

CHURCH HISTORY

1. What do you know about your own congregation's history? Jot down a few key events or historical developments.

2. What are the most important details to know about the history of your denomination? Or, if nondenominational, its theological and cultural roots?

3. What other historical events or movements are essential for understanding the history of your church?