>> OPENING TIPS

A WIN WOULD...

- » Give the Panthers their first ACC win since February 1, 2018.
- » Be the Panthers seventh win against the Clemson Tigers in the all-time series.
- » Be the 142nd win at the Petersen Events Center for the Panthers across 16 seasons.
- » Give the Panthers a 6-5 record at home this season.
- » Give Pitt 80 victories against ACC schools in program history.
- » Be the 10th win of the season for the Panthers, marking last seasons win total.

LAST TIME OUT...

- » The Panthers (9-9, 0-4 ACC) were within striking distance of #12 Syracuse at halftime on Thursday but the Orange exploded in the third quarter to hand Pitt the 82-50 defeat.
- » Syracuse was able to outscore the Panthers 44-18 in the second half to claim their 15th win of the season.
- » Senior Cassidy Walsh was the lone Pitt player to score in double figures as she netted 13 points, four rebounds and two assists while connecting on three triples in the loss.
- » Junior Jasmine Whitney finished off her game with seven points and a team-high four assists while Danielle Garven added seven points and four boards and Cara Judkins chipped in with a team-high seven rebounds in the loss.

- » As a team, the Panthers were out-rebounded 51-32 for the game while the Orange also out-scored Pitt 26-4 in the second chance scoring category.

STORYLINES

- » Three of the Panthers four ACC losses have come at the hands of Top-15 programs (Notre Dame, NC State, Syracuse).
- » The Panthers are looking to avoid their second 0-5 start in ACC play since joining the conference in 2013-14.
- » One of the keys during Panther victories this season has been winning the battle in the paint as they own a 9-2 record this year when out-scoring opponents inside and a 0-7 mark when not doing so.

LOOKING AHEAD...

- » Pitt will wrap up their four-game homestand on Thursday night as they welcome the Virginia Cavaliers to the Petersen Events Center for a 7:00 pm tip.
- » The Panthers will then play three of their next four on the road starting with nationally ranked Louisville on Sunday, Jan. 27 at 2:00 pm.

>> MEDIA INFO

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Pitt home games are issued on a game-by-game basis to working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations, parking limitations and demand. All credential requests need to be made by contacting Julie Juirch via email or phone. Media members are required to make credential arrangements at least 24 hours in advance of the game in question.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

The Athletic Media Relations Office will assist all media personnel with coverage of Pitt basketball. All interviews MUST be arranged through the Athletic Media Relations Office. Generally, head coach Lance White and selected players are available for interviews two days prior to each game, post-practice. If a media member wishes to complete something more in-depth during the week, please contact Louie Spina at (716) 429-5464 to arrange a time. No interviews will be conducted on game day. Players' telephone numbers will not be released by the Media Relations Office. Out-of-town interview requests for Coach White or any player must be made at least 48 hours in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Still photographers and TV news cameras will receive a regular media pass and sit in the designated area along the baseline. Photographers must remain in the space designated. Be prepared to show identification if asked to identify yourself. Strobe lights are prohibited.

PITT MEDIA SERVICES

Media members may access the most up-to-date information on the Pitt women's basketball team on the athletic department's official Web site: www.pittsburghpanthers.com. Game notes, official statistics, game recaps, boxscores and general releases will be updated regularly. All of this information is available online. Director of Media Relations Louie Spina will also send out game notes via e-mail prior to each game. To get on the list, please e-mail him at Ispina@athletics.pitt.edu.

13TH MEETING WITH THE TIGERS

- » Sunday's matchup against the Clemson Tigers will be the 13th meeting of all-time between the two programs with each collecting six wins in the series.
- » Pitt has won four of the last five games against the Tigers including a 58-42 win last season in Clemson.
- » The Panthers currently hold the 3-2 edge in games inside the Petersen Events Center against the Tigers.

