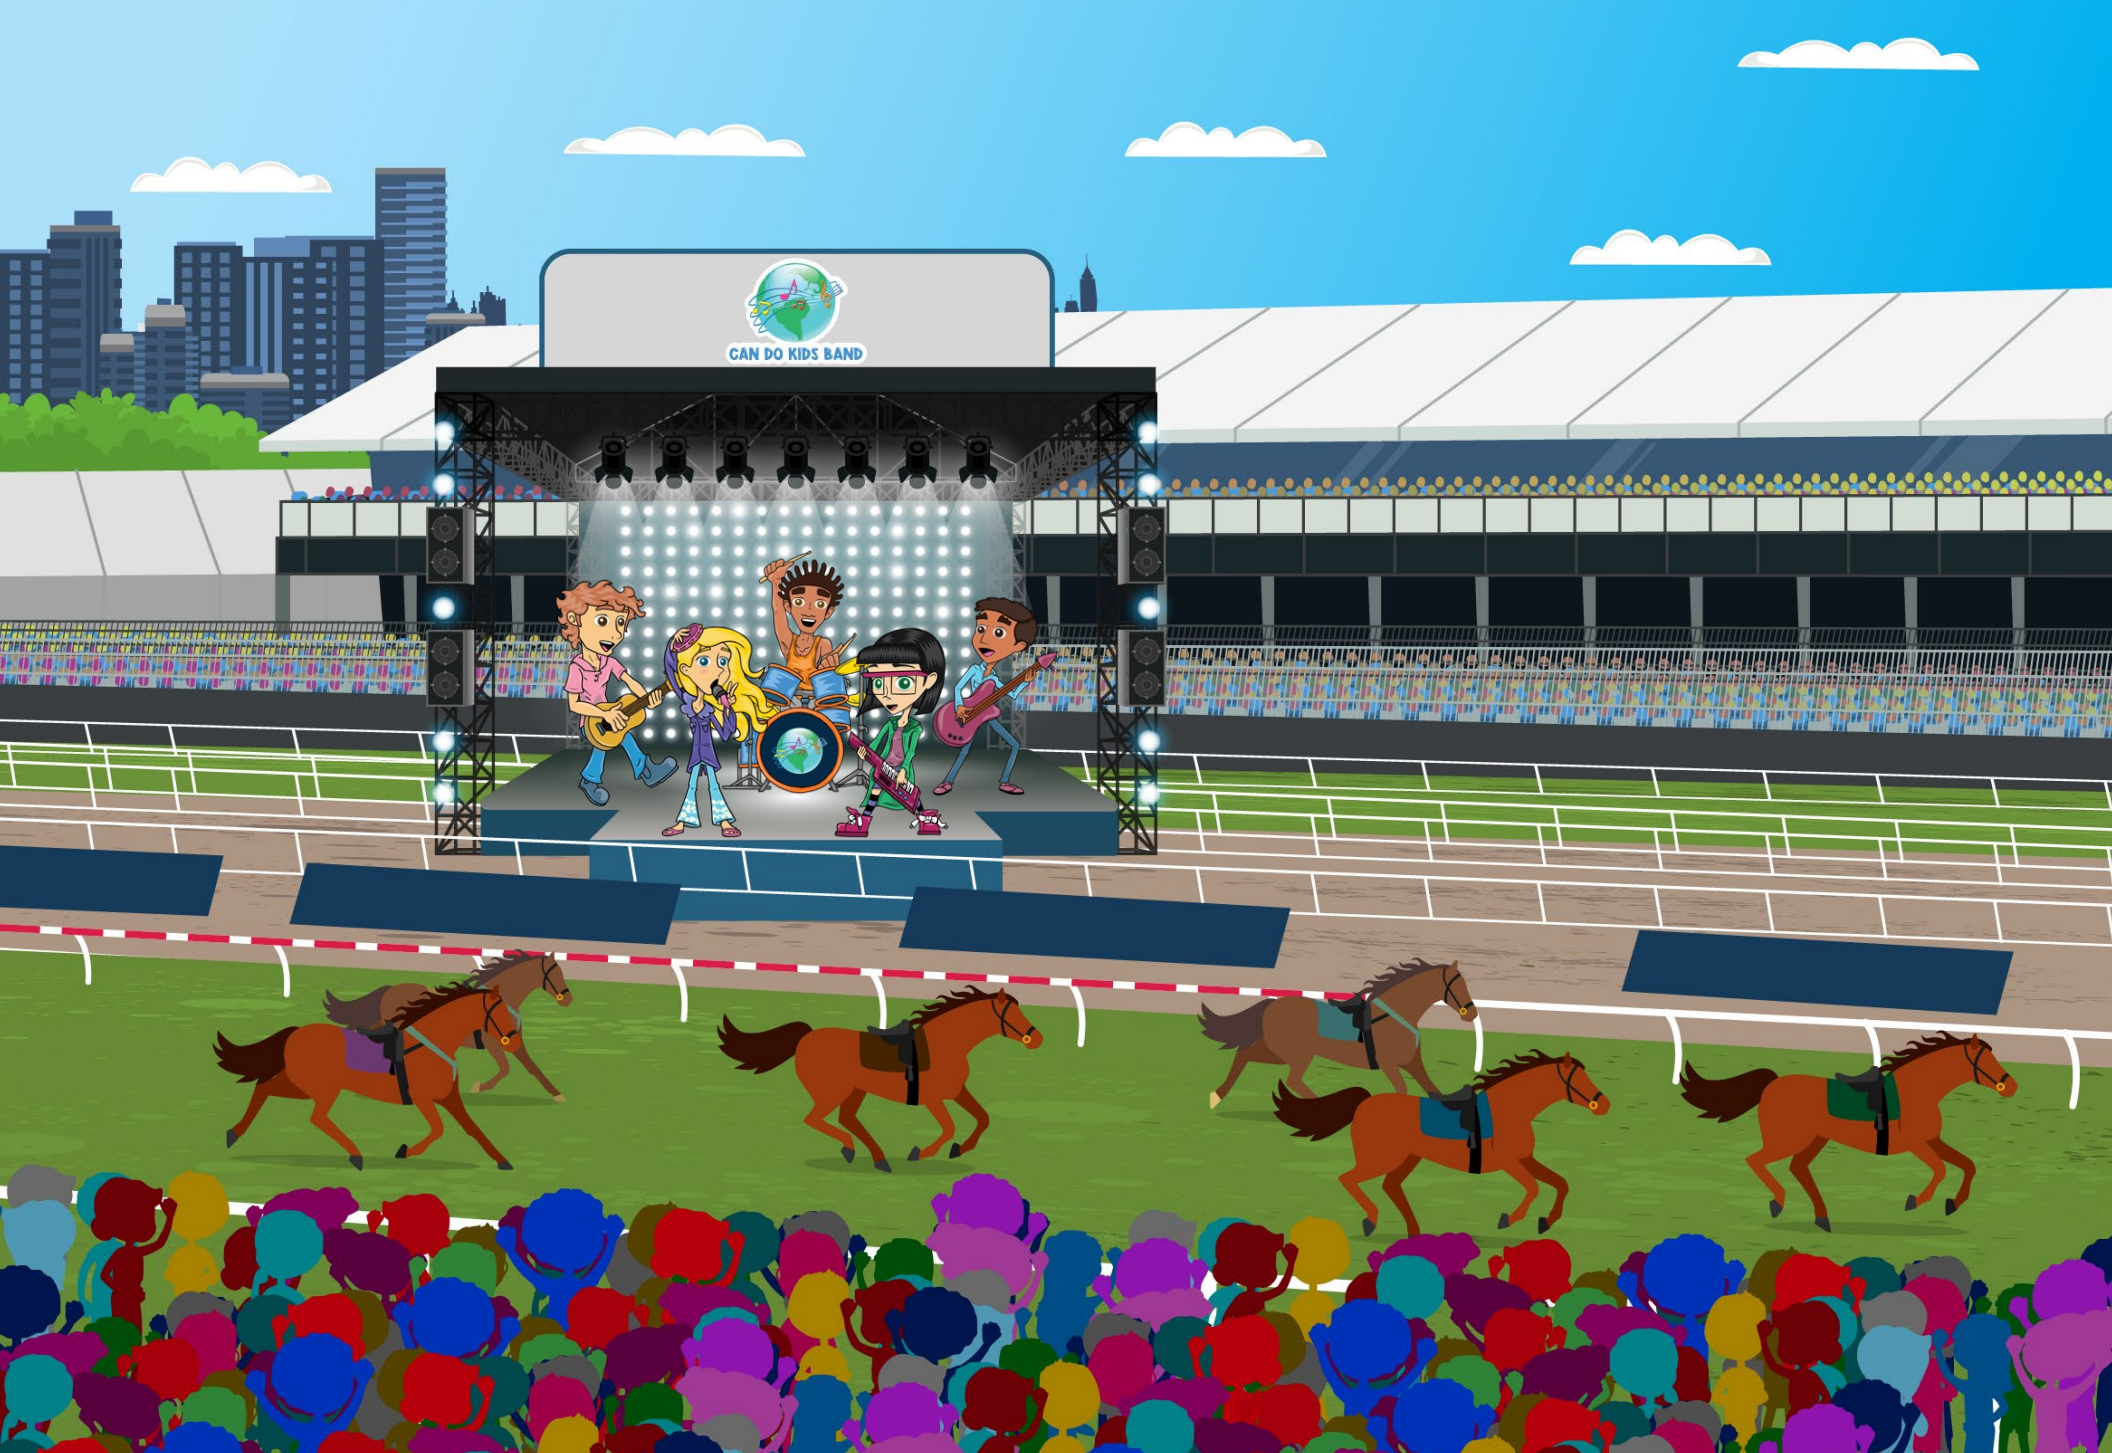

We see four seasons in one day.

With smiling faces at the races.

And, Can Do Band rock we play.

