

Fill in 'a', 'an' or 'the' to complete the sentences.

1. Mom gave me ___ dress. ___ dress was very pretty.

2. There is ___ old table in ___ storeroom.

3. ___ pot is hot, don't touch ___ pot.

4. ___ owl is ___ bird.

5. That is ___ excellent idea.

'a' is used before a noun that starts with a consonant sound.

'an' is used before a noun that starts with a vowel sound.

6. We went to ___ zoo and we were excited to see ___ orangutan.

7. Pam went to buy ___ apron from ___ supermarket.

8. I took ___ egg, ___ tablespoon of sugar and ___ tablespoon of butter to make ___ cake.

9. ___ Ganges is ___ longest and ___ largest river in india.

'the' is used before a noun, when you know which person, place, animal or thing you mean specifically.

10. I missed ___ bus, so I took ___ cab.

