ARTICLE 6.- Occupancy Period of Accommodation Units

Hotel rooms must be used based on the number of nights reserved. Occupancy of the accommodation unit begins at 3:00 p.m. on the first day of the contracted period and ends at 12:00 p.m. on the day designated as the departure date.

However, on peak occupancy dates, the establishment may delay delivering your room for a maximum period of two hours. The availability may also be delayed in the event of exceptional circumstances that prevent, for reasons beyond the control of the Hotel, having the room that corresponds to each client at the time set for the beginning of occupancy in accordance with the usual occupancy rules.

The client must communicate the arrival time and their travel plan to have a forecast from the hotel and must also take into account that, if they do not show up at the Hotel before 8:00 p.m., on the expected day of arrival and without prior communication, the Hotel will consider the reservation “No Show” and will be immediately canceled automatically and charging 100% of the amount pending payment of the reservation. Notwithstanding the above, the reservation will be maintained as long as the client has notified it in advance of the indicated time.

For changes in occupancy such as extending the occupancy of your room for a longer period than contracted, you will be required to pay the established "Late Check Out " amount. This request will be attended to whenever availability allows, duly informing the client who has requested it.

The client may extend more days than those specified in the admission document, as long as it is authorized by the Hotel and there is availability in this regard.

If the client leaves the room on the day of departure, before the established Check- Out time , no refund of the total amount of the stay will be made. If the client reduces the number of guests in the reservation in whole or in part, it will be the Hotel's decision whether or not to apply refunds, although in the event that the room is marked as "non-refundable" a charge will be made for the entire amount. of the reserve.

In the event of the death of the person occupying the room, their heirs or representatives will be responsible for paying the expenses incurred as a result of the death, including if necessary the redecoration and disinfection of the room and the replacement of linen and equipment.

ARTICLE 7.- People for Accommodation and Visits

Likewise, no more than two people will be allowed to stay in a double room or suite, nor more than three in a room contracted as a triple.

For security reasons, occupancy of more than four people per room or, where applicable, the maximum number possible according to the room format and type of reservation, is not permitted.

The Hotel may charge a fixed rate for the actual number of people using the room, and at the same time, terminate the stay immediately.

No person has the right to provide accommodation to another without the prior consent of the Hotel and if this is agreed to, the corresponding registration movements and registration in the travelers' book must be carried out.

Regarding visits, the Hotel reserves the right to admit occasional visitors and in no case will it allow them access to the room area. If the user wishes to receive visitors, the Hotel will provide common areas or spaces enabled for this. In case of non-compliance, the Hotel reserves the right to order the immediate departure of the visitor.

ARTICLE 8.- Provision of Hotel Services

The Hotel offers the services and benefits according to its category. Whatever these are at any given time, they are specified on the official Q Hotels website, which indicates the acceptance of special requests.

The price of the accommodation unit includes the supplies of water, energy, air conditioning, bedding and cleaning of the accommodation.

The people who represent the Hotel or who provide services inherent to lodging, such as cleaning, will have free access to the rooms occupied by clients for the provision of the service.

In the provision of its services, the establishment will comply with the requirements established by Civil Liability contemplated in the hotel insurance, being exonerated from any liability in the event of personal accidents due to negligence or recklessness of the guests or their companions.

In the case of technical deficiencies beyond the control of the Hotel, it undertakes to manage the solution causing the least possible inconvenience for the client.

The furniture, utensils in the rooms and rooms are part of the services provided and have been arranged with the intention of making the clients' stay as pleasant as possible, so appropriate and respectful use of them is requested.

In any case, they are the property of the establishment, so in the event of loss, theft or unjustified deterioration, the establishment reserves the right to demand the corresponding payment.

Without prejudice to the right of admission, Hotel clients will generally be able to access the services and equipment offered by the establishment, unless access limitations are established, which will be fully justified and in no case will be contrary to the rights and constitutional principles.

ARTICLE 9.- Room Cleaning Service.

Room cleaning is carried out daily. Cleaning hours are generally from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Clients who do not make their rooms available during those hours will not be able to have their room cleaned.

If you want your room fixed, you must leave the green light button on the room door.

If you want not to be disturbed, you should leave the red light button on the room door. When the notice exceeds 48 interrupted hours, the maximum tolerance limit allowed by the Hotel, a telephone call will be made to the room. If no response is obtained, the room will be entered to access cleaning and proof of its perfect condition.

The change of towels and sheets is carried out whenever the client deems it appropriate or at least 3 in 3 days. If you need towels, a change of sheets, replacement of the set or cleaning of the room at a specific time, you must notify reception.
