

2007 Calvin Symposium on Worship
Seminar: Gender Issues in Worship
Presenter: Alice Mathews, Ph.D.

Introduction: Keeping First Things First

- A. Worship celebrates the "worth-ship" of God; it's all about God, not about us.
- B. Yet we all bring our gender with us to worship.

I. The theological issue of gendered language in worship

- A. Does God have gender?
- B. All language about God is analogical.

II. The nature of gender

- A. What we cannot say about gender
- B. What we can say about gender

III. Biblical and historical notes on gender in worship

- A. Worship leaders in the first-century church
- B. Worship changes in later church history
- C. A "feminized" Church vs. a "muscular Christianity"

IV. What men and women each bring to worship

- A. How men and women might differ in what they bring to worship
- B. How men and women overlap in what they bring to worship

Conclusion: It takes both male and female together to image God fully in our worship (Genesis 1:27).
