

Request for Proposal: Consultancy to support One CGIAR Transition in HR-related workstreams

What we are seeking:

The CGIAR is seeking a senior Human Resources Consultant to provide support to the One CGIAR transition management team with the activities related to the delivery of the One CGIAR compensation and benefit structure, HR Common Policies and Services and other HR activities related to the transition to One CGIAR.

Background:

In 2020, CGIAR is embarking on an ambitious reform: One CGIAR. One CGIAR is a dynamic reformulation of CGIAR's partnerships, knowledge, assets, and global presence, aiming for greater integration in the face of the interdependent challenges facing today's world. It comprises (i) a sharper mission statement and impact focus to 2030, aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals; (ii) unified governance under a 'One CGIAR Common Board'; (iii) institutional integration, including more aligned management under an empowered Executive Management Team, common policies and services, and a unified country presence; (iv) a new research modality; as well as (v) more, and pooled, funding. For further details, please refer to CGIAR web page.

A key aspect of the transition to One CGIAR is institutional integration, including harmonization of CGIAR's policies and internal business services in Human Resources, Information Technology, Finance, Procurement, Communications and Resource Mobilization, and Research Performance and Results Management.

General tasks include:

Reporting to the Senior Advisor, Office of the Executive Management Team, and working closely with the HRCOP, the Consultant will provide support to the transition management team with the activities related to the delivery of the One CGIAR HR-related workstreams, as outlined below.

- i. Monitor progress towards project's agreed milestones and timelines and produce regular progress reports.
- j. Working closely with One CGIAR Communication Officer develop communication updates on workstream progress

3. Provide support with other HR-related workstreams as may be required.

Knowledge, skills, and abilities:

The service provider should have proven experience in the following areas:

Experience

- Substantive experience as an HR practitioner and advisor at a senior level.
- In-depth knowledge of HR principles, functions, and best practices.
- Outstanding project management skills and attention to details.
- Substantial experience in change management initiatives.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, with the ability to establish and nurture effective working relationships in a multi-cultural, multi-disciplinary and complex environment, and external contractors/suppliers.
- Excellent written and oral communication, editing, and reporting skills in English.
- Working knowledge of French, Spanish, Arabic, or another major language that enhances effective collaboration across CGIAR is an advantage.

Competencies

- Ability to remain effective under pressure, inspiring trust and credibility.
- Able to adapt to change, navigate ambiguity and take initiative.
- Active listening and critical thinking.
- Pragmatic and ability to work in multidisciplinary teams.
- Ability to effectively operate across the spectrum of operational, transactional and strategic spheres of activities.

Required format of response to RFP:

- The applicants must submit a CV and elaborated cover letter (not more than 2 pages) that outlines how they would be effective in performing the tasks required.
- Quote in the form of a fixed pricing (USD).

Evaluation Criteria:

Proposals will be evaluated based on the following dimensions.

Competencies and Experience (80% weighted)

Consultant's prior experience relevant to the proposed scope of work as evidenced by the examples of similar work; relevance of education background and qualifications as evidenced in the CV or cover letter; and feedback from clients' references.

Cost – Total cost (20% weighted)

Clarity and relevance of cost proposal, including any alternative fee structures (i.e. fee caps, blended rates, fixed rates, pro-bono elements, or other reduced fee arrangement, etc.). Value for money as perceived by the CGIAR System Organization in the context of operating in a not-for-profit sector.

All proposals will be evaluated on a value-for-money, 2-step basis with the technical proposals and the financial proposals each being evaluated separately to determine best value for price.

The CGIAR System Organization reserves the right to consider proposals in whole and in part, and to propose the appointment of one or more applicants to the project in the form of a new consortia for delivery of the project with an identifiable project lead.

Schedule and Dates

The following schedule includes key milestones and their associated completion dates and is provided primarily for planning purposes. CGIAR System Organization may modify the project timeline at its discretion.

Milestone	Target dates

How to submit a proposal:

Service Providers submitting proposals should indicate if they wish to be considered for all of the services required in this RFP, or only a portion. A limited scope in the proposal will not preclude selection for that area. Primary selection criteria for awarding these contracts will be the quality and success with prior campaigns, the strength of prior experience of the service providers and the strength of their references.

Please submit a CV, elaborated cover letter and budget proposal to smo-procurement@cgiar.org

All proposals must be received no later than Midnight (CET), January 8, 2020. Only electronically submitted proposals will be considered. Late proposals will not be considered.

Who we are:

CGIAR is a global research partnership for a food-secure future. CGIAR science is dedicated to reducing poverty, enhancing food and nutrition security, and improving natural resources and ecosystem services. Its research is carried out by 14 CGIAR Centers in close collaboration with hundreds of partners, including national and regional research institutes, civil society organizations, academia, development organizations, and the private sector. These 14 Centers have close to 10,000 staff based in over 50 countries.

The CGIAR System Organization, which is an international organization headquartered in Montpellier, France, provides governance to the CGIAR System in collaboration with the System Council and has about 40 staff. The Organization is committed to cultivating a work environment that reflects teamwork, gender equality, and respect for diversity. We endeavor to foster a multi-cultural environment that is free of any form of harassment and discrimination; and that embraces and values individuals regardless of age, ethnicity, race, gender, national or social origin, marital status or any other form of personal identity.
