For I can see the wrong I've done;
Teach me, O God, and fill my mind,

*It is my custom to name my hymn tunes after camps and towns where Canadians and Americans of Japanese descent were interned during the Second World War. In this way I hope to ensure that these places and injustices will not be forgotten.
I'm conscious of my sin.
Your wisdom I desire.

3/5. Remove the shadows from my soul
and make me clean as the snow.

Let gladness break into my heart that all your joy I may know.

4. Create in me a pure heart,
6. Submissive now I come, O

Lord, God, a new right spirit within.
a song of thanks I raise

Help me be willing to my heart
Lord, take my lips, my heart

-3-
bey life,
and fill me
and fill me
with your presence
with your praise.