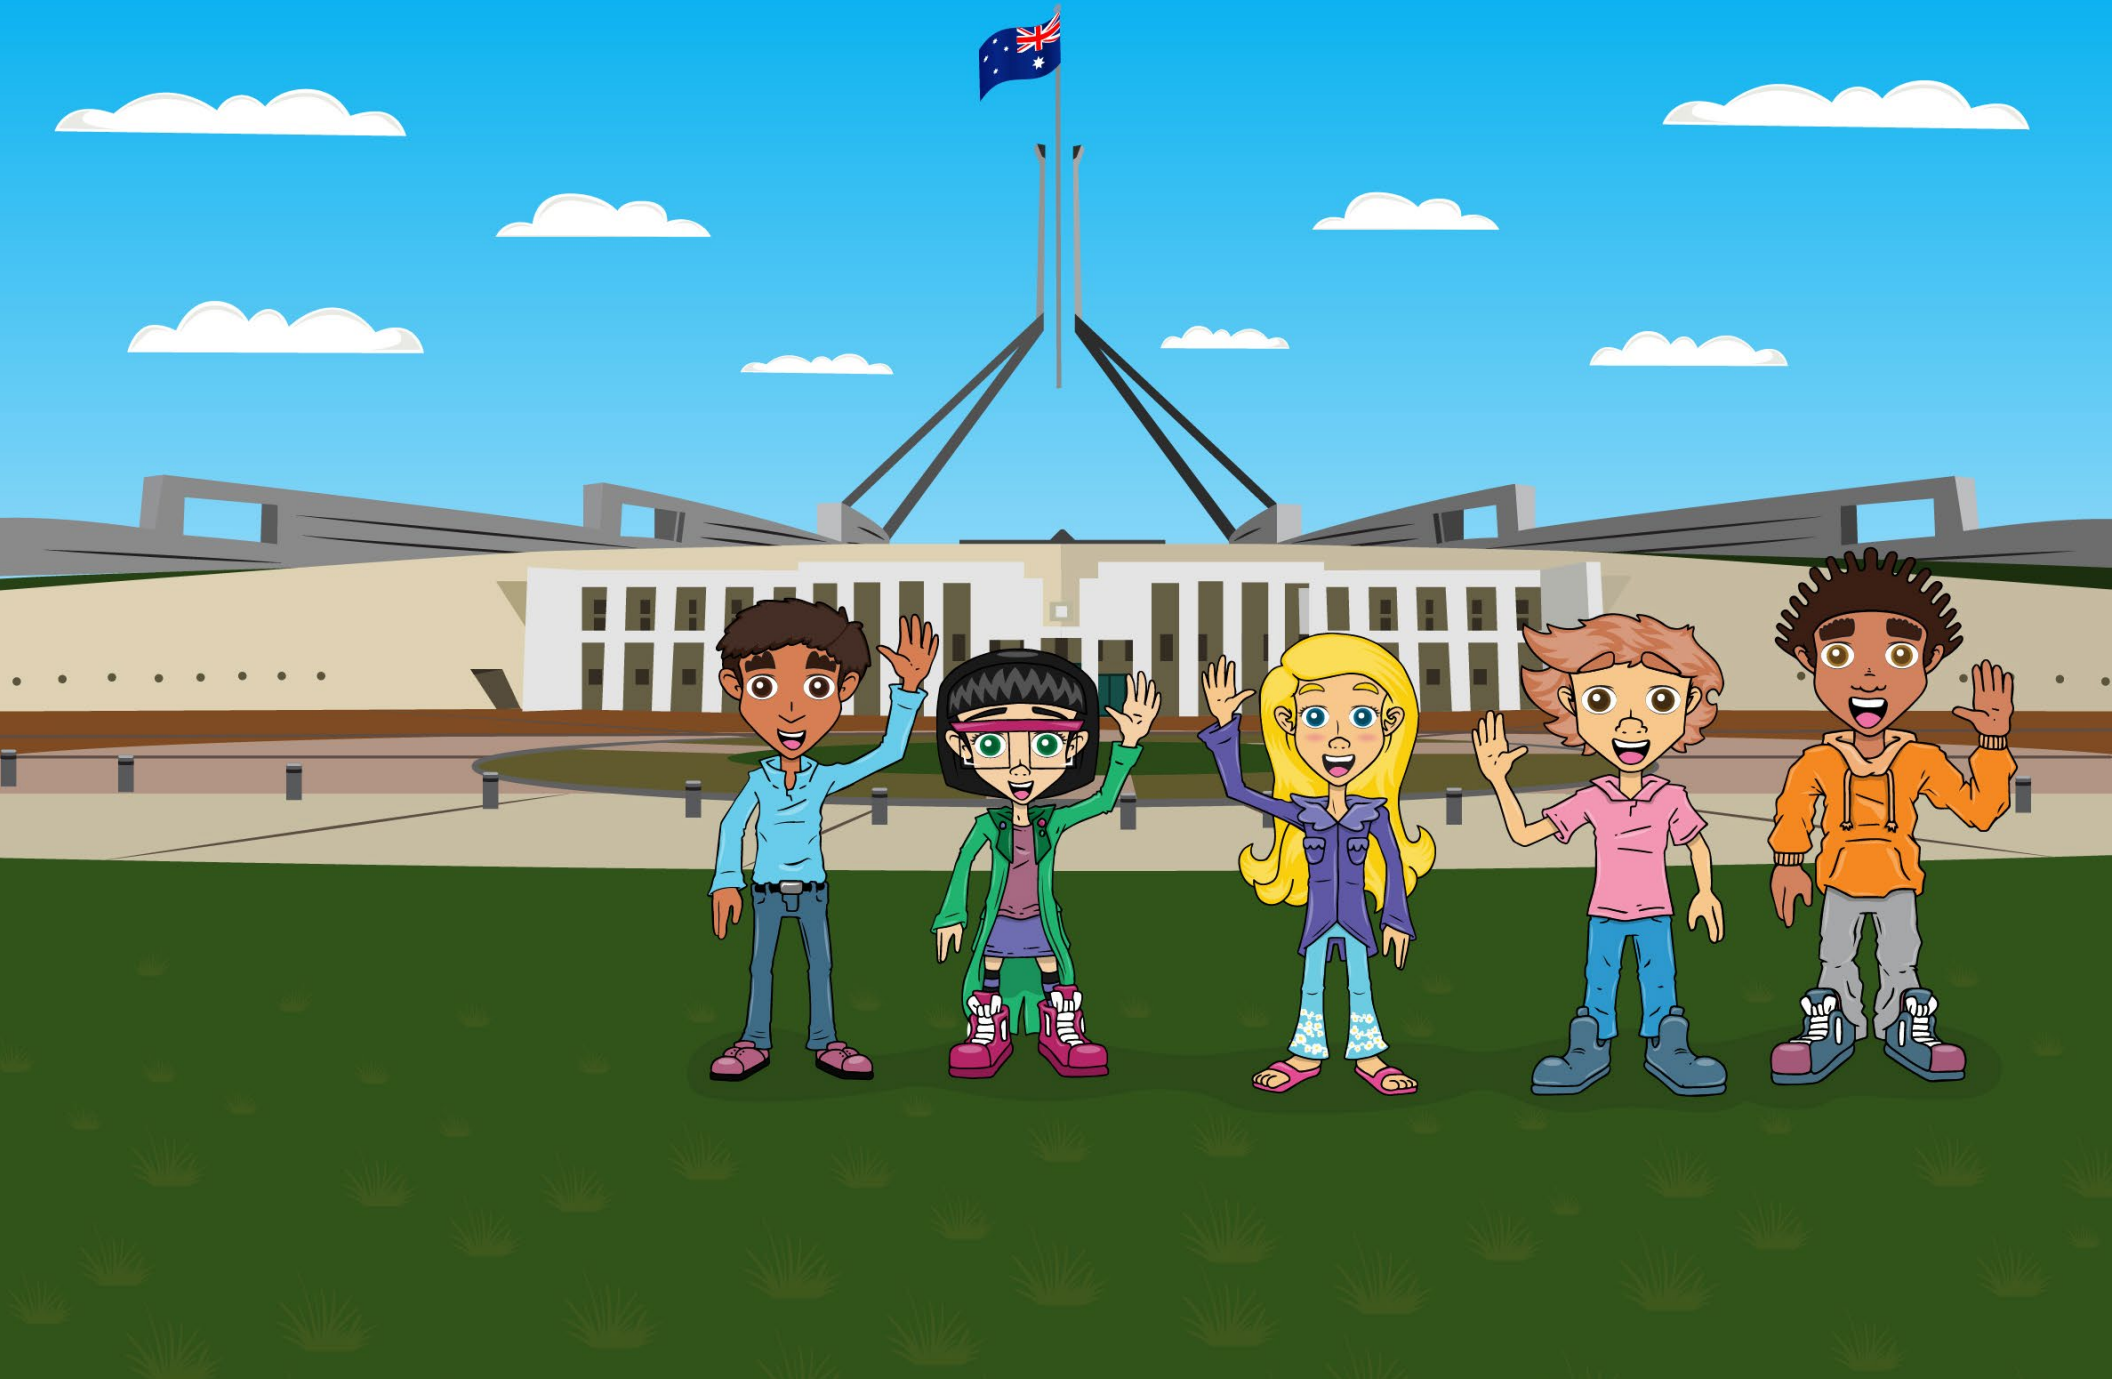

On we go to the Australian Capital Territory.

And, Canberra.

Where the nations laws are made.

And, political games are played.

Going north to New South Wales.

Aussies tell many tales.