TOUGH ACC SCHEDULE CONTINUES FOR PANTHERS

- » The Panthers were awarded no favors when the schedule for ACC play was announced as they opened conference play on the road against a pair of top-10 teams before returning home and hosting #12 Syracuse.
- » For the first time in program history, Pitt opened their conference slate with three top-15 teams through the first four games as they played #2 Notre Dame, #8 NC State and #12 Syracuse.
- » After two home games against unranked opponents, the Panthers will then hit the road for a test against nationally ranked Louisville, marking the fourth game against a nationally ranked foe out of the first seven ACC games.

WHITNEY EXCELLING AT THE POINT

- » Junior guard Jasmine Whitney has taken the starting point guard spot and ran with it while showing steady growth so far this season.
- » The junior has started 15 straight games at the point and has helped the Panthers to a 8-7 record in the games she started this season.
- » Last time out, Whitney was held in check by the Syracuse Orange as she finished with seven points, four assists and two rebounds across 25 minutes of work.
- » Whitney is enjoying her best season to date as she is averaging a career-high 9.4 points, a team-high 3.6 assists, 3.2 rebounds and 1.7 steals while connecting on a career-best 13 three-pointers.
- » Over her last 11 games, the junior is averaging a team-high 11.5 points, 3.9 assists, 3.2 rebounds and 1.7 steals while playing an average of 29.7 minutes/game and leading the Panthers to six wins.
- » The junior has scored 20+ points twice this season including a career-high 23 points in a win at Duquesne earlier this year. She has scored in double figures seven times on the year.
- » Whitney has been lethal from the charity stripe this season as she is shooting a career-best 80.6% which ranks 13th in the ACC. Her 58 free throws made are the fourth most in the conference.

WALSH CONTINUES STEADY PLAY

- » Senior guard Cassidy Walsh is enjoying the best season of her career thanks to more playing time in the backcourt for the Panthers. The senior is leading the team with an average of 30.9 minutes played/game.
- » Walsh has been the Panthers most consistent performer this season as she is the lone Pitt player to start all 18 games and is averaging a team-high 10.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.4 assists so far this season.
- » She has also made a team-high 34 three-pointers and is shooting 34.0% from deep on the year. The senior has connected on at least one three-pointer in 11 straight games and two or more triples in six of her last eight games for the Panthers.
- » Last time out, Walsh led the Panthers in scoring as she netted 13 points, four rebounds and two assists while connecting on three triples in the loss.
- » Walsh has a team-high 10 double-digit scoring games this season including a career-high 21 point performance in the win over New Orleans earlier this season.

GARVEN GETTING IT DONE DOWN LOW

- » Senior Danielle Garven has seen her role in the Pitt rotation grow over the last couple weeks and her impact has helped the Panthers win seven of their last 12.
- » Last time out, Garven played a team-high 30 minutes and added seven points, four rebounds and two assists in the loss to Syracuse.
- » Garven has started 14 straight games for Pitt and has scored in double figures in six of those games and in eight games overall this season.

- » Across her last 13 games, Garven is averaging 10.3 points, 4.2 rebounds and 2.1 assists while shooting 73.7% from the charity stripe.

TURNING THEM OVER

- » The Panthers defense prides itself on turning the ball over and they have done a great job of doing that so far this season.
- » Pitt is forcing an average of 15.9 turnovers/game this season overall but they have turned up the pressure through the first four ACC games as they are forcing an average of 16.3 turnovers/game.
- » As a team, the Panthers are averaging 8.1 steals/game which ranks eighth in the ACC. Pitt has six players with double figure steal numbers so far this season led by Kauai Bradley who has notched 35 and Jasmine Whitney who has recorded 31 thefts so far this season.
- » Last time out, Pitt forced 13 Syracuse turnovers as they have now forced 10+ turnovers in 11 straight games and in 16 games overall this season.
- » On the year, Pitt has three games with at least 15 steals including a season-high 18 thefts in the win over New Orleans.

