

D 13: Who You Are is How You Are Heard: Personality and Personal Ethics in Preaching

Calvin Symposium on Worship and the Arts 2006

Leader: Mary Hulst (hulst@uiuc.edu)

Introduction

We all have tendencies in preaching, what Tom Long calls fingerprints.

Why is knowing our tendencies important?

1. Research ruts:

What this may reveal:

→Heart question:

Getting out of the rut:

2. Illustration ruts:

What this may reveal:

→Heart question:

Getting out of the rut:

3. Format ruts:

What this may reveal:

→Heart question:

Getting out of the rut:

4. Conclusion: General observations

About Plagiarism.

Preachers who avoid their own issues:
if you can't face your truth, you can't face The Truth.

Preaching deserves our best efforts.