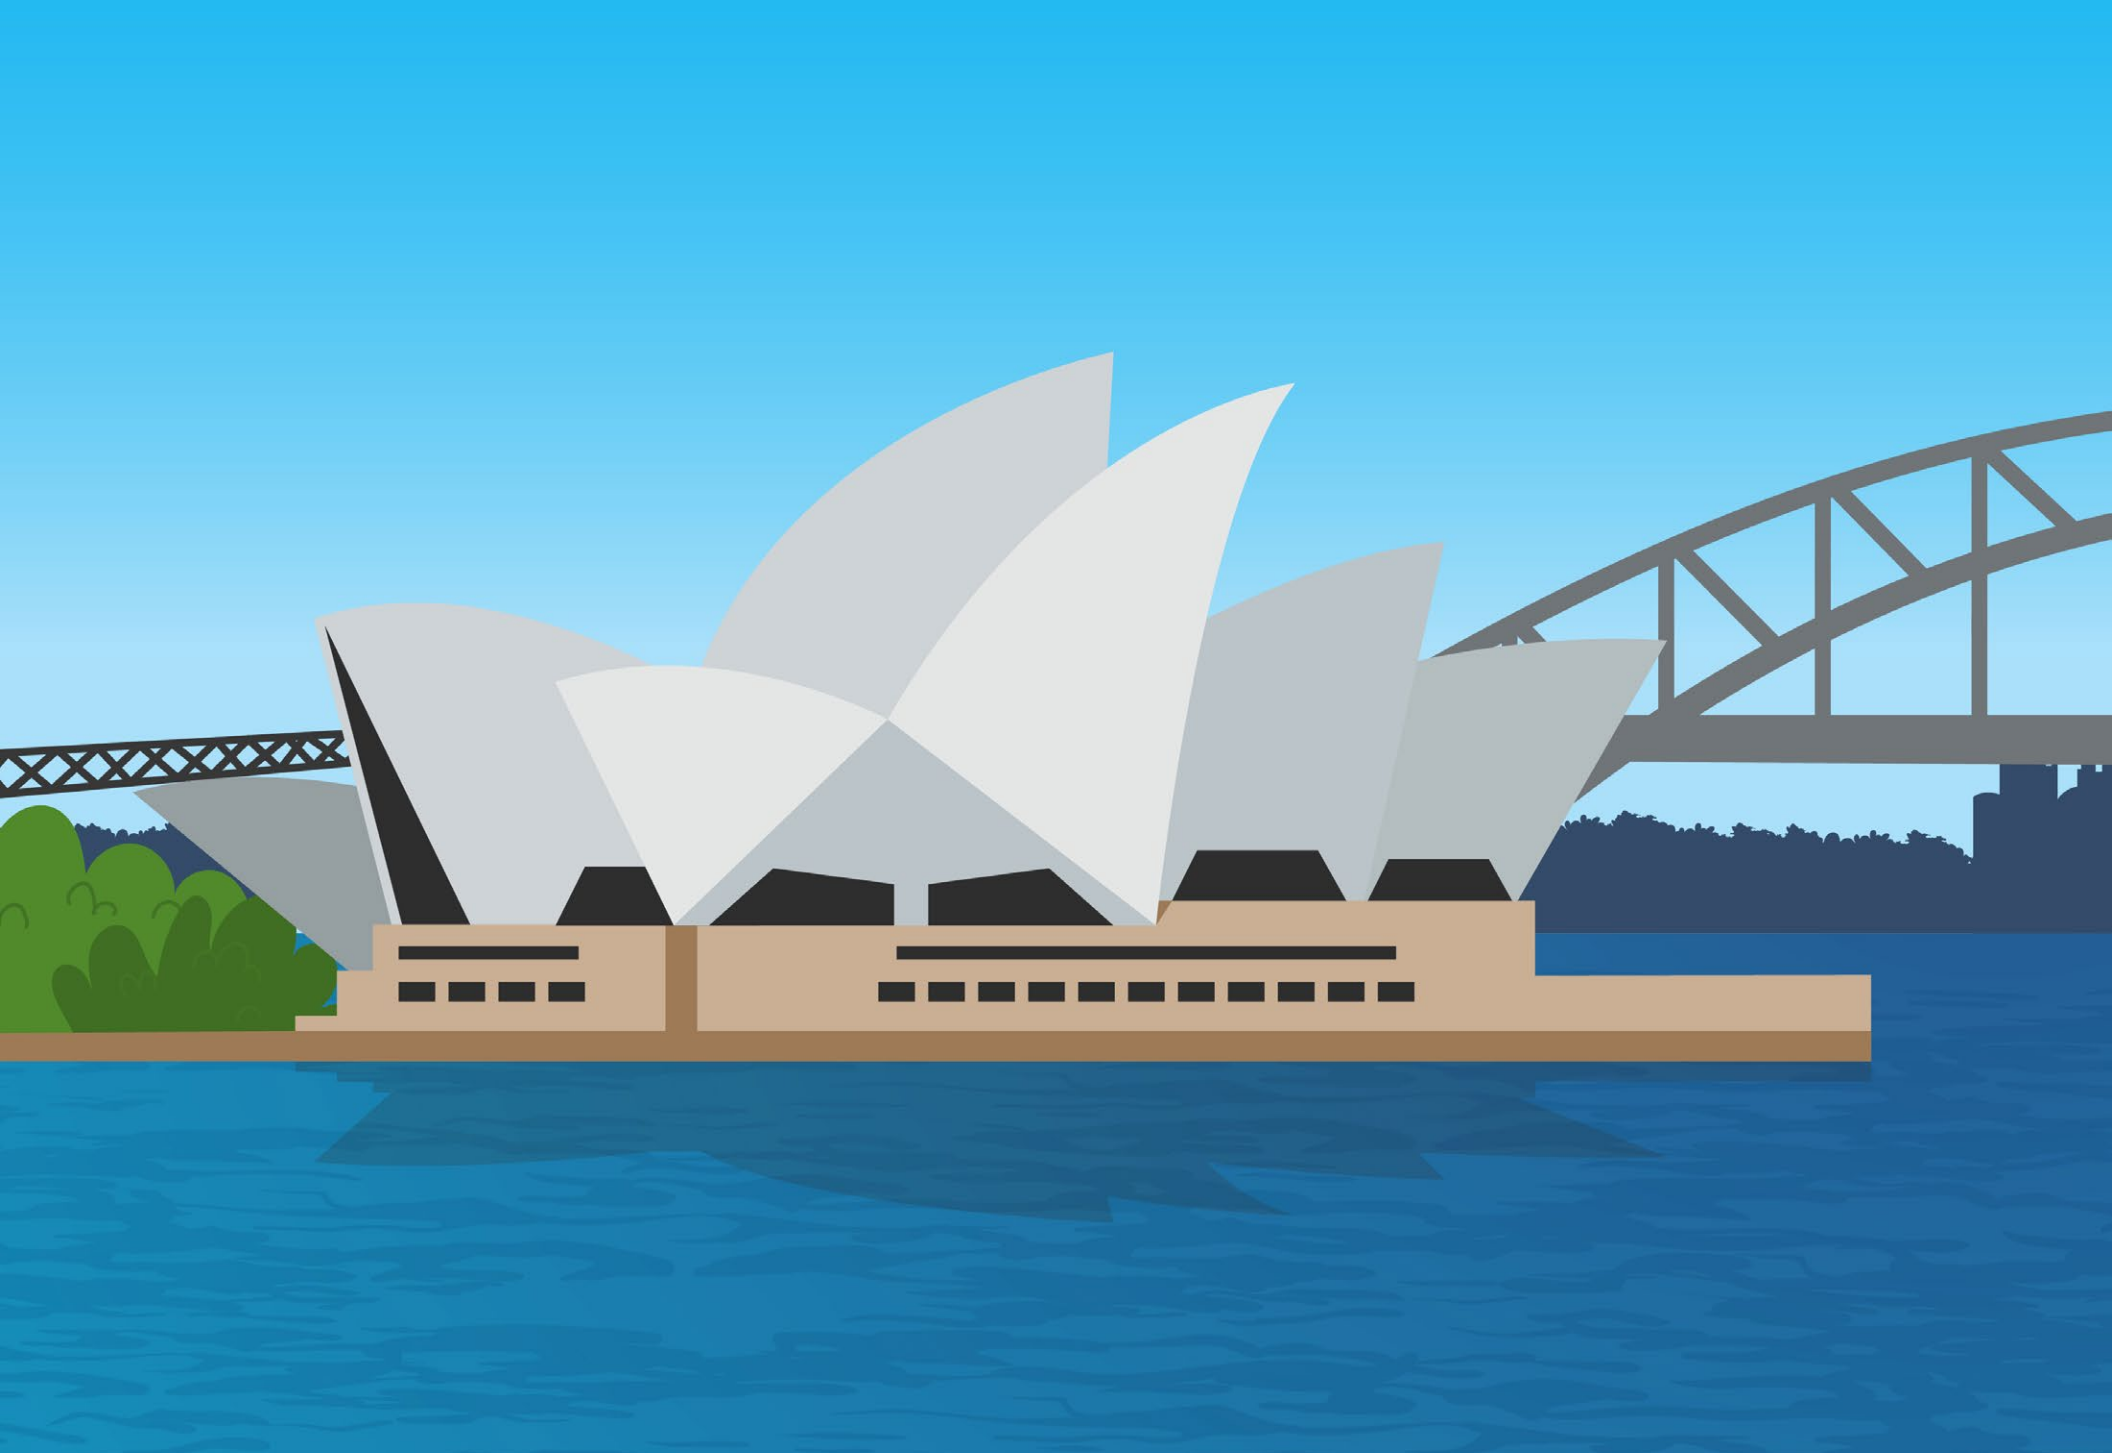

Of old colonial days.

And, traditional Indigenous ways.

In Sydney, we play at the Opera House.

Near here the First Fleet arrived.

Colonists settled on these lands.

Where the Harbour Bridge now stands.

G'day, G'day!
Are the friendly words we hear.

G'day mate, G'day!
We're pleased see you here.

To beautiful Queensland, now we fly.

Can't see a cloud in the sky.