PAINT SUCCESS = TEAM SUCCESS

- » Controlling the paint has proved to be a pivotal task for the Panthers this season and when they do so they usually win.
- » On the year, Pitt owns a 9-2 record when they score the same or more points inside the paint than their opponent. The Panthers are 0-7 this year when they lose the scoring in the paint category.
- » As a team, Pitt averages 24.2 points/game in the paint while their opponents are averaging the same number, 24.2 points/game.
- » Last time out, the Panthers were out-scored 30-10 inside the paint and they were defeated by #12 Syracuse.
- » The Panthers have posted two games this season of 40+ points in the paint, both victories, and fives games with 30+ paint points.

SHOOTING FOR THE STARS

- » One of the keys to success so far this season for the Panthers has been shooting the ball at a higher percentage than their opponents.
- » Pitt is 8-0 this season when shooting a higher percentage from the floor than their opponent and 1-9 when not doing so.
- » Last time out, #12 Syracuse out-shot the Panthers 43.9% to 31.0% from the floor.
- » The Panthers have shot 45% or higher from the floor in five games this season, all victories. Earlier this season Pitt shot a season-best 58.7% in the win over Tennessee State.
- » Pitt has posted an unblemished 8-0 record this season when they score at least 60 points. In the eight games that Pitt has scored 60+ points, they are shooting 46.3% from the floor.

BENCH EARNING VALUABLE PLAYING TIME

- » The Panthers bench has been depleted this season due to some major injuries to important members of their rotation (Bugg, Gribble, Rodriguez) but they have continued to gain minutes and confidence for Pitt.
- » On average, the Panthers bench is netting 16.2 points/game while also scoring a season-best 47 points in the win over New Orleans earlier this season.
- » Last time out, freshman Jahsyn Knight notched a career-high 25 minutes of action as her energy on both ends of the court sparked the Panthers. She has now recorded 12 games with 10+ minutes played off the Pitt bench on the year.
- » Sophomore Kyla Nelson once again led the bench in scoring in the loss to Syracuse as she netted six points and two rebounds in 21 minutes of work.
- » Kalista Walters made an impact in 14 minutes against #12 Syracuse as she finished with two points, two rebounds, three steals and a block. She had three straight steals during a second quarter run for Pitt.

>> NOTES

COMEBACK KIDS TIMES THREE

- » The Panthers struggled offensively in each of their final three non-conference games but were able to gut-out three wins in those contests after trailing by at least nine points in each.
- » Pitt overcame 9+ point deficits in three straight games for the first time since joining the ACC in 2013-14.
- » The 13-point comeback over UNCW earlier this season marked the Panthers biggest second half comeback since Dec. 31, 2011 when they trailed by 15 against Lafayette and came back to win.
- » Overall it is the largest comeback win since Jan. 30, 2014 when the Panthers trailed Boston College by 14 in the first half before earning the win.
- » Each of the Panthers last four wins have come after trailing by at least nine points in the second half.

BUGG OUT INDEFINITELY

- » As announced by head coach Lance White, the Panthers leading scorer Aysia Bugg will be out indefinitely due to blood clots.
- » Bugg was pacing the Pitt offense through the first five games of the season before being diagnosed with the blood clots. The redshirt senior was averaging a team-high 29.6 minutes, 14.0 points, 3.4 assists and 2.4 rebounds while starting all five games at point and netting 20+ points two times.

PANTHERS ADD TEXAS TECH TRANSFER

- » On Jan. 4, head coach Lance White announced the addition of Texas Tech transfer center Marcella Lamark dos Santos to the team for the 2019-20 campaign.
- » Lamark dos Santos will be eligible for the second semester of the 2019-20 campaign after not appearing in a game at Texas Tech during the first semester of this season.
- » The Brazil native was a highly recruited transfer from the junior college ranks as she played two seasons at the College of Central Florida where she started all 23 games as a sophomore and averaged 13.1 points, 9.1 rebounds and 2.0 blocks while connecting on 47.1% of her field goal attempts.

WHITE ANNOUNCES #FIRSTCLASS

- » First-year head coach Lance White announced his first signing class on Nov. 20 when he revealed the names of five student-athletes that will be joining the Panthers for the 2019-20 campaign.
- » Amber Brown comes to Pitt from Monroe, Louisiana where she was named First Team All-District after averaging 28.0 points, 6.0 assists, 3.0 steals and 2.0

blocks during her junior campaign. She is a strong perimeter player who will be a great defender and has a strong pull up jumper.

