

Artificial Intelligence for Clinical Care: Today and Tomorrow

Tuesday, June 16, 2026
New York Academy of Medicine
9am - 3pm

The New York State Department of Health AIDS Institute's Digital Health Initiative hosts its first clinician-only conference exploring how artificial intelligence is shaping the healthcare landscape.

Legal and Ethical Implications of Artificial Intelligence in Clinical Settings

Brenton Hill, JD, MHA
Coalition for Health AI

Andrew Lea, MD, DPhil
University of Rochester

Michael Batt, JD
Hall Render

Ammu Menon, MPH, MBA
NYC Health + Hospitals

Artificial Intelligence Case Studies

Michelle Knopp, MD
University of Cincinnati

Marzyeh Ghassemi, PhD
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

So What? How Will Artificial Intelligence Redefine the Healthcare Workforce?

Tim Dye, PhD, JD
Florida Atlantic University

Charlene Ngamwajasat, MD, MBA
NYC Department of Health

Nadia Smati, MD
Ainsley Health

Kristine Creavey, PhD
Chapin Hall

Lauri Goldkind, PhD, MSW
Fordham University

Department of Health
AIDS Institute

REGISTER NOW

<http://bit.ly/4mZh9ZQ>