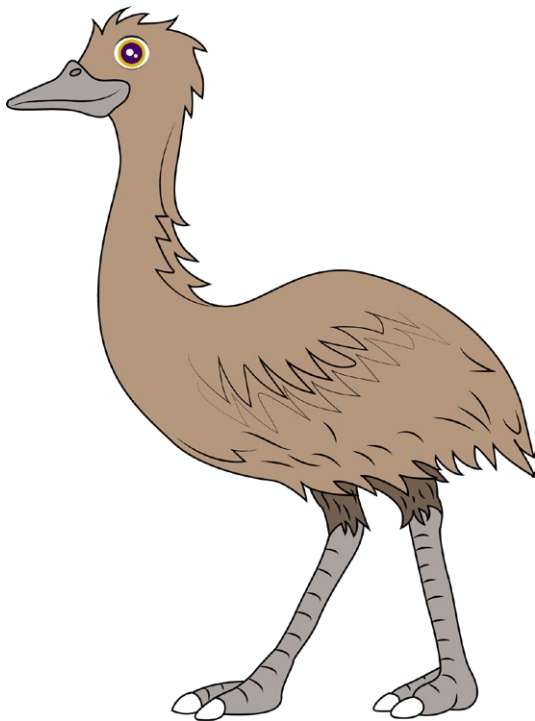

Sun, surf and sea, every day.

Oh, what a place for a holiday!

We see koalas, emus, cockatoos.

Emu

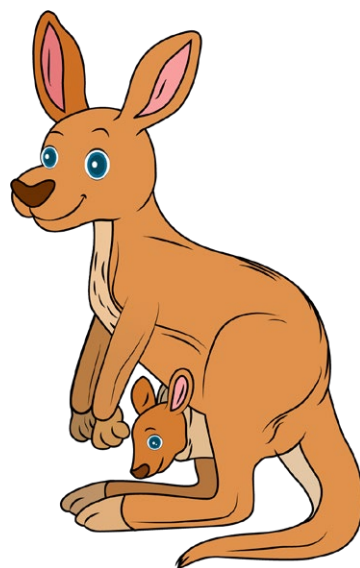

Koala

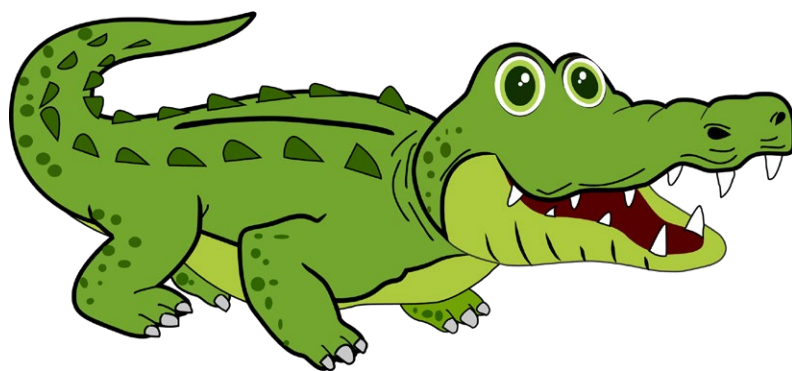

Cockatoo

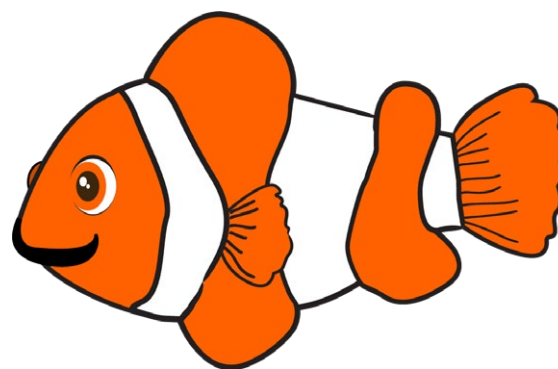

Kangaroos, crocs and colourful fish.

Kangaroo

Crocodile

Clown Fish

Tropical islands, wonderful views.

It's everything you can wish.

Now, to the top end we go.

In Darwin, there's another show.

Then, to Uluru, amazing land!

We join a traditional band.

We have been near and far.

And, now it's time to fly away.

We've enjoyed Australia.

And, so we say, G'day!

G'day, G'day!
Are the friendly words they say.

G'day mate, G'day!
G'day!