- » Cynthia Ezeja comes to the Panthers from Athens, Greece where she was a starter for the Greek National U18 team. She is a two-time national champion in U16 and a one-time national champion at the U18 level. Ezeja has limitless athleticism which will help her become dominant inside the paint and exploding to the basket.
- » Dayshanelle Harris comes to Pitt from Youngstown, Ohio where she was an AP First Team Division II All-State performer in 2018. She averaged 25.6 points and 6.0 assists while also tying a school record with 51 points in a game during the first round of playoffs as a freshman. Harris is an attacking guard who has great ability around the basket.
- » Emy Hayford comes to the Panthers from Maastricht, Netherlands where she played for her national team. She was named MVP of the Luxemburg International Invitational for National Teams in 2017. Hayford has incredible basketball IQ and outstanding athletic ability.
- » Rita Igboke comes to Pitt from Jonesboro, Georgia where she averaged 8.2 points and 8.0 rebounds last season. She is also ranked 34th amongst all forwards in the class of 2019. Igboke can run the floor and will add a strong defensive presence inside the paint.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Sue Semrau, Florida State head women's basketball coach (1997-present)

- "Lance has played an integral part in building our program to this point. He is not only a great teacher, but also a strong connector. Pittsburgh is getting a tremendous person who cares deeply about his own family in addition to his basketball family. It has been 15 amazing years coaching with Lance, and we wish him nothing but the best."

Stan Wilcox, Florida State Director of Athletics (2013-present)

- "Lance has played an integral part in building our program to this point. He is not only a great teacher, but also a strong connector. Pittsburgh is getting a tremendous person who cares deeply about his own family in addition to his basketball family. It has been 15 amazing years coaching with Lance, and we wish him nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech head women's basketball coach (1982-2006)

- "I think this is a win-win for the University of Pittsburgh and also for Lance. I think he is going to bring an incredible amount of energy and a great work ethic to his job every single day. He is a person who connects people and makes them feel like they're a part of his programs. I'm so excited for him and his family for this opportunity. I told him that he had been preparing his entire career for this day and how excited I am for him that it's here and what a great job I know he's going to do. I have great confidence in him."

Lance White was introduced as the ninth head coach of Pitt women's basketball in program history on Thursday, April 19, 2018.

White comes to Pitt after spending the past 15 years at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 350-145 (.707) record, including 12 seasons with 20 or more wins.

During his final season at Florida State (2017-18), the Seminoles posted 25 or more wins for the fourth consecutive season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record and averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was just the second time FSU averaged 80 or more points per game in a season. The team ranked in the Top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (20th), offensive rebounds per game (16th), rebound margin (sixth), rebounds per game (11th), scoring margin (10th) and scoring offense (13th). The Seminoles led the ACC in rebounding offense (42.8), rebounding margin (+10.0) and offensive rebounding percentage (41.4 percent).

During his time at FSU, 10 players were selected in the WNBA Draft, eight earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and 37 earned all-conference awards. He helped the Florida State reach the NCAA Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years, while the team won at least one NCAA Tournament game in its past 15 appearances.

For his standout coaching efforts during the 2016-17 season, White was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year.

During his time in Tallahassee, White helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program. He directed the Seminole defense and offense during his tenure in addition to being one of the country's top recruiters.

Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC co-titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. After serving as assistant coach for the first nine seasons in Tallahassee, White was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2012-13 campaign.

Prior to Florida State, White spent 11 seasons at Texas Tech, including five years as an assistant coach with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp. With White on staff, Texas Tech won three Big 12 championships and advanced to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 national championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach in 1998.

While in Lubbock, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen, including National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA MVP Sheryl Swoopes as well as Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a master's degree in sports administration in August 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January 1993.

As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

He is married to the former Melanie Smith. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.
